INTERNATIONAL LESSON NO. 11 JULY STH. 1995

of approaching death (v. 1). I. In those ground of all faith. Such a prayer sees days-This may only mean in the days the promise, believes it, and takes no deof Hezekiah. That this was in the four nial. Seen thy tears-Affectionate prayteenth year of his reign is evident when ers are especially pleasing to God. Cold, we consider that fifteen years were ad- lifeless prayers are not answered. David ded to his life (v. 5), and yet he only refers to his tears (Psa, lvi. 8) as though Jerusalem Delegates Plan reigned twenty-nine years (2 Kings) God bottled them and kept an exact acreigned twenty-nine years (2 Kings God bottled them and kept an exact acxxx. 2). It must have been before the in- count of them in His "book." Add unto vasion by Sennacherib from the fact thy days-In Kings the promise is, '1 | that God promised to deliver them out will head thee; on the third day thou of the hand of the King of Assyria and shalt go up into the house of the Lord." to defend Jerusalem. Sick unto death- The Lord still heals people, sometimes by Sick of a malady which, in the natural directing the sufferers to the proper course of things would have proved remedy and sometimes without the use t fatal.-Cook. From 2 Kings xx. 7, we of a remed.y In this case (see H. Kings) learn that the disease was probably a xx. 7) the Lord told Hezekiah to make a carbuncle. -Keil. God sends illness up- poultice of figs and put it on the boil, or on the good, not in punishment for sins carbuncle. Figs are still used in the cast Isaiah's character stands before us as one of almost superhuman elevation bealing was the direct gift of God. "The one of almost superhuman elevation. healing was the direct gift of God. "The discharging so many varied offices, expostulating, reproving, expounding, com- he raised the Shunammite's child (11. delegation of eighty, arrived and at once forting, doing all with deepest resigna- Kings iv. 34), or by our Lord when He entered upon either attendance at the Winnipeg. tion and unfaltering faith toward God satisfied the hunger of the multitudes. auxiliary gatherings or sight-seeing in and with serene dignity toward men, we Means have a tendency toward the result seem to be contemplating one who, while wrought by them, but are insufficient of has a portion of seraphic nature comhas a portion of seraphic nature com-municated to him. —Cook. Came unto only man who was ever informed of the tarm of his life. God in morey has hid. 1908. Already in the leading hotels municated to him. —Cook. Came unto him—There is no species of cruelty greater than to suffer a friend to lie on a dying had under a delivery first than to suffer a friend to lie on a dying had under a delivery first than to suffer a friend to lie on a dying had under a delivery first than to suffer a friend to lie on a dying had under a delivery first than to suffer a friend to lie on a dying had under a delivery first the convention for the conv ter than to suffer a friend to lie on a den the time of our death from our eyes. ous places, showing views of California's We should be always ready and should giant pines, glimpses of Yosemite scensin more aggravated than that of designedly deceiving a dying man, and flattering him with the hope of recovery when there is a moral certainty that he will not, and can not recover. And there is evidently no danger to be apprehended from communicating to the sick their true condition. It should be done tenderly, and with affection; but it should be done faithfully. -Barnes. Set thine house in order-Arrange your affairs so that they will go on without ficult. shalt die-"Death was the natural re- are held with regard to this miracle. The still to be heard from. The possible atsult of his sickness. This is not a prediction, but a prophetic warning. A message thus addressed to a person, not spoken of him to others, is a call to repentance decree."-Birks. "His being God's mind, but an illustration showing limb of the sun, "which would have the ings. The building wil barely hold the dethat God's dealings ac unchangably re- effect of lengthening all shadows and legates alone, so that there will be pracgulated by the state of man in relation thus causing the appearance of going tically no room for others wishing to atto him."-J. F. and B.

