Messrs Chas Shewell, Welbeck, and Mike Casey, Dorroch, left for Langton, N. D., on Tuesday.

Miss Mary Renton came home on Friday from Toronto and will be assisting her mother for a while.

Mrs Davidson, Hamilton, is spending a few weeks with her brother-in-law and family, Mr Hugh Rose of town.

Mr Angus McCormack returned Wednesday to London after spending the winter with his parents at Aberdeen.

Miss Jessie Beaton of Toronto, after spending a couple of weeks with her parents in town, returned Saturday to Toronto.

Mr and Mrs Arch Little and daughter Miss Jewel, left Wednesday to settle in Lumsden, Assa, where his brother Adam now resides.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall and son, who were residents of town the past half year, left Saturday for their former home in Port Rowan, on Lake Erie.

Mrs A Turner and family left on Tuesday morning for the North-West, whither Mr Turner went a week ago. Everyone wishes them success in their new Western home.

Mr Jas Marshall, Normanby, and son Thomas left on Tuesday for Assiniboia, where the latter took up land on his visit last year. Mr Marshall, Sr., will remain a month or two.

Messrs Robt. and Patrick Burns and sister Mrs. Galloway of Duluth, came home on Monday to attend the funeral of their father the late Joseph Burns. They return home on Monday next.

Mr Wm. Romanes passed through Durham, on Monday, on his way from the Home at Markdale to his old home near Holstein. Given leisure some tools and a sheep the old gentleman could do some useful work yet.

Mr Irwin of the Chronicle got a telegram on Monday conveying the sad intelligence that his sister at Clarksburg was dying. She was very ill when he visited the old home about a month ago and he has gone again for her bedside.

Miss Mary Forman is home from Hamilton, where she spent the winter. She reports Mrs Arrowsmith as recovered from an accident to her knee and enjoying Hamilton life, having old friends of Durham near her in the Andersons, Parks, and others.

Rev Mr Aitchison, Dorroch, was laid up for a week with La Grippe so that he could not make his preaching rounds last week and was even forced to forego the wedding of Mr Wilkie Wednesday. We are glad to know that he is now quite better and able and willing to dispense of the weddings as fast as they come.

Mr R Ledingham, Divinity Student, was a guest with his sister, Mrs John Clark, over the week end. He has written on his final examination and will know the result on Wednesday evening when the Annual dinner of the graduates takes place in Toronto. His many friends here are certain of his success.

Mr Jas. Vasey is moving this week from Yeovil to reside with Mr Robt. Watson, Bentinck, a short distance north of Durham. He enjoyed Yeovil in summer but having been used so long to be near Durham he chafed under the tie up of a long hard winter. He brings his bees with him and we wish prosperity to the worthy pioneer under the new conditions.

DEATH

On Wednesday, March 22nd, the late Mr and Mrs Robt. Heslip, 2nd Con. E. G. R. Glenelg, (near Glenora), was the scene of one of those happy events which send a responsive thrill through the youth of the community, and give reminders to the middle-aged of the flight of time. This was the marriage of the second eldest daughter of the home, Miss Sarah A. to Mr John Wilkie, of Bentinck.

The ceremony took place at 4 p. m., the officiating clergyman being Rev Mr Farquharson, the bride's pastor, Rev. Mr Aitchison being ill. About 50 relatives and intimate friends were present while the solemn vows were being taken and hearty congratulations were extended to the happy young couple on their auspicious union.

The bride was attractively attired in blue velvet, white silk waist, trimmed with lace and insertion, while the bridesmaid, Miss Annie Wilkie looked equally handsome in white organdie, trimmed with Valenciennes lace. The groom was supported by the bride's brother, Mr. Jas Heslip.

Following the congratulations a sumptuous dinner was served in the Misses Heslip's best style, the table being graced by a handsome 5 storey wedding cake, the work of the bride and her sister. A ample justice having been done to the toothsome viands, evening drew on and many more of the youth and beauty commenced to arrive to join in the festivities and honor the union of their associates. On into the night there were games and song and dancing to inspired music supplied by Wm Johnston, Jr. and others on the violin and Wm Johnston, tenor, and Miss Jenkins accompanying on the organ.

The presents were numerous, useful and beautiful, bespeaking the high esteem in which the bride was held.

Mr and Mrs Wilkie intend to leave for their new home in the West at an early date and many good wishes will follow them amongst them being those of the Review.

Address and Presentation.

A number of the friends and neighbors of Mr and Mrs John McInnes met at their home lately to say good bye and the following speaks for itself:—

Mr. and Mrs. John McInnes,
Priceville, Ontario,
DEAR FRIENDS:—

It was with sincere regret we heard of your intention to go to a new home in the distant west, this severing your connection with us as friends and neighbors.

While we hope the change may be very beneficial to you, still you will be sorely missed by many in this locality, not only for the kind hospitality which you extended so affably and cordially to each and all, of a large circle of friends but also, for your readiness to assist in any good work and to perform kind neighborly deeds. So at this time when our regrets at your proposed absence are mingled with appreciation for your help and presence in the past, we prefer that this appreciation should take some material form, we have much to remember, and we wish to be remembered so ask you to accept this testimonial as a token of our esteem and regard but not in any degree as the measure of it.

We deeply regretting your departure from our neighborhood, we earnestly pray for your best wishes for your prosperity and happiness. Hoping you may be surrounded by kind friends in your new home, we now wish you a safe and pleasant journey and trust you and yours may be spared for many years to do good work and to live useful happy lives enriched by many of Heaven's choicest blessings.

Signed on behalf of friends and neighbors,
JOHN NICHOL, JR.

Death of A. M. Dargavel.

The following appreciative sketch of the above gentleman appears in the Wolsley News of March 30:

"Rarely has a town been moved to such a degree as Wolsley was on Saturday when it was learned that Mr. A. M. Dargavel had passed away that morning from the effects of the accident that happened to him on Thursday afternoon. It appears he was riding a horse, of which he apparently lost control, and when opposite the Leland Hotel he was thrown violently against the sidewalk. He was at once picked up and carried to a bed in the hotel, and the best of medical aid was soon in attendance. But all that could be done was of no avail, his internal injuries being of too serious a nature and he expired about six o'clock Saturday morning, leaving a widow and seven children to mourn his loss.

Deceased came to the west from Durham, Ont. about the year 1897 and has always been well and favorably known during his residence here. At the time of his death he was proprietor of a livery business in town and manager at this point for the Western Packing Co. His age was a few days short of 46 years.

Deceased being a member of the Masonic Order, the lodges at Grenfell and Sinalta took charge of the funeral arrangements, and the funeral on Monday afternoon was by far the largest in the history of the town. All business was suspended at noon and oilds drawn and remained so until nearly 5 o'clock."

Then follows a lengthy description of the procession to the church, four of the clergy walking, band playing the Dead March, two lodges of Masons about one hundred strong, immediate relatives and a long line of vehicles and citizens on foot. Service over a similar procession took place to the grave, where, after the church service he was given a Masonic funeral. The casket was covered with many beautiful floral designs, and on all sides were many indications of genuine sorrow.
