Important Doings at the Zemstvo Congress Held at Moscow Yesterday.

It Drafts Constitution Along Lines of British last night when a couple of white girls became brides of Charlie Sing and Jick Parliamentary Government.

Baron Komura, Japanese Plenipotentiary, Has Arrived at Seattle, Wash.

nod, is current in St. Petersburg to-

According to the report as M. Pobied-

London, July 19 .- "Personal friends of

M. Witte assure me," says the Moscow correspondent of the Times, "that M.

Trepoff's Bad Blunder.

conversation at the Zemstvos congress gathering of citizens.

A London cable: One of the topics of

POLICE AT ZEMSTVO.

Hear Discussions,

A Moscow cable: The Zemstvo congress was attended by 225 delegates.

Count Heyden, leader of the deputation

M. Folovine, President of the organ-

The chief announced that the Prefect

Bouligane Scheme Inadequate.

on the basis outlined by the commis-

Before addressing this note to the Assembly from truly interpreting the

The scheme of a National Assembly

Some Redeeming Features.

izing committee, had barely started a

German liner on Wednesday next. His Tsarskoe-Selo railway station here, his embarkation on the sea of matriarrival is preceded by some interesting where the attempt is reported to have mony, but after saying he had been entelegrams from St. Petersburg, one of been made, disclaim all knowledge of gaged which makes the important statement; any such happening. that the Russian plenipotentiary is ex- ouostseff stepped off one of the coaches the conversation and Charlies confidences pected to make light of certain difficul- on the train from Tsarskoe-Selo, where were cut off. He used to live in pany. ties, even that of a war indemnity, if he is residing during the summer, to the Clinton. he can only arrange an alliance with platform, a man about 28 year old Japan, the theory being that a peace rushed up with a revolver in his hand which would imply an alliance could not but he was seized by a quick-witted sembled the sound of gravel dropping has so delighted the Government that reported that among those condemned to he is sore on the papers because they Military College. the question of offering Japan an in- death by the terrorists was the Chief recently misreported him on some matdemnity is no longer considered insur- Procurator of the Holy Synod, M. Po-mountable. The possibility of later com- biedonostseff, who was charged with ining to terms with England is regarded fluencing the Emperor to adopt a reached didn't want the weddings noticed. as feasible and logical.

From Words to Action.

A London cable: The Moscow corespondent of the Times wires to-night Witte is convinced that the peace nego-regarding the meeting of the Russian tiations will not last more than three Zemstvo there: "To-day's congress weeks, and if the Japanese demands marks the starting point of a new prove incompatible M. Witte expects to movement away from the throne and return immediately." towards the people, and from words to deeds. The temper of the assembly was revealed in a speech by Ivan Petruntavitch, who said that all hope of revolution was inevitable, and it was their duty to prevent, if possible, the of the Times, "was the alleged discovery accompaniment of bloodshed.

of a military plot against the present "These words were greeted with a occupant of the throne. After the blunstorm of cheering. The congress had at the previous night's sitting declar- Government perpetrated this afternoon cloven must be at the previous night's sitting declared a wish to boycott what is facetiousan additional blunder by detailing a few ly styled the Bouligane constitution. An police officers to stop the proceedings. organizing committee had proposed that the congress should take part in the elections under the Government's scheme, but the matter was compromis- the congress resumed its deliberations to a nearby well. Here a long, stout ed on the understanding that the ques- as if nothing had happened. The Govern- rope was tied around him, and he was tion should be left open until the Bouligane measure has been promulgated, spite their arbitrary discretionary pow- hour. The unfortunate man was some when the congress would be reconven- ers, the police cannot even prevent a times immersed for half a minute at a ed by telegraph.

which was published in The Russkiya onets. Viedomosti, by the significant adapta- I "Will General Trepoff, who instigated tion of the English Parliamentary prac-, this latest demonstration of official imtice. The draft was passed on the first portance, venture to resort to force? It the second reading at the next conintroduced a resolution by which the afternoon's meetings, and the violent was half dead with pain and exposure. congress definitely commits itself to an measures greatly stimulates the whole The alleged reason of the attack is active propaganda among the people, both high and low. Another resolued by the Administration upon the harty the Bureaueracy represented by neighbors have repeatedly warned him the Novoe Vremya and Moscow Gazette." concerning this conduct. The case has lives and liberties of the people.

