

SLIDDING IN SWEDEN A SCIENCE.

Only Country in Which the Sparkstoting is in Common Use. The Swedes have made a fine art of sliding. Their sled is called the sparkstoting and is an exceedingly light sled...

The sparkstoting is constructed entirely of Norway spruce. It is straight of elongated form and weighs no more than thirty pounds. It consists of two runners, curved upward in front, and six and one-half feet in length. To each of the runners is fixed an upright that serves both as a point of support and a tiller. The entire affair is connected by two or three transverse bars, one of which supports a light seat placed twelve inches above the surface.

An experienced racer, when the snow is in good condition, can easily attain the speed of a horse on a track. In Sweden it is necessary to push the sparkstoting or to drag it, but this does not cause much fatigue, owing to its lightness and the fact that the surface in contact with the snow. With this sled it is possible to run very fast.

WAS SENT HOME AS INCURABLE

Then Jos. Boone Found Health in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

He was Unable to Work for Seven Years Before He Used the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy.

Cottle's Cove, Nfld., Dec. 26.—(Special.)—The days of miracles are past, but the cure of Joseph Boone, of this place, of the most rank and the sensational cures of the earlier ages.

IN A SWELL NATATORIUM.

Description of the Bath Club Gymnasium in London.

The Viscountess Castlereagh is celebrated in the Lady's Pictorial as one of the distinguished patrons and frequenters of the Bath Club in Dover street, London. Here the elegance of England disports itself.

JAPAN'S "HUMAN HORSES."

The feats of which the Japanese rickshaw men are capable are almost incredible. I remember some years ago being driven ashore in a yacht in the Inland Sea during a typhoon. It was far beyond the treaty limits which then existed, and foreigners were not allowed to travel outside those limits without special passports.

EDDY'S FIBRE WARE. There is nothing in the market approaching the quality of EDDY'S. make of this ware. See that EDDY'S name is on the bottom of each pail and tub.

FOREST OF 4,000 SQUARE MILES.

In This Reservation World's Greatest Tract of Sugar Pines.

The greatest forest of sugar pine on the globe begins at the Klamath and extends northward past the glittering peaks of Mount Pitt, Diamond, Thielson, Scott and the Three Sisters to the very foot of Jefferson, 200 miles to the north. It is a vast forest empire, ruled over by the wild things of the deep woods.

SEEDS HAVE GREAT VITALITY.

Stories of "Mummy Wheat" Found in the Pyramids Doubtful, However. The length of time seeds will preserve their vitality differs amazingly in different plants. The seeds of the willow, for instance, will not germinate after having once been dry and their germination power is lost in two weeks even if during that interval they have been kept fresh.

Useful Hints.

If silver is washed every week in a solution containing a few drops of ammonia the polish can be preserved for a long time.

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

End of a Famous Boom Town.

The post office at Le Beau, in Walworth county, has been removed by the newly appointed postmaster from the town site to his farm, a half mile distant. This marks the final downfall of a town which at one time hoped to become a metropolis.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It will nourish and strengthen the body when milk and cream fail to do it. Scott's Emulsion is always the same; always palatable and always beneficial where the body is wasting from any cause, either in children or adults.

BELIEVES THAT ANIMALS REASON.

Lord Avebury, the Scientist, Discusses Unconscious Celebration.

Lord Avebury, better known as Sir John Lubbock, the celebrated naturalist, writes: "If many are prone to exaggerate the intellectual powers of dogs and horses and elephants, others go to the opposite extreme. Descartes, we know, looked upon man, the ape and other writers have denied the existence of any psychic powers, at any rate in invertebrate animals, which they explain as reflex machines."

JAVA'S BOUTIQUEUSE RICE TABLE.

In Java, as in most really warm countries, it is customary to rise early and to take a cup of tea or coffee, together with a biscuit and a slice of bread. This is followed by a more substantial breakfast; and at half-past twelve o'clock, and is the equivalent of the French "dejeuner a la fourchette" or the Anglo-Indian "breakfast" from the principal dish, a very elaborate curry, in the preparation of which the Malay cooks are especially skilful.

