The Management of the Court

NOT STEALING.

an May Be a Common Cheat.

reh 13.-Mrs. Sarah J. proprietress of the 500 Yonge street, was Police Court yesterday the theft of $200 from Mr. T. C. Robinette, K. the prisoner, and plead-answered an advertisethe papers for a maneen Laundry. He was he stipulation that he 200 to pay off the "sild half pay for the matness took a note for i worked for a little s, when the business heft there," said Mag-his same trick upon at rs," said Crown Attorog those who lost are: Mr. Varley, $750; Mr. Miss Angell $200; Miss Frawley, 8500, and Mr. small amount."

can make out a case common cheat," said son, "But this case is

4++--HELP MY BABY,"

Pathetic Appeal to Her

ch 13 -A male baby, a as abandoned on the oseph rectory last night arrived on a train from ok a back to the recthe infant's clothing ther, to take my little shelter. Its unhappy ng and sick, and folmy. Dear father, put is city, or board him ch, for God's sake, him. His mother will few months. He has can carry aim no farhan have him lose his d of Heaven and His atch over and protect ather, help my baby," ---

OF WARSHIPS. denr Fighters Are Per-

Useless. 3.-The Expres pubg: The startling dismikhends of some of en-water pressure was cent inspection of the he Admiral, the steel pirit-rooms were shorns and uprights, and umped in. Long beents in several of the the water-tight doors cen filled with water. in the event of colre been no shores, the ably have burst, and s gone in turn, with

to give, and buckled

in actual burst, but the walls was accuron the shores which

CED BY WHALE.

teen-Mile Swim to wing: Two fisherentually sinking it, and them, floating doing this damage companion, was amconstructed a raft he shore. Of course either man had food

ER GOES FREE.

t, of the Royal Engh undertaking to tell .

e world," said Judge case will have to be

From Tea Plantation to Store

TEA. Unsleeping vigilance selects the TENDEREST LEAVES, scrutinizes every process of their manufacture and carefully SEALS them in LEAD PACKETS to PRESERVE the FULL FLAVOR. No wonder the BEST IS BLUE RIBBON TEA. TRY THE RED LABEL.

Bridegroom.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

fore," Mr. L ighton continued, "that from my place of concealment, when to his brow plainly betrayed that met on board the steamer was Mr. matter of creating a supply of reliable every farm home, for making germinaas soon as I was able, I wound up to my amazement, they seized upon his surmises were correct, my father's affairs in Sidney, as me as the belated bridegroom, and "To go back to that scene in the best man, and we instantly recog- future promises for a permanent basis used on the farm. The simplest and well as I could, and then started hurried me inside the gloomy church, chapel," the young man resumed, and 'nized each other." Immediately for London, to ascertain and straight to the altar." what set I ment I could make there. "Blast you! I suspected as much fingers came in contact with this thing that has always puzzled me," suited for ensilage and fodder purposes root crop and larger vegetable seeds is I was kindly received by the firm when I found out!" the prisoner ring, I mechanically drew it forth murmured Florence, as she recalled in all parts of Canada where corn can to place a number of them—say one with whom we had been dealing, had here interposed, but abruptly paus- and passed it to the clergyman, who the shock that had quivered through be grown, with success, a long talk with them, stating plain- ed and dropped into his old attitude. hurrisely finished the ceremony, and Addison Merrill that morning when ly the predicament in which I found "It was all so quickly done," Mr. still the missing bridegroom had not they had encountered Mr. Leighton myself, and asking for their forbear- Leighton proceeded, without notic- come. I was apalled-my brain was on the upper deck. ance until I had time to recover ing the interruption, "I had no time in a swhirl-fort knew that the whole from my ill-luck. I found them most to reason clearly, and before I affair had been but a sacreligious courteous and considerate-yonder scarcely realized my position, the farce, and in another moment I they sit-Messrs. Saunderson & trembling little bride and her at- should have con essed the pirt that Richards, wool merchants, of Lon- tendant were standing beside me and I had played; but you turned suddendon," the narrator explained, and the clergyman had begun the ser- ly to me and began to beg me to indicating by a gesture the strang- vice. I could not distinguish the take you home. Your entreaties then occurred to me that, while I him-I listened for him every was waiting, I would look up the stant, scarce Leeding what in the remotest manner to the plans; tent I was carrying the farce. idea of aspiring to the hand of any were some of the disconnected one for the sake of money; but I had | thoughts that flitted through my a desire to meet Miss Richardson: brain. Then, guided more by insimply because she was the child of stinct than reason, as I hastily my father's old friend. Seaver, lived some miles out of town, | with--" and one evening I took the train! "The ring! There was a ring! Deand started forth to make my call., scribe it-oh, describe it !" The day had been intensely warm, | Florence here interposed, almost | tempestuous summer night. As it I felt asleep in the car and was every particle of color receding rectly back to the town, where I destination. "On alighting, I found there was eppealing look. It was ten nearly eight, and dense gentleness. shower. I went to a livery stable affair, composed of three strands and tan-bark spread upon the street | Co., Brockville, Ont. me how to find my way back to the Greek characters were engraven, and so went away arain without even town I had passed. My plan was to and which signify "Love and Hope.' making any inquiries, and thinking any inquiries, and thinking any call, then return It belonged to my mother—she gave that perhaps later I would make an-

