Where does the Money come from?

WHAT MONEY? The money that makes millionaires of the manufacturers of Agricultural Machinery? Why, out of the pockets of the farmers who buy and finally pay for the machine.

Why not save some of this money for yourself by securing shares in the Farmers' M'g and Supply Co., Limited? What you don't save in the price paid for your machinery you receive yourself in dividends which otherwise would otherwise go into the pockets of the wealthy manufacturers.

HYMENEAL

McDONALD—MARRHALL.

On Wednesday last at 5 p. m., the fine new residence built by Mr. A. Marshall during the past season was thronged with a happy company met to celebrate the union of her daughter Mary to Mr. H. Arthur McDonald, son of Hugh McDonald, of this town. At the hour named the ceremony took place; the wedding march was played by Miss Cassie McDonald, while the happy principals took their place side by side, in front of the bride's pastor, Rev. Wm. Farquharson, who placed before them the duties and responsibilities of the married state, and each gave the solemn promise "forsaking all other to be true till death." The groom was supported by Mr. Norman Turner, while the bride was supported by Myrtle, the pretty sister of the groom.

Very hearty and sincere were the congratulations that followed from the nearly 175 guests. The lives and the loves of the happy couple have been an open book, and their many friends in Durham will welcome them to its citizenship, rejoicing to think that the new "house" that has taken its birth.

It took some time to get through but the last had cake, kiss and good wish were over at last and table after table was surrounded by the large company and justice done to the elegant viands before them. The artist had been at work too, and their many friends in Durham were gratified by beautiful creations, the most striking being the very handsome 5 storey wedding cake.

The bride, who is the only child of the late Andrew Marshall, of Normanby, has been for about half her life in association with the writer, at first as a teacher and pupil, and then as well as later as an employee on the staff of the Review for over four years. We intend to tell her husband some day when she's not listening that she was a bright and willing pupil, and a skilful and reliable employee, and while we will miss her as an aid to fall back upon to give us a "hand out" in a crush, we take second place to none of her friends in wishing her and her husband all the joys of life.

Besides the many friends of her home here and the early home of her mother and herself there were present from a distance Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Banks, O. Sound, Mr. Joe, and Miss Annie McFarlane, O. Sound; Miss Lizzie McArthur, Niagara Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Schreiber, Arthur; Messrs. Will and Don. Robertson, Kincardine. Friends from even a greater distance recognized her worth and winsomeness by sending her valuable presents, a list of which follows.

Parlor suit, 3 rocking chairs, 3 parlor tables, easel and picture, tea cosy, music rack, lamp, paper rack, 3 clocks, 3 yachts, 2 silver butter dishes, 3 salad bowls, 1 chess dish, 1 dozen knives and forks, five o'clock tea set and tray, coffee set, 2 centre pieces, 3 tea-sets, silver pepper and salt cruet, 3 silver pickle cruets, 1 and 2 silver cruet set, 1 silver, 1/2 doz. bread and butter plates, 2 silver cake dishes, gold-lined sugar shell, 2 silver fruit spoons, 1/2 doz. sterling tea-spoons, doz. silver tea-spoons, silver fern-pot, 2 fern-pots, silver fruit dish, bed-room set, meat platter, fancy glass tea set, 2 carving sets, mustard pot, foot stool, set toilet mats, 1/2 doz. fruit plates, 1/2 doz. linen table napkins, bed spread, Bible, pair chenille curtains, silver tea tray, parlor rug, 1 doz. handkerchiefs, card receiver, 2 chenille table covers, 2 cushions, 2 pair lace curtains, silk table cover, work basket, silk organ drape, linen side board drape and mats, silk quilt, linen table cloth, pair linen towels, crumb tray and brush, jardiniere stand, granite preserving kettle and pudding dish, granite teapot, 4 granite pie plates, silver butter knife, set toilet mats, 2 silver biscuit jars, fancy jug, mirror, glass fruit dish set in silver, fancy table cover, bedroom set, 4 enlarged pictures, bread plate, sugar bowl and cream pitcher, pair fancy mittens, $11 in cash, 45 yds of rag carpet, 3 floor mats.

The evening was pleasantly spent with music and song, and later to the strains of the violin dancing was indulged in. The happy couple left by afternoon train next day, for Toronto where friends of the groom had a large evening reception awaiting them.

