SEPT. 5TH, 1905

The Life Giving Stream-Ezek, 47: 1-12.

Commentary .- I. The source and pro-Now follows another vision to inspire hope and faith in the exiles, to lead them be re-established and entrusted with ser- A Civic Address Was Presented to to prepare by a right life for their re- vice and secrifice, no longer anticipative, turn, and to make them willing and but memorial (Ezek, xliv. 15; xvi. 28-31; anxious to return, attracted by the xlv. 4, 25). Here he sees "from out the blessings yet to come upon the land, con- sanctuary issue living waters which cartrasted with their sad condition in exile, ry healing and fertility and life wherever | Happy References in His Highness' The house-The temple. The waters, they go. etc .- "The natural fact on which this "Water issued out from under the conception rests is, that there was a | threshold of the house" v. 1). Water is fountain connected with the temple hill, a type of spiritual life, the gift of God the waters of which fell into the valley | the Father (John iv. 10); God the Son east of the city and made their way to- (John iv. 14), and God the Holy Spirit ward the sea."-Davidson. This was the (Isa. xliv. 3; John vii. 38, 39). The only natural fountain stream flowing word of God is the instrument God uses whose 'soft-flowing' waters were already | 25; Eph. v. 26; Isa. lv. 1; Rev. xxii. 17). regarded as a symbol of the silent and "The waters come down" (v. 1). The unobtrusive influence of the divine pres- way from God to man is always "down," ence in Israel (Isa. viii. 6). The waters whether man be living under conscience metropolis of Canada a visit. of this stream flowed eastward, but they (Gen. xi. 5), under law (Exod. xix. 20) were too scanty to have any appreciable in captivity (Dan. iv. 13), or under grace effect on the fertility of the region (John iii. 13; vi. 38, 41, 51, 58). 'The through which they passed."-Skinner. waters came . . . from the right side of South side of the altar-"The stream the house, at the south side of the aiflowed not only from the temple, but tar" (v. 1). The "right" way is the apparently from the holy of holies, and bright way. The righteous shine here symbol of the miraculous transformation | the right side is toward the south, the which the land of Canaan is to undergo place of warm devotion. "The waters in order to fit it for the habitation of came down-from the altar" (v. 1). Jehovah's ransomed people." The wat- Type of Calvary, the place of sacrifice. ers did not come to the temple, as if From the wounded side flowed blood and isfaction, that I find myself once more, intended for the purpose of washing the water (John xix, 34). sacrifices, but they issued from it, and "Then brought He me" (v. 2). "He and again in the course of my naval list of failures to reach the pole, un- against walls of ice. Crossing Hooker proceeded to refresh and fertilize other brought me" (v. 3). Salvation is all from duties, in this Dominion and this beauties the three determined attempts Island two of the men fell into a creplaces. The prophecy of Zechariah (chapter xiv. S), that living waters should go forth from Jerusalem, half of them toward the former sea and half (Eph. ii. S. 9). If we will "let God" accord me to-day greatly enhances this living them toward the former sea and half (Port iii. S. 9). If we will "let God" accord me to-day greatly enhances this living the former sea and half (Port iii. S. 9). If we will "let God" accord me to-day greatly enhances this living the former sea and half (Port iii. S. 9). If we will "let God" accord me to-day greatly enhances this living the former sea and half (Port iii. S. 9). If we will "let God" accord me to-day greatly enhances this living the former sea and half (Port iii. S. 9). If we will "let God" accord me to-day greatly enhances this living the former sea and half (Port iii. S. 9). If we will "let God" accord me to-day greatly enhances this living the former sea and half (Port iii. S. 9). If we will "let God" accord me to-day greatly enhances this living the former sea and half of highest price reached was 119-16c. Nearly all boarded was sold at this figure, and the them toward the former sea and half (Rom. iii. 4: Psa. lxviii. 1) he will lead pleasure and I tender you all my warm. altogether futile; but, although the greatest difficulty, one being so invision (Rev. xxii. 1) of a pure river of xii axi over to the well lead est thanks. From the terms of your great question of the pole remains unjured that he had to be lashed to as vision (Rev. xxii. 1), of a pure river of vii. 25), even to the "salvation ready to address I gather that your welcome is solved, we have brought back data sledge. throne of God and the Lamb, explain this "The waters were to the knees" (v. 4). good fortune it is to have been sent to

as it flowed toward the sea." Ancies...

knees, etc.—This may be applied to the gradual discoveries of the plan of sale their teacher as well as their sanctifier to the full with all you the first who have not only profess was slow, the ice being the for export cattle.