the city in the morning. tions regarding my road and kind- it down to my son should I ever before, and for several weeks I was the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, insisted that I should take his mackintosh along, as I was sure to get a wetting before I could get oack. I started, but it grew sud-I mly very dark and ere long I was hand, and, opening it, showed him nearly five weeks before I was able This colossal craft is christened the hagrined to find I had lost my way. turned back, retraced a portion of the distance, and finally found myself again on the right road. But But the storm-a fearful one traveled faster than I, and overtook me, and, as I neared a little village observed a dim light in a small church by the roadside. "It occurred to me that I might take shelter within it until the shower should pass. I guided my norse into the adjoining shed, dismounted, and tied him, and then sped for the church. "A carriage was at the entrance and two men were standing in the vestibule, which was densely dark. Neither observed my approach, and, thinking that something might be occurring within the church upon which I should not intrude, I stood quietly where I was. "Suddenly I was startled to hear my own name,-Walter Leightonuttered by one of the men. Involuntarily I shrank behind a pillar, and nearer to the speakers, and waited | all, my brain had been half turned | fused to restore the papers I deto hear more, wondering who, in that region, could know anything about me. "Thus I was amazed to learn that the man of whom they were special I have kept it concealed most sac- the had everything to prove his posi- from slip to slip. On an average, about some wealthy girl for her money; who she was I failed to ascertain, as she was mentioned only as the girl; but for some unaccountable reason the bridegroom had not arrived yet, and the whole wedding party were impatiently awaiting

"The affair was very freely discussed, and it was gradually unfolded to me that my cousin was also in America, masquerading in my name, but still as great a villain as ever; that he had won the affections of a lovely, innocent girl with a large fortune, had persuaded her to consent to a secret marriage because her friends disapproved of him; and these minions of his were to receive a handsome return fort heir and save the poor, misguided little tions made by the London firm. It glanced at Florence. "I looked for daughter of my father's old friend | clergyman was saying, and going and former partner. Not, I assure | through with my part of the cereyou," interposed the young man, mony mechanically. It was only darting a quick glance at Florence, when the ring was called for that "with the intention of referring, even I began to realize to what exthat our parents had once enter- | was appalled ! I had no wedding tained for us; for my position at | ring! What should I do? How ac that time did not warrant any count for my remissness? Should thought of marriage, and my pride; stop the service then and there and would have revolted against the explain everything? Such were carried several miles beyond my from her face, while her agonized had procured my horse, spent the restore it to you," said Florence, ping declaring he could not have a County, Cal., between Benicia and Port is spilled or wasted; you know just how ing the regions near the equator. Inthe ring upon her paim.

ing the chain about her neck, she nesday. had slipped the ring from it to return it to him.

ret, upon whose hand I had placed and Andrews was out. But I was de- | length of this boat, it is unnecessary to

A sneering little laugh from An- ridiculous. na Folsom at this moment caused Florence to glance toward her. "Ah! it was through that spy," she exclaimed, with sudden conviction."She has watched me constant- and taxing him with trying to delously, as she turned toward Anna, did you tell him a bout it?"

redly from every one."