2. Face toward the wall—He turned laws of refraction. Dial of Ahaz—"Steps school world, representing about twenty- Mr. John Foreman, of Montreal, for $50,away from those who were present so of Ahaz." -R. V., margin. The dial five or twenty-six million people, sat at 600. that he might pray more freely and which Ahaz set up, and which he probcollectedly. 3. Remember now—The old ably obtained from Babylon, for he apcovenant promised temporal prosperity, pears to have been fond of foreign obincluding length of days, to the righted jects of art (2 Kings xvi. 10). The Assy. is the Secretary. To-day the committee ous. Hezekiah, conscious of his faith- rians were the first to divide the day fulness and integrity, feels that he has into twenty-four hours. Herodotus states not deserved the sentence which cuts that the Greeks obtained their knowledge him off in middle life, at an age little of the dial and the division of the day beyond that which was attained by his into twelve parts from the Babylonians, wicked father. He ventures, therefore, who were in constant intercourse with to expostulate; he prays God to call to the Assyrians. Returned ten steps (R.V.). remembrance his life and conduct, as if | -We must suppose that the steps whatthat God had determined evil against sick chamber of Hezekiah, to whose mind committee. Mr. W. N. Hartshorn is the Packing Company, Chicago, has been or committee. Mr. W. N. Hartshorn is the lightest standard. it could only be through forgetfulness ever they were, could be seen from the him. According to the highest standard the sign was significant. The retreating Chairman, and Mr. Marion Lawrence the dered sold under foreclosure proceedings to the highest standard the sign was significant. The retreating Chairman, and Mr. Marion Lawrence the dered sold under foreclosure proceedings of the sign was significant. of morality up to this time revealed, shadow meant added years to his life. General Secretary. there was nothing unseemly in the self- What kind of apparatus is denoted by vindication of the morarch, which has the steps of Ahaz, we have no means tainment Committee reported they were many parallels in the Psalms of David of determining. It is not clear, indeed, short over 300 billets. (Psa. vii. 3-10, xviii. 19-26, xxvi. 1-8, etc.) that a regularly constructed sun-dial One of the most interesting gather--Cook. Walked-Life is a journey; God's people walk with him (Gen. v. 24, I. Kings ix. 4). A perfect heart-Literally, "with a whole heart," one absolutely devoted to Jehovah.-Cam. Bib. The king pleads his uprightness and holy conduct before God. He could not have done this, in the face of death, had he not felt in his heart the truthfulness of his statements. His influence had been wholly on the side of true religion; he Wept sore-Literally, "with a great Ontario License-Holders Adopt This as had not forsaken the ways of the Lord. weeping." The great sorrow of Hezekiah at the approach of death was only natural. I. The desire to live one's full term of years is right. 2. Hezekiah felt that his work was unfinished. He had ascended the throne at a time of great spiritual decay and had labored to restore the worship of Jehovah, and although there was much which remained to be done, yet he was now in a position to go forward with renewed courage and hope. "Josephus says the reason why he wept so sorely was that being childless he was leaving the kingdom without a successor. How often our wishes, when gratified, prove curses.

III. God's promises to Hezekiah (vs. ditors are J. W. Scandrett and H. A. 4-6). 4. Then came, etc.—God spake to Coffen. Isaiah immediately (II. Kings xx. 4). members the covenant with the father anticipated legislation, but no informa-B. Heard thy prayer-God still hears was given out prayer. It is His will that we pray (Matt. vii. 7-11; John xv. 7). Why then are there so many unanswered petitions? Because there is so much aimless praying (James iv. 3). Notice that prevailing prayer, 1. Springs from a sense of real need, either for ourselves or others. 2. Is not daunted by difficulties or hindrances which may appear to be in the way (Matt. xv. 22-28). 3. Is a humble prayer and takes the lowest place (Exod. xxxii. 32). 4. Importunes (Gen. xxxii.

IV. The sign given Hezekiah (vs. 7,8). 7. A sign-Hezekiah asked for a sign (2 Kings xx. 8) Asking for a sign is a pious or a wicked act according to the spirit, in which it is done. Hezekiah is given his choice of wo signs and he choose what appeared to him to be the more dif-

a good deal of force that the true cause ber in round figures about 2,100. of the phenomenon was a solar eclipse, The Metropolitan Church is likely to of any kind is meant; a shadow falling ings of the entire week will be the recepon some flight of steps in the palace tion and banquet this evening at the d'Europe, St. Petersburg, have been rob- write you for advice, as you have done so were half-hour marks.

