JAPS CAPTURE IMPORTANT

Togo's Fleet Again Torpedo the Sevastopol With Disastrous Results.

With the Exception of the Siberians, the Russian by lightning. During a running race at whether her long cherished desire Troops Have No Hatred of the Japs.

Japanese Soldiers Commit Suicide Rather Than Surrender to the Russians.

stances would either go down fighting, ] surrounded and burned. Numbers of the officer hauled two Japanese prisoners

out of a blazing hat, but one slipped back

JAPS MAKE GAINS.

and Capture Two Positions.

from a height on the Peninsula, west of Housanyentao, which we occupied, capturing one small gun. After the Japanese occupation of the positions the enmediately repulsed. At present our oc-

The Czar's Reply.

St. Petersburg cable: On the mar

commenication published in the Official Messenger, to-day, appended a note

"I consider the action of the Presi

no concern to the Zemstvos, whose func-

LIGHTNING HAS ODD WAYS.

f escaped unharmed.

But She Escaped.

storms, with all of the States of the Missouri and Mississippi valleys follow-self suffered no injury of any import-quietly awaiting their doom.

graph it is reported there that the flank-Arthur, has asked for 60,000 reinforcethe north.

was done and there were many casual- | themselves. A Russian under the circum- | jured at all.

The unnamed height that was cap- leaving his enemies to do the killing, or tured by the Japanese at the same time else surrender if he thought there was as they captured the Kikwanshan fort nothing to be gained by holding out. In is called Taotishan. It is crowned by the capture of Poutilieff (Lone Tree) a newly constructed Russian fort. After | Hill, especially there were a number of the Japanese had captured it the Rus- such cases. When the Japanese battesians bombarded the position, but the ries were captured one officer shot him-Japanese guns on 203-Metre Hill pro- self across his gun. Another drew his lided with a freight near Tamarac 100 tected it, and the Russian fire slackened. sword and fenced at the empty air until Since then there has been desultory fire.

The value of Kikwanshan fort present is less than 203-Metre Hill, because it is more or less commanded and were burned to death. A Russian Winnipeg, were injured. from the neighboring hills, especially one 130 yards to the westward, which must be sapped. It is estimated that the and perished in the flames. Japanese of-Japanese losses in taking Kikwanshan licers were found in the huts after the ber of coaches and cars were smashed. fort were only 400.

THIRTEEN GUNS CAPTURED.

Japanese Trophies in the Keekwanshan Fort Battle.

Washington despatch: The following cablegram, dated Tokio, Dec. 21, has been received at the Japanese Legaphies at the battle of the north fort of right column of the army at 5 o'clock held to fix the blame. The crew of the Tunkeekwanshan were four quick-firers, this morning taking advantage of the freight saw the impending danger in whereof two are unable, four machine enemy's excitement drove the enemy off time to escape. guns, all usable, and five field guns, an eminence north of Housanyentao on which are under examination, besides | Pigeon Bay, and occupied the position, rifles, shells, ammunition, grenades, and at 7 o'clock dislodged the enemy

Steamer Runs Blockade at Port emy made a counter attack, but was im-

CARRIED DYNAMITE.

A London cable: A despatch to the cupation of the positions is practically Daily Telegraph from Chefoo says that the steamer Lady Mitchell, flying the British flag and having a Norwegian crew, reached Port Arthur from Tsingtao last Saturday night. She carried a the Zemstvo of the Government of Chercargo of ammunition and dynamite, and nigov, regarding reforms in state mattook advantage of a snowstorm to run | ters, Emperor Nicholas, according to a the Japanese blockade of the port.

BOATS STILL SEAWORTHY.

Entire Port Arthur Squadron Not Yet dent to be presumptuous and tactless.

St, Petersburg cable: While elining to give details, the Admira'ty the law." admits that Rusian advices from Port Arthur sent by Gen. Stoessel substanin the harbor and the censor has been instructed to permit the publication of the number of torpedo-boat destroyers are vears all of the best authenticated acstill seaworthy, but that they are not at the Admiralty here as being incorrect and circulated gor a purpose.

SEVASTOPOL TORPEDOED.

