Boots & Shoes

Are indispensable at any time, but more so in the cold and wet weather. A person well shod looks comfortable and feels as he looks.

Where to buy? Is the question. Well, our advice is to buy from a firm who have a good name and a reputation at stake. There are plenty of them and among the foremost are the J. D. King Co., who have been in business over a quarter of a century. It's a long time, but the goods manufactured by them have given such good satisfaction that they did the business and consequently are still doing it.

When you Buy Come to Grant's. He keeps the King Shoes as well as some other makes and sells them just as cheap as a poorer quality. The best is the cheapest and is none too good for you.

A Secret Ballot

The form below is an approximation to the form of the ballot used in Dominion Elections. It is perfectly secret and can't be traced once it goes into the box. A cross anywhere in the white space is reckoned good so that would seem impossible to spoil it except by deliberate intention, as for instance, voting for both candidates. The voter below is supposed to have marked his ballot for Miller, a marking that will be popular on November 3rd.

1 CHAS. MCKINNON
Of the Town of Durham, Agent.

2 H. H. MILLER X
Of the Village of Hanover, Estate Agent

WELBECK.

Well Mr Editor it being a long time since we have seen any news in your valuable paper from our burg please allow a little space.

The fine weather of last week, was taken advantage of by our farmers taking up roots, picking apples and patching up old buildings to keep old Jack frost out.

The trustees of our school have been renovating the old school by tar paper and shingles on the sides and ends and a new shingle roof, the contractor being Messrs Horshurgh and M Campbell. They have made a first class job.

Our school teacher, Miss Reynolds, is re-engaged for another year at a salary of $300.

Mr H Alexander's two horses that were reported beyond recovery are on the mend.

Mr Wm Lake has been repairing his house the last week by tar paper and shingles. Mr Lake had one his ribs broken by falling against a pile of posts about three weeks ago but resumes work to-day, Tuesday.

Miss Clara Hill is, we hear, on the sick list. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Messrs Dan McDonald and George Montgomery are busy cutting and skidding logs for Mr Thos Potter.

A number from the burg attended the Reform meeting in Dornoch last Friday night and heard Mr H H Miller, the Reform Candidate, making one of his famous speeches. Mr Miller seemed in excellent spirits and made an excellent speech and seemed to carry the crowd with him. One thing most in his favor he never criticized or said one word against his opponent. So if we pile up 60 or 70 of a majority for Miller in this ward, don't you laugh.

Mr A McKinnon was at the burg canvassing for his brother and said that during the hard years his brother Chas had furnished hay and straw to the farmers and lots of money he had not got vet. Well, by us sending him to Ottawa went pay for the hay and another thing we may have another hard winter and if we send Mr McKinnon away why we will be hayless and strawless. So we will have to keep Mr McKinnon home—that will be doing two good things at once. Send a good man to Ottawa and keep a good man home.

HOPEVILLE.

Dr Sneath had a sudden call to come here to attend Mrs And Watson who took sick with a number of complicated complaints but is now recovering.

A Fowl Supper was held Monday evening the 24th inst in the Methodist Church 10th con and well attended. The chair was well filled by the minister, the Rev Mr Rosch. The Rev Mr Matheson of Priceville assisted with a good address and music of the best was plentiful. The church was well filled and $60 was realized including a collection on Sunday. A social was held on the Wednesday following and fairly well attended.

Mr A H Burnett got notice of the death of his sister, Mrs E Carlett at Burlington, near Hamilton last week. He left to attend the funeral accompanied by his daughter Mrs Noble of Dundalk. They arrived home Saturday last.

Mr Wm J Gleister came home from Toronto on Saturday last where he put in a faithful month's work at brick-laying in the city.

The Hopeville church has to be now supplied on Sundays by parties from Toronto.

Mr CW Hartman the Reform candidate was here on Saturday evening and held a business meeting with his friends.

Mr Wm Dezell purchased a gasoline engine last winter but found it would not do the work it was warranted to do. They brought it to Dundalk last Saturday and had two expert engineers come there to examine it. They are expecting to have a lawsuit over it if the company does not take it back.

PRICEVILLE

It is some time since we were heard from in this place. We are all here yet, trying to make the necessary preparations to meet the demands of an approaching winter, as we have had a foretaste of it in a mild form already by having an inch or two of snow last week, fine days with cold frosty nights. Very few tarps are taken up yet, consequently we are looking for fine weather for that purpose for a week or two.