The girl sneered again. to this company to know that Miss lish myself as Walter Carrol Leigh-Richardson has worn it upon a chain to" laugh that brought the hot blood Mr. Seaver here observed, as the in a quick flood to Florence's brow, narrator paused Whereupon Mr. Seaver marched "Yes," the young man replied, "for straight across the room, took the It was my mother who was sister to insulting maid by the arm, with a Lady Page's father; there is not a ly," he thundered. "If you show view with Andrews, I found, on your face in my presence again, I glancing over the World, the names, growers who used seed of unknown vital-ceived in the ear, 95 per cent., and for place of that villain yonder."

North-West Legislation.

Florence Richardson as booked to for 1905 of more than ordinary interest. It is much to be recommended then upon that occasion.'

ers who entered with the attorneys. features of either of the ladies, were abruptly terminated with a cry "They commissioned me to go to for both wore spotted lace veils, of terror, just as a fearful crash of They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

American and ascertain what terms and the place was very dimly lighted—to avoid attracting attention of the local time. They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both wore spotted face vers.

They commissioned me to go to lor both work and the lor both work and the place was a spot face below and the place were spotted face vers.

The commission with the cost for labor labor with the cost for labor labor labor with the cost for labor labor labor labo branch, giving me letters of intro- tion, as I supposed. I knew that into my arms, which I extended to duction and recommendation to the real groom was liable to appear them, and encouraged me with the lat any instant; but I was boiling to the real groom was liable to appear them, and encouraged me with the lat any instant; but I was boiling to the real groom was liable to appear them, and encouraged me with the lat any instant; but I was boiling to the real groom was liable to appear them. them, and encouraged me with the at any instant; but I was boiling the place and put you into the earuse that they believed that with indignation, and determined to home with all possible dispatch. Some with all possible dispatch. the whole business could be amicably and satisfactor ly settled. I accord
the whole business could be amicably and satisfactor ly settled. I accord
the whole business could be amicably and satisfactor ly settled. I accord the with indignation, and determined to denounce and expose him, and so I water, and set on a cloth that should better for Canadian farmers if they were be kept damp, or in a pan containing not logly saild immediately and arrived til he did come, and then have it with the person who had acted as there is the circulation. The new blood New York late in June of last year. out with him. It did not occur to best man. He had just secured the they make races through your veins to I interviewed the members of that me that he might not come at all," cortificate from the clergyman, I every part of your body from finger demanded it of him, for I knew that tips to toes, and makes you warm, happy in the ear, the danger of injury to the not available, a brick will answer the have time to consider the proposi- show of emotion, as he again it should not be allowed to exist, and healthy. Mr. Alphonse Lacoussiere, and, as I spoke, he realized for the St. Leon, Que., says: "About a year ago first time that I was a stranger. He my blood became impoverished and I was after effects is reduced to a minumum. in an earthen saucer they may be expaper-he refused to enlighten me re- the least exertion. My trouble was fur- seldom germinate more than 75 per cent., followed him to the door, demanding and bladder, and often I could not go gone before I could detain him.

follow him: but the man said he did best of health." fumbled in my vest pocket, my and hired a horse, telling the owner | braided together and fastened with | before the door. I knew, of course, my errand and asking him to direct a small plate upon which some there must be serious liness within, with my horse, catch the train if I it to me baly a short time before other effort. But I had taken a secould, but, in case of failure, remain | she died. It was a peculiar relic | vere cold on the night previous, and here for the night and go back to that had been in her family for on my return to New York I was atmore than a hundred years, and she | tacked by my old enemy, which had | ferryboat in the world, says J. B. Moore "The man gave me minute direc- requested me to keep it and pass so nearly cost me my life the year in The American Inventor, is owned by an inmate of a hospital, the proprie- and is used in transferring trains across are given as compared with liquid medi-"Ah! Then I am glad that I can tor of the hotel was step- Carquinoz Straits in Centra Costa cines will appeal to every mother. None ists and botanists are constantly exploras she nervously extended one tever pitient in the house. It was Costa to get out again, and then I devoted myself to the business which had The moment he had begun to tell brought me to America. After a about taking refuge in the church few days the New York firm informby the roadside on that tempestu- ed me they had decided to accept the ous June evening, the mystery of proposition of the London firm, and, the strange marriage ceremony was this matter settled, I determined to gines have a combined strength of 2,000

