Military authorities here believe that unless Gen, Linevitch is sure of his ability to hold the lower Sungari line he will risk his whole army if he fortifies and concentrates there, as, if he should be defeated, his line of retreat lies to the two sides of a triangle, the third side of which is open to the enemy's advance.

At the general staff the view that Gen. Linevitch may be compelled to abandon Harbin and retire toward Lake Baikal, leaving Vladivostock to its fate, is regarded as almost unwarranted by anything that is officially known there, it being pointed out that Field Marshal Ovama will have a long and laborious task to bring up an army of 300,000 or 400,000 men. Meanwhile Russian reinforcements are arriving at Harbin at the rate of 1,200 men per day. Nevertheless it is significant that there is now a well-marked peace party at the War
