DOWN TOWN TOPICS

General servant wanted. Apply to Mrs JOHN CAMERON, Upper Town.

There will be a garden party at Mr John Aldred's in the interest of Varney Methodist Church on Thursday, August 10th. Further announcements later.

WOOL WANTED—Bring your wool to Taylor & Co. Dromore. Highest price cash or trade and the best stock of goods that can be seen anywhere.
TAYLOR & CO., Dromore

Mr W. Blakeston, of Dundalk, in the absence of Pastor Roach will preach in Priceville Methodist Church at 10.30 on Sunday July 30, and in Ebenezer at 2.30 same day.

LIVERY SOLD—Walpole Bros of Owen Sound have purchased the livery business of Mr Joseph Neil, across from D. Campbell's implement warehouses. They took possession Monday.

ARM BROKEN—Mr and Mrs John Aldred had the painful news last week that their son Harry, in Asa, had fallen from a roof on which he was working and had broken an arm. He wrote himself and was feeling well otherwise.

We have just opened out a bale of mill ends of factory cotton running from 5 yards up which we sell by the pound. These are very fine goods which you can buy much cheaper than in the regular way.
C. L. GRANT.

WIRELESS—“Owen Sound is likely to get one of the Marconi wireless telegraph stations.” Would the gentleman kindly bear in mind that Durham presents great advantages over the low lakeside town? Pick the highest spot Mr Marconi and one of your stations on Henry Lawrence's hill near town would not be looked down upon by any other in Ontario. Height is what you want isn't it?

SUCCESSFUL SERVICES—From a recent issue of the Christian Guardian we extract the following notice of meetings held in the Methodist appointment in S. Glenelg at Tucker's Corner: “A successful meeting has just been closed at the Ebenezer appointment, on the Priceville Circuit. In a small church between fifty and sixty conversions took place, and fifty joined the Methodist Church. Rev H. S. Magee, Conference evangelist, assisted the pastor, Rev W. P. Roach.”

ALMOST SMOTHERED—A mis-step of some kind in the Cement storehouse last week almost proved fatal to Mr. G. Wilson. He fell amongst the cement and under a hopper pouring out more. Luckily, he was able to grasp an iron rod, preventing him from going under more than a few inches and a companion who had seen the mishap secured his rescue. To have hot dry cement worming into mouth, ears and eyes even for a few minutes was an undesirable experience.

It has been discovered that Owen Sound's electric light plant, owned by the corporation, is no longer able to supply the demands made upon it. The plant was taken over by the town from a private company three years ago. At that time there were 1,500 incandescent lamps in operation, and there are now 7,276 in use. The plant will probably be remodelled or enlarged. This condition of affairs is regarded by the townspeople as an unmistakable proof of the advantages of municipal ownership.—Es.

HONORABLE DEALING—Last spring a cattle dealer named O'Brien, from Fergus or near it, was around buying cattle, and paying the very good price then going. Among others, he bought from Brigham of Allan Park, Jas. McIlvride and the McKenzie Bros. of Bentinck. He shipped a lot a month or two ago, going to the old country with them and promised to be back on June 20th. This date arrived and no sign of the buyer and soon after the parties began to suspect that the great drop in the price of cattle was leading him to jump his purchase and leave them in the lurch. Acting on this the McKenzie's sold their cattle receiving, of course, much less for them than at the first sale. The others mentioned had not parted with theirs when on Monday last along comes O'Brien, who had been detained in the old country from unforeseen causes, but prepared to pay the full price agreed upon. He got the cattle, the sellers generously throwing off 25 cts per cwt. This done Mr O'Brien sought out McKenzie's and paid them the difference in cold cash they were out, owing to his failure to reach here on 20th June. Mr O'Brien can do all the business he wants round here now.

A Champion Foot-ball match between Aytan and Holstein will be played at the latter place on Monday next.

FOR SALE—At the Hedges, Buggy, Cutter and other articles. Apply to Mrs L. Somerville, on the premises.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE—A meeting of this body is to be held on Aug 3rd next at the home of Mrs. Thos McGirr. Cor. invitation to all. JEAN BROWN, Secy

Dr Burt Specialist in Diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, will be at the Middaugh House Durham, for consultation on Wednesday, Aug 2 from 10 to 4 p.m. Eyes tested, and glasses fitted.

MOVING—Mr Morlock has been moving his household goods this week into his recently-purchased fine new residence, just west of Inspector Campbell, where we wish for him and his family many years of comfort and prosperity.

