The Unknown Bridegroom.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Now

Have

struc-

outer tracted

httle harm.

again

a ten-

troops within guns

to the storm

Nov. 5

en and

com-

to-day

y Gen.

stically

His es-d been

Cross.

d im-

ds 66

of an panese

Killed

Moun-

whom thur, is and 6

n were a shell

chuang demol-

be sta-

The

hes on m. Six le Jap-. were ie best ar topcontry.

to ad-

evident distant stances

raverse

ranks

panese

pinces.

printed

before

n kill-creatly

m sub-

Port d that to the n Hill.

there

Bur-

graph

ended

taken

rans-nghai.

(881an

Bues

open-OSTES

v iba mious.

with riotte

Cole-

In half an hour the carriage halted at the door of Mr. Sidney's residence. Conducting his protege into a charming little reception-room, the gentleman drew a comfortable chair before the grate, in which there was a cheerful fire, then excused himself, fort a few minutes, while he went to

He was absent nearly half an hour. when he returned with a matron a little younger than himself, and whom he introduced to Monica as Mrs. Skiney.

Sie gave her a gentle welcome and continued to talk on in an easy, pleasant vein, not giving Monica an opportunity to say much, until lunch was announced, when they all repaired to the dining-room, where the young girl was formally installed in the clace at table which was henceforth to be hers, and it was soon knows, throughout the house, that the master had brought home a beautiful young lady, Miss Foster, to whom he had been appointed guard-

That very afternoon Mrs. Sidney, at the suggestion of her husband, took Monica ou: to a first-class furnishing establishment on Regent handsome outfit.

The fair girl demurred sensitively against this lavish expanditure; but lutely necessary, in order to enable! salutation. per to sustain her character as Mr. Sidney's ward, and, before evening, grew suddenly pale and putting spars two large trunks, marked "H. F.," were delivered at his residence and taken to "M ss Foster's" rooms.

change for Monica. She felt like "a bird released from the spare of the fowler," and she recuperated very quickly, both men- before." the lawyer drew from her the his- ten by them both.

Monica knew very little about them. | ward, Florence Richardson.

Mr. Sidney told her that he would hand and heart.

that very evening he would write the the young man explained. only friend upon whom she could de- I certainly acted the part of best They had arrived from Paul , only It is necessary to regularly examine grow. Tand the persecuted girl thus lost the Leighton?"

followed this sad event?

would soon follow her husband. But Monica Low had an opportunity with proposals of marriage?"

to prove her gratitude for the un-the weather should become too warm for comfort, and the heartbtroken woman consented to go if Monica would accompany her, So to Italy they went, about the with her crown of smoke by day and "I know he does, and that he has he had told his daughter, had been that about fifty thousand yards of rock sible man of learning can doubt, that This would be the precise number of fig. the beautiful bay of the same name of flame by night, towering above the certificate, regularly signed by them, and the blue waters of the the clergyman, by which he per- work therein was in full blast, and gravel were loosened up ready for at-Mare Tyrrhenum spread out before hars hopes he may be able to claim large quantities of precious ore tack by steam shovel. The shot cost est we know of them they were a clean-figure of the multiplier were always a uary, she saddenly made up her mind that she would go to Rome for a change, and remain there until after the carnival. ciety and shut up alone with a griev- | Florence looked mystified as she only keep his place, too, and has the weight and the trouble seemed to be un- Just look at the busts of the Romans. she would bury her selfish sorrow observed; which she had visited many times, did not recognize you this mornand around which clustered so much | ing." of interest, both mythological and historical.

Accordingly, a few days later found them pleasantly located on the Pincian Hill, from which point they could | ing this morning, and just after easily reach many points of interest | and where also they had a fine view t of St. Peter's and certain other important sections of the city.

One afternoon, while Monica and the maid were returning from a visit to the Colosseum, they passed a couple of gentlemen, on horseback, just after emerging from the triumphal arch of Titus, and Monica was both startled and puzzled when one of them doffed his hat and bowed very low to her, his face all aglow with pleasure, his eyes gleaming with street, where she insisted upon pro- admiration, while he involuntarily viding her with a complete and drew his bridle as if he wished to stop and speak with her.