The ties of marriage. As a renow subject of your king, as a fellow citizen of ject of your king, as a fellow citizen of ice in longitude 38 degrees 57 minthey were of medium quality, and soid at they were of medium quality, and soid at growing a glacier east of Cape Rath, their teacher as well as their sanctifier who have not only profess was slow, the ice being the first who have not only profess as $4.75 reported for export cattle. the giving of the law. 3. In the ministry of heart, of John the Baptist. 4. In the full manifestation of Christ by the Holy Ghost. derstanding (Col. i. 9).

have so eloquently said concerning the said concerning have so eloquently said concerning the said concerning have so eloquently said conce 5. Waters to swim in-The small rill, "For the waters were risen, waters to starting from the temple, feeding itself swim in, a river that could not be pass. King's navy that I stand before you "At the end of August, 1937, we have becoming a mighty river is led over" (v. 5). This is the down place. a type of the Gospel as it spreads and where Christ is all and in all (Col. iii. bind together the dominions of the ern harbor of Franz Josef Land, where earth, transforming the desert into a able, impassable. It is God's will that pel (vs. 6-12). 7. Many trees-So long wholly, be filled with all the fulness of as the beholder, the prophet, followed God. the measurer, the angel, he saw nothing of the trees on the bank. The looking forward gave Ezekiel the knowledge of the progressive fullness and depth of the waters; not until he looks back does he effect of these waters.-Lange. 8. into the desert-The Arabah, the valley of the Jodan and the Dead Sea range refuses to retain sufficient moist- down the murderer. ure to nourish the most meager vegetation, although the few spots where wells are found, as at En-gedi, are clothed with almost tropical luxuriance." which could not be made by accident. ing on the banks of the river and the whole region transformed, like the oasis as everyone is accustomed to tie. around the fountain of En-gedi." of which are so impregnated with vari- Mattie Hackett. of the Holy Spirit.

9. everything ... shall live-Life and tive-jealousy. unsaved men.-Lange.

sea to the other and catch many fish. in the same rig. 11. The miry places and marshes shall Mrs. Raymond used to work in a strong enough to defend not only the not be healed, but shall be given to weaving mill at Turner. She has been United Kingdom, but the remotest parts salt. "Those not reached by the heal- ill for some time and is expecting to of the empire." ing waters of the gospel through their become a mother in about ten days. sloth and earthly-mindedness are given | Since the night of the murder her bowed his acknowledgments and retired over to their own bitterness and bar- house has been carefully watched and with the officers of the party to the renness." "The gospel is the only she has not appeared in public It is Mayor's chamber, whence they proceeded healing medicine for the disorders of said she has spent much time since shortly after to Dorval, where the Forest not receive it in the love of it remain on her, arms. She is known to have lunch. incurable and are abandoned to final quarrelled with her husband on the ruin."-Benson. day of the crime.

12. Trees for meat-Salvation must She disappeared from her home nava! tournament. present itself for the terribly sick hea- about 7.45 in the evening, declares then world, above all, in the form of sav. Mrs. Milliken, a neighbor. Her husing grace. Besides the nourishing fruits, band had been working at the hotel therefore, are named also the healing from 6 till 8 and on his return was Crawford Kills His Wife and Himself leaves. The figure of the fishes refers unable to find his wife. He told the to the extent, the greatness, of the com- police, that he became alarmed, hitchmunity; this figure of the tree to its na- ed up a horse at the hotel and started! ture in so far as the divine grace trans- | toward Mackett's to find his wife. Ilforms it into truly living members, who asked several witnesses on the way if themselves bear rich fruit and thereby they had seen her. At least a dozen become a means of life and recovery to persons saw a woman walking toward their beds to-day at their home on Ford his months—"This signifies a constant disposition, desire, resolution and endeadisposition, desire, resolution and endeadisposition."