DEMAND COMPENSATION.

all licenses forfeited without any offence ciation. being proved against the holder of such | One of the advance movements suglicense will be the demand of the On- gested for the work of the next tritario license-holders in any future legis- ennium is to place a field worker, with New Physical Exercise Takes Well in lation dealing with the liquor traffic, proper support, in Mexico. and a vigorous campaign for the recogni- The International Committee has extion of this principle will be undertaken pended for this work during the past and continued until it is adopted by three years about $20,000 annually.

sentative business meeting of the On-1850,000 a year for the next three years, tario licenseholders, held in the associa- not only to carry on the work already tion's offices, Wellington street east. planned, but to develop and expand cestors used. These estimable people would Other suggested amendments to the largely for the future. son was the idolater Manasseh, the chief license laws were talked about, but the Speaking of the widespread character tendency towards reversion to some of their court. In his opinion Judge Wheeler son was the monater Manassen, the third and hobbycause of God's wrath against Judah, and cause of God's wrath against Judah, of the overthrow of the kingdom (II. compensation proposals. Mr. James ment, Mr. W. J. Semelroth, Enrollment horse. It is easier to "cyclopede" than to of the state with reference to Mrs. of the overthrow of the kingdom (12. compensation proposals. Secretary, said: "As near as we can walk, and cycling is violent exercise compar- Rogers and her case. He could not see, Kings xxiii. 26, 27)."—J., F. & B. "Some MacFarlane, Toronto, President, occu- Secretary, said: "As near as we can walk, and cycling is violent exercise compar- Rogers and her case. He could not see, have thought that Hezekiah would have pied the chair, and after deciding on the get the figures up to June 1, there are ed with "cyclopeding." been wiser to let the Lord choose his above policy the following officers for 26,100,000 members in the 263,000 Sunbeen wiser to let the Lord choose all above poncy the following of the world. This life for him, and not beg for a longer the current year were elected: J. Hart- day schools throughout the world. This ciser, and secondarily an aid to locomotion. Custody. It is understood an appeal life; saying that his lengthened life was lett, Windsor, President; T. P. Phelan, includes the Sunday schools of the coloran evil. He did, indeed, make one great First Vice-President; J. L. Brooks, ed people of America and the Evangelical and costly mistake in later life, and he Peterborough, Second Vice-President; W. Protestant Sunday schools in the world-

He learned many good lessons, and help- Executive Committee, F. J. Collins, Dun- 10,220 schools and nearly 787,000 memed his people in many ways. The whole das; R. H. Reid, London; J. K. Paisley, bers. nation doubtless would have been far Ottawa; Jas. MacFarlane, Toronto; Geo. worse if he had died so young."--Pelou- Bernhardt, Galt; H. Barron, Toronto and P. J. Mulqueen, Toronto. The au-

The executive committee reported on 5. God of David thy father-God re- the recent provincial elections and on

DROVE AWAY WITH THE BAST.

Elmer Young, of Boston, Takes Surviving Child Away from Digby, N. S.

Boston detective, who was said to be of the differences in a manner satisfacthe guardian of May Young, murdered tory to Germany. at Plympton, arrived at Digby to-day, and late in the afternoon drove to Plympton, where he secured the baby. Elma Young, and drove away with her for an unknown destination. The case is increasing in mystery, and local interest is at fever pitch.

Windsor, wished to visit the Pacific Quin murder mystery at St. Louis De Coast and decided to pay his way going Mile End, are free so far as the murthere. He rigged up a covered top wag- der case is concerned. They were gaon and has started with his wife and | thered on the suspicion that tramps may painting outfit. He will solicit work have committed the deed, but the men at each place along his route, pay his arrested, it is evident, had nothing to Commentary—1. Isaiah warns Hezekiah 24-28; Luke xi. 5-8; xviii. 1-7). 5. Pleads Crowd is Too Great for the Metropolitan Church.

