Since our last writing the grim reaper, Death, has been in our midst and claimed as its victim an old and much respected resident in the person of Mr Jas. McCracken. After a lingering illness of over two months he passed peacefully away last Saturday, Dec. 11, at half past one, at the age of 61 years. Mr McCracken was a native of Ireland and in politics a staunch Conservative and religion a Presbyterian. He leaves to mourn his departure, a wife, three daughters and fwo sons, and also two brothers, Mr Robt. McCracken of Aberdeen, and Samuel of Durham. The remains were laid to rest last Monday in the English Church cemetery, followed by a large number of friends and neighbors. The Rev. Mr Aitchison of Dornoch, preached a very appropriate sermon at house and grave in the absence ct Rev Mr Farquharson. The pall-bearers were al. Orangemen, Thos. McFadden, reeve, Wm. Ritchie, Bentinck, John and James Staples, Robt. Allan, and Wm. Ritchie, Edge Hill. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved widow and family in their great hour f trouble, as their son and brother, Jas., is also bedfast for the last month