Vessel Listed to the Right and Now Fast on the Shallow Shore and Useless ...

Headquarters of the Third Japanese ing close behind. An army officer riding Army, before Port Arthur, via Fa-on, Kan., in August, 1899, was shocked three cable: During the morning of Dec. 19 times by bolts striking near him. He the Russian turret ship Sevastopel was saw nine huge trees riven by separate mediately listed ten degrees to the right, remaining fast on the shallow I ance. shore at the foot of Liaotai mountain. The vessel is considered absolutely useless for further offensive operations.

The Japanese bombardment of the Russian gunboats and torpedo erafe in the each case. A young man in Central Illiharbor continues.

Cruisers Off Singapore.

Two Japanese auxiliary cruisers body, while the young man was only districts is abolished are patrolling off this port. mildly shocked. Mukden, Nov. ... - Apparently there is A farmer was kissing his wife good-by assistant purchasing agent for the Grand Bittle personal animosity toward the Jap- | before starting for the county fair, when | Trunk Pacific Railway, and will assume onese among the European Russians. The he was struck dead by a bolt of light- his new duties next week. Russian reservist goes out to fight sime ning. The woman's hair was consumed ply because the Emperor wills it, and by the same, but she was otherwise untakes little interest in the political rea- injurred. Three drunken farm hands recons involved in the struggle. Also, he turning from a dance, all arm in arm, in New York, Dec. 26.—After a tempes. dered the prosecutor. has much of the philosophy attributed to eastern Negraska, were overtaken by an tuous voyage, in which she was struck In detail he held up her character to try life. To deprive children of daily con-Tommy Atkins, "What's the use of 'ating electrical storm on the read. The man by a tidal wave, the Red Star Line the jury and asked if a woman like her tact with the soil is a sin. Tommy Atkins, "What's the use of ating electrical storm on the read. The man by a tidal wave, the Red Star Line the jury and asked if a woman like her those you are paid to kill?" but with the in the middle was killed by a bolt. His steamship Kroonland arrived here to- was able to have any love other than realized until it passed from the slums, be- addresses and resolutions adopted by the Siberians it is different. The war is two companions were knocked senseless, day from Antwerp. When the tidal that of the beast lives. It is perhaps not so desperate a mis-Siberians it is different. The war is two companions were knocked senseless, day from Antwerp. When the but quickly recovered. They found them- wave struck the ship, one of her pas- woman called to the man and the beast lives. It is perhaps not so desperate a mis- wave struck the ship, one of her pas- woman called to the man and the beast fortune to those who live by manual labor, here last month. Prince Svaitopolk-

by a bolt. Of two parrots in one cage one was killed and the other permanently blinded, besides being rendered deaf the winning horse was struck dead in-

A London cable: According to the other hand, have shown a decided par- porch for the sake of the coolness there- tragic ending, laid bare before a jury Chefoo correspondent of the Daily Tele-graph it is reported there that the flankthe Siberians, who thought the Japanese self was only mildly shocked. A chicken- from them which will mean life or death this recital, Miss Patterson covered her ing fire from other forts and the ex- were getting the best of it" at the hands hawk was struck dead while just in the to her. That she was supremely confid- face with her gloved hands. Mr. Rand plosion of Russian mines have forced the of the nurses. Most of the Japanese act of swooping upon a flock of hens on Japanese to evacuate Itseshan fort, to wounded have, therefore, been placed in an Iowa farm. None of the hens was the hospitals with Russian soldiers. The hurt.

Finlanders, almost alone of the Euro- A locomotive engineer was struck dead serious losses. It is stated that General peans, take interest in the politics of the while seated in his cab making a short Nogi, the Japanese commander at Port fight, but they make none the worse sol- freight run in Colorado, his fireman not even being shocked. A dozen girls in an One of the most inexplicable things to Ohio seminary were shocked by a bolt ments. Many have already arrived from the Russian soldier is the habit of the of lightning while seated in the parlor. Japanese to commit suicide when con- The same bolt killed one of the teachers Concurrently with the blowing up of fronted with defeat. There are so many at the other end of the building. A Ten-Kikwanshan fort a Russian shell struck eyewitnesses' reports of this nature that nessee farmer was feeding his hogs, the fort on 203-Metre Hill, exploding a it is impossible to discredit them all. Jap- standing in the middle of the pen, when store of shells and grenades the Japan- anese officers especially seem to make a he was hit by a bolt of lightning and ese had gathered there. Great damage practice of saving their last cartridge for instantly killed. The hogs were not in-engaged in plowing a 160 acre plot in South Dakota were killed by lightning tens, playing in a back yard in Inde-

