Big Dakota Farms

"Yes, Sir," resumed the Dakota farmer, as the crowd of agriculturists seated themselves round a little table; "yes, sir, we do things on rather a size-atle scale. I've seen a man on one of our big farms start out in the spring and plough a straight furrow until autumn. Then he turned round and harvested back. We have some big farms up there gentlemen. A friend of mine owned one which he had to give a mortgage on, and I pledge you my word the mortgage was due at one end before they could get it mortgage.

Two years sgo 1 saw a whole family prostrated with grief-women yelling, children howling and dogs barking. One of my men had his camp track packed on seven four mule teams and he was going round bidding every body good by."

"Where was he going ?" " He was going half way across the farm to feed the pigs," replied the Dakota man.

"Did he ever get back to his family?"
"It isn't time for him yet. Up there we send young married couples out to milk the cows and their children bring home the milk. "-Tit-bits.
