Hopeville

July the 1st will be remembered here for some time as a day of nois; an accident happened here that might have been more serious. On Friday evening Mr and Mrs Gilbert McArthur and children of the 10th con. called in our village on his way to Glenelg to visit friends there and take in the Durham sports on Saturday. They left here in the best of spirits expecting to have a fine time, but when entering Artemesia their spirited horse became very fractious after getting a cut of the whip and got uncontrollable and dashed away with the occupants, at full speed. He ran into the fence, smashed the buggy and pitched out the occuants Mrs McArthur lighting on her head, and was badly hurt. The horse was caught and Mr Patoz drove them here. A doctor was sent for and the family is getting over the trouble; on Saturday a team went out and brought back a broken buggy. Things might have been worse.

On Saturday our village was desolate of all the male population except two of our business men—Mr A. H. Barnett, blacksmith, and Mr J. H. Scott, postmaster—who stayed at home to guard and protect the place, the women and children also stayed. We hear it said by some people t at they were good, faithful watchman, Mr Barnett watching from his own house to the main corner where the local bank is, and Mr Scott from the post office to his own house. Some of our people went to Toronto and many to Durham and all report a good time.

Dramatic Concert at Dromore.

The entertainment held on Friday evening last under the auspices of the Dromore Public Library passed off very successfully in point of execution. The dramatic club from Durham excelled themselves performing better than they had done previously at Orchardbank. Durham so say those who had the privilege of hearing them at either place. The various parts of Hamlet and the King were well taken indeed all through was worthy of a larger audience. An entertainment of this nature is something new in this locality but none the less appreciated for its instructive tendency.
A very clever rendering by our own Mr J. M. Findlay of the breach of promise case of Bardell, vs Pickwick was given with good perception and ability. Solos and quartettes were given at intervals by Mrs Lister (nee Jean Renwick) Miss Mary Isaac and Messrs Isaac and Ramage. Miss Agnes Rowick, and Mrs Haw accompanying on the organ, the latter giving some fine instrumental selections. The audience though appreciative, was small owing no doubt to the many other attractions or hand in the immediate neighborhood.
The sum of some $20.00 was realized, which will after deducting expenses be devoted to the purchase of new books.
Mr Walter Hastie occupied the chair, and gave the opening address, setting forth the benefits of the library, and the appropriateness of the educational entertainment to be given.—Com.

Priceville.

At the communion held in the Presbyterian Church here last Sabbath 25 new members were added to the roll chiefly young people of both sexes. This without a doubt was the largest number ever added to the church at the communion season and it must be a source of gratification to the pastor, Rev Mr Matheson to see the fruit of his labors prospering in this place.
A number from here attended the funeral of the late Jas Welsh of Pomona on Sunday last and was one of the largest funerals ever seen at St John's cemetery.
A number of us attended the great demonstration at Durham on Saturday last and probably a number were unintentionally guilty of breaking the commandment "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," but as it was not in day time the act was committed the transgression does not appear so great, but however we fancy that a large percentage were robbing the Lord of part of his quiet Sabbath morning by sleeping till past church time.
Misses Minnie and Kate McInyre, of Toronto were home on July 1st.
Dr James Atkinson has again commenced business in the old stand in this village and many will be pleased to see him back again.
Warden McArthur and Comr Allan were away on County business to Owen Sound on Monday and Tuesday of this week.
The garden party held at the Methodist parsonage one evening last week was quite a success as the evening was fine. Receipts of the evening amounted to nearly $50.
We attended church at Swinton Park Presbyterian church last Sabbath and it was on a communion occasion. We noticed that like many other places some were rather inclined to fall asleep on account of the intense heat, and unlike the old Scotch woman who when her minister was praising her for her good regularity in coming to church, said she liked to come to kirk because she slept so well.
Some have commenced haying but the general commencement will be a week or two yet. Crops are fairly good and the late showers will revive them greatly.
Otto Konold's oss is very heavy in getting four of his horses killed by lightning during the thunder storm of over a week ago.
Alex McMillan, south line, put a new roof on his barn lately.
Teachers are all home now for nearly two months' vacation.
Our town streets are pretty well graded by the road grader, and Dan McDonald and Will Conkey make good road bosses.
We are sorry the accident that befell Angus Hooper in getting two of his toes taken off with an axe while chopping. He is at present in Durham at his uncle's where he will be convenient to a doctor.
Mrs McGill, of Hamilton, (nee Mary McPhail) and family visited for a few days at her sister's Mrs Don McDougall south line, Glenelg.
Mrs Patrick Sullivan of Fergus paid a short visit to her father and father-in-law, Messrs Black and Sullivan of Glenelg.