PRINCE LOUIS dom, power or goodness, or any good-INTERNATIONAL LESSON NO. XI. ness in themselves, but by the continual supplies of divine grace. Whoever may be the instrument of planting them, it is divine grace which gives the increase."

PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS. Ezekiel had prophesied that Israel gress of the Gospel (vs. 1-5). 1. Again- | should be restored to their own land (Ezek. xxxvi. 24), a new temple should be built (Ezek, xli. 1) and the priesthood part of Ezekiel's vision and direct us in Water knee-deep speaks of spiritual your hospitable shores, but that the and have explored and surveyed the worship (I Kings vin. 54; Dan. vi. 10). depth and strength of your loyalty and archipelago from Crown Prince Pu- and preparations were again begun for 3, 4. The man—The angel described in George W. McCalla, in his "Rising of the affection for the illustrious person of dolph Land to Cape Flora, discover- another sledge trip to the northward. chapter xl. 3. Measured, etc.—"There is Waters," says "True worship is not our sovereign is such as to overflow no special significance to the exact dis- only in the Spirit, but according to the even onto one who has the great honor tance, but only to the fact that grad- truth (John iv. 24.) Knee-deep waters of being connected with his family by large islands. ualy the river broadened and deepened have to do with sanctification of the ties of marriage. As a fellow subvation. 1. In the patriarchal ages. 2. In fier; who have not only purity of heart. have so eloquently said concerns the giving of the law. 3. In the ministry but are filled with the brownless and the months are filled with the brownless are filled with the brownless and the months are filled with the brownless and the months are filled with the brownless are fille his people should know the deeper spir-

A WEAVER'S KNOT.

MATTIE HACKETT'S MURDERER.

extending south to the Red Sea. The knot in the cord which strangled out plished in deepening the river, and owing to injuries received by several ten ice to join the Terra Nova." ecunty between Jerusalem and the Dead the life of Miss Mattie Hackett in the which I understand will by next year pitable tract in the whole country. There roadway near her home, the police believe the steep declivity of the lime-stone will be the chief evidence in tracking others also .- Lange. Fruit according to the Hackett home between 7 and 8. street.

Raymond returned to his home be- own throat with a razor, which had droptween 10 and midnight and found his ped upon the floor below his right hand, wife siting under an apple tree in which hung limp outside the bed cloththe yard. She had been crying. She ing. claims to have been seated there all Yesterday they wrote letters to relathe time, but Raymond avers he look- tives. In response to one of these letout and he did not se her.

Raymond were fitted by Sheriff Ham into the bedroom occupied by the couple, into the woman's, footprints in the and there discovered the dead bodies.

fatal, owing to her delicate condition. would go together.

AT MONTREAL.

A Hearty Welcome to the Distinguished Guest.

Reply.

been desired than the weather this morning when Rear-Admiral Prince Louis of Quebec, in response to the invitation from the city of Montreal to pay the

The Civic Reception.

at the City Hall was a pleasant event. of which were rescued by the relief teen days. or read an address of welcome.

The Prince's Speech.

It is with feelings of the liveliest sat- the Associated Press: after a lapse of a third of a century, not only extended to the Admiral whose the peace of the world. It is, how- days, finally getting through with the over the rough road. High tempera- price. Medium butchers sold at $3.50 to ever, as the proud representative of the use of gun cotton. crown all over the globe. It is in the a base and camp were established. exercise of this pleasing task that the The America had a narrow escape i now visiting your ports. I am fully adrift; finally, however, being brought accorded me to-day is equally intended crushed just about a month later. for the officers and men under my orders. On their behalf, therefore, I thank you heartily, an dean only express | busy during the winter preparing for but a fortunate drop in the temperature my keen regret, shared by them all, the spring sleigh journey and in scien- allowed us to cross a network of open them hard to buy. Prices were firmer at that the great size of the ships has tific work, which was retarded by se lanes, and we reached Cape Abruzzi April $4.15 to $4.20 for export ewes; bucks and come to know the fertilizing, enlivening MAY LEAD TO THE CONVICTION OF that the great size of the ships has prevented the squadron from steaming vere storms. up to Monhtreal, notwithstanding all Readfield, Me., Aug. 28.—A telltae that your enterprise has already accom- 7, 1904, but was compelled to return, made a trip of over twenty miles on rot-