"To-morrow the congress will hear a paper from Prince Shakhovskoi on 'The National Assembly,' and another 'Women's Suffrage,' and will close with adopting an appeal to the nation."

A Seattle, Wash., report: Baron Jut- gress opened at midday in the resi- Harvard Taking Great Interest in the Big Railway Company. oro Komura, Minister for Foreign Affairs and peace plenipotentiary of Ja-Northern steamer Minnesota, and con- representing the Congress, recently repan, arrived this morning on the Great tinued his journey over the Great Northern Railway this evening, occupying Mr. ura declined all tenders of hospitality statement dealing with the obstacles while here, pleading special instructions | placed in the way of the Congress, anfrom the Mikado to make all possible nouncing that Governor-General Kozspeed to Washington. Baron Komura, loff had promised that there would be in declining to discuss the mission, said no recourse to extreme measures, when he did not feel at liberty to speak, ex- the Chief of Police, with numerous com- do not pay much attention to this parcept to say that "the two belligerents, in response to the suggestion of the room. tentiaries who are to meet in the Unit. had prohibited the meeting of the Con- affected by sun spots," said W. P. Ger- less telegraphy in Canada. President, have appointed peace plenipopeaceful impulses of the two nations, documents. Count Heyden protested known." thanks to the friendly initiative of Mr. against the proceedings, but the Chief The spots on the sun at present are tionaries and other annual charges on cessation of hostilities." River, a memory of his Harvard days, monses and the sitting was resumed. but the other members of the party also seemed to know the tune if not the

China Wants Manchuria,

A Washington, D. C., report: China's ister of the Interior, was minutely and official notification to the powers that critically discussed, and denounced she will not recognize any arrangement totally inadequate to remove Russian regarding Manchuria concerning which internal grievances, because, including she has not been consulted beforehand, a property qualification and an electorhas reached Washington.

neutral powers China sent to St. Peters- will of the nation, while the exclusion burg and Tokio an identical note con- of numerous categories of citizens from worded, and is so expressed that it calls | State policy. The arrival of the text of the note disposes of the unofficial report reachsia and Japan such a notification was which would tend to secure political was removed from Colbert to Wilburto remind them that she had never acquiesced in the alienation of Manchuria fation. Therefore, it was considered gang. The body of Miller was turned from Chinese sovereignty, and that she desirable that in the event of the carry-over to the sheriff of Jack county, Tex., expected as the first result of the war ing out of the Boulignane or a similar in which county Miller was born and the full restoration to Chinese control project the delegates of the Zemstvos where his first crime, the murder of a of that province. That this position and municipalities should participate in sheriff, was committed. might receive the continued support of the Assembly to the greatest possible Davis received $5,000 reward for Wild the neutral powers copies of the note extent with the object of forming a Bill's body, and in addition he will get were forwarded to the other capitals.

To Kill Chief Procurator. A St. Petersburg cable: A circum- Numerous resolutions embodying the of the gang cluded the officers.

CHINESE WED WHITE GIRLS. Double Wedding Celebration Last Night

Toronto, July 24. Chop suey society on York street was excited and elated restaurant, 190 York street, and until less excitement around the place.

The girls are both young and good-looking, but unlike most blushing bridgs they hankered not after any quiet but A London cable: The Paris corres- stantial report of an attempt on the life by the society reporter, who got the pondent of the Times cables to-night as seff, Chief Procurator of the Holy Sy.

Charlie Sing, one of the bashful grooms "M. Witte, who arrives in Paris on night, but the Associated Press is un- is a happy sort of fellow, but he has to Friday, will sail from Cherbourg by the able to obtain confirmation of it. The do what he is told already. He was authorities and even the police at the willing to loosen up a little regarding pretty little Chinese baby, which the policeman said had six fingers, slid into late the romance, but their replies rebe regarded as ignominious.

