"BEAUTIFUL WEATHER."—This has been the prevailing form of salutation for weeks past, and at time of writing it continues. Surely we have really had "Indian Summer" but we can still stand a little more of it.

NOTICE.—Only $1.00 for the REVIEW and fine 4-color cover Holiday Number till Jan. 1, 1906. Subscribe now and get the benefit of this year free. We have a few of our last year's Annuals left. If any one has been omitted we will send them one.

HOUSES TO LET.—Two houses in a desirable part of the town, corner of Garafraza and Durham Roads. One contains 8 rooms, first-class furnace and bath room. The other contains 6 rooms Electric Light fixtures in both. Rents moderate. Apply to Wm. Black.

APPENDICITIS.—Friday last Mr. Alfred Noble was taken to Toronto to undergo an operation for appendicitis, from which for some weeks he had been suffering. Dr. Macdonald accompanied him. He was progressing nicely up to Monday, and we hope will soon be out of danger.

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.—This was held on Monday last and was well attended. Messrs. Miscampbell and Lucas were the chief speakers and, as was expected, Dr. Jamieson was the choice. As we were not present and no report has been sent us we are unable to give an idea of the proceedings, though of course in things political one can imagine a good deal. It must be left so in the meantime.

A RARE EVENING.—Friday night last Dromore choir and a few friends drove out to Durham and with a few neighbors and Durham friends spent very pleasant evening with Dr. and Mrs. Hutton. Seldom did the wretched hours fly faster as music, games and gramophone selections followed each other into the "to-morrow." All left for home testifying to the abounding hospitality of their hosts, and they were favored with an evening of rare beauty and mildness for mid-November.

At Mockler's—$1.00 Corsets, Straight Front, Bias Gored for 50 cts.

ANOTHER GREAT CONCERT.—The Sons of Scotland Society here, remembering their experience last winter, are taking time by the forelock and have arranged for a first class concert on Thursday Dec. 8. The talent consists of the well-known and talented Harold Jarvis, of Detroit. Miss Marietta La Dell Toronto, Miss Dunlop, Hamilton, a clever contralto Scotch vocalist, and also an accompanist. The high class talent being expensive, the committee have placed the admission to all parts of the Hall for 50c. There will thus be no crowding. Plan at MacFarlane's Drug Store and first come first served in the choice of seats. Plan will be opened on Saturday, 20th inst. at 2 p. m.

Mrs. NEWTON'S RECITAL.—Owing to Mr. Vansickle's meetings being postponed Mrs. Newton has decided to have her half yearly "Organ Recital" this Thursday, in the Baptist Church at 8 o'clock. Dr. Brown, of Holstein, will be the vocalist. A choice Programme of Pipe Organ selections will be rendered. The celebrated "Pilgrim's Song of Hope," "The Idylle," "At Evening" by Dudley Buck. ## IN MEMORIAM.

Rev. A. G. Jansen.
Painfully startling to Durhamites was the notice in last Thursday's Globe, that Rev. Mr. Jansen had died the day before in Winnipeg. Suddenly taken from heart failure for he had lectured the night previous. The notice states that he had not been well of late, but no word of that had reached here. He was, we fancy, as he would have wished, practically in the business, for he was of the kind who would rather wear out than rust out, and though it matters not where his ashes lie, we think it would have been his wish, had it occurred to him, to be buried in Durham, where 8 of the best years of his life were spent. Certainly many here would have valued the mournful satisfaction of having near them this reminder of the active, earnest life that is gone.

He had just lately moved to Winnipeg from Greta, to take a post-graduate course in Manitoba College, and from the halls of the College of the church of his choice, his remains were borne on Friday to their last resting place followed by Professors, students and friends.
Mr. Jansen was born in Holland nearly 60 years ago and early in life fixed on God's work as his choice. In young manhood he engaged in Mission work in London, England, and as his command of English increased he moved to Canada and studied in and graduated from Knox College. For a few years he was appointed to Mission work in Muskoka and Manitoulin and in 1890 received his first call from Durham congregation.
His sincere and earnest ministry of 8 years is still fresh in the memory; the lingual lapses, the quaint expressions, appear now as endearing links, and are long remembered in the remembrance of a great body of useful work. His ministrations were not all confined to pastoral work proper, for, not having the cares of a home, he used his means freely to aid the poor and the needy, and this without letting his right hand know what his left hand doeth. The writer was one to whom he entrusted money to procure necessities for families in distress and widows and orphans received gifts from a source they never knew. He acquired some fame as a lecturer, but his invariable practice here was to turn the proceeds after paying expenses, to some benevolent purpose, either to the Missions of his church or to aid the work among the lepers, which work in him has lost a friend.
On Sunday the draped pulpit and choir rail, was a silent visible expression of congregational appreciation and the service throughout was of an impressive character. Rev. Mr. Farquharson spoke from Rev. 14: 13 "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." Mr. Farquharson felt there was a word to be said and that he was the one to say it, and very appropriately he dealt with the pregnant text in its relation to the deceased. He dwelt at length on points in his character worthy of admiration, instancing especially his sincerity.
The choir had also special music and the anthem especially was most sympathetically rendered. Mr. Drysdale's solo "Only remembered for What we have done" is always appreciated but never before did it seem so touching as in the setting of this occasion.
The whole service did justice to memory of the former pastor and to the feelings of his old parishoners.
A few words may tell of his career subsequent to his stay in Durham. He spent a few years in Hamilton, went to the North West near Edmonton in a pioneer district, came south to Sisseton and thence to Greta, M. n., and from there to Winnipeg.
The only relative it is supposed he has, is a sister, married, in Rotterdam, Holland.