result in a thirty-foot channel from the sea to this city. "The recent manifestations of mutual good-will and friendship born of mutual The knot was a peculiar one — a respect and won in many a hard-fought battle between two great nations of the old world acquire a peculiar signifi-Davidson. "Even in this barren land In the cord there were two of these the new world, where the descendants cance and valuation in this portion of and an ordinary "granny" knot, such of the same two nations have now for centuries worked side by side in the ut A woman, the authorities says, and most loyalty to one common sovereign into the sea-The Dead Sea, the waters probably an insanely jealous one, slew in the noble task of developing the boundless resources of a happy land. In ous salts that no fish or animal can live A woman has ben examined by the the same spirit in which my colleagues men in this world marry in them, waters shall be healed-Re- police in an attempt to connect her of France recently saluted the Trafal- a woman because she is stored to their proper condition, made with the crime. They say they have gar Square statue of our immortal Nel- beautiful in their eyeshealthful. This is typical of the work evidence to show that she had a mo. son, I have within the last few days because she has the qualitive for such a crime and that mo- reverently visited the tomb of that | ties which inspire admiragreat French warrior whose name is so | tion, respect and love. salvation shall continually accompany The. woman under surveillance is inseparably connected with the old cap'the preaching of the gospel; the death Mrs. Elsie Hobbs Raymond, whose tal of this province. Your apprecia- health which is more atof sin being removed, the life of right- busband, Bert, hostler at the Elm- tion, so admirably and eloquently ex- tractive to men than mere eousness shall be brought in-Clarke. wood hotel, is known to have been pressed, of the great share the navy has regularity of feature. multitude of fish-The Dead Sea has be- attentive to Miss Hackett. She is the had in building up the empire, and of The influence of women come a sea of life. Out of death there we man who, Miss Ethel Hackett, sis- the guarantee it affords for the further glorious in the possession arises, by the grace of God, a rich life. ter of the murdered girl, says fol- development and consolidation of that of perfect physical health The sea is a symbol of the world; ac- lowed Bert Raymond, over Nickerson's world-wide trade on which its prosper- upon men and upon the cordingly men appear as the living crea- hill to the Hackett home when he was ity rests, shows how thoroughly the civilization of the world tures in the sea, as the fishes. Hitherto driving Mattie and her back to their people of Canada, both French and Eng- could never be measured. they were only dead fishes, unspiritual, place. She is the sullen woman who lish, understand what a strong navy Because of them men have would hardly speak to Ethel when means to our country. This apprecia-10. In this verse we are told that the Bert Raymond was taking her to the tion will be very welcome to those on fishers shall stand from one end of the hotel that same day, though they were whose shoulders rests the responsibility for providing and maintainisng a navy

The reply concluded, Prince Louis again

our fallen nature, and they who will the murder weeping, her head resting and Stream Club entertained them to is a damper to all joyous-Some 300 bluejackets also arrived this morring, too late to take part in the

CRIME OF A JEALOUS MAN.

With a Shoe Knife.

Brockton, Mass., Aug. 23 .- James W. Crawford, aged 53, and his wife, who was somewhat younger, were found dead in

She acted mysteriously, kept her head The man evidently had killed his wife down and acted as if. trying to clude with a shoe knife that was found near the foot of the bed. Then he had cut his ed for her in the yard before starting ters, a nephew came to the city this forenoon and called at the house. Failing A pair of shoes belonging to Mrs. to get in, he looked through a window into the woman's footprints in the cornfield near the scene of the murder. The size of the shoes were No. 6 and correspond to the footprints.

Although the police think they have a strong circumstantial case against the woman, there has been no arrest, as it is feared an arrest might prove as it is feared an arrest might prove and commit suicide and that they is the couple, and there discovered the dead bodies.