"Allied with Japan, Russia would still turned over to the police. At the time hold her own in the far east, and besides, this idea, broached by M. Witte, gius in Moscow, Feb. 17th last, it was about if anybody understands him, but | To amend the act respecting the Royal ter which seems to have been of great interest in the Chinese quarter, and

One of the brides plainly expresed her unwillingness to have anything said of the joyous events, and what she said settled it. In the apartment at the back of the restaurant there was a gathering composed mostly of Chinese, who were quietly celebrating. The service of the Methodist Church united the happy couples.

DUCKED, THEN FLOGGED.

to-day," says the Moscow correspondent Essex Man the Victim of a Gang of A Chatham, Ont., report: Last night der of interdicting and advertising the near Wheatley the house of Thomas eleven masked men, who wore black slouch hats and black masks over their "The policemen good-humoredly tried faces. They dragged him from his bed to execute their orders, and after wait- and pinioned him with ropes, and, deing considerable time over the incident, spite his vigorous protests, dragged him ment is now in a ludicrous position. De- lowered and soaked for over half an time, then his head would be released to "The Government and its arsenal of permit breathing, and then he was low-"To-day the committee introduced its decrees and circulars no longer command ered again, despite his cries for mercy. the city of Ottawa. own draft constitution, the text of obedience, except when backed by bay- During the whole time his body was in ed he was almost numb and hali drowned.

Not content with this, the attackers reading, the congress resolving that it is believed the temptation to vindicate then dragged him to a post some fifty should be submitted to the discussion the Government's prestige may prove yards away, and thrashed him with a of all the Zemstovs and Dumas before too strong, but if violent measures are horse whip, which tore his shirt to taken matters will only become worse. | shreds and cut cruelly into the flesh. "The recent persecution brought al- When he was finally released, the "Princes Paul and Peter Dolgeroukoff | most double the numbers expected to this | physician who examined him claimed he against what numbers of the committee drinking heavily, and then striking and to-day styled the real revolutionary abusing his wife, and it is said the concerning this conduct. The case has been reported to the Crown, and Crown way Company, Attorney Smith states that the case is being thoroughly investigated, and the Take Names of All the Delegates and guilty parties will be severely dealt with.

SOL'S SPOTTED FACE.

Cambridge, Mass., July 24.-In the Company. Harvard Observatory yesterday it was? To incorporate the Provident Finan- peace with the world." said that sun spots now exciting consid- cial Association, Limited. erable interest are of unusual dimensions. To amend the bank act. When they first appeared, on Friday. they were not very tangible, but now they can be plainly seen through smoked glass or even with the naked eye when missaries and officials entered the ticular phenomenon, they took photo- representation act. graphs this afternoon. "Whether the hot weather is caused or

Roosevelt, may be successful in bringing of Police began taking the names of among the largest which have appeared the consolidated revenue. the delegates. Then cries were raised in recent years, although they probably Respecting the Pacific Bank of Can-While secretive as to diplomatic mat- of "Write down the whole of Russia." cannot compare with those which appear ada, ters, Baron Komura was one of the most Many persons present who were not ed in 1892. They are close together, Respecting the Saint Maurice Valley democratic of the Minnesota's passen- delegates to the Congress requested that somewhat above the centre, and on the Railway Company. gers. At a gathering Tuesday night he their names also be taken. The police right hand side. They are estimated to times as great as the earth. These spots Eastern Railway & Navigation Comproposed and led in singing Suwanee then departed in order to draw up sum- be 100,000 miles in diameter, twelve are supposed to be collections of con- pany. densed gas containing solid matter, but scientists are not agreed, and some as- la Cite d'Ottawa, and to change its tronomers think the spots are depres- name to L'Union Saint Joseph du Cansion presided over by M. Bouligane, Min-

"WILD BILL" MILLER DEAD.