One of them was killed, the other two being only slightly singed. The shop of a bird fancier in this city was struck horses, most of which were close up at I pendence, Mo., were struck by ligh

KILLED IN COLLISION.

Bad Railway Wreck West of Fort Wil- fore adjournament to-night, and to

Fort William, Dec .26 .- A train empty passenger coaches westbound colmiles west of here. Conductor Patrick he was shot. During the same fight two | Savage, in charge of the passenger train, villages occupied by the Japanese were was killed; and his engineer, Sheridan, Fireman Reid and Mr. Southwick, of Sud-Japanese remained quietly in the huts bury Union Bank, a clerk, en route to

The wreck, which occurred at 3.45 m., was a bad one, both locomotives being almost entirely demolished. A numfight bursed to death or suffocated sit-Fire added horror to the scene, consumting in chairs, as though they had been ing two passenger cars, and in the debris the body of Sheridan was found The engine of the freight had "died" on the train owing to a defective throttle, and Conductor Bell walked to Bonheur Take Advantage of Russia's Excitement for assistance. A flagman was sent ahead to warn the approaching passenger train, but Engineer Sheridan for A Tokio cable: A despatch received some unknown reason failed to see him by telegraph to-day from the Japanese and crashed into the standing freight at "Port Arthur army reports our tro- army before Port Arthur, says: "The full speed. An investigation will be

----SHOT THE WIDOW

Because She Would Not Accept His Attentions.

Newfane, N. Y., Dec. 26.—Fred Jones, Goodrich, a widow, he then turned ! the revolver upon himself and fired a gin of a telegram from the President of but surgons say he cannot recover. Jones was a suitor for Mrs. Good-rich's hand, and the shooting was the: result of her refusal to accept his attentions. Jones is twenty-eight years old, and Mrs. Goodrich was fifty-four, and M Davis did not deliver his charge to the mother of several children.

Questions of state administration are of tions and rights are clearly defined by the Peace at noon and made a complaint, spent listening to the arguments of counclaiming that he had threatened to kill sel her and set her buildings on fire. A | Abraham Levy, chief counsel for the ity of proceeding in the direction of fur- Admiral Kazaknoff, as senior in rank

STREET RAILWAY ASSOCIATION.

Mutual Improvement. counts coming under his eyes of the ing fight between Admiral Toga's ships pranks of lightning throughout the Railway Association was formed at a meet- of the jurors, Mr. Levy read the eighth this, the conference will adjourn to meet and the Russian second Pacific squadron, world. One of the facts to be deducted ing held in the Windsor Hotel this morning chapter of the Gospel of St. John. He again at a later date before reporting If the fortress is relieved to the great mass of stories about to the constitution, "the object of this asso- "he that is without sin among you let separate committees. that most of the ships will be raised and the electricity of the heavens is that ciation shall be the acquisition of experi- him cast the first stone," and then he lightning cannot be dodged or avoided. mental, statistical and scientific knowledge, said to the jurors: "Will you say to The reports that a Japanese squadron There are many accounts of lightning relating to the construction, equipment and her who sits before you here, in the of 40 vessels had already sailed to meet striking and killing timid women who operation of street railways, and the diffu- words of Him who spoke at that time, One of the Saddest Phenomena of Modthe second Pacific squadron is regarded had taken refuge under beds and in sion of this knowledge among the members 'Woman, go and sin no more?' closets. In most of these cases it is of this association, with the view of increasand the encouragement of cordial and friend- | ing to condemn this young woman? The State of Kansas seems to have the ly relations between the roads and the pubpalm for the fierceness of its electrical lie."