DIRECTORS MEET—A meeting of the Directors of the Grey and Bruce Mutual Fire Insurance Co., met in the Hahn House on Monday for the consideration of the usual business, adjustment of losses, etc. Mr D. McDougall, Mulock, is President, Mr Duncan Campbell, Hanover, Manager and Secy, and these with wide-awake directors and energetic agents are keeping it well to the front.

IMPROVED PREMISES—Mr J. A. Dyring has had something 'doin' since the closing of the Holt Dentistry rooms. The Proprietor, Mr Calder, promptly got workmen to make connections between the drug store and the rear and presto, comfortable, cool and attractive ice cream parlors appear. Just this week Mr Darling has had placed near the back of the drug store an expensive plate glass mirror which gives an illusory doubling to the trim little place. During the hot spell last week the parlors were popular places.

MR. BEN WARNER DEAD—On Monday forenoon last the above gentleman was called over the bar after a prolonged illness. Only lately however he was confined to the house and his familiar figure will be missed from our streets. He has long been a resident of the place and until a year or two ago took a prominent place in its activities. He was in his 64th year and the trouble was in the stomach, of a cancerous nature. Besides his widow, a daughter of Mrs Thos Vollet, he leaves as chief mourners two sons and one daughter. For nearly 20 years he drove stage out of Durham for the late H. J. Middaugh. He was a member of the Oddfellow's Society, under whose auspices he is to be buried to-day, Wednesday. He was also a member of the I. O. Foresters of this place, and his foresight will be appreciated in the home now made lonely by his loss.

Matrimonial

Burnett—Robertson.

At 12 noon on Thursday 20 July, a very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr and Mrs Adam Robertson, the bride being their eldest daughter Ella who is uniting her name and fortunes with Dr Arthur Burnett, of Hamilton.

The ceremony was performed by Rev Mr Farquharson, the bride's pastor, in the presence of about forty guests. The bride was led in by her father while the wedding march was played by Mrs Blackwell of St Mary's. The bride, one of Durham's loveliest young maidens, was attractively attired in cream silk batiste over taffeta and carried a bouquet of white roses and ferns. The bridesmaid, Miss Jessie Robertson was equally attractive in cream nun's veiling. Mr David Eagle, Windsor, was groomsmen.

The ceremony over and hearty congratulations the company partook of a sumptuous dinner, and after an hour or so of social chat the happy couple left by the afternoon train on a honeymoon trip of three weeks down the St Lawrence to Prince Ed. Island and Nova Scotia, followed by the hearty good wishes of the guests. On their return they will take up residence in Hamilton.

There was a lot of beautiful presents testimony of esteem for the bride. The groom's gift to the bride was a piano, to bridesmaid a pearl ring, to groomsmen cuff links, to organist a pearl crescent.
Among guests from a distance were: Mrs John Robertson and son Ross, Orillia; Mrs Burnet, Galt, the groom's mother; Mr, Mrs. and Miss Allan, Thornbury; Mrs Idle and daughter Jean, Thornbury; Mr and Mrs Blackwell, St Mary's.
The Review extends hearty congratulations.

Almost A Fatality.

On Friday last Dr Wolfe, Mrs Wolfe and Mrs Culbertson were driving with a single horse and buggy and while on Albert Street, south of the Registry office, the bit broke and the horse got frightened and uncontrollable. It went off at full speed and dashed in a wide circle in front of the Registry office going between a post and the brick building. The swerve threw the Doctor out first but soon enough to clear the building, but Mrs Wolfe who followed was thrown with force against the bricks and was severely injured, being unconscious for a while. She received a cut on the forehead and another on the side of the head which required some stitches but beyond this and the nervous shock she escaped other injuries.
The frightened animal rushed on, Mrs Culbertson holding to the buggy, and the wild race west on Lambton St. was witnessed by a number who could render no assistance. Several rigs and obstacles were passed in safety before Mrs Wolfe's own stable was reached where it rushed with speed somewhat slackened and fortunately without upsetting the buggy. The impact against partitions in the stable caused a sudden stop and Mrs Culbertson was thrown out, was stunned a little, but almost miraculously was otherwise uninjured. She has no desire for another such a ride. At latest accounts Mrs Wolfe is progressing nicely.

Operation for Appendicitis.

