THE NOMINATIONS.

Wednesday, Returning Officer Davidson received the expected nominations announced the list of polling places, etc., and David Jamieson and John McKechnie were formally in the field.

The Town Hall was packed full and some failed to get near the door, but the order was very good, the adherents of both parties were about in equal numbers and the applause generously distributed.

Dr Jamieson referred to the quiet evening meetings they had had, but congratulated all parties on the gentlemanly character of the campaign. He then entered on the stock cry of the campaign irregularities and corruption in election methods, forgetting that while we can't have too much of a good thing we can have too much of a bad thing.

Let us say again for the hundredth time that we abhor corruption in politics; think hard things of the man or party that resorts to it, admit that Liberals have been guilty of political crime, but deny that the isolated acts of individuals involve the whole Liberal party any more than the stuffing of Grey ballot boxes involved the Conservative party of that day.

Having said this we decline to follow Dr. Jamieson through the slimy track of so called machine work. West Elgin, S. Oxford, Sault Ste Marie, etc., we can look them all in the face, deplore the crimes, but deny the culpability of the Reform party as a party.

We are not using, though we might, the "thou too, Brutus" argument, but it is a tribute to the government, that Dr Jamieson after 7 yrs in parliament can find so little in their administrative record to censure, that he takes the major portion of his speech to condemn them on assumed complicity in frauds. Even if he is not fair, he should tell for the sake of his audience, in connection with the West Elgin ballot-burning, that a commission was appointed to investigate the matter and reported that it was a pure inadvertence. The Hon. Mr. Gaultney was duly displayed in the explanation of the time which he got a haul was not a cabinet matter and that he was not a cabinet member.

He gave a list of names which included Gaultney, while every one will credit that he was not a cabinet member.