Dornoch

A very pleasant time was spent at the Separate School on Thursday afternoon of last week when a good number of the villagers gathered to say Good Bye to Miss Alice O'Leary, the popular teacher for the past two years. A choice program of Dialogues, recitations, songs, etc., was rendered with great efficiency and was much enjoyed by all present. A pleasing feature of the occasion was the presenting to Miss O'Leary of an elegantly cased manure set and this together with the many evident signs of extreme sorrow shows an inseparable link binds teacher and pupils together. Miss O'Leary replied in fluent language befitting the occasion and thus ended the proceeding of a very sociable afternoon.
The Presbyterian Picnic held on Wednesday of last week in Mr Donald Smith's romantic grove was a decided success in every respect. Ideal weather favored the occasion and in the afternoon a large crowd of people wended their way to the hillside park with one predominant thought "We're here to enjoy ourselves" and enjoy themselves they did. A commodious tent on the grounds contained all the delicacies of the season and the efficient clerks who catered to the wants of the crowd were kept so busy during the afternoon that the proceeds approximated $25. The various races were participated in by grown people as well as the youngsters and caused a great deal of merriment; the programme consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, speeches, etc, showed systematic preparation and was received with enthusiastic applause. The ladies of the congregation prepared a sumptuous repast and the bracy air of the Park being a keen appetizer all did ample justice to the many delicacies provided and as old Sol wended his way to the western horizon to give light to those in darkness all dispersed to the respective places of abode thoroughly pleased with the day's outing.
Miss Mary Jane Cummings left last week to spend the summer vacation with friends in the Forest City.
Miss O'Leary left on Friday evening for her home in Port Lambton. By her courteous ladylike manner she won a host of friends all of whom sincerely regret her departure.
Mino Host O'Mara has erected a substantial platform with cement finish in front of his hotel. This adds greatly to the improvement of the establishment.
We extend congratulations to Mr John Lang who took to himself a life partner on Wednesday of last week. May joy and prosperity be their lot.
Quite a number of Dornochers took in the Dominion Day celebration in the Editors' town on Saturday last and report a good day's outing.

From another correspondent.

This week's budget.
Miss Mary Jane Cummings left on Friday last to spend her holidays with her aunt Miss M. Robertson.
Miss O'Leary left on Saturday for Pt Lambton.
The Latona Public School was the scene of a very unique gathering of parents and friends on Thursday last, it being the semi-annual public examination. The choruses rendered by the children and the well rendered recitations by "Little Addie Twanley" were much appreciated. Trustee Donald Smith addressed teacher, parents, friends and children in a very appropriate manner. He thought that the exercises of the afternoon reflected great credit upon the teacher of their school, Miss Abbot, who certainly was so enthusiastic, sympathetic and prudent that if they did not make true men and women as well as receive a good education under her instruction, it was certainly their fault and not the teacher's. Remarks regarding the perfect discipline of the school were made and noticed by all.
Miss Campbell, sister of Mrs Rav, is home from Toronto hospital after a serious illness of pneumonia.
Miss Abbot, teacher of Latona school returned to her home, "The Dove," on Friday. Miss Abbot expects to visit at her mother's summer cottage, "Waverside," Muskoka, during vacation.
The many friends of Miss O'Leary paid a parting tribute to her enthusiastic labors of love among the boys and girls here when they met in the R. C. school-room on Thursday afternoon. A programme was rendered with Master Carroll Hunt as chairman. Among those who gave valuable assistance were ex-school teacher, Mr Angus McIntosh, a solo and recitation highly appreciated, Mr Mack Jones, a charming solo. At the close of the program, Miss O'Leary was presented with a handsome dressing case by Mary Jane Cummings. Miss O'Leary replied in a feeling manner. Among the guests present were Mrs Dargavel, Mrs Hunt, Mrs Cummings, Mr McIntosh, Mr Jones Miss McIntosh and others.
Latona Presbyterian S. S. picnic on Wednesday last was a great success, about $2 being realized. During the afternoon races were won by the following:
Boys under 10—John Smith.
Girls under 10—Ivy Dargavel.
Boys 10-15—Bryce Dargavel.
Girls 10-15—Aggie Silverster.
Ladies under 20 years.—1st Miss Abbot, 2nd, Miss Reynolds.
Boot and Shoe Race—Jim Sudbury.
Egg race—Aggie Silverster.
Chum's race—Aggie Silverster and Mary Jane Cummings.
Boys race under 12—John Leidingham.
