Made a Breach in the Wall With Dynamite Under Cover of Big Guns,

And Lost a Thousand Men in the Fight, the Russian Garrison Escaping.

Kouropatkin's Men Bombard Positions Held by Oyama Not Far From Mukden.

****************

A Tokio cable despatch: After months of fighting, sapping and mining, the Japanese forces finally occupied Rihlung Mountain last night, Dec. 28. A report received from headquarters of the Third Japaness army, before Port Arthur, received here on Wednesday, Dec. 28, at midnight, says: "On Wednesday, Dec. 28, at 10 o'clock in the morning, the left centre column of our army, following some heavy explosions on the frontal parapet of Riblung Mountain, charged and occupied the parapet under cover of fire from heavy guns and constructed defence works despite the enemy's fierce

"At 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when our occupation was practically assured, we charged and occupied the inner lines of heavy gun positions, subsequently dislodging a remnant of the enemy's force stubbornly holding the Gorge fort, which we captured, and occupied the entire works."

RUSSIANS MAKE ATTACK.

Bombard Shakhe River Railroad Bridge and Shell Other Positions.

A Tokio cable despatch: Manchuria ing 500 men, escaped. headquarters, reporting to-day, says:

"On Dec. 27 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the Russians with heavy field guns bombarded the Shakhe River railroad bridge in the neighborhood of the station and the Russian guns at Taliantu: shelled Chihsiangtun and Shulintzu Russian cavalry attacked Heilintun at sunset on the same day, but were repulsed by Japanese cavalry. At 8.30 o'clock on the same evening the Russian cavalry enveloped the Japanese ualties were three men killed."

CANNOT RAISE THE VARIAG.

Few Japanese Troops at Seoul, but Re-despatch to the Herald, dated Dec. 24, says: The Japanese attempts to raise the Variag have been discontinued. It is impossible to recommence the work being synthesis of the Variag have been discontinued. It is impossible to recommence the work being synthesis of the Variag have been discontinued. It is impossible to recommence the work being synthesis of the Variag have been discontinued. It is impossible to recommence the work being synthesis of the House participated and session of the Senators described to the Senators described the many of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the diddenstance on her had sentiment to be launched. From the visal of chloroform. She poured a second the di wind as seen how and then carry a message to the life-saving corps on shore that many of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the discussion.

Representative H. K. Darling of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the discussion.

Representative H. K. Darling of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the discussion.

Representative H. K. Darling of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the chamber to listen to the discussion.

Representative H. K. Darling of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the chamber to listen to the discussion.

Representative H. K. Darling of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the discussion.

Representative H. K. Darling of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the discussion.

Representative H. K. Darling of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the discussion.

Representative H. K. Darling of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the discussion.

Representative H. K. Darling of the Senators described the chamber to listen to the discribed the chamber to listen to the chamber to listen to listen to listen to list the chamber to list the chamber to list the cha

The Japanese troops remaining here anese heavy guns on 203-Metile Hill are Marion, who has thirteen department are less than 500, although the reported unable to hit, thus making it apparently stores in Marion and surrounding towns north next month. This probably indi- thur, even should the Japanese content | ceiving a small profit, refuses to seil cates some forward movement to coun- themselves with holding the strong posi- tobacco, cigars or anything that would teract the Russian sorties reported from ! tions they now occupy. various places along the upper Yalu, operating from headquarters at Yungling under General Madridoff, who also controls the recently increased garrisons. Tokio Preparing to Give Him and Kami-at Samsu and Kapsa. A small engagement occurred Dec. 20, on the northeast coast at Kongwon, re- patch to the Times says: Both Houses

ONE THOUSAND JAPANESE.

Casualities in the Capture of Rihlung Fort-Japs Charged Through Breach.

guns. A bitter fight resulted in the capture of the fort. The garrison, number-

> cle of the chain of forts defending Port | damaged. tions occupied by the Japane

TO WELCOME TOGO.

mura a Right Royal Reception.

A New York report: A Tokio desreach Tokio on Friday.

