Western Fair

THE EXHIBITION THAT MADE FALL AGRICULTURAL FAIRS POPULAR

When Governor Macdonald laid the foundation of London, Ontario, one hundred years ago he knew it would grow to be a great city, but had no thought of the Western Fair.

The Western Fair gives the people of this country an excellent opportunity for a pleasant outing at a minimum of cost, and at the same time develops their store of practical and useful knowledge.

Its educational features have always been carefully fostered by the Directors. This year several important improvements of an instructive nature have been added. The celebrated 51st Highland Regiment Band will give three concerts daily during the exhibition. The entertainment department will be better than ever, and will include hopping the gap in mid air on a steam automobile.

Rev Mr and Mrs Aitchison leave this week for a month's vacation with friends in Haron County. During Mr Aitchison's absence the pulpit of the Presbyterian church will be occupied by Mr Cameron of Toronto.

An interesting conversationalist is Mr Edward Coleman of the County Town, who spent a few days last week with his many friends in this community.

Mr Frank Sullivan of Irish Lake, accompanied by his sister Miss May, spent a few pleasant days in the burgh, visiting their sister, Mrs John Sullivan.

We miss the smiling countenance of Miss Aitchison who leaves this week for Seaton after a fortnight's vacation with her brother, Rev Mr Aitchison.

Miss Colena Nichol, of Lockwood, is visiting her grandparents, Mr and Mrs Duncan Campbell, of Benlloch.

Mr P. J. Malone, of the Customs Department, Owen Sound, renewed acquaintances in the village one day last week.

Mr H. H. Miller, South Grey's clever representative at Ottawa, paid the village a business trip on Friday of last week.

Mr John Morrison returned last week from a trip to the Prairie Province. He speaks in glowing terms of the progressive West.

Miss Charlotte Smith of the Queen City, accompanied by Miss Scott of Chataworth, are renewing acquaintances in the burgh and vicinity at present.

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of Mrs John Vasey which occurred at the residence of her daughter, Mrs O'Connor at Sudbury on Wednesday last. Deceased had left here only four weeks ago to visit her daughter, when paralysis, with which she had previously been afflicted, returned with fatal effect. Mrs Vasey was a very estimable lady, held in high esteem for Christian virtue, her sympathetic nature and hospitable manner. Her husband predeceased her by only six months and she leaves a grown up family of sons and daughters to mourn her loss. The funeral on Friday last to the R. C. cemetery was largely attended.

Yet still our greatest griefs May be reliefs
Could we but take them right and in their ways.
Happy be whose heart
Hath found the art
To turn his double pains to double praise.

Haying is about wound up but still there is a lot to do yet in some places. Our town is somewhat quiet at present on account of the busy season.

Raspberry picking is the general order of the time with the women and youngsters.

Teacher Blakestone as per appointment filled the Methodist Church pulpit last Sunday in this place. Mr Blakestone is an all round fellow: he can act from the hay field to the pulpit when necessity calls him consequently he is a general favorite wherever he is placed.

Dr Rowntree who ably filled Dr Dixon's place for the last two weeks left for Toronto on Saturday last.

Dr Dixon returned after a two week's holiday looking well after his return.

Miss Gertie McLeod daughter of the late Rev M. McLeod, after a few years absence is at present with her mother in this town, where she intends to stay for a few months before returning again to the North West.

Miss Emma McLean is getting along fairly well after a second operation. We hope to see her all right soon.

Rev Mr McCall who is filling the Presbyterian pulpit here preached a very good sermon last Sabbath morning from 1st John 29th verse he dwelt chiefly on the small word Sin. Mr McCall is one of the old time preachers and it is too bad that he is now getting on the decline.

Mr John McIntyre who is making his home at Norman McIntyre's south line was seized with a paralytic stroke some ten days ago and is unable to do anything to assist himself since.

Mrs Dr Hutton and son Arthur are spending a while with her sister, in this place at present.

Miss Jane Wright, teacher of Nortolk Co., is also taking her holidays at the old home here at present.

Miss Maggie McLachlan, teacher of Middlesex, is home with her mother, Mrs McLachlan of this place during the holidays.

Gaelic in the Presbyterian church here at 11 in the morning by Rev Mr McCall.

The harvest is going to be later this year than last year by two weeks. Crops in Glenelg have a good appearance, roots look good, so do weeds which need attendance.

The revival services held in Salem came to a close on Wednesday evening. They were the most successful services held in the neighborhood for years, over fifty being added to the church roll besides a few joining other churches.

We are sorry to hear that while Mr Howard Watson was engaged in taking out poles for the telephone, he had the misfortune of getting a bad gash in the thigh with the saw but we hope soon to hear of his recovery.

Rev Mr McCaul of Toronto is taking Mr Matheson's place at Priceville and Swinton Park while he is away for his holidays. Mr McCaul was pastor at Swinton Park for four or five years. He resigned twelve years ago and moved to Quebec where he had charge for a number of years. I am sure the congregation here will be glad to welcome him back.

Address and Presentation.

The members of the Bible Class in the Crawford Presbyterian Church assembled at the home of their teacher, Mr Wm. Cook, on Wednesday evening July 28, and as an evidence of the appreciation in which his services are held presented him with a magnificent finished easy chair. Mr Cook who was entirely taken by surprise, expressed thanks and admiration for such courteous treatment in a few very appropriate words. After the presentation an enjoyable evening was spent in the usual manner. The following is the address read:

Mr Wm Cook:
Dear friend and teacher;
You will have noticed by this time that this little surprise party is composed chiefly of the members of your Bible Class.

We have waited upon you this evening to express to you in a few words our appreciation of your service to us as a Bible Class teacher, a service which has lasting results, not alone thro' life, but thro' eternity.

We know by your thorough teaching of the lessons that you have faithfully studied them for our benefit but the study of them will bring to you its own reward, for no one can put time and thought on Bible study without being richer toward God.

We ask you to accept this gift from us as a little memento and with it we wish you and Mrs Cook all prosperity.

We also hope you may be able to continue with us in your present capacity for some time to come, for our mutual improvement.

Signed on behalf of the Bible Class—
Ann Jane White
Sarah Ann MacDonald