She flushed vividly, as she lifted a look of innocent surprise to his face, she was assured that it was abso- without, of course, returning his

He, in turn, colored hotly, then in his horse, rode after his companion. "That was very strange, Susan!" Monica observed to the maid beside This, of course, was a blessed her. "I wonder who he can be!" "Did you not know him, Miss Helen?" questioned the girl. "No; I am suro I never saw him sidney, who were both earnestly knew very well, or he'd never have bowed first," the maid observed; and box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writting their protege, found her a box of the carriage, he made his crevices, the nests, roosts and other fixcharm ag addition to their household. with this view of the matter the tory of ter family, making careful! That same evening a noted Amerinotes upon points which he regarded can artist gave a reception in his as important. But he could not ob- handsome apartments in the Via lotel, "so M ss Inez King has ar- proved by adding to every gallon of the tain a very clear idea pertaining to Listina, and among the many who rived. It'll be in a deuce of a mud- wash one-quarter pound of soft soap. Mr. King's business affairs and Carl were bidden were our old friends, Mr. | dle, for she will doubtless expect previously dissolved in boiling water; | Barbers are seriously considering the

She told him, however, that she left sure that August Castaldi, who summer and autumn traveling with Gad! she never was so pretty as she inside fittings put in. These fittings one after another of their customers had been her father's confidential clerk, would be able to give him all the information be desired; while the the information he desired; while the The only drawback to Florence's the'll come to terms without any easily removable so that the vermin tache or his beard removed, looked at principal of the seminary in Los An- pleasure had been the fact that Mr. | fuss-she certainly our find no fault can be destroyed. geles, where she had received her edu- Me rill had, from the moment of their with the position I am now able to eation, would be able to identify her leaving England, attached himself to offer her, and, if I am not misas William King's daughter and heir- her, showing her marked attention, taken, old Seaver is not nearly as insect pewder or sulphur. By dusting duce himself to old friends. ess, for she had two photographs of that had resulted in his making love much inclined to give me the cold each fowl over a box or paper, the powhorself, taken at different times. to her, and, later, the offer of his shoulder as he was a year ago." der can be well rubbed among the quills area of humanity has largely increased, of Baby's Own Tablets in the house.

obstacles that cannot be removed," lew moments, then block again:

the said when she rejected him—"a certain ceremony for instance. I was that girl was whom I met this mornary that gir wanted her to jut all care and worry obstacles that cannot be removed," asak and have just as good a time he said when she rejected him-"a So, for a month, Monica lived in one of the witnesses, you know."

long promised letters, if she would Florence flashed a quick, searching ever" help him. But, alas for Monica !- alas look into his face. Then, after a moher beds.de, and was so helpful, so tain ceremony performed in Rose- as above. gentle and lovable, that Mrs. Sidney | dale Chapel. But-that was no marmonths, but finally began to rally ever came to make such a blunder and addressing her as Monica. understand. I suppose the excitement, the storm, the gloom and delay, all combined to throw us off where the excitethe girl whom he adored, although the resemblance was so strangely mixture of equal parts of sulphur and mixture and mixtu with commands to remain there until have been I cannot understand. So you perceive I have offered you no insult." "Put Walter Leighton claims me as his wife-he says there was no stranger present-that he himself thither.

to that fact, Mr. Merrill ?" quesned Florence, eagerly. darling, I would swear to any-

"Thank you, Mr. Merrill; I may some day," said the girl, with a glad! A week atter Mr. King's arrival in ring in her tones. "And you will then become my

But Florence had turned abruptly and walked swiftly away, and he found himself talking to empty

CHAPTER XIX.

We were obliged to digress little, at the close of the last chapter, and must now return to the reception of the American artist previously refferred to-a brilliant in her presence. affair in the Via Listina.