The House of Representatives, amid the company for Indiana. loud acclamation, to-day (Wednesday) voted the following address:

this morning, with a thousand Japanese blockading duty. This great result is been working on the deal for some time casualties. Several dynamite bombs ex- recorded as being due to the unfailing and have my plans about completed. I ploded at 10 o'clock yesterday made competent discharge of their duties by will purchase enough land so that ferbreaches in the front wall through which 'the officers, sub-officers and men, but | tile farms can be sold to members of

Tired of Washing Dishes and Household Cares, and So She Ran Away.

WEARIED WIFE LEAVES HOME.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 2.-Frank Schleffel, of Welland, Cnt., spent an unhappy Christmas Day in Buffalo, making fran- children, and I'm going away. You'll tice but unavailing efforts to find some | never see me any more, and there is no trace of his wife and two little boys, use looking for me. Good-bye." who disappeared Friday. He thinks Mrs. Schleffer took the children and She left him a message to the effect sent to the different railway stations to because they believed him to be incom- who fell dead beside him. went to some other city to hide herself. lice of her action, and detectives were that she was tired of washing dishes and household cares, and he would never "My wife made a mistake in going he will prove to be competent and ressee her or the children again.

almost immediately after he did.

word she would telephone him at 8.30 vears old, and Clifford, one and a half the "Gold Mine." His business increasing at a certain place. vears old, and Clifford, one and a half ed so rapidly by his unique manner of might as well have been abolished. He was there on time, and got the mes- | The circular contains this notice:

"Well, I'm tired of washing dishes and drudging about the house. I've got the ther explanation, his wife had rung off. He lost no time in notifying the po-

Before Schleffel could ask for any fur-

On Friday Schleffer had some business a great deal of her and my children, and that there is no hope of raising him. here, and came from Welland on an early am willing to forgive her if she returns. When asked if he would prohibit the train. His wife accompanied him to buy I believe she made arrangements with use of tobacco in his colony, he said some Christmas presents. They left their her parents to have the two little boys he would not, but that he would discourtwo little boys with her parents, Mr. and sent on here after we came so she could age the use of it by employing men who tained that the constitutional amend-Mrs. J. M. Lindabury, of Welland. About get them. That's why she waited till did not use it, as he believed a total ab-9 o'clock in the forenoon Schleffer left evening to telephone. She said before stainer was more competent than one has been carried by 121,000 majority. his wife in the resting room of a Main she wasn't satisfied, but I didn't think who used the weed street department store while he went she would go away like that. She is a Norton does not sell tobacco in any out to attend to his business. He re- ladies' tailor, and carned $20 a week be- of his thirteen stores and does not em-After waiting around a little while he After waiting around a little while, he | slong all right. She has plenty of money | He was informed Mrs. Schleffel had left though, till I find my wife and children." a man who has worted to it and he pays his army of employees every night. He hung about the store for two hours, describing his wife and children. Mrs. but his wife did not return, so he gave | Schleffel is a small, slim woman, about | it up and went to a friend's house. There | thirty years old, with dark brown hair. he was informed Mrs. Schleffel had left The boys are Herman, two and a half eity about five years ago, naming it has been the evidence of the prosecut

"Is that you. Frank" was the quest on the floor of the morning towns and seated on the floor of the galleries and seated on the floor of the morning towns nesota is certain to result in the enactwhom he loves most dearly."

it could not possibly have been accom-plished unless the commanders' strategy had been well adapted to the ocean and his leadership had been able. "Therefore, on the occasion of Admiral Togo's victorious return, the House extends to him a hearty welcome."

TO DIVIDE THE GARRISON.

Object of Present Jap Plan at Port

Tokio cable: It is officially stated ted that the Japanese sapping of the taking over the road. The present maning on steadily and successfully, prepa- tion that called for immediate and exratory to another attack at an early tensive repairs and renewals on the Ondivide the garrison.

was exploded yesterday, destroying the to be made. About forty new passenparapet of the Ehrlungshan Fort. An ger tracks will be put in. Heavier rails infantry attack followed, but the result are to be laig. A new slip and dock 139 to 91. is unknown. A Russian who was cap- are to be built at Walkerville as soon tured on Dec. 16 is quoted as saying as an adjustment of crossing arrange-

The Russian headquarters has been re-

WILL HOLD OUT.