al system by classes, it prevented the The Sleuth Who Killed Him Will Get Durant, I. T., July 24.-In a battle the franchise was a contradiction of between officers and the Miller gang the The Chinese communication is briefly the principles of equity and reasonable notorious desperado, Wild Bill Miller, was hot and killed in a hand-to-hand encounter with Deputy United States At the same time it was recognized Marshal Jim Davis, of Wilburton. ing Washington recently from Europe, that the proposed Assembly would com- Miller's gang took refuge in the Kiathat China had requested that she be prise a considerable proportion of the mitia Mountains near Wilburton over a allowed to participate in the conference. social forces of the empire and serve year ago, and have defied officials to Minister. China's motive in addressing to Rus- as the centre of a social movement take their stronghold. Marshal Davis compact group and to obtain a guar- other rewards aggregating $3,000. Sevantee of individual and public liber- enteen horses were recovered from the outlaws' camp after the battle. The rest Bills Passed During the Long Session and Now Laws of the Dominion. To amend the militia act.

Respecting a patent. No. 69,772, of the I Underwood Typewriter Company. Respecting the Huron & Erie Loan and Alberta.

Respecting certain patents of the Uniderwood Typewriter Company. corporation of live stock record ass

Respecting the Farmers' Bank of Cau-

Respecting the Ontario, Hudson, Bay

Western Railway Company. Respecting the Interprovincial James Bay Railway Company. Respecting the Edmonton, Yukon Pacific Railway Company.

Respecting the Great Northern Railway of Canada. Respecting the Vancouver & Coast-Kootenay Railway Company.

Respecting the Kaslo & Lardo-Duncan Railway Company. To incorporate the Fessenden Wireless Telegraph of Canada.

Respecting the Ottawa Electric Com- way Company. Respecting the Ottawa & New York | Power Company, Limited. Railway Company.

Respecting the Northwest Coal & Coke Railway Company, and to change of the financial years ending respectiveits name to the Great West Railway ly the 30th of June, 1905, and the 30th Company. Wath Land W. Co. Sall of June, 1906.

For the relief of Philip Vibert. For the relief of George Pearson. Respecting the inspection and sale of

To incorporate the Northwest Telephone & Telegraph Company. To incorporate La Compa To incorporate the Title and Trust

Respecting the Manitoulin & North | handkerchief, saturated with chloro- ting away, but if the Italian had not way Company. Shore Railway Company. Respecting the Algoma Central & Hudson Bay Railway Company.

rict of Quebec. Ideal Manufacturing Company. Respecting Gillies Bros., Limited. To amend the Government railways

Respecting the port and pilotage dis-

To incorporate the Monarch Bank of

To incorporate the Sterling Bank of To amend the act of 1899 respecting

To amend the acts respecting naturalization and aliens. Respecting the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company. Respecting the James Bay Railway

To amend the act respecting the Yukon Western Railway Company. To amend the census and statistics Respecting certain patents of David Thomas Owen. Respecting a certain patent of the Metal Volatilization Company. Respecting the Canada Central Rail- | concealed weapons. Respecting the Brandon, Saskatchewan & Hudson Bay Railway Company.

For the relief of Isaac Pitblado. To amend an act respecting certain prisonment Berkman devoted his leisure patents of William A. Damen. Respecting the Canadian Northern for the workhouse he said to Deputy

To incorporate the Edmonton Boom

To amend the Dominion controverted election act. To amend the Northwest irrigation

Although the Harvard observers here! To amend the seaman's act. To amend the Northwest Territories To provide for the regulation of wire ed States, and it is to be hoped that the gress and ordered the seizure of the rish, of the observatory staff, "is un-1 To amend the revised statute respect-, ing the salaries of certain public fune-

Respecting the Vancouver, Victoria &

Respecting L'Union Saint Joseph

sions in the surface of the sun or bodies ada.

Respecting the Joliette & Lake Respecting the Manuan Colonization Railway Com-

To amend the grain inspection act as regards the selection of commercial grades and samples.

To amend the inland-revenue act. To amend the land titles act, 1894. To amend the franchise act, 1898. To incorporate the International Bridge & Terminal Company.

Salusbury Trelawney. To establish and provide for the gov ernment of the Province of Alberta. To establish and provide for the gove ernment of the Province of Saskatch Respecting the powers of the Harbor Canada.

