Dornoch

Mr R M Dargavel, our veteran saw-miller left on Saturday morning to spend a week with his daughter, Mrs. Jno Klein and take in the Industrial Fair. C R McIntosh accompanied him as far as Toronto and left on the afternoon boat for Brookville.

Miss Kate Chrisoffer left on Monday for Schriebe. Being a cultured conversationalist and possessing a refined, winsome manner, her departure will be an irreplaceable loss to the social circles.

Mrs Brvan of Port Arthur, accompanied by her two sons Elmir and Melville is visiting her mother, Mrs. Alex McIntosh.

Rev Mr and Mrs Aitchison returned to the villa last week. Mr Aitchison has greatly recuperated during his few weeks vacation.

Dr J L and Mrs Smith, accompanied by Master Morris are visiting friends in Arthur and vicinity.

Mr Wise and son Frank left on Saturday's excursion to help gather the abundant harvest in the Garden of Canada.

Chief McKnight is this week spending his annual holidays at Toronto and Niagara. Boys, you must be good during his absence or when he returns the hammer 't' the law shall fall with appalling force.

Mr R B Ledingham is spending his holidays in the vicinity, being the guests of his brothers, Jas and William.

We miss the winning manner of Miss Cornelia Barry who left a fortnight ago for an extended stay in the County Town.

Mr Allan McGillivray of Manitowlin visited his parents for a couple of days, then returned to Owen Sound accompanied by his brother Dan.

We extend hearty congratulations to Mr Thomas McIntosh, an old Dornoch boy, who, on Wednesday of this week, is to be united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Miss Dittner, an estimable lady of Owen Sound. Particulars later.

Mr Ed Sullivan of Owen Sound is enjoying a few well earned holidays at the old homestead in Bentinck.

Miss Maggie McKenna left the town part of the week to spend a term at the N B C, Owen Sound.

Miss Host O'Mara, the popular proprietor of the Bull's Head is in the Queen city this week attending the Fair.

Mr James Beagher, tonsorial artist of our sister burg, Williamstown, renewed acquaintances in the burg for a few days.

Mr John Pollock and family returned to their home on Victor Avenue, Toronto, after spending a pleasant month at the cosy home of Mr Duncan Campbell, Bentinck.

Miss Alma Leith and Louis Gadd left for Toronto, Monday, the former's cousins the little Misses Rocks, accompanying them home.

Mr and Mrs Alex Smith are now settled down to enjoy married life in their new home and may they live long together to help and cheer one another in our wish.

Mr Wm Allan gave a very interesting and clear report last Sunday in Knox Church of the great Sunday School Convention in Toronto in June where he was a delegate. He advised all people who wished to get enthusiastic and their eyes opened in regard to the work of the Sabbath School to attend one and its effects would last a life time.

Mr Jas. Moore, as far as we have heard has got the credit of being the first through harvesting about here, having finished on Monday.

Mrs Andrew Marshall, of Durham, is visiting among her many relatives about here.

Mr and Mrs Ramage, of Durham, met many of their old time friends last Sunday having taken in the service here. Mrs R. extended her visit for the most of the week.

Word has been received from Mr Jas. Marshall, Sr., who went West in the spring, that he is living in his house which he took out ready to build, and has a nice crop. The West seems to be the place to get a long.

Mrs Farguherson, of Durham, is to address the W. F. M. S. of Knox church on Wednesday at 3 p. m.

We shall be all pleased to welcome Rev Mr Campbell back from his vacation and hope he will be greatly invigorated to take up his work.

We are all glad to see Mr Julius Kehler having made such a complete recovery after his operation for appendicitis but he has such good help from his boys that he can take it easy now.

This week's budget.

Mr and Mrs Geo. Haw, Swinton Pk, visited Mr John Marshall's, Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Gillies, Holstein, were guests of Mr and Mrs Leith over the week end.

Mr J. W. Watson, Detroit, is expected on a visit to his parents this week.

Rev. Henry Caldwell, wife and children, who have been visiting his old home on the occasion of his father's last illness and death, returned to his charge at Fonthill.

Mrs Geo. Moore, Jr., and family, returned to their home in Teeswater.

Mr and Mrs Thos. Allan, Durham, called on their niece, Mrs R R Watson, one day last week.

Miss Millie Leeson has been teaching school in No. 1 in an emergency, and leaves for Ottawa Normal School next week. Miss Adair, from Collingwood, has been engaged.

Swinton Park

Harvest is pretty well over in the neighborhood of the Park, some of them are through.

Quite a number of the young men took in the excursion to the West. Some of the young ladies are mournful looking.

Mr Bowler of the gravel road was visiting at Mr R Knox's last Sunday.

Miss Eva Beatty of Toronto, who was visiting friends in the neighborhood, has returned home.

Miss E. Ferris visited friends at Dromore last week.

Mr L. Watson is ill at present: we hope soon to hear of his recovery.

Miss Mable Knox is ill with measles at present: we hope to see her around soon.

We hear of wedding bells, particulars later on.

Quite a number of Salem young folks are taking in the convention at Berkeley on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr W. Harrison of the Park is taking a trip to New Ontario.

Glad to see Mr John Brown home from Toronto; hospital hale and hearty.

Miss Maud Schell visited at Mr J. Knox's last Sunday.

Mr W. Kinnel visited Mr R. Knox Sunday last.

Boothville

Harvest is about a thing of the past around here.

Miss Kate Clark left on Saturday morning on the excursion to Manitoba. Her sister Mary will accompany her from Toronto.