Port Arthur Garrison Sanguine-One year. General Killed and Stoessel Kurt.

A Tokio cable despatch: Trustwor a large body of Japanese troops charged thy advices from Port Arthur confirm under cover of a tremendous bombard- the report that Gen. Kondrachenko has ment and captured the first line of light been killed and that Gen. Stoessel has been injured by falling from his horse Gen. Smilnoff is also reported wounded of the battleship Sevastopol has sunk in practically no change to-night in the the most revolting in the history of the Rihlung fort, situated on Rihlung shallow water. Her bow is damaged in Mountain, formed part of the inner cir- two places, and the steering gear is also miles from the outskirts of the town of dent in the belief that relief will arrive render assistance and could only gaze to get to their seats by the rear doors. Port Arthur, from which it bears due before March 1. Despite its heavy losses helplessly across the mile or so of rag- The audience was composed largely of northeast. The fort just captured is a on Nov. 26 and subsequently, the garrimile and a half southeast of Keekwan son is said to be cheerful and resolved fort, recently captured by the Japanese. | to continue the struggle as long as a The possession of these two forts should | single soldier remains. The army claims make a most important breach in the to have sufficient provisions to last until fortifications of Port Arthur, and cut February. The navy possesses about one pickets, who were reinforced and finally off communication between the Golden month's stores. The price of food in the repulsed the enemy. The Japanese cas- Hill forts and the forts of the western beleagured fortress is high. Beef is section of the inner circle of fortifica- rouble and a half per pound; horse meat, tions. Outside of the capture of 203- 6 copecks per pound; dog meat, 25 co-Metre Hill, of the wester section of pecks per pound; turkeys, 150 roubles a forts, little is known of the . . posi- piece; eggs, 160 roubles per hundred. But that he inner circle of forts is now cut that the capture of the heights of helpless on the Inner Diamond Shoals, The debate was the struggled but could not get loose.

pense. It is probable that further sal- Japanese will be able to reac anything and conduct a city as Christ would not aid in send- doubly helpless. Then she put the handin the harber and town, which the Jap- it, is the scheme of A. F. Norton, of reinforcements will shortly arrive. Gen. impossible for the Russian second Paci- that he conducts as he says Christ hie squadron to make use of Port Ar- would conduct them. He sells for eash, rebe an injury to anyone. Norton has conducted a number of railroad excursions as he thinks Christ would conduct them. He closes all of his stores when he conducts an excursion member of the ministry?" Admiral Kamimura, who are expected to by his business methods and he was ap- been made against him. pointed land and passenger agent for tract of land in the State of Washing-Headquarters of the Japanese army The enemy's fleet at Port Arthur be- ton, consisting of many thousand acres. liott, of Huntingdon, Pa., who is divoccbefore Port Arthur, via Fusan cable: ing destroyed, a portion of the empire's When asked about his scheme he talk- ed, against the wishes of Bishop Tal--Rihlung fort was captured at 3 o'clock | united squadrons has been relieved of | ed enthusiastically. He said: "I have | bot name to be given the town, but have be free from the sale of liquor and tobacco. The decds for all land will concolony would not be a success if the clic missionaries, sale of intoxicants was permitted.

> "I would prefer people who are clean, fought for life with his gun, and, when of the judge and jury who tried the give the downfallen a chance to do and arrow and a sling. live right. There is hope of saving all. A shot fired by the expeditionary Recently I employed a man who had party finally pierced his heart, and passfailed to hold a position with anyone ing through his body, struck his mother, so horrible as this has been committed, look for Mrs. Schleffel. She was not petent and irresponsible. There has been a marked improvement in him, I believe away like that," said Schleffel. "I think ponsible. A man can not fall so low Overwhelming Vote in Minnesota in Schleffel has had printed a circular, pays his army of employees every night. store in Marion, occupying an entire block. He started a small place in this !

additional buildings. A large brick block was added this year and was recently occupied by him with one of the largest and most up to date department stores in northern Indiana. In this place he has a restaurant, grocery, meat mar ket, dry goods, boots and shoes, clothing and furnishing goods. He employs a large number of clerks in this store, Norton is recognized as a good busibut customers are allowed to help themness man, honorable in all his dealings. Many call him a religious crank, but his business methods have been success-

PERE MARQUETTE.

