PETER HAMILTON AGENCY.—Mr A. B. McLellan, of Glenelg, has now charge of this agency in Durham, and will make a worthy succession to the other "A B". A. B. McArthur, who has been promoted by the firm to a general agency covering a large territory. His advertisement in the Review from time to time will have important announcements, and the shop at the hedge will be open on Wednesdays and Saturdays as usual.

Our wedding notices to-day record a double wedding at the home of Mr. Jas. Eccles near Dromore of his two daughters becoming the wives of progressive Egremont farmers, Mr. Frank Adams, one of the happy swains, has bought from his brother William J. the "Rosedale Farm" (Lot H, Cont 18) and half of the "Springdale Farm," a short distance west. Another event of the same kind enriches Mr. Wm. Aitkens while depriving Mr. John Brown, cattle buyer, of a daughter who was her father's financial standby as cashier in his extensive business. Heartly congratulations to all the newly wed.

The Toronto Globe has this bit of information which is cheering news to all Christian bodies and especially to those of John Knox: "The Presbyterians have no place in Premier Whitney's Cabinet, but they console themselves with their recognition in other quarters. Admiral Togo is a member of the Presbyterian Church and Vice-Admiral Uryu is a Presbyterian elder. Field Marshal Oyama is an adherent of the church and generous in its support, while his wife, a Vassar graduate, is a devout Christian worker. General Kurita and General Ota are both members in full communion with the Presbyterian Church, as are others of Japan's leaders in the present struggle, in which the perseverance of the saints is finding illustration. Falling Ontario politics, the Shorter Catechism is coming to its own in the Orient."

PLANT TREES.—Mr S. McCracken has taken time by the forelock and planted out some nice maples fronting his property at the old Moody corner. The southern row will be a decided town improvement. We hope many more will find time and opportunity to attend to this species of adornment by replacing dead trees and planting many new ones. Members of the Horticultural Society can secure pines and spruces at a few cents each and in certain places the mixture of the evergreens with the deciduous varieties makes a decided improvement. Trees planted 25 or more years ago such as are found at the Jackson property, near Mr. Jas. Brown's, and in parts of the town west, are things of beauty which it would be sacrilege to destroy. Similar beauties can be provided for our successors by a little trouble now, for the advice of the dying Laird of Dumbiedykes to his son in Scotland, "Save the stick in a tree Jock. It'll be growing when ye die!" The council might do worse than set the example by providing that all civil property should be frontally embellished. By applying to Messrs. Gilbert McKeech-nie or G. Pirie information about pines etc., can be secured, and any second growth bush can provide the maples, if a little muscle and a horse can be used.

For the National cream separator at Barclay & Bell's.
A good set 240 lb Platform Scales for sale. Apply at Burnett's Store, Upper Town.

They have handsome new designs in Linoleums, Floor Oils and Jap Mattings at Jas Ireland's.

SPECIAL OFFER.—The Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer and the Review to Jan. 1, 1906, only $1.00.
FIRST TO BUILD.—Mrs R. Marshall, Upper Town has had a commodious addition built to her residence this spring.

A Chicago physician says a one per cent. solution of carbolic acid used as a spray for the throat will prevent spinal meningitis or "spotted fever."

Lots of dainty Lace Curtains and curtain goods, both white and colored—just what you are looking for to beautify your windows this spring.—At Jas. Ireland's.

LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE.—Mr T. Albert Moore, General Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance will address a meeting in the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening the 18th inst., at 8 p. m.

During April Gordon the Jeweller is giving great bargains in all lines to commemorate the 27th Anniversary of his business in Durham. Genuine goods at popular prices. A. GORDON, Jeweller.

ROYAL SCARLET.—A Royal Scarlet meeting will be held in Calder's Hall at 8 p. m., on Friday, April 14. All members are urged to attend as important business is to be transacted.
J. W. BLYTH, Scribe.

The Junior League intend holding an open meeting on Good Friday evening. An interesting feature of the meeting will be the presence of the Rev. Wm. R. Smith. Silver collection will be taken.