Banquet and Reunion.

Extent of the International Union.

A Toronto report: The Sunday school hosts entered the city with increasing

6. Will deliver—The Assyrians were a ery and leading buildings of the Golden powerful enemy and were contsantly to State. Under each "litho" are the words,

Parties of delegates wearing the blue ventilation. gadges were to be seen everywhere about the streets, in the big hotels, on the a crowd of people occurred at Lodz, Rus street cars and in tally-ho parties.

A. Jackson spent all yesterday afternoon in the Metropolitan Church locating positions for the seating of the State and the arrest of whom a warrant had been Provincial delegations. Seats were allot-8. Shadow of the degrees-"The shad- ted to 1,883 delegates, and delegations bail for a hearing. his successor and his kingdom. Thou ow on the steps."-R. V. Many opinions whose possible attendance is 168 have older commentators believed that the tendance is, therefore, 2,214, and allowearth's motion was actually reversed ing for some of the 168 who will not ataround its axis. It has been urged with tend, the gathering is expected to num-in which the moon obscured the upper be uncomfortably crowded at the meet-1908, and it is expected that the morning and afternoon will be occupied with this task, and then the committee wil finish for the present term.

Every State, Province and Territory in the rapid current in the river. America has a representative on the The property of the International

At a late hour last night the Enter-not known how much time each step or 1904. Eight hundred delegates from the degree measured. Some suggest that they United States and Canada participated in the convention, and enjoyed together a tour of 72 days.

sideration of the special committee, of cident, without regaining consciousness. Policy.

Which Mr. Seth P. Leet, of Montreal, is the Question of the Canadian member, is the question of the crash is thought to be fatally hurt.

It licenses for faited without regaining consciousness.

Chairman Hartshorn is said to be in This was the decision arrived at yes- favor of asking the great constituency Circus, puts on the market his patent "cyterday afternoon by a large and repre- to give the International Committee clopede and physical exerciser."

suffered the invasion of the Assyrians J. Purse, Toronto, Treasurer; E. Dickie, wide realm. North America cads, with described in our last lesson. But these Toronto, Secretary: James Haverson, K. about 14,500,000 members iv nearly 153,do not make his life not werth living. C., Toronto, solicitor; members of the 000 schools. Canada at J.st reports had

FRANCE'S ANSWER.

TO GERMANY NOT EXPECTED TO BE SATISFACTORY.

Berlin, June 26. - France's answer to to the children (Exod. xx. 5).-J., F. & tion regarding the nature of the report the German note on the Morocco question has not yet reached the Foreign Office, but it is expected that Ambassador Bihourd will present it in the course of the afternoon. The impression here is that the answer does not promote an understanding between France and Germany, but the Foreign Office here does Halifax, June 26 .- Elmer Young, the not abandon the hope of an adjustment

TRAMPS FREED.

Montreal, June 26 .- Six tramps who were arrested at different localities in the Province as the result of a circular despatch sent out by Provincial Detec-Morgan Thayer, a sign painter, of tive McCaskill in connection with the

Every Individual "Let This Be Leaf is Understood" Absolutely Pure

CEYLON TEA POSSESSES CUP-DRAWING QUALIFICATIONS POSSESSED BY NO UTHER TEA. Sold only in sealed lead pack ets. By all Grocers. Highest Award, St. Louis, 1904.

to be the largest on record, despite the Uphili it is easier than either riding or the rectorship of St. Clement's Church, Toronto, to accept a call to All Saints', of Huntington, Hastings county, were a point which the inventor is now worrying With characteristic enterprise the killed by lightning and a couple of build- over, but he is determined to solve the prob-

fits are to be installed in the New York subway to cool the air and improve the A bloody collision between soldiers and sian Poland ,this morning. Many people

Justice Maclaren, Dr. Copp and Mr. J. | were killed. Fred. R. Green, cashier of the Fredonia National Bank, of Fredonia, N. Y., for issued, has surrendered himself and given

> Thomas Nichol, one of the last survivors of Commodore Perry's expedition to Japan in 1850, is dead at his home in Brooklyn. He was 79 years of age, and was born in England.

