Isabella McArthur was born in Bentinck township, Grey Co. Ont., March 4th, 1857. In the year I882 she came to Midland County where in the following year she was married to Malcolm ship where she resided until her death.

For several years her health has been failing, medical aid seemed to be of no avail. She gradually grew worse until a week previous to her death when she was stricken to her bed. Loving hands did all in their power to soothe her sufferings but on Sunday morning death came to her relief. She was not conscious at the last but she passed away without a duties.

Mrs McDonald has ever been an arbeloved by all who new her and her presence will not only be missed at home but among her many friends who sympathize with the family in their sad bereavement.