> "Meantime, I khought I would look United States or other navies. up Andrews and demand of him ther "Yes, that is the very ring," he papers which I knew he had stolen. 10,000 trains a year—that is, all sorts of observed, as he took it from her; I did not get track of him until two trains. Often the boat carries forty "but I mever expected to see it days before I was to sail, when I large, heavily loaded freight cars at one again-I never knew, until this hour, learned that he was located for the trip. Not less than fourteen trains are when I heard yonder adven- summer in the town where Mr. Sea- handled each day. The boat has made turer claim you as his wife and ver had his country home. It was as high as forty-two trips during the so cruelly expose that long-kept sec- evening, when I arrived at the place, twenty-four hours. Owing to the great "But he told me that it had be- upon awaiting his return. He found ries a full train of cars, including two longed to his mother," said Florence, me in his room when he came, and tracks extending the entire length, so indicating Andrews by a gesture; was as startled as if one had sud- that four trains may be acommodated at "he described it to me only the denly risen from the dead before night before last, and it was this him, for, until that moment, he fact alone that made me fear, for had believed me to be dead. We the first time, that possibly after had a stormy interview for he rewith fear and fever, as he claimed, manded, and when I taxed him with wheel. This monster craft is constantly and I had imagined a stranger palming himself off as my father's on duty-day and night. At the crossing stood beside rese that night. Even son, and threatend to expose him, point Carquinoz Strait is about a mile now I cannot understand how he he only sneered at me and said that | wide, and it requires from eleven to thirknew it was in my possession, f or | would be a difficult matter, since | ten minutes to make a trip each waytion, and I would only make myself | thirty trips per day are made. So sys-> ally left him, without even refer- passengers travelling each way are transring to that clandestine marriage | ferred every day. less, at that time, to prove anything; firmly re-established in business I would make another effort, and, "Yes," she retorted, with an im- backed by the London firm of Sanpudent toss of her head; "I was derson & Richards, who had it in behind the curtains of your bed one their power to identify me. I bemorning, and saw you looking at lieved I should be able to show my it. Perhaps it may be interesting cousin up as a rogue and estab-

frightened, and well she might er in which I contemplated taking northern grown seed of this important their supplies of seed corn in the car for the man's aspect passage. Now, I thought I would fodder crop indicates that the difficul- only. To meet the demand for seed something terrible; and, have a fine opportunity to ascertain ties of getting good seed will be even corn in this condition growers would do having been paid her wages only what the daughter of my father's three days before, she hurriedly former partner was like. But I re- greater this year than during the two well to adopt the style of shipping crate packed her trunk and precipitately solved that I would not force myself previous years. The best varieties for that is used for this purpose in the folder or ensilage purposes, along the States of Iowa and Illinois. This crate the Seavers ever seeing her again. was rich; and if she should learn northern limit of the corn belt in Can- is two feet nine inches long, one toot "Ah! now it is easy to understand who I was she might be embarras ada, are undoubtedly of the "Flint" type. wide, and one foot deep, and is made how Ardrews was enabled to describe sed by my presence. Besides, I rea- In the latitude of Ottawa only a few of half inch lumber three inches in width. the ring so accurately to you," Mr. soned, she might possibly have met special strains of the "Dent" varieties. Its capacity is one bushel, or between Leighton observed, as the two dis- the man who claimed my name, and give good results for ensilage in the av- one hundred and twenappeared frmo the room. "The girl, that might occasion unpieasant com- erage year. having seen it in your possession, plications. Accordingly, I engaged could give him some idea of it, when my passage under an assumed hame, he must instantly have recognized it, or rather by simply transposing my have been drawn largely from the coun- there may be some additional cost for for he had seen it a great many names and calling myself W. L. Car- try to the south and have been of types freight, on account of the weight of the times upon my mother's finger, and rol. Miss Richardson and I did not and varieties that required a longer sea- cob and of the crate, and that extra knew its history. It must have been become acquainted until the voyage son to mature than is afforded in some work is required in shelling the corn, of our best dairy districts where the to him, for it doubtless explained to never dreamed that she was the poor him at once the mystery that had little bride who had stood beside me hitherte surrounded the ceremony in Rosedale chapel. That incident that took place in Rosedale chapel, was becoming like a dream to me, and told him who the stranger was and I believed that no one would who had acted the part of the groom | ever discover that I had been connected with it in any way. But I tity of good seed for sale this year. The of producing plants requires neither ex-He glanced at the man as he spoke, was destined to be disappointed in Canadian Seed Growers' Association has pert knowledge nor special apparatus. "I shold have perhaps stated be- bride, if I could, I stepped forth and the guilty color that surged up this, for almost the first person I taken up in a business-like way the Satisfactory material is to be found in Merrill, yonder, who had acted as seed corn, and it may be said that the tion tests of practically any kind of seed