Florence Richardson, radiant in ale pink satin and white embroided chiffon, had just been presented to her host and hostess, and was turning away on the arm of her guardian when she suddenly found herself face to face with her oldtime lover, Sir Walter Leighton, although, as yet, she had not learned of his accession to title and fortune. For an instant she was stricken dumb with dismay, but had opportunity to recover herself somewhat, while Mr. and Mrs. Seaver, glad to meet a home face, even though they had not favored him as a suitor for the hand of their ward, greeted him cordially. Then the young man turned, with

It was a great pity, she thought, reproach in his tones, "but I hope well enough," she added, with less as well and this caused severe headaches, and as fast as the Spaniards with their for a young and beautiful girl, like you are not going to give me the venom, "as a secretary; I rather which further aggravated my unfortun- marvelous Toledo blades. Civilized men Monica, to be ostracised from all so- | cold shoulder again this evening." | like to have him around, if he will ate position. I grew pale, fell away in shaved because they loved to be clean. ing woman; and she resolved that shook hands with him. Then she manners of a gentleman; but as a dermining my whole constitution. I The noble old fellows had close-cropped in her own heart and exert herself | "I am sure I do not understand to show her about the Eternal City, what you mean by saying that I

> Sir Walter studied her face critically for a moment. 'Have you no recollection of A Common Cause of Loss-Premeeting two horsemen while driv-us?" he inquired.

ing at all to-day." your double," her companion smil- and mites. ingly asserted, though not yet Groups of Parasietes-Only the spewholly convinced, "for I could almost cies of flea, the bird flea, lives upon the take my oath that I saw, you rid- fowl. This flea is provided with a ing with another person whom I sharp piercing mouth; it attacks the took to be your maid." "It certainly was not I," the young stant irritation and loss of blood does girl rea firm d with a positiveness much harm. not to be questioned. ception hugely, and when they sharp and used for piercing, but simwere ready to take their leave, Sir ply for biting. Lice bite sharply and Walter accompanied them to their cause considerable pain.

just left.

"Great heavens-Monica!" Lattle by little, as he had leisure, incident was, for the time, forgot- they were driven away, and Sir Wal- the walls and ceilings covered with

ing. I could have taken my oath the inside of which is coated with a mix- of their customers have recently raised the Tablets contain no opiate or harma charmed atmosphere, growing "You-a witness!" gasped the fair that she was Floy; the eyes, hair, ture of coal tar and coal oil of the con- beards. a charmed atmosphere, growing happy, rosy, and loveller than ever, girl losing all her bril iant color, but happy, rosy, and loveller than ever, girl losing all her bril iant color, but happy, rosy, and loveller than ever, girl losing all her bril iant color, but features and form were identical, sistency of paint, and the top of the bar-happy, rosy, and loveller than ever, girl losing all her bril iant color, but features and form were identical, sistency of paint, and the top of the bar-happy, rosy, and loveller than ever, girl losing all her bril iant color, but features and find them apparently, though possibly if they rel is covered. The lice are overcome their mustaches grow again, but the used Baby's Own Tablets and find them told her that he was not going to "Yes, I had the honor of escorting be very busy for a few days, and you to and from Rosedale chapel," able to distinguish between them; bottom of the barrel A paper should be to distinguish between them; bottom of the barrel A paper should be to distinguish between them; bottom of the barrel A paper should be to distinguish between them; whole nearted man was brought to musing air, although she literally point of entering their carriage roosts should be removed and treated by roosts and roosts are removed and roosts and roosts and roosts are removed and roosts and roosts and roosts are removed and roosts are removed and roosts and roosts are removed and roosts are r whole-hearted man was brought to musing air, although she interant point of entering their carriage roosts should be removed and treated by responsible for the clean-shaven face, mail post paid. dend! A stroke of paralysis had ended "Thea you were one of those who King, Mrs. Clairemont, her chap-Is career, instantly and painlessly, witnessed my marriage to Walter peron, and her private secretary, and the nests frequently cleansed and the other view, and are advising patients Augustine Castaldi.

ton's wife, how dared you insult me and thus she was very late getting chick's head with grease or sweet oil to fear the coming of the fashion of beardjust a glimes of Florence as she been added.