GRAND TRUNK CHANGES

from Leavenworth to Fort Lavenworth, Mr. Gullen's Appointment-Duties Trainmasters Increased.

torpedoed by the Japanese fleet and im- bolts. His horse died later from the of the G. T. R. has been appointed aselectrical shocks, while the officer him- sistant superintendent at London in succesion to Mr. J. W. Wiggins, who retired their home." to accept service with another company. There are stories of three women, one Mr. H. F. Coyle, train master at Bellein Kansas, one in Arkansas and the other ville, will hereafter have charge of all in Missouri, having been struck dead by matters pertaining to transportation lightning while carrying infants in their in the sixth and seventh districts. The arms, the young ones escaping unhurt in jurisdiction of Mr. L. G. Coleman, train master in the fourth district, is extendnois was fooling with a mastiff dog dured over the fifth district, with office ing the progress of an electrical storm. in this city. As a consequence of these The dog was struck dead by a bolt, nearchanges the office of assistant superin-Singapore, Straits Settlements , Dec. ly all of the hair being burned from its tendent of the fifth, sixth and seventh

Mr. Fred W. White has been appointed

Swept by Tidal Wave.

Closing Arguments of Counsel To-day and Then the Case Goes to the Jury.

round up an escaped tiger in a Missouri New York despatch: Before another | fenders who are capable of preparing to town, when the tiger was struck dead day Nan Patterson probably will know | testimony which they know to be false. spend the Christmas holidays with her invalid mother in Washington, will be J. Morgan Smith and his wife were stantly after having won the race by a realized, or whether she will be doomed denounced by the lawyer. head at the wire. None of the other to return to her cell a convicted murderess. After more than six months of could not have shot himself. The skelwaiting she has seen the whole story eton which already had appeared durcountry dance, having a seat on the of her life with Caeser Young, with its ing the trial was brought forward and ent of the outscome there seemed no doubt, as was apparent from her own words: "I feel sure that the jury lieves my story," she said, "and matter what Mr. Rand says in regard innocence. I know, of course, that such things are awfully unvertain, but I feel that I will be acquited within brief time after the jury adjourns to deliberate." To-day there remained only the closing scenes in the trial. The last word of testimony was heard at yesterday's short afternoon session, and when the court adjourned it was agreed that the closing arguments of counsel would be made to-day. Justice Davis had expressed a wish to give the case finally into the hands of the jury bethat end agreement was made to confine the closing arguments to six hours. Half of that time was assigned to Abraham Levy, leading counsel for Miss-Patterson, to sum up the case for the was to be used by assistant district at- Patterson packed up all her belongings, demand, it was stated the Boers would torney Rand in marshaling the chain of | including the many little knick-knacks | be unable to co-operate at their own free circumstances forged by the prosecu- which had accumulated there during her will with the administration. The Lieution. With the charge of Justice Davis long occupancy. Grips and suit cases tenant-Governor, Sir H. Goold-Adams, instructing the jurors upon the various locked and ready for removal stood by will be asked to forward the resolutions points of law, which have arisen during the door as she started on what she to the King. the long trial, the case will be complete. It will then be for the jurors them-

> The appearance of the court room when Justice Davis took his seat on the bench to-day was in marked contrast to that of yesterday and the day before. Not more than half the seats were occupied to-day. Mr. Unger, of counsel for Problem Squarely Faced at the Joint for the defence, renewed his motion for Justice Davis to order the acquittal of Miss Patterson without further proof the prosecution had failed to sustain ference. The sessions continue to-day, January 9. The opening session was the charge that Miss Patterson pursued when, it is expected, some definite re- held in a suite of sumptuous salons of a clerk in Pettit's grocery store at Char- and threatened to separate Young from sults will follow and be made known. the D'Orsay palace (foreign office). Adlotteville, this afternoon shot and killed his wife. All the evidence offered to Constable Wm. Gray and Mrs. Abbie prove that just the contrary was true, discussion was continued, and a good the commission, in behalf of Foreign and unfailing admiration.

He argued that the whole case of the bullet into his brain. He is still alive, prosecution was constructed of the most flimsy material and that this, if nothing more, should raise a doubt in the minds of the jurors.