A letter was written yesterday by Crawford to the nephew, giving a motive for the crime. In his letter a Brock-ton business man is mentioned as the cause of jealousy on the part of Crawford. The latter also said that the written was spent in bed.

Bear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with tive for the crime. In his letter a Brock-ton business man is mentioned as the cause of jealousy on the part of Crawford. The latter also said that the written was spent in bed.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, in bed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Veletable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Veletab as it is feared an arrest might prove er would commit suicide and that they Lydia E. Pinkham's Ve you put the right tea into the teapot there's no fear about the results

Ceylon Tea is the world's preference. Black, Mixed or Green. Highest award St. Louis, 1904 Sold only in Lead Packets. 40c, 50c, 60c per lb. By all Groders.

Montreal, Aug.—No more propitious STORY OF FIALA'S POLAR EXPEDITION.

from Jerusalem. It was "a small stream, to purify or to satisfy us (Ezek. xxxvi. Battenberg, arrived with his suite from Failed to Find Pole But Brought Back Data Which Will be of Interest to the World.

> The reception to his Serene Highness | Ziegler polar expedition, the members on his way to the United States. He came ahead of the Terra Nova, which is which should prove of scientific value "With the exception of a Norwegian ing four new channels and three "The weather delayed the party until cheap, and slow of sale.

II. The power and efficacy of the Gos- itual truths. They may be sanctified squalron I have the honor to command on October 22, 1903, when she broke "Under these conditions, and with the aware that the warm welcome you hav. back to her anchorage, where the was the party at Cape Flora, together with $25 to $35 each members of the expedition were kept

Hull, England, Aug. 28 .- Anthony sledges being smashed when but a Fiala, of Brooklyn, N. Y., leader of the short distance from land. Leaving a small party at the base, I returned to Celery, per dozen Cape Flora, the trip occupying six- Do., forequarters Cape Flora, the trip occupying six-to the Mayor's parlors and a few min- ship Terra Nova, under the command | "Relief failing to arrive, in Septemutes later was brought to the City Coun- of William S. Champ, secretary of the ber, 1904, I, accompanied by William flowed close by the altar of sacrifice."

2. Ran out, etc.— This stream is a xii. 2: Matt. xiii. 43). Facing the east or read an address of welcome.

(Matt. v. 14-16) and hereafter (Dan. cil chamber, where his worship the May-late William Ziegler, arrived here to-day logical Survey) and a small sledge Leading Wheat Markets. logical Survey) and a small sledge party, started back to the base, which was reached November, 22, 1904, after His Serene Highness, in reply, said: expected to-morrow. Mr. Fiala said to a most eventful and dangerous trip, rough ice having to be crossed in dense Toledo 83% 84% 87% darkness and the men and dogs falling St. Louis "This has been another in the long into hole and crevices, and running Minneapolis > fireman, who had, died, we found all March 16, 1905. On this day the party left the base, which we named Cape | hogs were 25c per cwt. lower in price. progress. For two days and three Stockers and Feeders-There is a slight nights we were in a temperature of 34 demand for feeders of good quality, 900 to degrees above zero, when it should 1000 lbs. each, at about $3.25 to $3.50 per have been below zero, and the ice was saleable at $2 to $2.50 per cwt. constantly cracking under our tents.

pressing need for sending of supplies to kind is scarce. Comon cows sell at from my poverty in dogs, I decided to return. "A shelter was built on shore and the The conditions on the southward trip Prime calves, which are seldom offered, were worse than on the northward one, would bring $5.75 to $6 per cwt. were storms.

Ist. On July 30th news came of the arwere storms.

Solution was retarded by se lanes, and we reached Cape library and at $5.25 to to the first sledge party left Maria rival of the relief expedition. and we $6.25 was paid for some picked lots c. ewes of the men after reaching Cape Flig. Mr. Fiala has not yet decided on the ley, A second attempt, made on March date of his departure for the United lights and fats.

25th, likewise resulted in failure, the States.

Brade

Shapes the Destiny of Men-The Influence of a less doing, as the harvest occupies the Healthy Woman Cannot Be Overestimated.

