east from his presence. PRACTICAL SURVEY. In this lesson, God, by the mouth of His prophet, pronounces a woe on the inhabitants of Ephraim, probably including the ten tribes. The capital city, Samaria, is referred to as the "Crown of Pride," and the "glorious beauty which is on the head of the fat valley." 1. Of this city God said: "It is a fading flower." 2. God not only accuses the men of Ephraim of being drunkards, but compares them to a company of men indulging in strong drink and revelry. 3. Characters of this kind always come dulgence. The fertile valley made the pride of Samaria possible. The luxurant vines, with their wealth of grapes, placed a special temptation before the bring destruction, but intemperance