August, at o, had seen the girl, clung to her as if she had been her riake, Miss Richardson; that mum- and for a mement it had required the mery was simply said over you and exercise of all his will power to She was very ill for more than two a total stranger; though how we keep him from rushing to her side slowly, although it was evident to as to take him for Walt, I cannot But a second lock betrayed, to the everyone that she would never be understand. I suppose the excite- keen eyes of love, that the was not anything but the wreck of her former ment, the storm, the gloom and de- the girl whom he adored, although > daughter in Pari , with as little de- Yours very truly, lay as possible, and before the man reached home he was on his way possible, and, about the middle of Jan- 'And you would be willing to swear tions, trying to ascertain how the a success in every sense.

secret was discovered, and who was now the owner of the claim

"Indeed, I would to win you, my Whoever he or they were, it was evident a large fortune would ere long be the result of the fortunate investment.

h mal b fo a In z who received him wife " tenderly exclaimed her com- very gracously, declaring that his coming was a great relief to her, as the responsibility o' money matters was such an annoyance to her.

He had improved greatly, she thought, since she last saw him; he had grown handsomer, and had acquired a dignity and refinement of manner that made him very attractive. He was very courfully attentive to all the needs and Treatment for Indigestion. wishes, but unusaully reserved when | The tonic treatment is based on the

The first time she spoke of Monica's food for the stomach really weaken its ico they had circulated the report organs can never do their work proper- ten, as he never had read his writing that she had died in London—the ly until they are strong enough to do it had to object to the idea of flint being young man grew ghastly white, and for themselves. The only thing that used in shaving. A newly honed razer, he Inex could see that a nervous can give the stomach and the liver new said, was bad enough, but the idea of trembling had seized him. He made strength is good blood-and the only flint was preposterous. some almost inarticulate reply, then, thing that can actually make new blood "There you are misinformed," polite-

(To be continued.)

vention and Extermination.

you passed through the Arch of Tit- | The presence of parasites is one of the primary causes of unprofitableness and "No, I have not," she gravely re- disease in a flock of poultry, says the turned, "for I was not out driv- Poultry Division, Ottawa. There are three distinct groups of parasites prey-

"Then, surely, it must have been ing upon the domestic fowl-fleas, lice, altogether, and those who see me now The barber changed the topic of con-I fowl at night and through causing con-

The mouth of the louse differs from They all app and to enjoy the re- the mouth of the flea in that it is not carriage, attending Florence with The most injurious of the mites is the As they were crossing the sidewalk to the carriage they almost to dark red in color, according to the ran into some people who were quantity of blood it contains. The blood about to enter the hour they had is drawn from the fowls at night, and during the day the mite hides in the The next lustant a low, startled cracks and crevices of the house. When

"Hum!" he mused, as he turned liquid, so as to enter every crevice in Eloquent Barber Raises Protest Against Cleveland left the White House. latter should be applied hot and fairly and wa ked slowly toward his own the building. Its quality will be im-man during that coremony," Theo- the day previous, and had through young chicks for head lice. If present, The barbers are fully aware that men ens should be well washed with a small massage, hair cut, and shampoo : ian it would take you a quarter of a

D. A. CEEMONS. Publication Clerk.

to their sad and aching hearts.

Here Mrs. Sidney improved far more rapidly than any one had believed possible, and, about the middle of Jan-

A NEW IDEA.

Tonic Treatment for indigestion—New Strength for the Stomach from New, Red Bich Blood.

The Tonic Treatment-that is the latest and only scientific cure for indigestion. All the leading doctors of Europe and, America are using it honor. with sensational success. No more pur- "Of course, you remember in rem gatives, no more pepsin, no more pat-ent foods, no more long diet lists saying: "Thou shalt not eat this or that." No more of all this-nothing, in fact, diers of Greece, believing them uncleas. but plenty of new, pure, rich red blood to tone the liver and give the stomach strength for its work. This is the Tonic new idea that drugs which digest the 'death"-for in their letters to Mex- powers through disuse. The digestive what Herodotus was said to have writexcusing himself, hastily left the is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They have long been known as the