90 acres of land have been purchased by Saskatoon council to create a public park. Several acres were offered to the town but it was not taken. Just watch what Durham council would do should some public spirited citizen make an offer.

HIS 70th YEAR.—Mr Alex. Murchison, 3rd Con. N. Glenelg, was in Durham last week, paying his 20th annual subscription to the Review and he is always a head to toe. We have quite a number on our lists yet who have taken it from the beginning in 1875. To Mr Murchison out of that class, here's a wish—May you take it and enjoy it twice as long at least.

WILL CARRY.—The Chesley Enterprise, referring approvingly to the prompt manner in which Durham town and council acted after the fire, says: "The citizens of Durham are progressive in their ideas and if we are not mistaken the by-law will carry." Let us prove our progressiveness by making it unanimous.

A BUSY SPOT.—We had the privilege last week of a walk through the Cream Separator Works of the Farmine's Manufacturing and Supply Co., and the change from a quiet exterior to the busy hum inside is quite striking to a novice. About 45 men are employed, and the tendency being for more rather than fewer indicates a successful business. Shipment are going on constantly and if the product is as good in use as it looks to the eye it is certainly of high value. That it is good numerous testimonials seem to bear out.

MR HUGH MCCORMACK. son of Alex., Mull Corners, now of Pittsburg, Penn., in returning for the Review last week gives a glimpse of the great activity of the Iron City. Wages have advanced 10 per cent, and numerous contracts from all parts of the world promises activity for four years. The city of fine churches, hospitals, libraries, bridges, &c, though dark and smoky, is considered healthy, and streets in the business part of the town are kept perfectly clean by having the hose turned on every night!

ENGLISH IMMIGRANTS.—It seems likely that the Ontario farm labor question will be solved by the English immigrant. Recently, large numbers of these immigrants have been arriving in this province, but few of them as yet have found their way into this locality. For the most part they have found homes with farmers around Toronto. One at all events has at last reached the township of Beeston. His name is Frank Moors and he has come to "learn farming" with Wm. Ellis near Maple Hill. He has been with Ellis about two weeks, and doesn't know any more about farming than the average man knows about building a steamer house. But he knows it, and is willing to admit it, and these are hopeful signs. On other matters than farming, he is reasonably intelligent, and is possessed of a good education. He expects it will take him about three years to "learn the trade." Almost any farmer can get one of these immigrants. All he needs to do is to send in his application to the Bureau of Immigration, Toronto. This is a department of the Provincial government, presided over by Thos. Southworth. The applications are attended to in turn the immigrant being sent on for a month on trial. At the expiration of the month, the farmer and the immigrant can arrange their own terms, or at the expiration of the month, if the farmer is not satisfied with his man, he can tell him to go. Some of these immigrants will turn out well. The first year the farmer will no doubt find many things to irritate him but after that it ought to be pretty clear sailing. We hear that a number of other farmers in this locality have already sent in applications.—Telegraph.

Furniture Factory By-Law.

Friday of next week property owners in town have to vote on the question of rebuilding the burned factory or leaving as a picturesque ruin the remains of our pioneer industry. Such we take it is the alternative: the by-law carried and the factory restored to its old time activity 60 or more hands employed and an annual wage bill of $10000. or, the by-law defeated, with moss-grown ruins to remind us of what once was, and what might have been. If there is a third course by which equal or better benefits can be secured than by voting for the by-law, it should be known at once.

The gift of money of course goes hard but the directors from past experience know how difficult it is to finance such a work with funds low and they also know that it were to put their hands in their own pockets to ride over a crisis or a dull market day. The gift of course is passing over the insurance money, which secured the town, and this with the new tax would enable a robust start to be made which would give the town a new boost and a new self respect that would enable it with confidence to meet the inevitable pay day.

The question is not can we afford it? but can we afford to do without it? There is no uncertainty about this, no guess work,—we know just what it means in retaining good citizens and the purchasing power of their earnings.

Vote for the by-law, and remove the eyesore which every traveller and stranger sees first as he steps off the train. The vote will require enthusiasm for in a proportionate vote such as this, non-voters count against it.