Nothing for some time came upon the town with so sharp and painful a suddenness as the announcement on Sunday evening that Brad Jamieson had been attacked with appendicitis. He was in church in the morning and took a drive with his father in the afternoon. The severity of the attack led the attending physicians to decide on an operation, and the wires were brought into use to have Dr McDonald home; he was holidaying at his home in Scarborough. He was found and reached here Monday afternoon. Dr Groves, of Fergus, came up in the evening and the operation was successfully performed. It takes few words to tell of this, but few can measure the intensity of the anxiety felt by the parents and friends of the sufferer during the anxious hours of the night and succeeding day. The outcome will be hailed with delight by all who know the popular young man and we have the greatest pleasure in voicing the sentiments of the town in delight at the prospect of his early recovery.
Wednesday forenoon as we write the patient is still improving and in good spirits and needless to say the cloud is lifting from the hearts of loved ones. We sincerely that the parents may long enjoy the sunshine that comes from the life and health of their only and manly son.

Presbyterian Garden Party.

The beautiful grounds of “Idylwild”—the manse property recently purchased by the Presbyterian body, were thronged on Tuesday evening by an unwonted crowd. The loveliest of weather prevailed all day and evening and Rev Mr Farquharson and his family had the grounds, lawns, etc., in splendid shape, clean, shaven and attractive. This was the first opportunity many had had of seeing the fine residence and surroundings, the creation of the late Mr Parker, and expressions of delight and satisfaction were freely made.

The natural beauties of tree and shrub and flower were enhanced in the evening by special electric light fixings, shining on gay and loyal trappings, dainty tables surrounded by chatting groups, and waited on by willing waitresses. The Durham band was present and added greatly to the charm of the evening though to the regret of many, and to none more than to the committee, the promised paper was not there. On learning of his inability to be present, efforts were made by wire and otherwise, to supply his place, but were not successful.
Two sets of quoit players had some keen games, croquet in another spot furnished amusement while the youngsters ran wild for a time amongst so many “hide places.” On future occasions this feature will need some restraint.

Mixing with the crowd of Presbyterians were a number from the other churches in town, including Revs. Bice and Newton, Rev. Mr Colling being unable to be present.
The proceeds amounted to nearly $100.

Durham Defeats the Wellingtons.

Victory has finally rested with the Durham lacrosse boys. Last Friday they took the Wellingtons, into camp right on the pleasure grounds, Owen Sound, and in a nip-and-tuck match won out by 5 goals to 4. The Durhams have struck their stride too late in the season however to win the district but if a double schedule were played, would have a splendid opportunity. Hanover by this game, clinches the district, as they already have won three games.

It was superior and clean lacrosse that defeated the Dukes Friday. The team was slightly changed from that which played Hanover as Fred Glass, H. Lavelle and Bert Moore took the places of C. Lavelle, Hunter and Crawford. Referee Madill of Shelburne, had an easy task with the Durhams, not one being ruled off, while a number of the Wellingtons adorned the fence, chiefly for rough work. Both Will Lavelle and Gill were laid up with cuts and gashes around the head and neck, inflicted by Chesney, for which he was ruled off at different times, his rests totalling over a quarter of the game.

Incidents, not accidents, like this have killed the national game in our County capital, as only small crowds—not the most desirable class at that—attend the games there.
Owen Sound scored the first two in the 2nd quarter while Durham scored one. In the third quarter each team scored twice, and the last saw the fastest lacrosse of the game. The Dukes saw their championship chances slipping quickly and they fought every inch of the way. The blues and whites however stood the pace, adding ruffing and winning goals, and Owen Sound was out.

The following is from the Sun's write-up: Pete Matheson stood in front of the Durham goal-keeper, stalwart and brave, with all his senior dignity stamped upon his countenance. He distinguished himself by playing the best game on the field, taking the rubber from the Duke's home and carrying it to Durham's home repeatedly. Denny Madill, Shelburne, who figured on the senior Grey's line-up last season, was referee, and kept the players fairly well in hand although it looked several times as though the visitors would have to be sent home by express C. O. D.

The return match with the Wellingtons, takes place Friday here and the Durhams are confident of winning, providing that they come here. Another match with Hanover would greatly interest the Durham sports and an exhibition may be arranged later on.

Some of Dundalk's prominent citizens are agitating for the purchase by the village of Doyle's Grove as a Park. Would that Durham's prominent citizens were engaged in a similar manner.
Mr. J. Ross Robertson, proprietor of the Toronto Telegram, has decided to donate a nurse's home in Toronto as a memorial of his wife and only daughter. The building will cost $75,000. Mr. Robertson is one of the few philanthropists Toronto has.

A SUBSTANTIAL GRANT—Some of the money which goes into the thousand dollar increase in the indemnity to the members of the House of Commons is coming back to the people in a direct manner by the personal donation of $500, to the North Grey Agricultural Societies prize list by Mr W. P. Telford, M. P. The directors have been called to meet and re-arrange the prize list to accommodate the grant.—Times.