(To be continued.)

RICH WARM BLOOD.

and Comfort-Good Blood Banishes

garding your identity, although a ther aggravated by pains in my kidneys quired where he lived, intending to was gone, and I have since enjoyed the west of the Missouri River.

no resident rector there just at that because they actually make new rich bridge will span Carquinoz Strait. point and was never able to learn and brace up the nerves. That is the ferryboat in the world is the giant steel feast. the identity of her with whom I way they cure indigestion, kidney and transfer North Pacific. This boat is Small cup cakes or cookies iced with went through that farce on that liver troubles, rheumatism, nervousness, employed in thansferring the Northern white can be decorated with citron shamneuralgia, palpitation of the heart, St. Pacific Railroad Company's trains across rocks, hats and pipes, The darkest citron and the air was still heavy and life- wildly, as she sprang breathlessly was then much too late for me to Vitus' dance, partial paralysis and the the great Columbia River on their trans- is used for this, and after cutting in thin secret ailments that fill the lives of so continental line to Portland, Or .- be- slices, lay in just enough to cover and many women with misery. Do not take tween Kalama and Globe Point. eyes searched his with an eager, night there, and the next morning any pills without the full name, "Dr. made a second attempt to call upon | Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," no train back until after ten o'clock. He turned to her with exceeding the daughter of my father's old on the wrapper around each box. Sold friend. But as I drew near Mr. Sea- by all medicine dealers or sent by mail clouds in the west, with occasional "Yes, Miss Richardson, here was ver's residence, I found every blind at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, flashes of lightning, portended a a ring," he replied; "a queer little on the front of the house closed, by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine

MONSTER BOAT.

Bridge Soon to be Built What is beyond doubt the largest Solano. The boat is not only large in dimensions, but also in power. The Solano has a net tonnage of 3,057 tons; is 430 feet long, 116 feet wide, and has a mean draught of 15 feet. Her two ensolved for her, and, slyly unfasten- sail for England the following Wed- I. H. P. This ferryboat is larger than most of the great battleships of the

The Solano transfers, on an average termined to see him, and insisted ever cut a train, as she frequently car-one time. The Solano has four smokestacks and steel boilers. The two engines work entirly independent-one to each baddletematically and swiftly are the trips "I realized the truth of this, and scheduled that there is very little, if any. disgusted and discouraged, I fin- | delay to the many trains. Thousands of ly ever since I came to the Towers. ceive an innocent girl, as I had fully involves a very heavy expense to the which one can buy at any novelty store, even after its trunk has been cut Tell me," she commanded, imper- intended to do. I found I was help- railroad company. A bridge is the only will come in handy to form a canopy solution of the problem; a suspension in the dining room for the table. "Lave you seen this ring before and but I resolved that as soon as I was bridge of a mile in length would be too The reception committee, if for a large from the standpoint of the naturalist a serious obstacle to navigation. How- ing white dresses, green belts and have just been forwarded to the War strings. next her heart, as a treasure too "Then you would have been the to the plans submitted, the bridge will in the dining room should wear dainty Institute, of London, by Dr. J. Deniwith indignation, and de- sacred to be trusted anywhere else," being to the son of Sir be 6,800 feet long. There will be a draw white anywhere else, of Paris. The following are "Filled with indignation, and the girl concluded, with a coarse Julien had never been discovered," 200 feet wide in the clear on each side with a green ribbon box. The men can of the terms used:

