TOWN TOPICS

T. P. Smith, Eye Specialist, will visit Durham, on March 1st next. At Parker's Drug Store.

The Annual meeting of the Durham Furniture Co., Limited, is called for Friday, Feb. 24.

Wall paper sale continues through Feb. We had to hold shipments waiting for room. Help us clear our racks. Our prices will suit you.—MacFarlane & Co.

$100 NOT $100.—By a typographical error last week we made it appear the town granted only $100 to the Public Library. Nothing so small entered their thoughts.

AN OMISSION.—In some way we omitted last week the name of "John Kelly, Treas." from our list of Public Library Officers. As is well known, he is one of its stand-bys.

BOX SOCIAL.—Many are looking forward to a good time at the box social under the auspices of Sep. S. Section, No. 7, Glenelg, to be held in the Tp Hall, Friday evening, March 3rd.

IMPROVED STOCK.—Mr. John Eckhardt, Bunessan, sold a cow and two calves—thoroughbred—to Mr. D. Leith, Varney, for a good round sum. Both men are amongst our progressive farmers and handle only the best.

There will be a BoxSocial at the home of Mr. D. Greenwood, Glenelg, on Friday evening next, Feb. 17th. The ladies are doing all they can to make it a success. Gentlemen 25c. Ladies will provide boxes. Free ride to all. The teams will leave the Methodist church at 7.30 p. m.

WEDDED.—Thursday last, 9th inst., at seven o'clock, by Rev. Mr. Marshall, Miss Lizzie Dunbar of Durham, was married to Mr. Lachlan Mackenzie of the same place. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. R. Bailey, of the Market Square, none but the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. The happy couple will reside in Durham.—Guelph Mercury.

The annual meeting of Cement Co. is to be held in Toronto on Feb. 23 inst. There will no doubt be a good attendance as the Director will have an interesting report showing clearly we believe that our great industry during 1904 was a money-making concern, even with the price of cement lower than it is likely to be again for some time. Owing to the initial mishaps and mistakes, it will not be expected to be possible to declare a dividend this year, but we hope the directors and managers see daylight ahead in this particular.

SEVERE WEATHER.—With the exception of a day last week when the temperature jumped from 20 degrees below to as much above, the weather has been severe for several weeks past. Latterly winds have added to the discomfort by making roads bad and altogether this winter is proving a good second to its predecessor. Monday for the first time the afternoon train was cancelled but it got through in the evening. The Railway authorities deserve credit for the excellent service they have given so far.

NEW CHURCH.—The Presbyterian church at Hanover which has been in course of erection during the past summer is to be dedicated for Divine service on Sabbath forenoon next. Dr. Alexander Stewart of Clinton, is to preach morning and evening and Rev. Mr. Wilson of Walkerton, takes a service in the afternoon. On Monday evening elaborate preparations are being made for a tea. We congratulate the Hanover congregation and their enthusiastic pastor on erection of a building that will be an ornament to their town and a credit to the Presbyterian cause there.

RECEMMENT.—At the annual meeting of the Owen Sound Board of Trade, a review of all town interests was made and amongst these their three cement mills came in for notice. All had had an active season, but the financial part was not satisfactory. "The price here however has not been at all remunerative, large lots having been sold as low as $1.30 a barrel. The slump in prices has been caused by over production in Germany and in the United States, while they in turn send a very inferior quality into the Canadian markets, at largely reduced prices, thereby forcing the Canadian mills to sell at prices which in many cases leave little or no margin of profit. The government should impose such a duty on this product, as would enable our mills to compete more favorably with foreign imports." A duty would certainly help the mills, but just as certainly as in all protection, the consumer would pay it.

SERVANT GIRL WANTED.—Apply to Mrs. W. Black.

If you want a new hat, a good hat, the latest style, call on Flarity, the up-to-date Furnishing Store.

The young men of the Methodist Church will give a song service next Sabbath evening, Feb. 19th. All are welcome.

SERIOUS ILLNESS.—Mrs. Beggs has had more than her share of trouble lately, three of her boys being ill with pneumonia. They are recovering, but the case of Albert is still very serious.

LIGHTS OUT.—On Sunday evening last a burn-out took place at the Power House at Aberdeen extensive enough to throw the town without light for a week or two perhaps until repairs are made.

LADIES' COATS.—J. L. Flarity is putting in stock for same in the very newest shades and patterns, suitable for either long or short coats and is prepared to give good satisfaction in Ladies' Tailor-made Coats.