Threshing is about wound up, this week will make a finish of it.

The woods indicate an early winter as they are all stripped of their summer garment and has a barren appearance. We saw a flock of wild geese, (There might be some ganders too) soaring high towards the south one evening lately showing that the north pole was getting too cold for them already.

This is the busy week of the season as it commands the attention of all classes of the people to be prepared to decide on Thursday next who they are to cast their ballot for. So we will await patiently to hear the results.

Some have considerable ploughing done while others have none.

Halloween to-night, Monday, the small boys and big ones too, will probably be amusing themselves with some tricks of some kind, &c.

Our town merchants are preparing to meet the demands of an approaching winter by laying in a good stock of goods.

A McLeod is busy with his chopper

Miss Bella McKinnon (Hugh's) is spending a while in Toronto this fall.

Misses Kate and Minnie McIntyre, S Line, left for Toronto lately where they intend to remain for some time.

John McIntyre is back again from Bruce and makes his home with Norman McIntyre, S Line.

John McArthur of Town is away again attending to his duties, &c.

Revds. Matheson and Rosch exchanged pulpits Sunday before last.

The McLachlin boys, Durham Road, Glenelg, have taken a large contract hauling lumber and wood for Mr Orchard, Egremont.

Neil McCannell finished his barn last week. Arch McCuaig is busy getting the roof on his fine brick house.

Angus McEachern of Cleveland, who spent a month at home on the South line, returns again this week.

There was a large party at Mr McDonald's, (Callum Og's) south line one evening last week.

George Simpson of Vancouver, spent a few days at the old home here a few weeks ago.

Mrs Fyfo, who spent a month with friends returned again to her home at Woodbridge.

VICKERS.

Mr and Mrs Vickers and Master Roy were visiting the former's sister, Mrs French of Port Huron.

Mr and Mrs D Donnelly are now comfortably settled in their new brick dwelling.

Mr and Mrs Wm Livingston visited friends in Louise recently.

A very successful entertainment in aid of the Sunday School was held here on October 18. Rev Mr Masson acted as chairman in a very able manner. Selections were well rendered by the Durham choir and male quartette. The parts taken by the school showed no little effort on the part of the supt. and officers.

Anniversary Thanksgiving services were held here on Sunday last at 2:30 and 7:30. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Rev Mr Masson gave two able addresses relating to the day and its purpose.

BLYTHER'S CORNERS.

We think this incoming week a splendid opportunity of slipping into our place of duty again, as no doubt, Mr Ed, you will be so disappointed at the result of the elections on the eve of November 3rd that you will never notice your humble scribe crawling in through the back way after so long an absence.

Mr Jno Marshall, who was operated on three weeks ago for appendicitis, has made a very rapid recovery and is anxiously awaiting the authority of Dr Meikle, Mr Forest, the attending physician, to get on his feet, which will be nearly a week yet.

The unfavorable weather the past week has hindered the farmers greatly in getting their root crop harvested but the appearance of the weather at present is such as to lead us to say that the incoming week will see most of the roots garnered in, the same being a good average crop in this section.

Mr Jas Marks, our genial and obliging merchant and postmaster, has added much to the comfort of his up-to-date store by having a new coal stove placed therein.

Born to Mr and Mrs John Bradley, Jr, a son, in the early part of October. Congratulations.

The annual Sunday School entertainment in Knox Church, Normanby was held Tuesday evening 25th, and was a grand success financially and in fact, every way, the crowd being supposed to be largest ever assembled on an occasion of that kind. The chair was occupied by Mr David Leitn, the S. S. Supt., to the satisfaction to all present.

The choir under the leadership of the reliable major-general Jas. Watson, excelled all records and rendered good selections during the evening and 'whisper' (Mr Ed), we understand it is to be a permanent thing; we mean the 'choir' which we think is a progressive step. The recitations by the children were good without exception and the singing by the Junior choir so sweet that Knox Church has no need to fear a shortage of supply in keeping up their good record as a choir. Rev Mr Masson, Varney, gave a short address on 'little things' and while not brilliant, it was nevertheless helpful. Rev Mr Campbell made a few remarks on