Farmers' Manufacturing and Supply Company, Limited.

Capital—$100,000.00.
Stock—5,000 Shares of $20 each.

This company is being organized for the purpose of carrying on business as manufacturer, agent and general dealer in machinery devoting its attention to trade and business among the farmers of the Province of Ontario.

The chief objects of the Company will be the purchase and taking out of a going concern of the entire assets, franchises, liabilities, business and good-will of the well known Durham Manufacturing Company, Limited, which, during the past year or more, has carried on a very successful business in the manufacture and sale of the Cream Separator. This Separator has had a very large sale and is recognized as the best article of its kind on the market to-day, in either United States or Canada.

The Charter of the new Company will enable the Directors to very much increase the scope of the old company's operations and it is expected that the new company will be in a position to supply practically everything required by its shareholders who will be its chief customers.

The most prominent feature in the new Company's business methods will be the supplying of its goods to its shareholders at a very small advance on the wholesale price. Customers who are not Stockholders will be charged the ordinary market price for goods and from this source alone considerable profit should result to the Shareholders.

The shares of the Company have been placed at $20.00 with a view of having them distributed as widely as possible and in this way secure from the beginning a very large volume of trade. The holdings of each shareholder will be limited to five shares or a total of $100.00 and a majority vote of all the Shareholders larger holdings are thought to be desired in the interests of the Company.

It is expected that the company will be able to save to its Shareholders and customers a very large percentage of the usual retail price by eliminating the profits usually added by the middleman for the purpose of covering large commissions to agents.

The Company will have a considerable advantage over the ordinary merchant in being able to purchase in large quantities direct from the manufacturer and in the cheapest markets for cash all of which should further materially enhance the value of the Company's shares.

The present intention of the Directors is to build a new foundry and considerably increase the whole manufacturing plant and premises being purchased from the Durham Manufacturing Company, Limited.

It would be impossible to enumerate in detail all the goods to be sold by the Company, but the following list will be sufficient to indicate the large class of articles to be supplied at reduced prices to the Shareholders, namely:—Ox-dred Cream-Separators, Agricultural Implements, Wind-Mills, Pumps and Tanks, Vehicles, Harness, Sewing-Machines, Furnaces, Stoves, Household Goods and Utensils of all kinds, Wire-fencing, rope, twine, Bicycles, Organs, Pianos, etc.

A very simple calculation will show that a small percentage of saving on the average farm and home would soon equal a very handsome dividend on the Shares of Stock held in the Company. The Company will also distribute its net profits in the usual way as dividends to its Shareholders.

A very favorable arrangement has been made under which the Company will immediately secure ware-rooms and early subscribers for shares will be able in the meantime to secure from this source a considerable part of their goods at reduced prices.
Estimated Profits.
The Company have carefully estimated that they can do a business of over $100,000.00 per year, which should easily yield a net profit of $15,000.

The conservative estimate should yield a shareholder a dividend of 15 per cent on his investment.
This return together with the savings on purchases should make this stock very valuable and it will no doubt in a

GUILD SOCIAL.—What promises to be one of the most unique and interesting socials yet given by the Presbyterian Church Guild will be held in the basement of the church next Monday evening. Every body is welcome to attend and spend a pleasant social evening. Admission only 10 cents to one of the best treats you have had or will have this year.

THE METHODIST ANNIVERSARY.—The Anniversary services of the Methodist Church were held last Sunday when the pastor preached fine sermons to full congregations. Miss Elda Flett, Winthrop, a graduate of the Conservatory of Music sang twice at the evening service. She is possessed of a fine full sweet voice which she knows how to control to give excellent expression to the words sung. A subscription was taken amounting to $240 which goes toward removing the debt for the new shed recently erected in place of the one which collapsed last winter. On Monday evening a concert and Junior League rally was held in which Miss Flett again delighted the audience with several selections. Members of the Junior League also sang in choruses, duets and solos. About $25 was realized so that about the total expense of the shed was reached.

BENTINCK REFORM ASSOCIATION.