Northwest.

Respecting roads and road allowance

Respecting the Superintendent of I surance and the Director-General of Pu

c. Health of waspots right branching to Respecting false representations

In amendment of the criminal code,

To amend the criminal code, 189

Respecting the Senate and House

To amend the customs tariff, 1897.

To amend the act respecting the Company and the Quebec Southern Rail

USED CHOROFORM.

Was Successful.

summary convictions.

hequer Courts act.

Judges of Provincial courts.

MR. A. C. LYTLE, MONTREAL, SAVE. LARGE SUM OF MONEY,

His Horse Shot and Himself Peppere With Buckshot, He and His Son Go Away With the Satchels Containing

Montreal, July 24.-Mr. A. C. Lytle aymaster of the Oxford Mountain Rail way, now building along St. Francis River, near Sherbrooke, returned Montreal to-day and related the despe to ate experience he and his son underwe vesterday at the hands of Italian his waymen, who attempted to rob the pa sacks of $14,000 in cash. He said: "! son and I were driving along the cor with respect to appeals from certain struction road betwen Kingsbury an Windsor Mills. On a quiet stretch be tween two clumps of bushes we were To amend the Supreme and Exhequer Courts act.

jogging along, when all of a sudden two masked Italians jumped from the bush, one on either side. Each had a shotgun, and each pointed at us and demand ed the money. One seemed to boss the the horse, which he immediately did. The Respecting annuities for certain Privy horse dropped dead. It suddenly struck me that now there was only one man Respecting the South Shore Railway with a gun, and he off his guard for a moment. I seized the grip with the money, jumped out and ran towards the bush. My son jumped the other way Respecting the Ontario & Minnesota with a smaller satchel of money. He For granting to his Majesty certain and at once dropped into the bushes, the charge going over his head. Both Italsums of money for the public service and started firing at me. But the buggy and the first shot went over my head. The Trick of Two Montreal Burgiars buckshot struck the money satchel, fair-Montreal, July 24 .- Chloroform has several shot sting in my arm. I was not been degraded to the rank of a burg- much hurt, and jumped up and ran on. lar's accessory in this city, and the I was met by an Italian supply man du police are looking for two men who used named Baldisario, who grabbed the sat-Chemin de Fer Electrique de Trois it while rifling the sleeping apartments chel and helped me to escape. Ine two Rivieres, St. Maurice, Maskinonge et of Mrs. E. Labranche's residence on highwaymen kept on firing several more City Hall avenue early yesterday morn-I shots, and I got several buckshot in my ing. About 3 o'clock Mrs. Labranche's leg and some in the back, while Baldidaughter Aline awoke, and, hearing a sario got peppered in one leg. After a noise in the house, called out to ask minute or two, however, they evidently Respecting the Dominion Atlantic Rail- who was moving about. A hand was got scared and ran into the bush. instantly placed over her mouth and a "We took a pretty long chance in get-

> The intruders also chloroformed Mrs. let them get away with the money, as Labranche's young son, who was asleep we were unarmed. found that they had secured $45 and a suspects are being watched.

we could have done would have been to cles of minor value. The young woman and young man soon recovered. HE TRIED TO KILL FRICK.

form, was held over her face until she wasted his charge killing the horse all

Man Who Attempted Life of Millionaire Serves Sentence.

they succeeded in getting away.

gold watch, as well as a number of arti-

Pittsburg, July 24.-Alex. Berkman, manufacturer during the great Homestead strike in 1892, was released from the Western Penitentiary to-day, and he fell asleep. immediately arrested again on a commitment to the Alleghany County Work- Glover said house to serve one year for carrying Berkman was sentenced to twentytwo years in the penitentiary, but good behavior earned for him a commutation of nine years, so that he served but thirteen years. During his long imtime to study and writing. As he left Sheriff Haggerty:

"I hope there won't be any notoriety about me. I want to do my uttle bit and then be a good man and live at workhouse was without incident,

WIVES SPLIT KING'S GOLD.

