Where does the Money come from?

WHAT MONEY? The money that makes millionaires of the manufacturers of Agricultural Machinery? Why, out of the pockets of the farmers who buy and finally pay for the machine.

Why not save some of this money for yourself by securing shares in the Farmers' Mfg and Supply Co., Limited? What you don't save in the price paid for your machinery you receive yourself in dividends which otherwise would otherwise go into the pockets of the wealthy manufacturers.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. John Moffat are spending a few days in Palmerston.

Miss Erma Schwenk is visiting Miss Lizzie Lauder in Toronto for a couple of weeks.

Mr. Don. McCormack is this year teaching at Utterson, in Muskoka, being Principal of the school there at a good salary.

Mr and Miss Irvine of Grenfell, N.W.T. spent the first part of the week with their relatives, Mrs Orchard and Mrs Arthur McClocklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Banks, Owen Sound, spent the past week with the Robertson family, Upper Town, and are now visiting friends in the country.

Congratulations to the Hon. Thos. Swallow, who, to-day, Tuesday, informs us that he has completed his 69th year. If the flesh were as willing as the spirit he would be good for 50 years yet. As it is may be many more years to cheer a younger generation.

Mr. A. W. Hunter passed lately his 3rd year examination at McGill College with honors, and stands fourth in a class of 117. This is a continuation of his previous successes having in his earlier years always taken honors. Our young townsman is of the stuff to make a brilliant career. Congratulations

JOHN VASEY.

After nearly fifty-five years residence on the farm on which he died, Mr John Vasey passed away at his home in the township of Sullivan, near Dornoch, on Thursday morning, February 2nd, at the age of 77 years and 11 months. Deceased had been in poor health for about two years, but he was seriously ill for five weeks, heart trouble being the cause of his death, and during his long illness he preserved the same even temper and manly disposition which characterized his everyday life in health, and never once complained. He was born in the County of Mayo, Ireland, in 1828, and in 1847 came to Owen Sound and immediately afterwards settled in Sullivan. He was one of a family of large hearted courageous, powerful men, who went into the wilderness and hewed out comfortable homes for themselves, never failing to extend to prospective settlers and travellers the right hand of fellowship and words of cheer. He was an honest, upright man, known all over the country and highly respected. He leaves a widow and seven children, three children having predeceased him, the surviving members of the family being John, Joseph, James and George, Mrs T. Travers, and Mrs. L. O'Connor, of Sudbury, and Miss Mary, the youngest of the family, and the only child at home. Mr. Wm. Vasey is the surviving brother of the deceased. Roman Catholic church, and was interred in the Roman Catholic cemetery at Dornoch on Saturday, 4th inst, the Rev. Father Buckley officiating. The funeral was largely attended. The aged widow and members of the family have the sympathy of a very large circle of friends in their severe loss.—News

MRS. SHEPHERD.

A late issue of the Burlington Gazette contains a reference to the death of Mrs. Martha Shepherd, grandmother of Mrs. R. Torry, of this city. Previous to moving to Burlington, she was a resident of the 4th con, Bentinck, having lived there for a number of years with her husband and three or four of the younger members of her family, and were much respected by all who knew them. Nearly all their old neighbors, with the exception of three or four, have gone to their long rest. Following is the notice: "Mrs. Martha Shepherd, an old and respected resident of the village, passed away at her home on Tuesday evening last shortly after six o'clock. She was 82 years of age, and had lived until March 15th, would have been 83. She had been an invalid for the past six years, and contracted the influenza cold a few days ago, and this attack, combined with old age, was the cause of death. The deceased was born in Yorkshire County, England, on March 15th, 1813. Her maiden name was Martha Stephenson. In 1832 she was united in marriage to the late John Shepherd, and in 1838, with their family, they came to Canada and settled in Nelson township. For the past 22 years the old lady has been a resident of Burlington. Her husband predeceased her about ten years ago. The deceased was a constant member of the Methodist church. She is survived by eleven children, eight sons and three daughters. They are Wilfred, of Hamilton; Henry, of Appleby; John, George and Robert, of Nelson Township; Alfred, of Brantford; Edward, of Portland, Oregon, and Thomas, of Burlington; Mrs. Carlwell, Mrs. George Blair, and Miss Martha Shepherd, all of Burlington. 63 grand-children and 11 great grand-children are living.

DONALD R. MCINTOSH.

"The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want." With an implicit trust in the God of his fathers and in Him who is the true Shepherd of the world, one of the oldest and most esteemed citizens of Grey Co. in the person of Mr. Donald Ross McIntosh, passed suddenly away on the morning of Feb. 1st, at his home, Dornoch, Ont.

Deceased was as well and as active as usual up to a few days of his death. He possessed all the alacrity and vim of youth, and was a true type of the Highland physique. He contracted a slight cold which developed into pneumonia to which he succumbed in a few hours. The harbinger of death arrived shortly after midnight Jan. 31st, and with a gentle summons like the zephyrs which blow soft o'er the "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," called his spirit home.