TWO AND A HALF MILLION DOLquette System will spend two and a half million dollars for betterments on northeastern forts at Port Arthur is go- ager found the equipment in a condidate. It is expected that this attack will tario division, where conditions have be made concurrently from the east and aroused such a storm of protests from west sides, the object being to try to towns in Essex, Kent and Lambton counties. Larger yards at Sarnia, St. It is reported that a Japanese mine Thomas, Blenheim and Walkerville, wre new shops at St. Thomas opened yester- and 2 o'clock. day and are to be run day and night The company has bought seventy new locomotives for delivery early next

THE PERILS OF THE SEA.

Pounding on Oak Island Bar Ever Since Christmas Morning.

New York, Jan. 2.-Still pounding on the bar off Oak Island, where sh struck Christmas morning, there condition of the steamer Drumelzier. Throughout the day the crews of the two life-saving stations were unable to ing surf, far beyond the possible range them from the helpless crew, while forms could now and then be seen between the clouds of spray that crowded the breakers. A heavy wind blew all day, and as night came on its force increased, until towards midnight it was woman unless the Governor shall exerblowing a veritable gale. There was cise the questionable power of pardon, line, I said to Rogers. scant hope of either wind or sea going and the case hardly admits of that. Undown by morning.

A New York report: A Seoul, Corea, in three pieces, and that 20, Metre Hill leaders of the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and then carbon for the House participated and faint lights seen now and the house participated and faint lights seen now and the house participated and faint lights seen now and the house participated and faint lights seen now and the house participated and faint lights seen now and the house participated and faint lights seen now and the house participated and faint lights seen now and t

A CHURCH CASE.

THE TROUBLE BETWEEN BISHOP TALBOT AND MR. IRVINE.

Philadelphia, Jan. 2.—"Can a bishop or ought a bishop, write defamatory letters in secret in order to injure any to some lake or city, for a day, taking | This is the question which will be de- who has deeply interested himself in all of his employees with him. He has cided at the meeting of the board of in- the case, made a plea for Mrs. Rogers also conducted excursions to California quiry in the case of Irvine vs. Talbot, that sank into the hearts of all who sulting in the capture of Russian am-, of Parliament have commissioned their and while taking his party across the said the Rev. Ingram N. W. Irvine, the heard it. He believed in advocating Presidents to proceed to the railway sta- continent the officials of the Union Pa- plaintiff in the celebrated case to-day clemency, though he was in harmony tion to meet Admiral Togo and Vice- cific Railroad Company were attracted in discussing the charges which have with the law of the state. He said:

In discussing the motive of the presentment Dr. Irvine said that it was Norton has decided to purchase a large | because he had persistently refused to serve communion to Mrs. Emma D. El-

TRAGIC RETRIBUTION.

aries Killed With His Mother. Sydney, Jan. 2.-The steam yacht

Seestern, belonging to the German Government, reports that eighty natives of tain a clause making the sale of liquors | the bismarck Archipelago were shot for on the land a forfeiture of title. My the recent murder of ten Roman Cath-

Tomari, the leader of the attack on Whiskey and success are bitter enemies. | the mission, met with a tragic end. Great If a man would succeed he must think difficulty was experienced in tracking of this. The people in my colony must him down, but he was finally found, ac- law is greater than any human life. live as they believe Christ would have companied by his aged mother, hiding energetic and liberal hearted. I would his ammunition was done ,with bow and woman.

TO ABOLISH GRAND JURIES. Favor of the Proposal.

St. Paul, Jan. 2 .- As the result of

By this amendment the State Legis lature is directed to enact laws abolishtory evidence is at hand to warrant the prosecuting attorney in taking action. as in others, that the grand jury system has been a mere farce; that the evidence presented to the grand jury conducting it that he soon started No. | The overwhelming vote for the abo-"To the Mother-The husband will 2. He continued to start new places lition of the grand jury system in Min- Rogers, there were many women in the wife's voice whom he loves most dearly."

It was necessary to erect meets this week.