THE OUTLOOK FOR SEED CORN.

girl was thoroughly sail for Europe upon the same steam- A survey of the available supply of that, wherever possible, farmers obtain of our best dairy districts, where the these become insignificant when the difcorn crop is most needed and most valu- ference in value between an acre of good able. We have a number of very good men who are making a specialty of grow- tory crop is considered. ing corn for the purpose of seed along Lake Erie, and who have a limited quanof supply of a high-class article and of most convenient way to test seed corn still addressing Florence; "when my "Why! now I understand some- varieties that are exceptionally well and other cereal grains and most of the of last autumn rendered the bulk of set them in an ordinatry dinner plate the corn crop in Ontario absolutely asc- and invert another plate to cover them. less for the purpose of seed. A belt The seed should be kept moist but not about a mile in width along the North- wet. The temperature of the average ern shore of Lake Erie was affected only farm house living room would be quite slightly, and from some sections in this suitable, but some care should be taken corn that is required to plant an acre, will have germinated at the end of five People with rich, red blood do not in comparison with the cost for labor days. Very small seeds of the finer your face blue and pinched, it is a cer- would seem tomake it clear that the best germinated to better advantage by scattype and variety should be obtained at a flower pot) that has been soaked in able to obtain their supplies of seed corn | more than one-eighth of an inch of watin the ear; they would then have a fair | er, the object being to keep the saucer idea of what they were getting. While moist, but not wet. If such a saucer be vitality of the seed from damp and its purpose as well. In germinating seeds was greatly disturbed for an in- badly run down. My hands and feet Corn that is shelled by a machine and posed to the light, but not to the direct stant, but he refused to give me the were always cold and I could not stand left in sacks for six weeks or more will rays of the sun.

grip that made her wince, and led drop of Vincent blood in Andrews' The difficulty of getting reliable seed unless the conditions for storage have her out into the hall. On my return to New York corn of desirable types and varieties been exceptionally good. The average "Go! leave this house immediate- on the evening following the last two years and the ex- vitality of seed corn, tested in the Seed > ty ears. If the corn can be planted in Unfortunately for progress in corn hills, this crate will hold sufficient seed raising in Canada our supplies of seed for five years. While it is true that matured corn and an acre of unsatisfac-

Seed Testing on the Farm. To find out whether seeds are capable hundred-between pieces of moistened The severe frost during the carly part | blotting paper, canton clannel or cloth; All good strong seed of corn, cereal The cost of the small quantity of seed | grains, clovers or timothy, thus treated, your name. There he eluded me, about without aid. I consulted doctors, of the pivot pier. The average depth wear green ties and tiny Irish flags in sprang upon the carriage and was but they did not help me, and I was al- of water along the line of the proposed buttonholes or typical Irish costumes can most in despair when I was advised to bridge is about twenty-seven feet. The be hired at the costumer's. The stores "I then returned to the church, to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got six plans provide for a single track, with the are full of suitable convenirs, from Irish interview the clergyman, hoping to boxes and before they were all gone I floor of the bridge twenty feet above potato bonbon boxes, clay pipes and Barclear the matter up through him, knew I had found a medicine to cure low tide. It is estimated that such a new hats to Irish jaunting carts and but the sexton told me he had gone - me. I took the pills for about a month structure will cost at least $3,000,000. tiny pots of imitation shamrock.

W. A. Clemons.

was launched at Detroit, Mich., concern- sharp scissors or knife. The hats are cut ing the size of which there was much into two pieces, and it is better to cut press comment. However, it may be patterns from stiff paper, which lay on stated that the great ferryboat Solano | the citron shape. is at least one hundred feet longer than the new Detroit boat. BABY'S OWN TABLETS.