His Highness of Yap Left Million and Two Families.

wives. O'Keefe went to the Carolines ed by "this moderate and reasonable in the sixties, amassed a fortune and bill. gained great influence over the natives. He built schooners, and on many islands was practically the ruler. He married a native woman, who bore him | Killed Two Children and Mother May half a dozen children. About five years ago he died while returning from Hong Kong to Yap. His sented his proofs, avad at adams an

MARRIED IN PITTSBURG. Former St. Catharines Girl Weds a Wealthy Denver Man.

Pittsubrg, Pa., July 24.-William Calvin Nevin, a former Pittsburger, now a resident of Denver, Colorado, was married here to-night to Miss Jessie | Pulled Lad From Roof and Let Him For the relief of Agnes Hedevig Helga | McIntosh, his pretty stenographer and governess of his eight-year-old daughter. Respecting the salary of the First Mr. Nevin was a wealthy widower, and Miss McIntosh was formerly a resi- Stebbins avenue, the Bro wedding took place at the home of Mrs. He was taken to Lebanon Hospital. W. A. Given, sister of the groom weeding took place this evening.

job, and shouted to the other to shoot saw the Italian pointing his gun at him, lians then saw I had the big money bag, was between us, and gave me a chance, I kept running zigzag, so as to keep them busy. Then the other fired, and the ly riddling it, and swinging it around so hard it knocked me down, while I felt in a hammock. Mrs. Labranche was After the shooting was over M. sleeping in another room, and did not Lytle drove to Richmond, where Dr. Respecting certain patents of the hear the robbers until they were about Johnson, of that place, took a number to depart. She raised an alarm, but of buckshot out of his arm. Upon his arrival here he was met at the station The police were called in, and a search by his wife and son, and promptly driven of the house was made immediately. The to a hospital. It is believed that the burglars had evidently escaped by means highwaymen were acquainted with the of one of the open windows. It was circumstances of Mr. Lytle's trip, and WIFE CAN LOOT POCKETS. Kansas Judge Finds Custom "Ancient

and Honorable." Kansas City, July 24.-Judge Glover declared in the Circuit Court to-day that he would never interfere with that ancient and honorable right of a the alleged anarchist, who attempted wife to search her husband's pockets to kill H. C. Frick, the millionaire steel for loose change. William M. Harding asked a divorce from Ina M. Harding, one reason being because she had a habitof "frisking" his pockets after When the evidence was all in Judge

"I want it distinctly understood that I am not granting this divorce because the wife went isto her husband's pockets. I shall do nothing to interfere with that ancient privilege of the fair sex. A wife has the right to do that. grant the divorce for other reasons."

ALIENS BILL PASSED.

The British House of Commons Gives Third Reading.

London, uJly 24 .-- In the House of Commons vesterday the Alerns will pass-The trip from the penitentiary to the ed its third reading by a majority of 90. The Prime Minister, Mr. Balfour, in winding up the debates on the bill, contended that the proposed restrictions were less severe than those imposed by any other nation. He referred to the American immigration laws, and asked whether anyone would assert that the Honolulu, July 24 .- Advices fro Yep, Americans were indifferent to freedom in the Caroline Islands say that the or looked with unmoved eye on the contest over the $1,000,000 estate of | suffering and the oppressed, yet their King O'Keefe, of the islands, has been | restrictions as well as the restrictions compromised, the estate being equally di- imposed by the British colonies were, vided between the American and native he said, more severe than those impos-

TOADSTOOLS DEADLY.

Vineland, N. J., July 24.-Dr. George fortune was taken by the widow and Cunningham, was called to Friendship, family in Yap, but it developed that Atlantic county, a few miles northeast O'Keefe had a wife in the United States of here, to-day, to see the family of Jos. to whom he had sent regular remit- Franzoi, who had been poisoned by tances. She sent a lawyer from San leating toad stools. He found a depior-Francisco to Yap to file the claim, and lable scene. Two children, aged 2 and a compromise was reached when he pre- 7 years were dead, and the father and mother were writhing in agony.

The family had feasted at supper last night on toad stools which had been mistaken for mushrooms. The baby ate only the froth on some bread, but died first. The father may survive, but the mother is in a critical condition.