If the by-law is defeated on the evening of April 21, there will be sad homes in town, which will not be relieved by the knowledge that a few are gratified and that the town passes the insurance money into the treasury.

Re School Affairs.
At a meeting of Durham Trustee Board on Thursday last it was decided to extend Prin Allan's enforced holiday to May 1, so as to allow him more time to prepare for the severe domestic tension and trouble he has had for almost three months. He, however, having the interests of his class much at heart, determined to go to work again on Monday, trusting to find in congenial work a restorative to the depression caused by his late troubles. His son Arthur is now sitting up and making good progress towards recovery. The two lady teachers, Misses Fordar and Johnston, have manfully filled the breach at considerable extra trouble to themselves, and being both experts and enthusiastic the classes have kept on forging ahead. We are sure the pupils who have loyally assisted them in the crisis are the stuff to come out successful at the examinations.

From the report of the Principal we learn that the school fees for the first 3 months of the year amount to $158.50. The attendance on roll and average of the rooms is given below:

Mr Wm Black, who handles the Sherman Williams paint, has handed us the following printed hints re spring painting. The paint dealers and the painters are looking forward to a busy season.

It is notable that both paint dealers and painters strongly advocate the importance of property owners figuring on their painting early, before the regular painting season opens. The reasons put forth are sound.

Early preparation, the deciding on the kind of paint, the colors to be used, engaging a practical painter, insuring getting the work done on time, and having the benefit of the improved appearance of your house from the beginning of the season.

The combinations of colors used on a house are of considerable moment and should not be decided upon hurriedly. A single trimming not in harmony will often make a house an aggravation. Several paint manufacturers, appreciating the value of this feature, have an organized department of artists and architects whose sole duty is to specify good color combinations. Local dealers report that it is a common practice now for paint buyers to give them a photo or drawing of their houses to submit to paint makers for color specifications.

Another point in connection with selecting colors is that an early decision will enable the dealer to order any special color he may not regularly carry in stock.

There is economy, too, in engaging a painter before the season rush is on. When the season is in full swing and the painter has many jobs ahead, it is often a matter of speculation when your work can be taken care of. Painting should be done early in the spring, as soon as the moisture is out of the lumber and the weather settled. The careful householder has all the details of the work arranged many weeks ahead.

Perth town carried Monday a by-law to grant $2000 by way of loan to Messrs Whin and Co., Boot & Shoe Manufacturers. The vote stands 473 to 25.

NOW FOR BRICK.—Mr Wm. Black has sold the brick-making plant to Mr Ayling of Mimico, an expert, who is going to begin business right away.

WANTS 10000 BARRELS.—A gentleman was in town Tuesday looking for cement in the above quantity. He is interested in building a dam at the Credit river. The National brand is making a name for itself.

The Provincial Educational Association meets at the University, Toronto on Tuesday, April 25th, and will continue for 3 days. Topics of very great importance come before this Educational Parliament in all its sections. The Provincial Library Association meets the Monday and Tuesday forenoon previous.

THAT NEW RAILWAY.—Last week's Walkerton Telescope announces the arrival of some C P R surveyors in Walkerton ready to proceed with the new railway, but at present awaiting their intention to build a line from Walkerton to Walkerton and from Walkerton to Teeswater and probably thence on to Lucknow and Kincairdine.

Cement Works.
Wednesday of last week smoke began issuing from three of the eight chimneys at the rotaries indicating that burning had begun, and since then more of them have been kindled. Great stores of clay are on hand, the lake is open, and night and day the familiar smoke cloud is visible. We learn that the 20-foot extension of the smoke stacks is proving a decided advantage, and certainly from the color of the clouds, not nearly so dark as formerly, better combustion must be going on. The many shareholders will be pleased to see prospects of a successful year, with dividends appreciably nearer.

NOTICE.
Notice is hereby given that Legislation will be applied for at the present session of the Legislature to legalize By-law, No 400 of the Town of Durham. Any person or persons having objections to the said by-law will govern themselves accordingly.
