

The Secret of the Medicine Man.

The American Indians were the first to use the medicinal plants, herbs, roots, berries, and leaves of the forest for their relief of pain, and it is interesting to know that the same plants are used today in our hospitals and clinics.

"VIROQUA" Indian Remedy

has been reserved since its introduction to civilization. It has cured thousands of sufferers from indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, liver and kidney troubles, rheumatism, and other ailments. Made just as the Indians made it, but put up more conveniently in capsule form.

Fall Cleaning the Orchard.

Much can be said in favor of an annual fall orchard cleaning, although many of our fruit-growers are indifferent to this matter. Aside from the fact that there is more leisure after the harvest has been gathered than in the rush of our early spring when so many odds and ends must be attended to, there are many urgent and convincing reasons why our orchards should be very carefully cleaned of rubbish and litter during late fall and early winter.

People often wonder how it happens that certain insects appear in such alarming numbers during the summer. A few careful observations during the fall and winter will show how these insects pass the cold period of the year. The egg masses of the tent caterpillars will be found encircling the smaller branches. If these branches of eggs be removed whenever seen, much serious injury will be averted the following spring.

There is also a necessity for a thorough cleaning up of the orchard for the purpose of destroying many of the fungi which remain on the ground in diseased leaves and fruit. It is a well-known fact that many injurious fungi produce winter spores and though the leaves decay, the spores do not. In early spring these will produce spores which will soon spread to the early leaves. The diseased fruit, plants and leaves, should be burned, not thrown on the manure pile, for then the spores will be able to survive the winter, and reproduce the disease the following season. Moreover, many fungi persist in the leaves as delicate threads, which develop rapidly in the spring and produce spores which are soon blown by the wind to the leaves where they germinate and produce disease.

MacFarlane & Co. Druggists & Booksellers.

them all. We join their many friends in congratulations.

Mr Donald Graham, jr., from B. C. was a welcome caller on friends in the burg last week. Dennis looks well and reports the many joys of this neighborhood whom he frequently met in the west well, and doing well.

Mrs Johnston of Port Haron, (nee Katie McDonald) formerly of our burg, returned to her home last week after a two weeks' visit with friends in and around Scotchtown.

The party or parties who broke Mr Duncan McArthur's windows and tore his buggy to pieces on Halloween night had better come and settle for the same and save trouble as they are certainly known.

Dr Jim Beaton from Bruce is in our burg at present and is treating several patients. We wish him success. Messrs A McMillan and Dan McInnis are still jobbing in Saneon Valley.

Mr Wm Beaton and sister Miss Jenny have returned from Spring Bank and had good company on Sunday.

Mr Thos. Dinnie spent a few days at the parental home election time and was looking well. Mr John McDonald of the Centre had the misfortune to fall from a scaffold in his barn one day last week breaking several ribs. He is suffering very much & we hope he will soon be himself again.

Mr C Dixon and sister from Glenelg visited their cousins, the Dinnie family, over Sunday. A few from here attended Mr A Firth's entertainment last Wednesday and report a good time.

Miss May Martin of the 6th spent a few days with friends here last week and D wishes she would come often.

THE CHRISTMAS DELINEATOR.

The December Delineator, with its message of good cheer and helpfulness, will be welcomed in every home. The fashion pages are unusually attractive, illustrating and describing the very latest modes in a way to make their construction and wearing a pleasure instead of a task, and the literary and pictorial features are of rare excellence. A selection of love songs from the Wagner operas, rendered into English by Richard De Gallienne and beautifully illustrated in colors by J C Leyendecker, occupies a prominent place and a chapter in the Composers' series relating the romance of Wagner and Cosima, is an interesting supplement to the lyrics. A very clever paper entitled "The Court Circles of the Republic," describes some unique phrases of Washington social life from an unnamed contributor, who is said to write from the inner circles of society. There are short stories from the pen of F Hopkinson Smith, Robert Grant, Alice Brown, Mary Stewart Cutting and Elmore Elliot Peake, and such interesting writers as Julia Magruder, L Frank Baum, and Grace McDowd Cooke hold the attention of the children. Many Christmas suggestions are given in needlework and the Cookery pages are redolent of the Christmas feast. In addition, there are regular departments of the magazine, with many special articles on topics relating to women's interest within and without the home.