ANew York despatch: Judge Vernon So persistent had Jones become that the former actress, last night, but sent Mrs. Goodrich went before a Justice of the jurymen home to rest after a day

Washington which he anticipated. timent of the churches Montreal, Dec. 26.-The Canadian Street Placing a Bible on the railing in front | It is not improbable that, having done

"With the happiness of your own shown that the persons who have re- ing the accommodation of passengers, im- home before you and with joy of Christ- A home is a tract of ground, big or little, mained in the rooms seeking safety have proving the service and reducing its cost, mas festival in anticipation are you goshe sits there abandoned by all except dren of the family may disport themselves, though it is declared, he never had been that old man, her aged father. I leave where the illusions of childhood may transbeen been been been that you form woodpiles into great ships, clotheslines should be a mad dog. He became ill last her in your hands, confident that you into telegraphs, beanpoles into armies, old Sunday and sometime before his death will acquit her and restore her to her sticks into horses, and washtubs into char- attacked his wife and two small children. Montreal, Dec. 26.—Mr. U. E. Gullen will to men.' I ask that you allow her flit in the gloom from one dark corner to frenzy. Johnson owned a dog which another. Above all, for all purposes of enlast July was bitten by a rabid dog and mother who awaits them and give her

Mr. Rand's argument was a severe ar-Young, she quailed under his invective. "Actress, stony-hearted, cruel-mouthed avenger that she is, the story she told, the manner of her telling it, ought

"Every action proclaims her guilt. I have never seen a real murderer who has not been distinguished by coolmurderer, who was not anxious to tes-prove what I say if there is any ques-

the attorney went over the details of the entrance of the bullet and the direction it took in Young's body. During used the revolver with which Young could it have been held by Young to inflict the wound that caused the death. Facing the jury, with the pistol in his outstretched hand, the prosecutor exclaimed: "Gentlemen, I will give you this revolver to take into the juryhold it as the defence theory of suicide to inflict this wound and then pull the trigger, I will consent to your setting this defendant free on the spot."

given over to controverting the testimony of the defence. After Mr. Rand's speech, Mr. Levy said: "That was the most wonderful advocacy of any cause, the most masterful speech that I ever heard in a criminal case in an experience in the courts for twenty-four years. In spite of that I am confident that Miss Patterson will be acquited. Nan Expected to Get Off.

believed would be her last journey across the bridge of sighs. "I know, I know I selves to determine when the end shall | will be free before night," she said. "I and ready. I don't want to have to come back here for a thing."

CHURCH UNION Conference.

Toronto despatch: Organic union beceedings, but the court denied the motion | tween the Presbyterian, Methodist and and directed counsel to proceed with the | Congregational Churches in Canada, arguments. Mr. Levy then began the seems to be nearer as the result of the closing address to the jury for the de- | day's work at the joint meeting in Knox Church yesterday of the special com-Mr. Levy impressed upon the jury the mittees appointed by the three churches, fact that Miss Patterson was not being and at the evening sessions of the sep- Commission appointed to inquire into tried for immorality. If a man takes his | arate committees. The ground was clear- | the North Sea incident met in the forlife because of love for her why punish ed, and the attitude of the churches eign office at 10 o'clock this morning. made known in a prolonged discussion | The commission completed the prelim-Mr. Levy declared that every effort by some of the ablest men in the con- inary organization and adjourned until