MORE COAL, MORE COAL.—The use of coal this winter is markedly on the increase. The School Board eked out a fading supply by getting about 12 tons from the Parker estate. Black, the Hardware man, delivered two carloads last week and has another on the way.

12c LOAF.—Citizens this week have a sharp reminder of the rise in cereal products in their rise in the price of bread. The bakers here following the example of Guelph and other places, have determined to charge 12c for the 3 lb. This is 16c for the old standard 4 lb loaf, almost double what it was a few years ago. The high price of flour and other products is given as the reason of the rise.

JESSIE McLACHLAN.—The name of a name to charm with, and her appearance in Priceville on Friday evening last was sufficient to draw not a few from Durham notwithstanding stormy weather. Those who in various parts of the town entertained her in the evening were good. The Sons of Scotland Society are to be congratulated on their success. Tickets were all sold days before the event, and a hall twice the size could have been filled.

SERIOUS WORK.—A few days ago some young lads who are old enough to know better were discovered in a theft which may lead them into trouble. With a deplorable cunning for immature years they asked Mr. T. Reid, temporarily in charge of Mrs. Beggs' store, for some article requiring his absence at the back of the shop. While there one of them robbed the till of $3.50, some say $7.50, and got off. The theft was discovered and part of the money secured. There's a lesson to learn by some body.

WATCH FOR THEM.—From various parts throughout the province come reports of the operations of parties peddling dry goods through the country and taking notes from the farmers in payment, which notes are discounted at the banks. The story in all cases is somewhat similar—that the cloth was saved from the Toronto fire and concealed by the owners, who drew insurance on it, and afterwards disposed of it to the pedlar at one-tenth of its actual value. It seems almost incredible that dupes can be found to believe such a silly yarn. The REVIEW feels satisfied that better value can be obtained from our local merchants, who are here to stay and have a reputation to sustain. The story of a shoddy goods pedlar is an old one but he still manages to do some business. Deal with responsible men and get satisfaction.—Ex.

IN SUNNY FLORIDA.—A little pamphlet from the "The Florida Chautauque" at De Funiac Springs, Florida has reached our office this week, sent by our good friend, Rev. C. H. Leeson, of Clinton, Ind. He has a great deal to answer for rousing in us envy, as we read in the prospectus of outdoor pastimes and sports, rowing and sailing, lolling on sunny beaches, and are informed "in one day the snow-banks north of the Ohio become merely a memory amid the sunny dreams of the Southland." We rouse ourselves as we note the need of more wood in the furnace, we look outdoors and see drifting snows and passers by in furs yet holding their ears and the thermometer tells us it is twenty below zero! Never mind Mr. Leeson, call around here next July, we'll show you something good. We notice that at the moment we write, Tuesday, Mr. Leeson is lecturing on "The Ministry of Art," and is down for at least five other occasions this week on a wide range of subjects. We are pleased indeed to see the talent of our old pupil appreciated.

THE LATE JOHN ROBERTSON

Still another to the long roll of the dead whom the grim reaper has this winter gathered in, and this time it is another of Durham's old business men, known as "tailor Robertson". About two months ago he became confined to the house with a ganguerous affection of the toe which gradually grew worse until on Sunday it ended with his death. During most of the time he was a great sufferer, and was tenderly ministered to by his daughters, Mrs. Marshall, Ottawa and Miss Robertson, and not less so by his sons John and Archie, who showed every filial care. His death was looked for a month ago, since which time he has partaken of absolutely no food and very little liquid nourishment, his strong vitality fighting off the inevitable end.

Mr. Robertson was a man of great native intelligence, a wide reader, of unfailing integrity, and detested every kind of sham. He had a very wide acquaintance throughout this country, and many of the elder sort will bear with regret of his death which will seem the severing of a link between the present and the past. He was several years past the allotted span and had a healthy and vigorous life. His wife preceded him many years ago, and besides the two sons and two daughters mentioned, there remain to cherish his memory two other sons, R. J. in British Columbia, and Alex. in Manitoba.

Mr. Robertson was an enthusiastic Liberal in politics, with nothing but content and indignation for everything done for policy instead of principle. He was an adherent of the Presbyterian church and in the days of his strength a regular attender. He was buried on Tuesday in the Saugeen cemetery, many friends in town taking by their presence their respect for his memory. The day was one of the bitterest of the season, and impassable roads prevented many from attending from outside points.