Prominent bar iron manufacturers who compose what is popularly known as the eastern bar iron pool, at a meeting in New York, have decided to reaffirm the

The Levis Electric Railway was sold II. Hezekiah prays in great distress But the opinion generally held at present The International Lesson Committee, by sheriff's sale in the Quebec court is that it was a piraculous use of the which prepares lessons for the Sunday house yesterday, and was purchased by > ier Rouvier's note in Berlin and the rumored mobilization of French troops. Americans were firm upon New York ad-A raft of four million feet, which the Reid Wreeking Company's tugs were trying to bring into the river, broke up national Sunday School Union meets this at the foot of Lake Huron yesterday morning at the King Edward Hotel. afternoon, and was swept down with pany was formed a dozen years ago t take over the business of several of the smaller concerns at the stock yards. - Theodore S. Darling, of New York, and several other guests at the Hotel De court, and affording a rough and ready Rossin House of members of the World's bed of all their valuables. Mr. Darling measure of time, would sufficiently ex- Fourth Sunday School Convention, which lost a diamond necklace and quite a sum plain the terms used. -Cam. Bib. It is was held in Jerusalem, Palestine, April, of money. Subsequently the necklace was discovered in a pawn shop. Miss Lillian Moore, of Poughkeepsie,

N. Y., whose skull was fractured when two cars filled with excursionists crash-One of the great questions to come before the convention, and to the concideration of the special committee of to-day, died several hours after the ac-

HOBBY-HORSE NEW FAD.

London, June 26 .- Life will be made very pleasant for those disinclined to worry and exercise when Mr. J. F. Bentley, of Ludgate The machine with the high-sounding title is a glorified hobby-horse, such as our anbe indeed pleased could they but see our justice of the United States circuit hardware trade continues busy. Good

When the machine has been started an occasional push with a walking stick is sufficient to keep it going at a moderate speed.

while progress is twice as rapid. He was able to accomplish a speed of between eight for three guineas. The inventor considers that he will be able to place the machine Mutton, per cwt. 8 50 to 10 00 on the market at about 30s. How to adapt | Veal, per cwt. ... 8 00 to 9 50 Twelve cows, owned by Robert West, on the market at about 50s. How to dually Veal, per cwt. 13 00 to 15 00 sick sisters, and above all, a woman who has had than any living person.

ence, especially when it is absolutely

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

"Over a year ago I wrote you a letter asking advice, as I had female ills and could not $3.50; spring lambs sold at $2.50 to $5.50 each. kind letter of instructions and followed your | and $6.40 for lights and fats. Sows at $4 to carry a child to maturity. I received your advice. I am not only a well woman in consequence, but have a beautiful baby girl. wish every suffering woman in the land would

Just as surely as Mrs. Seydel was Vegetable Compound cure every past week has been less satisfactory cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's woman suffering from any form of female ills. has such a record of cures of female promises. Values are generally steady. troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Cattle show an easier inclination, hogs Vegetable Compound. Therefore no are steady and in other lines of produce prudent woman will accept any substi- there is little change. tute which a druggist may offer. Lynn, Mass, for special advice. It is as was the case throughout the whole free and always helpful.

MARY M. ROGERS FROM BEING

Brattleboro', Vt., June 26.-The Mary M. Roger's habeas corpus petition was heard by Judge Wheeler, sitting as a advances are expected to follow. The however, that he was justified in order-It is primarily an open-air physical exer- ing the discharge of the woman from Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Picton, Ont., report: To-day 16 factories boarded 1,980 boxes; highest bid, 3%c; none Advice and Help. She Has Guided Thousands to Health .-How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Fred Seydel. woman to feel that she can write to the most private sheep, 13 to 14c per lb. and confidential details about her Trade for fat cattle was dull, especially illness, and know exporters, which sold at the lowest quotaman only, a wo- certainly blue, indeed. man full of sym-

Over one hundred thousand cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pink- there were few sold at that; loads of good ham every year, some personally, sold at $4.75 to $5; medium at $4.50 to $4.75; others by mail, and this has been go- common at $4 to $4.25; prime butcher cows at ing on for twenty years, day after day. $3.75 to $4; good butcher cown at $1.40 o Surely women are wise in seeking to $3 per cwt. advice from a woman of such experi-

ATTEMPT TO SAVE

HANGED TO-MORROW.

