Four Generations Fraternize.

Not to many families is given such an opportunity as that enjoyed on Monday last by the Coleridge family of North Egremont whose every member was present to spend a day with their parents and with one another. Such a meeting required planning and some weeks ago it was decided that Monday July 3 must be the day.

Away oack in 1849, 56 years ago, Mr and Mrs Daniel Coleridge were married in their native county in England and shortly after left Sunny Devonshire for the then little known western Canada and settled in Ancaster township near Hamiiton. Here three of their children were born and in 1856 they moved into "the bush ' in Egremont township, and have been there ever since. Many is the scory they can tell of pioneer experience, of trials met and difficulties surmounted. Courageously they struggled with the forest, with frozen wheat, with poor crops and with few conveniences. Caton Hill. They lived to surmount these early difficulties, to acquire a moderate competence and to understand the Psalmist's declaration as to the happiness of those who had their quiver full of never invaded this home circle, and Clara Caswell, Thos Johnston.