The heartless girl burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world
The heartless girl burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world
The heartless girl burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world
The heartless girl burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world
The heartless girl burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world
The heartless girl burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world
The heartless girl burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world
The heartless girl burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-building tonic in the world burst into a greatest blood-burst into a gr absolute rest, but this was out of the and beards. question as I had to work for my liv- "The Spartans were clean shaven long ing. Fortunately for me one of my before the Athenians woke to their friends advised me to use Dr. William's glory, when they, too, wore no beards. Pink Pills and I decided to do so. After Alcibinades, to gain the good will of the taking the pills for several weeks there | Spartans when he was with them, had to was a decided improvement in my condi- remove his beard. Dirty, self-satisfied tion. Not only was my digestion bet- old Diogenes made coarse jokes about ter, but my general health improved in the men who were clean shaven in his every way. New blood seemed to be time and did not find a man among them. coursing through my veins, bringing new in the light of his lantern whom he con-unwell day in my life. I owe my splen- of his place of business, as a man with did health to these pills, and strongly a beautifully white gray beard entered advise every dyspeptie or weak person to have his hair trimmed and his shoes to lose no time in taking them." Mr. Rochette's statement is a strong resumed his oration with a question. tribute to the Touic Treatment. Dr. "Aren't nine-tenths of the cranks bear-Williams' Pink Pills cured him because ers of germ nest beards? They carry they actually made new rich blood for their banners on their faces proclaimhim. These pills go right down to the ing them Populists or Anarchists, or root of the trouble in the blood and cure some other sort of ists. In the old counthat. The new blood they make carries try for centuries the Saxons were beards healing health and strength to every just out of spite to the Normans, who part of the body. That is the new shaved. They and their descendants had Tonic Treatmnt, and the highest medi- sworn never to shave until the Norcal authorities now recommend this mans were gone. Ivanhoe would never treatment for al the common ailments have been disowned if he had not shaved.

such as anaemia, headaches, backaches, Sir Walter Scott tells that his greatrheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, nervous- grandfather took an oath not to shave ness, dyspepsia and general weakness. until the Stuarts were restored to the exclamation burst upon Sir Walter's the chickens appear in poor health they These are all caused by bad blood and throne." his tody learing—and the words: are found treatment should be resorted pint Pills. You can get therefore are all cured by Dr. Williams' If the customer happens to be a Reany medicine dealer or by mail at. 50c crats who look like wild men because ter was left standing on the pave- heavy building paper and limewash. The BEWARE OF THE COMING BEARD. shaving early in November an old gen-a Threatened Evil.

(New York Times.) King's connection with them, for and Mrs. Seaver, and their beautiful me to dance attendance upon her, also a small quantity of salt. The ma- question whether the present custom of while I really must devote the most, terial taken from the house should be men of being clean shaven has not alhimself a little foolishly in the glass af- are young children, and the failure told her that he was not going to "Yes, I had the honor of estorting to the bottom of the barrel. A paper should be trade, Of course that you to and from Rosedale chapel," able to distinguish between them; bottom of the barrel. A paper should is to be dreaded by the trade, Of course is fied without a box in the house at all be bottom of the barrel, be placed to catch the very evening he would write the the young man explained. The people who had passed the The poultry house requires clearing the the daily shave, with the daily tip. these Tablets in stock send 25 cents to The poultry house requires cleaning The worst of it, according to the bar- The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brock-

Who shall describe the week that dore Addison Merrill-usually called some friends, also received invita- the lice will be found in the down or the are as subject to fashions as women, at roulette with a came and were allowed the soule for short-avasively returned the soulette with a came and were allowed the soulette with Ted, for short-evasively returned, tions to the American artist's re- feathers on the chiek's head. If not and that if the beard comes in vogue lowed to leave all his winnings on the by the crushing and unexpected blow, white lips, but flashing eyes, "if you But Miss King had had callers dur- that it will die from loss of blood. The A well-known barber in a fashionable and, for a while, it seemed as if she would soon follow her husband.

A well-known barber in a fashionable him a million and a half dollars, or, to he would soon follow her husband.

