IS THIS HONORABLE JOURNALISM?-The St. Thomas Journal says:-The Christian Guardian recently refused to give space in its columns to a letter from Mr H. H. Miller, M. P., for South Grey, giving the reasons which led him Grey, giving the reasons which led him to support the educational clauses of the Autonomy Bills. "He must excuse us," said the Guardian, "from insertus, "said the Guardian, " from insert-ing a letter explaining why he thinks the educational clauses of the bill should be supported because his reasons for not supporting the measure are of interest to his own constituency rather than to the Methodist public generally," The Grenfell. N. W. T. Sun, comments very sharply on the refusal of the Guardian to give M. Miller a chance to defend himself. "It appears to us," it says, "that the excuse of the Guardian is the meanest and most pitiable we have over met with in a paper claiming.