The best former and take back about the birthdays wife's voice was the greatest seen during the debate, and the crush to put off until to-morrow the birthdays was the greatest seen during the session. She can celebrate to-day.

Mrs. Mary Rogers.

Her Fate Now Rests With the State Governor.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 2.—The Pere Mar- Story of Revolting Murder of Her Husband.

> Montpelier, Vt., Jan. 2.-Vermont's legislature has decreed by an overwhelming majority that a woman must hang in this State in a few months. The doomed woman is Mrs. Mary Rog- ated the grove from the river bank. The ers, who has been convicted of the muring commutation of her sentence was that the Japanese fire destroyed five ments with the Grand Trunk can be last hope. She stands sentenced to be were only a few feet from the edge last hope. She stands sentenced to be were only a few feet from the edge made. Twenty-five thousand dollars is hanged in the state prison at Windsor, of the river." being expended in repairs to the ferry hanged in the state prison at Windsor, of the river." on the Sarnia-Port Huron route. The on Feb. 5, 1905, between the hours of 10

seemed at hand the only prop was drawn | them flowed the narrow river. from under her. The judiciary committee of the Vermont legislature recom- husband said to her: mended a bill that extended to her executive clemency, but the House itself by an overwhelming vote rejected the humane plan.

It was an extraordinary meeting that marked this session which passed upon the life or death of a poor, ignorant woman, whose crime, however, is one of

In anticipation of the debate every available foot of room in the House was packed and the members were obliged terest the arguments and the roll call of the breeches gun, that separated that decided the fate of the young woman now in coctary conmement in

Now No Hope.

There is now no hope of saving the less he does the woman will meet her | hind you. Norfolk, Va., Dec. 28.—Battered by death on the gallows the first Friday in Representative Waite, of Hyde Park, followed with a strong plea for clemency. Even a guilty woman should not be sacrificed in the execution of a bar-

Representative Dart, of Springfield, believed in giving a criminal an opportunity for reform, and believed the penalties of the law should not be exacted. Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan, of St. Albans, a strong opponent of capital punishment

"Mrs. Rogers' guilt is not denied, and ) if we commute her sentence here today, we east no reflection on the judge who sentenced her or the jury who convicted her. Not because of maudlin sentimentality, not because of Mrs. Rogers responsibility, not because the supreme forum of the state has not the right to take a human life, but because Mary Rogers is a woman, I plead for her life. In this progressive age, in this grand state of Vermont, we are approaching the day when it will no longer be thought necesary to take a life In closing, Father O'Sullivan graphically pictured the execution of a death would have no part in it. Rev. Mr. Hilliard, of Cabot, could not vote to commute this woman's sentence. If she were his own sister he would vote to let the law take its course. That One of the strongest arguments against the bill was made by former When asked what class of people he | The Government force sighted him be- Governor Grout, who believed the lewould invite to live in his colony he said, hind a tree, and opened fire. Tomari, gislature should not set aside the work forts have been made to secure her His concluding words were:

"The rigor of the law knows no distinvtion between the sexes when a crime As long as capital punishment survives it would be a mockery of justice to commute the sentence of this woman-a the legislature would never allow her tigress in human form."

impassioned plea for the life of his cli- as suspicious circumstances, though it ent, saying that beyond all question was then considered an accident. The Mary Rogers was guilty of the crime for I plea made by her counsel was that the which she was convicted last winter. [ woman was a degenerate, incapable of She was a woman absolutely without comprehending crime and its consemeans at her trial, against the unlimited | quences; that she was really nothing resources of the State of Vermont, that but an animal, but this has failed to prosecuted her. He based his argument have any effect and there has been no on expediency and mercy, stating that real sustained movement to save Mrs. if the State of Vermont had done its Rogers from the gallows. duty by Mrs. Rogers she would not have If Mrs. Rogers should hang in Febbeen a criminal at the age of 19. Since ruary it will be the first execution in being in State prison Mary Rogers has Vermont since 1892, and she will be the more since I have been in prison than I | two years ago.