Mr. McIntosh was the eldest son of the late Mr. John MacIntosh, Dornoch, Ont. He was born in the parish of Dornoch, Sutherlandshire, Scotland, Sept. 1st, 1825. This latter county is justly famous for the many religious, mental and physical products which it has given the world. He was thus at his death the ripe old age of 80 years and 5 months.

Deceased and his parents emigrated to Canada in May, 1830, settling at St. Andrew's village, near Cornwall, Glengarry Co. In 1842, he and his father moved to "Canada West," and settled at Dornoch, Grey Co., then a contiguous wilderness. He was the first boy, therefore, in this part, and had the trying experience of driving through the almost unbroken forests from Glengarry to Grey, a distance of over 400 miles. The rest of the family arrived in the following summer. In all there was a family of ten, five of whom survive him, namely: Philip, postmaster at Dornoch, Hughie of Qu'Appelle, Assa, N. W. T., Mrs. W. McDonald, Toronto, Mrs. A. McDonald, Parry Sound, and Mrs. Duncan Campbell of Bentinck.

Early in the sixties, he was married to Miss Mary Cameron, of Latona, who predeceased him by 3 yrs. 5 mos. 12 days. He leaves a family of five, Angus, Margaret, and Susie at home, Christina (now Mrs. Heft of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.), and Cameron, principal of the Model School at Athens, Leeds Co., all of whom miss the moulding influence of him who was "true to the kindred points of Heaven and home."

In religion he was a staunch Presbyterian, being at his death one of the oldest members of the Dornoch church, which is built on the old home-stead, on a parcel of land gratuitously presented to the congregation by his father, who was the patriarch Presbyterian of the place. In politics he was always a Liberal. He was one of the first three constables of Sullivan township and one of the first three white men who rafted the Saugeen from Walkerton to Port Elgin. He also held, later, the positions of Councillor and Assessor of Sullivan.

But his strongest quality was his life in the home and the neighborhood. His humility, his integrity, his charity for one and all, his resignation, faith and prayerful life, stand out as a beacon light to those who are left behind to mourn the irreparable loss of father, brother, and friend.—Com.

Trials of Big Salaries.

Some weeks ago the Bishop of London addressing a body of working men spoke of himself as a "working man." At a meeting of the trades some time after, the working men ridiculed the Bishop's claim to belong to their class. "At least," they asserted "he is not a working man in the sense that he has any anxiety as to his daily bread since he lives in a palace and has £10,000 a year." ($50,000.) To this the bishop replied by publishing an itemized account of his expenditure in 1904 most of which is forced on him by the position which he fills. These amounts show an expenditure totalling some £750 in excess of his yearly salary, the conclusion being drawn that his "business" paid no better than most of theirs.

Out of this statement an interesting discussion has arisen over an item of £33, 7s. 2d. for papers, books and magazines. The "with both hands" stock-
BRY, who says that the bishop out of all his income should be mentally starved with no more to spend on books than this paltry sum. From all kinds of people letters have been pouring in till the British Weekly says, "We have been overwhelmed with letters on the subject." Ladies have written that "their husband's purchase of books is impoverishing the whole household." Some husbands say they "do not like to state how much they spend for fear of imperiling the domestic peace." Some think "in public libraries everything that is necessary may be read" and some even think that "reading of books is a waste of time and that ministers in particular depend too much on human learning."

So the round of argument goes, but the moral of the whole is that all classes have their trials, that some men with big salaries, who even live in palaces are not so rich as they seem to be, and that the load of anxiety and care is more evenly divided than at first sight appears.—Com.

TOPICS OF THE WEEK

—Hon. G. W. Ross is reported in very poor health and going to the Bahama Islands.

—King Edward last week opened parliament in person: the sixth session of the 1st Parliament of his reign.

—Great complaints reach Canada from British Importers that goods sent from here are not up to samples, especially in the matter of fruit. This lack of common honesty in selling is one way of killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

—An appropriation of $2,000,000 is to be made to enable Canada to man properly her defences at Halifax and Esquimaux from which the British Government is withdrawing its garrisons. This will be a suitable contribution to empire, while doing something for ourselves.

—The Dominion Parliament has before it the knotty question of forming new provinces out of the territories. Among the minor snags is the question of the capital, the struggle being keen between Edmonton and Calgary for the honor of being capital of Alberta. Neither may get it. A burning question is that of separate schools, a matter we think the territories, or new provinces, should decide for themselves.

NOTICE.

Pending a settlement with the estate of the late Neil McKechnie and a dissolution of the partnership heretofore existing, it now becomes imperative that all accounts and notes should be settled with as little delay as possible. In accordance with the above announcement we have therefore to request a settlement with all parties indebted to the undersigned. N. G. & J. McKECHNIE. Durham, Feb. 1, 1906.