The Poisoned Spring.

As in nature, so in man, polluting the spring and disease and waste are bound to follow—the stomach and nerves out of kilter means poison in the spring. South American Nerine is a great purifier, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, and tones the nerves. The best evidence of its efficacy is the uncollected testimony of thousands of cured ones.

Britain's Readiness.

An Englishman says: "Lord Kitchener was sent to India for the special purpose of organizing a big army there, and I am told by my cousin, who is a general, that Britain has 500,000 men ready in India at a moment's notice. In the Chitral campaign he commanded a regiment of Sikhs or Ghorkees and told me they were the nonpareil, so far as fighting was concerned. They are not unlike the Japs, but better."

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc.

His Wife's Retort. Russell Sage thinks that smoking is a bad habit. "I overheard one day," he said, recently, "a conversation that delighted me. It was a conversation between a young man and his wife. He appeared to be a rather extravagant and somewhat financially embarrassed man, but he was economical, industrious and ambitious. The wife was trying to urge the husband to give up smoking. She was pointing out to him how much in the course of a year he spent on tobacco. She was showing him that mentally, physically and financially he would be better off without his pipe. "But all great men smoke," he grumbled. "Well," she declared, "if you will give up smoking till you're great, I'll be quite satisfied."

A Substitute.

Lady Randolph Churchill was electioneering in England at one time in behalf of Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett. One bold elector whom she was trying to secure, hinted that if the ladies would imitate the famous Duchess of Devonshire they would have no difficulty in securing votes. The duchess, in one memorable canvass, gave a kiss for each doubtful vote. Lady Churchill considered for a moment and then said demurely: "Thank you so much. I'll suggest that idea to Lady Burdett-Coutts." The elector laughed, remembering that Lady Burdett-Coutts is over 50 years old.

Minard's Liniment Cures Garget in Cows

It Pays Manufacturers. A manufacturer who sold only to jobbers, and could not see the benefit of advertising, has had a year's experience with newspaper publicity, and he says: "By newspaper advertising we have increased the popular demand for our products, and this has enabled us to deal more advantageously with jobbers. They are bound to have our products because the people want them."

Practical Joke Costs a Wife.

Because he pulled a chair from under her at the moment she was about to sit down upon it, says a Kansas City specialist in the Chicago Tribune, Floy S. Anderson yesterday sued Martin E. Anderson for divorce. She alleges that she hit the floor so hard that it permanently disabled her.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

Male and Female Buyers. (London Truth.) Wherever some woman will go into a vast establishment intent on spending a certain sum, say, on an article of dress and will successively scrutinize half a dozen things besides what she originally wanted and retire without buying any, a man will stray in without any fixed plan of purchase and will sometimes purchase large quantities of goods that he never dreamed of wanting when he entered the shop.

Good Reason for Envy.

They were bragging about their home town. "I said one, proudly, 'came from Cincinnati.'" "I envy you," asserted the Cleveland man. "Indeed." "Yes, I'm just going there."

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

Still of the Same Mind. (Baltimore American.) "Morning, sir." "Morning, sir. What can I do for you?" "You told me, sir, when you hired me six months ago for $10 a week that as soon as I showed signs of improvement you would raise my pay."

Animals Out of the Sky.

There is a township in North Carolina that for many years greeted Christmas with a balloon ascension and a shower of gifts. At prompt 2 of the afternoon people gathered from all the country round to watch a large red balloon carry up a professional aeronaut. When he reached a proper height he dropped from his basket a dog attached to parachute, which floated down to the waiting multitude, who scrambled for it. The fortunate one that gripped it became its owner. When the balloon had climbed the sky a few more rods the helmsman released a fat and desirable goose. This flapped its way down and was welcomed even more warmly than the dog. Then the crowd melted away, well content.

Mistake Made Somewhere.

(Boston Transcript.) Mrs. Kindle (whose husband had told her that the apartment house was the proper thing for her, on the principle of suffering the sweetest) had called an aviator to take her to the city.
