SOUTH GREY CONVENTION.

As will be seen by advertisement on 1st page a Convention of the Liberals of South Grey will be held on Thursday of next week to nominate a candidate to contest the riding at the next Provincial elections as its chief business. As it is also the annual meeting there should be a large attendance. Mr. A. G. McKay, M. P. P., of North Grey and H. H. Miller, M. P., of Hanover will be the chief speakers, and the abilities of these two gentlemen are now so well known that their presence is another reason why Reformers from all parts of the riding should be present. Who shall be the victor or the victim of Dr. Jamieson in his third contest for the Legislature is not known to this writer, but there is an old saying about the third time being successful.-(The third time's the charm)-and it may be possible that the Liberals may select a man who will lead them to victory and they are the more likely to do so at the present time, from having tasted the sweets of victory so lately. Whoever the candidate may be he has no peon to be afraid of. The doctor is a valiant opponent, skilled in political warfare, but that he is invincible is by no means assured.

BOGUS BALLOT BOXES.

Time to return to open Voting. A Tremendous Sensation has been caused by the discovery that a number of bogus ballot boxes, manufactured at Watertown, N York State, had been imported before the recent Dominion elections to be used at various points in the interest, it is alleged, of Liberal candidates. The government has stepped in and made some arrests and all lovers of fair dealing will hope that speedy and stern justice will overtake the culprits. Much as voting by ballot has been lauded-and it has many good features-it seems to have given rise to most incredible and villainous ingenuity to defeat the will of the people. So much is this the case that a demand will surely arise for a return to open voting for the honest voter will not consent that his vote, the most important act of citizenship shall be rendered nugatory that some may be saved from intimidation. The evils of intimidation are evils that are known and evils that public opinion may work upon, but it would seem no public opinion can influence some of the rascally element in politics who fling honesty and integrity to the winds and do for the sake of party and self what they would scorn to do in private life. We can only hope again that the exposure will be thorough, and the punishment adequate no matter on whom it falls.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A pleasing event in the shape of a surprise party took place at the home of Mr. Hughie and Miss Annie McPherson, near Cayton, on Monday evening, Nov. 14th, when a large number of their friends assembled and pleasantly surprised them by the presentation of a magnificent clock and a handsome silver fruit dish. These were presented by Mr. Alfred Chislett and Miss Katie McLeod respectively while the address was read by Miss Aggie McPhail after which a pleasant evening was spent in social chat, music and games. Refreshments were served by attentive waiters and a very pleasant evening was spent by all. Mr. and Miss McPherson who were greatly surprised replied feelingly to the following address and thanked their friends for their very highly appreciated tokens of esteem. The following is the address:- Mr. and Miss McPherson. Dear Friends-

With feelings of sincerest regret we your many friends have learned of your decision to leave the old home where you have spent many happy. In view of your departure we have assembled here this evening to spend a few pleasant hours with you and to wish you every success in your new home. You have scattered the seeds of courtesy and kindness about us and your genial countenances and abundant hospitality will be greatly missed, but we are pleased to know that this removal will not prevent a continuation of our social intercourse nor sever the pleasant relationship we have enjoyed in the past and we feel that we cannot allow you to leave this neighborhood without giving you some little memento of your sojourn in our midst. We ask you therefore to accept the accompanying presents as a token of deepest regard and trust that you may long be spared to use them. With best wishes for your future welfare. Signed in behalf your many friends. M FERGUSON, S. A. MUIR, A. CHISLETT