At the afternoon session the general miral Fournier, the French member of showing at all times Young's persistent number of representatives of the differ- Minister Delcasse, who was absent from ent churches took part. The considera- the city, received Admiral Davis, U. S. tion was, for the most part, devoted to M., and extended him a cordial greet questions of polity, doctrine, the office ing. Admiral Fournier then presented and training of the ministry and the Admiral Davis to Admiral Kaznakoff, administration of the various funds and the Russian member of the commission, enterprises of the church. At the close of and Rear Admiral Sir Lewis A. Beauthe discussion it was decided that the mont, Great Britain's representative, the several committees should meet separ- group of admirals joining in an informal ately in the evening and that the joint chat, partly in English and partly in committee should meet again this morn- French. The admirals and their aides committee conferred as to the advisabil- of the opening session. warrant was issued and given to Con- defendant, occupied the time of the ther investigation. They will report to a and age, invited his colleagues to a pristabel Gray to serve. Gray went to morning session with his argument, joint meeting to-day, after which it is vate salon where he proposed that Adthe partial wrecking of the Russian ships Man Kissing His Wife Good-Bye Killed, the store were Jones was working. while Assistant District Attorney Rand probable that joint sub-committees will miral Fournier should preside pending took up the afternoon with his speech. be appointed to consider still further the arrival of the fifth member of the Both addresses were impassioned and the possibility of overcoming such ob- commission. Admiral Fournier was uneloquent. Mr. Levy swayed his listen- stacles in the way of organic union as animously chosen, accepting the presiof the larger ships and a respectable bureau has kept during the last fourteen Managers of the Roads Organize for to big client and the bear and the bear of the larger ships and a respectable bureau has kept during the last fourteen may be found in the doctrinal views, dency in a felicitious speech in which he and otherwise filled with flowers, trees, vege-"Do not send her to her doom now table gardens, the bric-a-brac, of a back yard, when the entire world is rejoicing. See mother earth may remain whereon the childevoted old father at a time when ev- lots, and in which, as the twilight comes on Then he was fastened to save the famerything proclaims, peace on earth, good the childish imagination, seem to hover and ily from injury during his attacks of joyment or occupation it is one's very own. the one spot where none else may come una chance to live a new life with them in invited, but which to him stands ever open, matter. Finally a policeman killed the the scenes of his happiest hours, his refuge in time of trouble. Within the memory of Mr. Rand's argument was a severe armen still young no family in America, out-raignment of Miss Patterson and when side of a few congested districts in large rabies because he constantly was fearthe prosecutor pitilessly condemned the woman as the murderess of "Caesar" dwelling upon itm ight be a cabin, a cottage or a mansion, but such as it was it was the owned or rented possession of one family, held sacred to the use of its members from the centre of the earth to the clouds above. It was the home.

THE PASSING OF THE HOME. ern City Life.

The passing of the home is the saddest not to be convincing to a child," said Mr. phenomena of modern city life. The ten?- the 100-ton floating derrick Hercules, ment house-which we seek to disguise under the name of "flat"-is a most wretched substitute for the humblest of homes. That our ship Connecticut, broke adrift in the cause of a more rapid descent. tI is morally day and crashed into the stern of the ness, calmness and unruffled demeanor certain that the vigor of the race can be battleship Texas, smashing several and conceit. Never yet was there a maintained only by personal contact with the murderer, who was not anxious to tesnourishes and sustains us while we live, and | that she will have to go into the dry tify, believing that his story would which receives us in her bosom when we die. dock. prove convincing to the jury," thun- Why this is, perhaps, no one knows, but it is within the knowledge of all that the vigor of the city is constantly recruited from coun-

TO CARRY DEMANDS TO KING. Boers' Discontent Regarding Payment of

Compensation. Johannesburg, Dec. 26.—The delegates to the representative congress of Boers of Orange River Colony, at Brandfort, bitterly atack the Government regarding the payment of compensation, alleging a breach of faith under the peace terms. The only proclamation carried out was declared to be that regarding the annexation of the colony. The consensus of opinion was that a deputation should be sent to the King, ought not to go cap in hand for what had been voted.

After two days' discussion, resolutions were passed which practically amount to an ultimatum for the immediate payment of officers' receipts in full, which A New York despatch: Before leaving was promised by Mr. Chamberlain. Unher cell in the Tombs prison to-day, Nan less the Government complied with the

LABOR TEMPLE OPENED.

wanted every single thing to be packed Formal Inauguration Was a Great

Toronto, Dec. 26 .- The formal open ing of the new Labor Temple took place last evening in the presence of about 1,500 trade unionists, among whom were representatives who have been the backbone of organized labor in Toronto for many years. The speaker of the evening was Prof. Goldwin Smith, who was introduced by Mr. D. A. Carey, president of the Toronto Labor Temple Company ..

The North Sea Tragedy.

