Confidence . . .

Confidence between the merchant and his customers is the surest foundation for his success in business. To merit and retain the confidence of cur clothing customers has been our constant aim and we exercise the greatest care in selecting styles and materials that are sure to please the most exacting and then we in an excellent position to supply our customers with Tailor-made Clothing.

During the past month we have received large shipments of Men's and Boys' Suits and Men's and Boys' Overcoats and we are offering them at prices that mean money savers to those who take advantage of them. So many goods are cheaply put together, the proper price is not paid for the making, there is no exactness in cutting that the finished garment in outward appearance may seem equal to ours, but after it is worn, the difference is clearly shown.

Where does the Money come from?

WHAT MONEY? The money that makes millionaires of the manufacturers of Agricultural Machinery? Why, out of the pockets of the farmers who buy and finally pay for the machine.

Why not save some of this money for yourself by securing shares in the Farmers' M'f'g and Supply Co., Limited? What you don't save in the price paid for your machinery you receive yourself in dividends which otherwise would otherwise go into the pockets of the wealthy manufacturers. Write for particulars to

News from Mull.-Who is the Lady?

TO EDITOR DURHAM REVIEW.

DEAR SIR,—The following paragraph stock FOOD.

Is taken from the Oban Times, Scotland, dated December 24, 1904. The undersigned wishes to know where the lady spoken of in the paragraph resides in Grey, and if published in the next issue of the Review might lead to the necessary information. Following is the paragraph, which speaks for itself :--

"Perhaps the most striking feature about the Canadian Kilties' Band, which is at present giving musical exhibitions in the chief towns of Scotland, is the drum major, Roderick Ban MacKenzie. Standing two and a half inches over standing two and a half inches over seven feet and magnificently proportioned. Mr. MacKenzie is a fine specimen of the Canadian Celt. Though born in Ontario he is closely connected with the Highlands, his grandfather and grandmother having emigrated from Lochalsh and Kintail respectively. Natives of Mull, however, will be more interested in Mrs. MacKenzie, who accompanied her husband on the tour. Nee Christing her husband on the tour. Nee Christina MacDougall, she is the youngest daughter of Duncan McDougall and Mary MacDonald, who left Muli between 50 Monday last was the 20th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ramage, N. Egremont, and to signalize the china milestone they invited to spend the evening, over 30 of their early friends and neighbors not a few of whom were associated with their host in the choirs of their pre-marriage days. The warmth and cordiality of the welcome inside more than made up for the chills of the zero drive and fraternization MacDonald, who left Mull between 50 and 60 years ago. Her mother, who resides in Grey County. Ontario, left behind in Mull an only brother, who was subsequently killed on some boat. He left a widow and four children—two sons and two daughters—some of whom may still be living in the island. Mrs. MacKenzie is very desirous of tracing her relatives over here, and with that object intends to visit Mull sbortly after the new year. It may be added that both Mr, and Mrs. MacKenzie speak