Will Take Readily. to get the little one's to take Baby's little known concerning tropical trees. Own Tablets. The ease with which they pig a dose has reached the little stom- | deed, there must be many hundreds of ach. As a remedy for all the ills of varieties that have been little known and babyhood and childhood arising from that are unidentified by name. derangements of the stomach and bowels | This curious fact is due to the excep Baby's Own Tablets have no equal. Mrs. | tional conditions of the tropical forests. E. A. Jewers, Mitchell Bay, N. S., says: In temperate zones forests are fairly "I thing the tablets a blessing to both open, and, generally speaking, include mother and children, as I find them a trees of only a few varieties. Thus there certain cure for all the ills to which are oak forests, hickory forests, etc., but little ones are subject. I do not know | rarely any forests where more than three how I could get on without them." Sold or four kinds of trees exist in any numby all medicine dealers or by mail at | ber. 25c. a box by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY. Pretty Entertainment That Can be Given With Little Trouble.

A clever entertainment for March is over all these grow together in great to celebrate St. Patrick's Day with a confusion. They tower to extraordinary unique house affair, which can be ar- heights, each tree, it would seem, strivranged without much fuss and feathers | ing its best to reach the sunlight. Conor on as elaborate a scale as desired.

reap a harvest by charging a small fee to get higher than its neighbors, in order and additional for meals, or a larger one to escape the twilight of the primeval, might include refreshments, says Eliza- tropic forest. Leaves and branches are beth W. Morrison, in the March House- so confused that in many forests one can erald green cheese cloth or crepe paper forming a thick, impenetrable roof. will pay for the trouble, and the cloth can be utilized afterward in housekeep- and creepers and hundreds of varieties ing uses. Irish flags should wave from of vegetable parasites overgrow the every available space. Oxalis can be used to simulate shamrock, and a pot enveloped in white crepe paper, tied with green, will be a dainty finish to the newel post or table centre. The maintenance of this transfer boat The green and white chains of paper, ever, a number of surveys have recently stocks, a perky bow or rosette in the been made across the Strait to ascertain hair and on the breast an Irish harp Department for examination. According The maids who serve at the door or other night before the Anthropol having left by the rear door, I in- longer and every symptom of my trouble It would be the most expensive bridge The menu should carry out the general scheme. Spinach or green vegetable col-It is generally concede that as the oring will produce any shade desired, not know-he was a strange minis- Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure after doc- very heavy traffic is constantly increas- and almond, pistachio and vanilla added ter from out of town, there being tors and common medicines have failed, ing, in a few years at farthest a costly to creams and cakes, will produce var-"I learned that her guardian, Mr. fingers suddenly came in contact time. Thus I was baffled at every blood, and so strengthen all the organs Probably the next largest railroad talized foliage will add daintily to the liety, while mint ices, bonbons and cyrs-

simmer until a straw will pierce it; drain Very recently a large transfer boat | and wipe dry; then cut into shape with

TREES BUT LITTLE KNOWN. Tropical Forests so Dense it is Difficult to Explore Them. A Pleasant Medicine, Which All Children | According to an expert in the bureau of forestry of the Department of Agri-You do not have to coax and threaten | culture there is, comparatively speaking, and this despite the fact that natural-

In the tropics, on the other hand, the case is exactly the opposite. Forests composed of one variety of tree or even of only three or four kinds are practicaly unknown. So many different sorts of trees grow close together that frequently more than 100 varieties may be counted within a short radius. Moresequently the trunks are extremely long A church or charity entertainment can and thin, because each tree is reaching see neither sky nor sunlight for miles, Portieres and window draperies of em- the crowns of the trees interlacing and To add to the confusion great vines

It is said that it is well-nigh impossible to cut down any one tree for purposes of examination, for the reason that the forest is so dense that there is insufficient room for the tree to fall, through. It would be necessary to clear a great space, and that is impracticalle costly to be feasible for a private cor- entertainment, can be costumed in har- or botanist. Hence the world is still in poration, and a draw bridge would prove mony with the event, the women wear- | comparative ignorance of the wonders of the tropic forest.

There was a good deal about long the nature of the bottom. Bridge pplans made of shirred ribbon with gold tinsel heads, in the form of long words, in the Huxley memorial lecture, delivered the