Vienna Sausage

Ham Loaf

the rider can thus at any moment apply | taken. After a consultation Mrs. Rogers' at-It requires less exertion than walking, torneys formally filed an appeal Let Libby Serve Your Soup Tomato, Julienne, Consomme, Chicken, Mulligatawney, or Oxtail will please the most fastidious. They are quickly prepared—delicious to eat—always satisfactory.

Libby's (Natural Food Products

Corned Beef Hash Boneless Chicken Ox Tongues Soups

Your Grocerihas them Libby, McNeill & Libby, Chicago

Toronto Farmers' Market. The grain receipts to-day were small and 11.02, and 100 bushels of goose at 78 to 89 four loads selling at $9.50 to $10 a ton. Dressed hogs are unchanged, with sales road. Thirteen and one-half miles an hour Dressed Peterboro', Ont., report: This morning I'en buyers present. Three factories sold at 9-16c; the balance at 91/2 to 91/4c. Woodstock, Ont., report: To-day there were offered 1,153 boxes white and 1,953 boxes colored cheese. The bidding ranged from 33-16 to 9%c, 645 boxes being sold at from Sterling report: Eleven hundred offered; 120 sold at 9%c; balance at 9 5-18c. Leading Wheat Markets,

It is a great Minneapolis 1 08% British Cattle Markets.

London.-Cattle are quoted at 10% to 13% anothertellingher | per lb.; refrigerator beef, 91/2 to 97/60 per lb.; Toronto Live Stock.

that her letter will tions since the late boom in prices took B be seen by a wo- The market outlook for export cattle is rules the live stock trade of the American pathy for her continent, is tending downwards. Exporters-The best price reported on the more experience in treating female ills with the bulk going at about $5 per cwt. Butchers'-Picked lots of butchers' were > done was at prices sympathetic with the fat & Sons, which weighed from 900 to 1100 lbs. Milch Cows-About 25 milch cows and seborted sold at $20. of 500 at blos steamings Veal Calves-Calves sold at $2 to $10 each, and $3.50 to $5.50 per cwt., with something Sheep and Lambs-Receipts were fairly choice at $5.70. large and prices were easier, export ewes sell-Hogs-Prices unchanged at $5.55 for selects Bradstreet's on Trade.

Montreal reports to Bradstret's say: There is an encouraging tone to reports received from business men here. There is a fair movement in sorting lines... The with a corresponding number of appli-No other medicine in all the world cations for extension of time and com-

Toronto reports to Bradstreet's say: If you are sick, write Mrs. Pinkham, The trade situation during the past week, of last minth, has been waiting on longexpected improvement in the weather. The movement of spring and summer goods has been light, but it now looks as though warmer weather had come to stay and there is a noticeable improvement. The dry goods trade has been particularly quiet but it is picking up. Travellers out with full lines report prospects in that regard, good. There has been an advance of 5 per cent. or 1/2 per yard in cotton tickings and other shipments are going to the Northwest movement of staple groceries. Collections are generally fair to good. At Quebec:-Trade throughout the Eastern section of the Province is slight ly quieter than the preceding week, although there is reported a fair demand for seasonable goods. Collections are still Winnipeg reports say: A feature of conditions here is the large number of immigrants who are pouring into the country every day. They are of a desirable class, mostly from England and the United States. Wholesale trade here still has a quiet air but retail stocks are moving better. Collections are about as reported last week and there is still room for improvement.

