PRICEVILLE

The years are rolling by. In two or three hours another year will be numbered with the thousands that have already gone. We fancy we hear afar off (as the north wind sounds the trumpet) the death knell of the dying year, and as we sit watching, waiting and writing till the hour has arrived that it has to bid adieu to all the human race, we cannot but entertain a thought i. e. who shall see the winding up of the new year. We cannot number the many of the human family that had been enjoying life at the close of a year ago who are, to-night, numbered with the dying year. They have gone, so has the old year, but their memory is still fresh to those so afflicted. Many there be of the good old fathers and mothers who, with joyful hearts, embraced a son or a daughter on last New Years Eve, are now filling the churchyard by having their bodies placed there. The mother who watched with longing thoughts the arrival of a son or a daughter a year ago to-night have only to-night to soothe her sorrows with the thoughts that, although never to meet on earth again, they will meet in the world of happiness while the years of Eternity roll.

During the past week it is with danger that all pedestrians attempt to travel our highways on account of ice. The roads running north and south are, in some places, filled in with snow, while the roads east and west are a glaring ice.

Died at Cranbrook, British Columbia, on the 18th Dec., 1904, Hugh Black after a short illness with pneumonia, aged fifty one years. Mr Black was the eldest son of the late Alex. Black, formerly of Dornoch on Bentinck side, where the deceased was born. He was unmarried and was a brother to Mrs Chas McArthur, of Dundalk, and Jas Black, of Oak River, Manitoba.

Among those that visited friends are, Jennie Cameron, of Toronto, at her sister's Mrs John McInnes, D Road, Glenelg; Archd McDonald, of Klemberg, to his home on the south line, Glenelg; Maggie McDonald, teacher, of Calderwood, Normanby, spent her holidays at her old home at Duncan McDonald's, D Road, Glenelg; Rev. Walter Nichol, of Knox College, at his father's Mr John Nichol; John McLeod (son of late Rev McLeod) of the Medical College, Toronto, spent his holidays with his mother, of this town; Henry Watson, teacher, of Bolton, at his father's, Mr Wm Watson, of this town; John McArthur, Jr., of the Collegiate Institute, Owen Sound, at his father's, Commissioner McArthur, of this town; Miss Hester McCoskery, of Toronto, with her sister, Mrs Malcolm McInnes, D Road, Glenelg.

Mr John McArthur, merchant of this town, was elected commissioner by acclamation. This is the 13th time John has been elected by acclamation for municipal honors, which tells of his popularity and fituess for the office. It is questionable if there is any other member of township or county council in Co Grey that can give such a record.

Hugh McDonald's, south line, sale which was to be on the 28th Dec. had to be postponed on account of the severity of the storm. New bills will be out for it again. [On Thursday, Jan. 12.—Ed]

Miss Florence McKechnie, of Proton Station, spent Christmas and New Years at home with her mother, Mrs McKechnie, of this town.

Gaelic in the Presbyterian church last Sunday. Fairly well attended.

Farmers' Institute Meetings Postponed

After consulting with a number of Institute speakers as well as local officers in different parts of the Province, the superintendent has decided not to hold any Institute meetings until January 31st. It was the unanimous opinion of both delegates and officers (and a great many were consulted) that a political campaign would interfere very much with the attendance at and the success of Institute meetings. No announcements of meetings had been made for January, although all lists had been about completed. A re-arrangement of the lists has been made, and the same submitted to the secretaries of the various ridings. The revised dates will be announced in plenty of time to allow local secretaries to do the necessary advertising before the date of the first meetings. The regular number of meetings for each riding will be held in all the older sections of the Province, but in the northern districts (St. Joseph's Island, East and West Manitoulin, Algoma, Nipissing, Parry Sound and Muskoka) arrangements will be made to hold meetings in June or July or the fall months.
