MYMENEAL

One of these happy events that set a community a-glow with pleasurable testings took place at the home of Mr and Mrs Donald McDonald, Bruce St., on Wednesday 16th inst., when their youngest daughter, Clara was united in marriage to Mr Samuel McAllister, machinist in the Cream Separator Works.

A few minutes after 12 the happy couple walked into the parlor and took Mr Farquharson, the bridesmaid being Miss McAllister, sister of the groom, while Malcolm, a brother of the bride, was groomsman. The solemn yows were soon taken and they were declared man and wife, and hearty congratulations and good wishes followed from the assembled friends.

The bride looked handsome and winflaked cloth while the bridesmaid was attractively attired in blue.

Congratulations over the guests repaired to the dining-room where a by Mrs McDonald and her daughter Mrs Alexander. The wedding cake was a beautiful 3-storey one, bandsomely decorated and was the handiwork of the bride and her sister. Ample justice having been done to the good things provided, the company retired to the parlor and spent a couple of pleasant hours, speeches being given by Rev Mr Farquharson and Malcolm McDonald.

The wedding party walked the few steps to the station to see the happy couple off on the 3 p. m train for Palmerston, Seaforth and other points. As HE & SELLS & CHEAP they passed the Cream Separator works' his fellow workmen expressed good wishes by a happy salute, blowing the whistle, rapping on windows, &c. Amid showers of rice and good wishes the happy young couple were soon off on tuer honeymoon trip.

On Wednesday, Nov 16th, 1904, in Markdale, at 10.90 o'clock by the Rey Father Walters, Miss Mary, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs John W Wildaughter of Mr and Mrs John W Wilson, of 10th concession, Glenelg. was united to the man of her choice, Mr Archibald McMillen, of Scotch Town. The bride was assisted by her sister Miss Annie, while Mr Ranald McMillen, brother of the groom, from Toronto, ably filled the position of groomsman. After the ceremony the company all droye to the parental home of the droye to the parental home of the bride where many more awaited them, and partook of a richly, well prepared dinner and did ample justice to the wedding cake which was hard to equal. The afternoon passed quickly in merry chat, song and politics. Laurier, Ross, also H H Miller stood well to the front and were highly recommended on their good works by the proprietor, Mr Wilson, Father Walters, Messrs, Picket, McMillen, M Black and several others.

Wilson was to well posted for him as he had been supplied with as many as seven Globes a day during the recent campaign, but we think probably he meant seyen a week. It being now sunset father Walters and several of the elder folks had retired to their respective homes the merriment commenced in earnest. Dancing was nept going till morning. Mr and Mrs Mike Hinrick and R McMillan, all from Toronto were present, a host of the Markdale folks and several from Sullivan Tp., in all there was a big hundred. Mr and Mis Wilson and family are worthy of special mention for their kindness to all present.

The bride wore a gown of whits spun silk and carried a boquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was attired in a likewhat manner, while the groom and brother looked full of grace and cheer. The bride received many handsome and useful presents. Mr and Mrs McMillan are now settled in their home in Scotch Town and we join their many friends in bearty congratulations.