Seven-eighths of the attained the very heights of ambition; because of them even thrones have been established and destroyed.

Whata disappointment. then, to see the fair young wife's beauty fading away before a year passes over her head! A sickly, halfdead-and-alive woman, especially when she is ness in the home, and a drag upon her husband. The cost of a wife's con- Mrs. Bessie Ainsley stant illness is a serious drain upon the funds of a household, and too often all the doctoring does no good. If a woman finds her energies are ful that I am gind to write and ton you of flagging, and that everything tires her, bealth, new life and vitality." dark shadows appear under her eyes.

her sleep is disturbed by horrible What Lydia F. Pinkham's Vegetable aches, bearing-down pains, nervous- do for every woman who is in poor country produce are light. ness, whites, irregularities, or despon-dency, she should take means to build health and ailing. her system up at once by a tonic with It gives strength and vigor from the done more in the way of restoring health to the women of America than the greatest number of actual cures of

Street, Tacoma, Wash., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham;-

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley of 611 South 10th produce such results

Remember Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-table Compound holds the record for the safeguard of woman's health.

Following we publish, by request, a ful women which are on file in the Sixteen Doukhobers on Their Way to woman's ills. This fact is attested to EATING PEANUTS BY THE PLCK. Women should remember that a cure | Winnipeg, Aug. 28.—Sixteen Doukle-

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

for all female diseases actually exists, bors of the gang that caused the recent

Toronto Farmers' Market

British Cattle Market,

Trade was fair for a few of the best lots There was a splended market for sheep,

Veal Calves-Veal calves are still selling at good prices-from $3.50 to $5.50 per cwt Sheep and Lambs-There was a brisk mar-ket for sheep and lambs, and drovers report

Bradstreet's on Trade. trade in the city and prvincial towns is fairly active. In the country there is farmers' attentions. The grain so far has been well saved, and the outlook continues bright for all lines of trade. rails will have but little effect upon the earnings of the steel companies. Values generally continue firm. Sugars are steady. While cheese is a little easier and butter is firm, and the export demand for these dairly products is brisk, showing large increases in exports over good tone to all lines of trade throughspecific powers, such as Lydia E. Pink- start, and surely makes sick women as the circulation of money from different sources promises to be unus ily large. A very heavy run of salmon has > trouble at Yorkton passed through the city to-night, en route to Regiua, to serve six months at Regina jail at hard labor. The party are in charge of Sergt. Junket and Constables Ordenal and Cropby, of the N. W. M. P., and drew derable attention while here by their chanting and singing. Peanuts 18 the only diet they will touch.

Leading Wheat Markets, remainder brought 11%c.

London .- Cattle are quoted at 101/2 to 111/4c per lb.; refrigerator beef, 81/2 to 81/2 per lb. Toronto Live Stock.

Milch Cows-God milch cows and springers are in demand at $40 to $50 each; a few prime cows would bring .. 60 each, but this Hogs-Receipts were light, but this did not prevent prices going lower. Mr Harris reports $7.10 for selects and $. 55 for Montreal: While the volume of trade at the moment is up to that of t ... s time in previous years there is still a quiet tone to things generally. Demands from wholesale stocks are light, but retail The abolition of the bounty on steel previous years. Country mittances and collections are fair to good. Toronto: There is rather more activity noticeable to some lines of wholesale trade, but the volume of general business is still quiet. Groceries are moving better and fall orders are good. Bardware is fairly brisk. Country trade is still quiet but remittances show improvement. Wholesale houses are well satisfied with the business on fall account coming from the west. Orders are good, but they are not entirely being filled as a check to ove - peculation in purchases. All lines of manufacturing industry continued activity engaged. Quebec: There is a fair movement in wholesale circles during the past week, particularly in drygoods and groceries. Retailers report conditions unchanged. Crop prospects continue good. Local industries are well employed

Winnipeg: Holidays ha ... had a quieting effect upon wholesal trade here. The crops continue in fine andition, and the quality of the yie'l is excellent. Hardware goods are woving fairly well. as also are grocerie, and the outlook on all hands is height. There is a good movementin retail lines and collections

Hamilton: There is a good tone to business conditions here, volesale trade is a little quiet but retail stocks are moving well. Industrial activity dreams; if she has backache, head- Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will look generally is bright. Receipts of Victoria and Vancouver: There is a been a big factor in this connection.