A well-known barber in a fashionable him a million and a half dollars, or, to he would be shield soon follow her husband. to the reception. She had caught which a few dorps of carbolic acid have wearing, with the result that he has the result of winning thirty-five for one changed the timely topics of his con- five times hand running. To give an-She devoted herself, tirelessly, to he stricken woman, scarcely leaving observed. "I said I witnessed a certhe stricken woman, scarcely leaving observed. 'I said I witnessed a cerof the legs and feet become raised and to the wearing of beards, taking as his multiply 225 by itself, and so on until separated, and a chalk-like excretion actext the rarely disputed hypothesis that fifteen products have been multiplied by cumulates between and over them, rough lumpy crusts are formed, and under were given to clean shaving. This is these the mites live and breed. the way he tells when he has a custom- to be a difficult problem, but even The diseased leg and feet of the chick- er with time enough for a shave, facial though you were a clever mathematicter physician ordered her to Italy, with commands to remain there wall all—though what his object could grant may not be affected parts. Afgarding August may not be amiss ter three or four days the legs of the sequent, on civilization Benfley-you If three figures were allowed to an here. He had received Carl King's chickens that were treated should be know, of course, that he was a very em- inch the answer would be more than 1,despatch, ordering him to join his cleansed with soap and warm water. inent physiologist—claimed that the 070 feet long. To perform the operation Sanskrit-speaking Aryans were superior would require about five hunderd milto the Europeans because the former lion figures. If they can be made at the shaved and the latter did not. He based rate of one a minute, a person working his theory on the word kshura, the Greek for ten hours a day for three hundered name for the razor. Of course there and days in a year would be twenty-eight just as the English judge wears a wig. The proof of this is that the wigs and rds have been found attached to nummies and they were made of hors

"No man in Egypt could wear this strange badge of honor until he he came a father. It is also true that the ucens wore false beards on state comsions. They denoted authority the works of that remarkable historia Herodotus, that he tells how none of the Not even the women would kiss them. Maybe this was not so much because the beard, but the smell of garlic. All the Greeks and Italians I know est garlic. Razors of bronze and flint has be

The customer, who did not dispute scornful laugh-as the door closed and all the highest medical authorities itte was excavating at Abydos he noagree that the one scientific cure for in- ticed that the head of one of his cerv-"Ha, I thought as much," she digestion is the Tonic Treatment. The ants was inflamed, and on enquiry learncried with curling lips; "the young marvellous success of the treatment has ed that the man had just had it shaved upstart dared to love my pretty been proved in every corner of the Do- with a flint. This had been the custom blonds cousin-possibly he might | minion. One of the very latest wit- of his people in his youth and he refused even have presumed to try to marry nesses is Mr. Joseph Rochette, St. Jer- to change it. You see here was a surher, and thus secure her millions. ome, Que., who says: "I simply hated vival of the ancient way of being clean a smile and extended hand to Flor- That would have been rich for you the thought of food. Of course I had and free from hair on the face or head. -you pretentious young beggar; to force myself to eat, but afterwards I "Now, when Cortes was in Mexico he "You did not recognize me this but you had better not try the always suffered with dull, heavy pains was astonished to find that the natives morning," he said, with a note of same game in this quarter. He is in the stomach. I seemed to be bilious shaved with a piece of obsidian as well | possible husband-bah." | tried several remedies, but without suc- hair and clean faces. As they degenercess; a doctor whom I consulted, advised ated they began to war long curly locks health and strength every day. I took sidered honest. They were too clean eight boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for him." would never know that I had seen an versation to the canary, an essential part polished. On the next opportunity he

At least one barber is trying to stop the coming of the wearing of beards. The others are alarmed and some are following his example.

A MOTHER'S PRECAUTION.

There is no telling when a medicine may be needed in homes where there He walked on thought ully for a of the feathers, and the excess will not caturally cutting into the profits, as it This medicine acts promptly and speedsoon write to them; meantime, he "Ah!-perhaps you think there are few moments, then broke forth be wasted. The coal tar treatment for takes a little longer to shave each cusful drug. One wise mother, Mrs. Geo.

Stupendous Roulette.

Do you know that if one should begin

The spent some weeks in Naples, occupying a lovely villa overlooking the beautiful bay of the same name where, with orange, lemon and olive groves all around them. Very all around them. Very all around them. them, they lived a peaceful, quiet, you, but I know he did not stand them, they lived a peaceful, quiet, with you, and he is aware that a to their and and achieve head achieve head and achieve head and achieve head and achieve head achieve