Among those who left for the West this week are Charlie, Archie and John Ferguson, Walter Broughton, Willie Sackett, John McDougall. Several others will follow.

Charlie Dixon and his two sisters Belle and Kate attended service at Swinton Park church and called at Mr Noble Wilson's for the evening.

Mr and Mrs McDonald, from Top Cliff was at church in the Park.

Mrs McQueen and Miss Spence, teacher labored among the Ferguson's on labor day.

J. L. McDonald, Emily Wilson and Margaret McDougall are in your town at High School, many others from S. P. and others from the college.

Dave McIntyre gathered together over 500 lambs at Priceville on Monday last.

Mr J. Colwell, of Galt has been visiting Brownville and gave C. McQueen an afternoon call.

Rob Roy.

Miss White, of Toronto, and her two daughters have been spending a month or so with Mr and Mrs John MacArthur of the Glen.

Miss McInnes and Miss McArthur of Toronto, have been spending their holidays with the McInn's family of the old post office.

Dr and Mrs McCormack and little daughter, of Wisconsin, spent a few days at the former's home at Banesan.

Mr MacLean and the Misses McCormack, of Walkerton, spent a day with their friends recently.

We are sorry to lose Mr and Mrs Thos Nichol and family of the Rob Roy corners who shortly leave to live in Durham.

Miss Sidwell, of Dutton, has commenced her school duties in S. S. No 1.

We welcome Mr and Mrs John McGillivray and family to our neighborhood. Hope Mr McGillivray will soon regain his usual health.

Mr Geo Stewart, of Detroit, is over spending his holidays with his uncle Mr John Stewart.

Mrs Wm Wilson and little girl and brother-in-law, Master Fred Wilson, all of Toronto, returned home Saturday after spending a few weeks with their friends around here. They were accompanied back with Mr Grav Wilson, who intends taking in the Exhibition.

Mr Chas. Kennedy's barn is now completed which adds quite an appearance to our line.

Mr Archie MacArthur has been laid up for a few weeks but hope he will soon be around again.

Miss Mary Kennedy returns to Toronto, again after spending a month or two with her parents.

Blythe's Corner.

Intended for last week

Messrs Jos. and Colin Blythe sons of the late Mrs Blythe of Marden and the Misses Janet and Beila and Chas. Blythe children of Jno Blythe were attending the funeral at Marden.

Mr Jas. Peters will have an abundance of good water soon. He is laying pipes from a spring to his house and by means of a ram is supplying the power.

We must congratulate Mr and Mrs Melville on the birth of a little daughter, come to brighten up and lighten up their home. Also, a son to Mr and Mrs Jas Webber calls for congratulations.

Last Friday evening—a bad misfortune befell Messrs Hoeflin & Dodson of Orchardville, in the loss of their new separator and traction engine with self-feeder and blower out attachments, the first of the kind in these parts. It broke through the bridge "Dodds' Mills"—the driver, young Hoeflin going through with it getting somewhat hurt but not seriously. Several people visited the wreck during the last few days but could not suggest any way of getting it out, and at last report they had sent for the head agent at Toronto to get it out.

We are glad to see Mrs Andrew Stewart about again after a very serious illness and we hope she may soon recover her usual strength.

Mrs Jno. Marshall and her sister Miss Calder were visiting their parents in Egrement and brother in Luther. The horse, one of Mr A. Stewart's, does not like visiting, so broke out of its pasture field and came home a distance of 24 miles, and Mrs M., not knowing it so wise as to find its way back, was very glad to find it home before her.

Last Friday morning M- Robt. Morlee on going to get some binder twine which he had bought a few days previous, found it had disappeared with some other things. After a long search which was quite a loss of time on such a good harvest day, he had to conclude some one had stolen it and he thinks he has some idea where it went to.

The West is taking away a great number of our best blood. Among many others from Ont., who left on the Harvest Excursion last Friday were Jas. and Landels Marshall and Jas. Gadd.

Miss Collett, grand daughter of Mr Alex Smith left also on Monday to join her father in the West.

Mrs Thos. McNiece is away to Stratford hospital to undergo an operation for some internal trouble.

Mr and Mrs Alex Smith are attending Toronto Exhibition this week.

Mrs Jos. Graham, of Sydenham Tp., visited her relatives here the Moore and Marshall families and left for Guelph last Saturday.

Hopeville.

Our sick list is improving. Mrs Jack who was very low is getting well, while George Scott is still confined to his house but is gaining and J. H. Scott is now able to attend to his own work. This last week we have had J McArdle driving to the Dromore doctor with a sore on his head.

On the move—Mrs D C McArdle has gone home to Toronto, Miss Beatty of Toronto visiting friends through Proton, some of our gay boys and young men gone on the harvest excursion to the west—one noted youth from here will be missed.—others preparing for the Toronto Exhibition. J W McArdle of Markdale was here on Sunday.

George Sturrick who had his barn burnt only a few days ago raised another new barn on the old foundation last week and the framers are boarding it in. Fast work.

Contractor Glenister is building a brick home and woodhouse attached of solid brick, the largest farmer's dwelling in Proton so we are told. He intended to have it finished on Saturday the 2nd inst only they were kept back by the carpenter's work not being up but a few more days will finish it.

Wm Burnett lost a fine horse last week, a driver, with a bowel complaint. He was valued near $150.

The Espin church intended to have a meeting for business but it did not come off. Some parties thought there was a flaw in the manner of calling the meeting.

Contractor Allan is pushing buildings up here fast and Dezell of the new cement works will soon make a name for themselves.