A Paris cable says: The International did not wear uniforms, thus detracting At the evening meetings the different somewhat from the expected brilliancy presentatives of many navies.

M. Andre Soulange-Bodine, a Minister plenipotentiary of France, was selected as secretary, and William Martin and the Vicomte De Greguil were appointed assistants with a large corps of at-Admiral Baron von Spaun was then unanimously elected the fifth member of the commission and the commissioners were asked to inform their respective governments of the fact. ----

Worried to Death.

A Chicago despatch: Fred John son, 32 years old, is dead of hydrophobia, althe man constantly worried over the pet. A physician diagnosed Johnson's

Derrick Runs Amuck.

New York, Dec. 26 .- Breaking five great cables as if they had been threads moored to the side of the new battlenavy yard basin in Wallabout Bay toplates and so injuring the war vessel

Not the Time for Reform.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 26.-Prince Svaiserious. The Sisters of Mercy, on the sixtual description of the struck between them. They were both serious in those hospitations. The Sisters of Mercy, on the serious in the serious in the serious in the serious and memorized, and had a leg broken, and a sailor fell for they get their contact with earth in other ways, and their children, less vexed by the serious injury. On the second day out that the defendant's testimony had been typewritten and memorized, additionally the serious injury. On the second day out the serious injury. On the second day out that the defendant's testimony had been typewritten and memorized, additionally the serious injury. On the second day out the serious injury. On the second day out that the defendant's testimony had been typewritten and memorized, additionally that the defendant's testimony had been typewritten and memorized, additionally that the defendant's testimony that the defendant's testimony that the defendant's testimony of the tenement house is in the families of the "salaried" class as distinguished from the "wage earners," and who principles of autocracy.

cue from an untime loved benefactor an grew fiendishly hard listened. Finally be inquired. den thought:

"Are you fond of

"Yes, sir; I like th ter than anythin.g" naively and enthusias "Well, then, I have ones that I'd I ke to a the tide is going out," served, persuasively. from here-just a plea this; up yonder on th "Is that your place, tioned Jamie, looki "Uncle Carrol told m longs to a baron by Page, who has gone a he did not know you'd he saw you yesterda bang-up place, isn't all around it, but I've I could get inside the "Well, then, come of will show you all you By the time you get i around the tide will h can then get your fis man, in a cordial ton "Thank you, sir-yo good !" cried Jamie, st feet with alacrity, an eager to accept the tel come, a s'aister light gi eyes, although he begu along the way with all tions of the place to wh CHAPTER X About 7 o'clock Mr. and, m'ssing Jamie, w the beach in search of ! He was not surpr se

His companion turne

the path over which h than the exception, lo awake and go abroad o' day." Usually, however, he of in the vicinity of Reed they generally took the "dip" together; but the failed to put in an app Carrol took his bath all turned to the house, and his toilet just as the h Still Jamle was absent quired of various memb family if they had seen one had observed him morning, and his fishing undisturbed, in the she the house, although his But even this unusual meal time occasioned no easiness; Mr. Carrol 1 and drink to the boy," not think of breakfast ing in the delicious sait But when 9 o'clock cal lad was still away, Mr. (

to be a triffe disturbed

He went out again upo

and proceeded to t e spot

had spent several hours fore; but there were no Jam'e had been forbidden alone out of sglit of th the gentleman walked ov village and made inquiri the various places they the habit of frequenting. His search was fruitles and now, thoroughly along the beach and over try, seeking the boy in e The whole afternoon wa the same way, and with the suit; and when night shut precluded the possibility soarch, Mr. Carrol was I and thoroughly worn out hard day's work Nevertheless, he did not hired a conveyance and wink throughout the night oppressed with the fear sea, which Jamle had so cruelly devoured him, and thus lost his little friend The next morning broke lowering, but the man w soon as it was light, an remembered that his old e directed the boy to a cert of rocks to find starfish cured the services of a m boat and made directly for Of course the tide was in rowed out to the rocks. that, possibly, if Jamle li there, they might find so

They made a circuit of and, as they pulled round west side, a groun of ago from Mr. Carrol as he es hat of his protege wedged two of the rocks, while a ther on they found his b They succeeded in securi and then went ashore to