The bride was attractively attired in cream cashmere, with shirred yoke and skirt and ribbon with applique; her travelling dress was of blue broadcloth with a very becoming hat of blue velvet to match.

A LARGE DEATH ROLL.

Our obituary notices this week are strikingly numerous, the angel of Death has been amongst us and many homes are saddened and darkened by the going out of the light and life of loved ones.

Mrs. HENRY PARKER.

The town was startled Wednesday morning to learn that this well-known lady had breathed her last. For some weeks past she has been ill with a stomach complaint, but no serious complications were feared until last week. The best of medical aid was secured and all done that careful nursing could do, but death was in the cup, and the devoted husband and loving friends are left to mourn the highly esteemed lady whose presence will be missed in other circles besides that of her own home. She was a consistent and earnest member of the Anglican church here, and for many years took a prominent part in its service of praise, and generally was a public spirited supporter of all good movements. Her name previous to marriage was Sheppard, her brother, Mr. Chas. Sheppard, of Barrie, being well-known here. She is to be buried on Friday.

Mr. GEO. ADLAM.

Wednesday morning, at the home of his daughter Mrs. R. Marshall, this well-known Bentinck farmer succumbed from the effects of an operation the previous day. The injury to the toe which necessitated its amputation was found to be still causing trouble and working upward, and with a view to check a tendency that would before long result in death, amputation of the leg above the knee was decided upon. This was done Tuesday and the patient bore it well, but the shock to the system was too great and next day he passed away. Mr. Adlam and family have long been residents of Bentinck, and a wide circle will deeply sympathize with the widow and children over the removal of a worthy citizen and a loving husband and father. He was a member of the Anglican communion and will be buried on Sunday, the delay being to admit of the presence of a son who is far away.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Noble, Glenelg, mourn the loss of their first born child, and elsewhere we refer to the death of Mr. Henry Dennet and Mr. John Murdoch. Our sympathy is extended to all the mourners.

IN MEMORIAM.

Contributed by Rev. Mr. Little to our Holstein correspondent.

John R. Murdoch, well and favorably known here, son of Jas. Murdoch, Inspector of Weights and Measures, passed peacefully away last Thursday after an illness of less than two weeks. A week ago last Sabbath he was taken with appendicitis and was operated on by Drs. Brown, Holstein and Jones M. Forest, and was doing very well until pneumonia set in on Monday following, and he had not strength to battle with this trouble and rapidly sank till the end came on Thursday. In the death of Mr. Murdoch the township loses one of its most respected citizens and the board of the Agricultural Society one of its ardent members. But where he will be most missed of all will be in the Presbyterian Church, Fairbairn, where he has been a most devoted Elder for several years. He has led the service of Praise there since a boy, and there were few more capable. He had great musical ability, a sweet voice, and was ever willing. He was never absent from his church either on Sabbath or the weekly prayer meeting if it were possible for him to be there. His funeral, which took place on Monday, 23rd inst. was attended by a large concourse of people. It is estimated that over two hundred sleighs were in the procession. The pall bearers were his brethren of Session of Holstein and Fairbairn, viz: Messrs. R. Dodds, J. Philip, K. Aitken, J. McInnes, J. Stephenson and W. H. Rogers. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. Little, assisted by Rev. Mr. Kestle, Holstein. The funeral address was based on Numbers 23:10—Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like His. His death was truly a triumphant one. His devoted wife was a daughter of the late Jas. Swanston, and is left with three little children to mourn the loss of a true husband and father.—Com.

Durham Horticultural Society.

The annual meeting of the above Society was held in the Public Library on Wednesday evening, Jan. 11th, for the election of officers and other business, when the following officers were elected: President, Gilbert McKechnie; 1st Vice-President, Thos. Davis; 2nd Vice-President, J. P. Tolford. Directors, William Ritchie, Durham, Jos. A. Brown, Archie Robertson, John Hunt, Chris. Firth, James Lloyd, Geo. Furneaux, Arthur Jackson, A. A. Catton; Secretary-Treasurer, Chris. Firth; Auditors, G. L. Graor, C. Ramage. Owing to the inclemency of the weather there was a very small attendance.