Regina Jail.

when you invest than any other ki Only one Best

That you get more

ORDERESCHE STREET, STR

"Come in," said Vane's voice, next moment the two friends wer in hand.

"Well, old man," exclaimed cheerily, "awfully glad to see yo fully! How are you? Let's have at you," And with a laugh he too by the elbows and turned him to the light. Vane laughed, but with an und of uneasiness that the other noti

"Hem!" said Charlie, dropping h and flinging himself into a cha seen you looking chirpier, old ma "I'm well enough," said Vane, ing up the hairbrushes and 1 away like mad; "in fact, I'm quit 'And the marchioness'" asked ("I ought to have asked after her Always forgetting my manners. good of her to come to us so soo now, old man, I'll congratulat Jove! I was a prophet when I prop mischief would come of the hermi ness at Newton Regis!"

"Mischief?" said Vane, with a

Charlie laughed. "According to all acounts, you luckiest of lucky men, Vanc. We's no end of reports of her beauty an ularity. You always were fort old fellow!"

"Yes," says Vane, and he turn tell Willis, the valet, who had en that he might go again; "yes," he "So they say she is very beautiff "By George, they do! Wentay he's here-was melted almost to last night. He's been staying at Fer hasn't he?" Vane nodded. "Who else have you got here,

"Oh, a nouseful," replied Lord N laughing. 'The mother thought th chioness wouldn't like it if we have a crowd to do honor to the chioness, and I let her have her There's Wentworth, and Dallingto Lady Caroline; and I say, Vane, I to tell you-Lady Lucelle is here-Vane changed color for a moment he said, quietly enough: "Is she?" "Yes. I'm swfully sorry, but it w my fault: the mother had asked her the rest, and I couldn't do any "Why should you?" said Vane: "I be very glad to see her." know; Im not over fond of her my but she keeps a house going, you and there can't be much mischies her at present for just now she is ting her cap at Lane," Vane started, and irretrievably sp the white necktie he was putting ;

"Lane - Clarence, you mean; i Charlie nodded.

"Yes, and not a bad fellow, el They tell me he is much improved over to the majority; maybe he ha didn't know him when he was on james. But he is a decent fellow and a good shot. There's rather a against him just now. Seems he rather hard hit last year, somewher the country, don't know where or lady's name; he's awfully quiet on the points, but Lady Lucelle will take his hand, I expect, and if he resists her, be the only man who ever did." Vane seemed scarcely to be listen

two white neckties had joined the f

and were lying all crumpled and ruit

"I shall have to call Willis, after he said, quietly; "I can never tie ti confounded things." "All right," said Charlie, "I'll send I must go and get cleaned myself. ta, old fellow. Sparks knows vo here, and will let us have some of the low seal for dinner. Confound the fel-I believe he's saving the rest of the for you!" and with a light laugh sauntered out, shouting for Willis as

But when Willis came in the nech quired. Indeed, it seemed as if V had given up all thought of conclud his toilet, for he dropped into a ch and, thrusting his hands into his pock looked anything but "chippy," At I coat and fixed his watchguard; as he so his fingers played with the locket It was remarkably like Jeanne. looking at it long and wistfully my le marquis raised it to his lips and kis it. Not with the demure, placed att tion of a husband, but with the passic ate wistfulness of a lover. Then sighed, put on his coat, and, going i the corridor, knocked at the door, It was opened by Mrs. Fleming.

word. Most husbands would have g in-we are afraid-grumbled at the lay, while they admired their wil dress; but Vane receives her ladyship command and obeys. Mrs. Fleming closes the door and go back to where Jeanne stands, clasping fiamond bracelet on her round white ar A diamond tiara sparkles in her silk wavy hair, diamonds on her taper finge

dramonds clasp her white, stend

throat.

"Her ladyship says if you are read

Vane nodded, and went on without will your lordsnip please go down?"