Woman Wants to See Executive.

shown little interest in the fate of Mrs. | life would be forfeited.

of Mrs. Rogere has been received. The only petition for clemency is the letter written to members of the Legislature by her mother. The only woman who has written Gov-The crime of which she was convicted was so revolting that there was no extenuation, and no plea for clemency could be made except that she was a woman and had been the subject of immoral influences from her birth. The crime was committed in Bennington on Aug. 12, 1902. The murder was one of the most brutal in the history of this State. The story of the crime was told on the witness stand by Leon Parham, the wom-an's accomplice, a weak minded youth who escaped with a life sentence. According to Parham Mrs. Rogers had written to her husband, from whom she was estranged, asking him to meet her at 9.30 o'clock at night. Rogers had left his home at Hoosick Corners to go to his death.

At the Death Scene.

After the meeting and a pretended reconciliation Leon led the way into Morgan's grove, and by a winding path to the river. A great stone wall separdistance from the wall to the bank was less than half a dozen feet.

'Mary and I walked along with Rogers until we came to a break in the wall," said Leon. "She went through and we So far as can now be seen this action followed. It was cold, and I had on a by the legislature destroys the woman's big overcoat. I spread this out on the

When they reached this spot the dramatic recital came. It was a grassy When escape from the horrible tate bank. Near by stood a huge oak tree. The wall was behind the party. Before

"Mary said she had a new trick with a rope," Leon told the officers. "Her

"'Oh, you've always got some new "He laughed when he said it. May laughed, too, and then drew out a piece of clothes line. Then she said she could tie me so that I couldn't get loose." "'I'll bet you can't,' I said. "She tied my hands loosely and l broke away again.'

Got Up Like Samson. "'Try it on him,' I said.

"'I'll bet you can't tie me,' said Rog-

"He was as strong as an ox. May tied him and tried to tie him tight, but he just gave a heave and broke away. She tried it a second time and he broke loose without any trouble. She was getting worried. She tried it a third time and when he broke loose again I saw that she couldn't tie him. "Let me do it," I told her.

"I took the rope, a piece of clothes "Kneel down and put your hands be-

"He thought it was fun and knelt

"'Why, May, that smells like chlor-

'She pressed the handkerchief harder on his nose. Suddenly she emptied the vial on the handkerchief, completely saturating it. He began to struggle. "'May, what does this mean?' he said, heaving his body. What does it mean?

A Terrible Struggle. "'Jump on his legs,' she said. 'I jumped on his legs to hold him. May had him gripped around the neck and pressed the handkerchief against his nose. His struggles were terrific. He threw me off as if I had been a kitten. He got one hand free and used it to "But May clung to him and never his nose. She had the grip of a tigress.

over the ground, and every time I came near him a heave of his legs or free arms would throw me off. "While he struggled his breath was deeper. He grew more quiet and in a moment he was limp. May clung to him even after he was quiet, pressing the chloroform-soaked handkerchief down over his face. When all was over she

He struggled and flung himself and her

A note was written and left pinned to Rogers' hat which was left lying on the river bank, saying that it was a case of suicide, but the note was not in man's handwriting and suspicion was soon aroused and he woman who tried to collect his life insurance immediately after his death was at once apprehended The confession of her accomplice made her conviction easy, and as she was

Her case has never been before the supreme court, something that has not happened for years in the case of a con-without money no strenuous legal ef-victed murderer in Vermont. Mrs. Rogers has not made a full conception of her crime and the possible results, and declared after the trial that to hang. It cam to light after the mur-Mr. Archibald, of Manchester, counsel der of her husband that her infant child for Mrs. Rogers at her trial, made an was killed under what are now regarded first woman to suffer the death penal-I never had a chance. I have learned ty since Mrs. Tmelie Meeker, twenty-

Mrs. Rogers is now in solitary confinment in the State prison at Windsor and had known nothing of the progress Though the women of the State have of her case or the possibility that her of you entir "One of the ware obliged August expin

"It is a ve South Down employer. Worthing To "Yes, the me the ma one of the fit try." "I suppose the estate Leighton-th you met in 1 "No, sir, some show o way; you m

Mr. King o

estly search

Vate secreta

of the love

Monica, an

He and In

she was an be tempted her behalf, he would be nist. "We saw rapidly to > Seavers al carriage. "Indeed longer need like to reu I would the barous

I you'll s