Trade reports fom Hamilton to Bradstreet's say: Business runs along smooth ly and with little change in condition from that reported a week ago. The wholesale demand is light but there is more activity to the movement of retail stocks. There is fair trade doing with the country although this is not usually a busy season. Market values is all lines are steady. Collections are fatt

YOUNG COUPLE DISAPPEAR. Miss Elsie Medcalf and Mr. Arthur Dalby

Toronto, June 22.-The parents of Miss Elsie Medcaif, of 687 Spadina avenue, and Mr. Arthur Dalby, of 159 Augusta avenue, are very much alarmed over the disappearage of the young couple, who went out rowing on Tuesday evening. The boat, which they had rented from a boathouse at the foot of Bathurst street, was found tied to the Where Oueen's Wharf yesterday afternoon. the couple have disappeared to is a myster, to the police, who were making an effort to Mr. Dalby is a commercial traveller for

Pleasant

Come to those who drink ary teas if you care for SOU MANUFACTURED, CAREFU

TEA. RED LABEL. Only ONE BEST. BLU

 So he tried to dismiss the started again, and again was this time by the appearance viscount, who was pelting street on his bay horse, whe sight of Vernon Vane's stalw he pulled up at the gate, as if a sudden idea. Only a few Vernon Vane had felt very m ed to pitch the Honorable Cla a balcony; but during those things had happened which h his heart even to the Honor ence, and instead of the usual nod, he looked actually amin' new viscount got off his horse out his hand. "Good morning, Vane," he Vane noticed, as Jeanne had difference in his voice and mar do you do? I-I wanted to he with you. "With me?" said Vane. been out early this morning."

ing rather embarrassed for "I've been for a ride-that Vane, I've heard bad news," "I'm sory for that," said V "Yes," continued Lord Lane I've just had a letter-we ge hour earlier up at the park you know- saving that my Lane has met with an accide

Vernon Vane had been lister

absently, but these hesitating

"Yes-yes," assented Lord words caused him to start. "Yes," he said. "Did you k! Vernon Vane's usual reserve enveloped him immediately. "I have met him," he said, ed

"Yes-was pitched out of hi always was too fond of dr cattle. Knew how it would be -poor Lane!" Vernon Vane looked absent ment, then he said:

Can I do anything for you?

"I am sorry to hear this, I

Thanks, it's it's very kin and-well, you could do son you would, "What is it?" asked Vane.

the news, and they don't know the whole story, and the regi by," and-" Vernon Vane quietly: "and I thought per Have you any special message t asked Vane, with his old, cyni Only the usual thing. Oblige sorry to leave so suddenly, and Hang it, Vane," he broke out, "you don't suppose that anything kind can go on now; things are and my people would go mad-"What is sauce for Mr. Fit swill go up for you to the park-"No, nothing-and 'pon my much obliged to you," said his gratefully. "It would have be rible bore, you know. Awfully I'm sure.

not sauce for Viscount Lane, I

Vone, grindly, and with quie

"Well, you want to eatch you "Don't speak of it," said Var "Good-morning, Lord Lane." "Oh-half a moment," said ship; "I say, Vane, just one th you-of course you won't think about our chat last night-a other little lady, you know?" Vernon Vane's lips tightened "Are you alluding to Miss H he asked, grimly. Lord Lane nodded, and gather "Yes, of course, that was all No more to be thought of than young ladies. You understand of course. Wouldn't do, you k Don't mention it, there's a good "No," said Vane, "I am not mention it," and without anot

he strode off. Lord Lane drew a long breath "Phew!" he muttered, "I'm w it all. The sight of the pillmak finish me after this morning's feel upset-decidedly upset-and heaven L was in town," and he the station. By the time Vernon Vane has the gate in the wall, which, by he had opened pretty often of cynical expression had left his the eager look of the lover had look up at the red house which treasure, and recalled the event first visit, when he had watched ling in the midst of her home ! and knelt in the firelight and to face to him with the tears in which his music had called up. went in, to find the house appar serted. But presently, as he sto ing from the open d orway into den, there was a light footste him, and there stood Jeanne hand held out, and her eyes d but a tell-tale blush on her fa-Without a word he dres