KITE CARRIED BOY.

Down on Pavement.

New York, July 24.-While flying the marriage aroused quite a sensation. kite on the roof of his home at No. 1,010 dent of St. Catharines, Ont., but of late Robert Matthews, aged eleven, fell one years has been living in Denver, where hundred feet to the pavement, receiving she was employed by Mr. Nevin. The internal injuries which may prove fatal. When the accident occurred Rober

Mr. Nevin reached Pittsburg a week and his elder brother, William, were ago to attend some sort of a family playing together. William asked Rob-To amend the act respecting an ar- reunion. With him came his eight- ert to hold the cord attached to the bitration between his Majesty and the year-old daughter and her governess, kite while he went below for a mo-Grand Trunk Railway Company of Miss McIntosh. The announcement was ment. The little lad, however, was not soon made that Mr. Nevin and the strong enough to control the kite, which To amend the act respecting the governess were to be married, and the in its zigzag flight carried him over the edge of the roof.

And you'll see w

KNOW the QU

to KNOW it too.

A TEST

At the long list of names, the simple Vernon Vane, eve ed up, excepting Jeanne, and a slight rustle eloquent of s Vane's face was calm and c Jeanne's turn came to mal assertion. Only for a mon that moment she looked look which he remembered ward, a glance at once at confiding; a glance which understand then, but which mentous after-time, he crea mistaken significance. She did not look up when, with the usual blunde ped the wedding ring on the It was a trifling mistake uncommon one, but Mrs. La dered, and Maud and George With a little blush Jean her hand and Vane transfer to the right finger. The little accident took on or so in the transaction, but Bell, and the rest of the almost inaudible Then, with her hand on l arm, Jeanne retraced her vestry. Vestries, as a rul large enough for the swing without imminent peril to animal, and Bell, when he c scarcely make his way to the little crowd of satin an But when he did, he held timidly to Jeanne, and gra-"I-I-hope you'll be hay he stammered, and with a daring which astonished ha mainder of his life, he rea and kissed it. Jeanne blushed, but crims putting his arm around h toward him, and kissed her Then Bell turned to Van and signed, and Jeanne rest crowded forward also. "I sav. Vane," said Hal of names you've got. La people your godfathers an must have been. Vane smiled.

"Will you sign the regard

"Some of them are pured Hal," he said. "Are we re-There was a general mo door, Jeanne, on Vernon's the way.

Then the group of child been impatiently waiting, shower of flowers, and Jeanne, with a sudden tre stepped into the carriage, carriages followed close a few minutes, Hal, who w novel dignity, had arrang around the table, and the fast commenced.

Georgina and Mand ha tears by this time, and with smiles as they fusse, and arranged her veil, U. Mr. Lambton looking on The latter gentleman was that morning, and looked, coat and brass buttons, never seen London in his It was quite a treat to ling about the room, to danger of the elaborately-l and making his old-ling laugh rang among the gli tones, exclaimed, as he the hand: "By jove, sir, you're a l ought to be a happy man a treasure, sir, a perfect t Isay, look here, he added a little aside by a buttonh ing so that every one in hear, "if you ever want forget the old squire. find room for a picture dozen of 'em-up in the good prices for 'em, too. to encourage h'art! and 'and to strugglin' genius

about, he made his way

and in bluff and properly want a friend, don't forget I can't say more, ch, can "No. inded," said Vane, "and I am very much obli "And as for Jeanne-M he corrects himself, with a sly dig at the side of Var "why, I look upon her as dawters, always have, by you joy," and with a bene lish-gentleman chuckle, sank into his chair, delig self, and, in consequence, "Mark my words," wh Vane, "the old man is go speech ! I can see it in won't cry will you, Vane Vane laughed and push his seat.

Crying is an exhausting the two bridesmands, mu encouraged by Hal, atta viands with surprising her ering their heart-broken gled with the clatter of forks, there was a great ter and talking, and two seemed to be smitten with were Jeanne and Reil. Vane was busy attending

"You've got to make a Hal," he said, at which