Address and Presentation.

There gathered on Friday evening last at the home of Mr and Mrs J. C. Adams near Dromore, the pupils of Miss Minnie Hooper, South Glenelg, together with their relatives and most intimate friends and neighbors, presented that estimable young lady with an address, a silver sugar bowl, a dozen silver tea spoons, a silver butter dish, and a bouquet of flowers.

The address was read by Miss Mary R. Ramage and was presented by Misses Maud Hamilton, Bella Ferguson and Aggie Adams respectively. The secret had been well kept, so Miss Hooper was completely taken by surprise but thanked the donors very warmly and appropriately for the kind appreciation of her services, and deprecated at the same time with true becoming modesty, her unworthiness of such valuable recognition.

Previous to, and thereafter, a program of instrumental music was given by several of her pupils, and songs, recitations and speeches by many of the friends present. Mrs Adams presented the attractive new teacher of No. 13 S. S. made her debut in some well chosen remarks, and concluded with some patriotic verses of E. Pauline Johnson.

Miss Jarrett, of Woodville, who is a guest of Mr and Mrs Jas. Renton was also present. Councillor Walter Ferguson acted in the capacity of chairman.

Following is the address:
Dear Teacher:—

Having for some time past recognized the benefit of your valuable services as a teacher of music, and realizing the inconvenience to you of imparting it to most of us at our homes, thus avoiding the necessity of having to travel for our instruction, thereby saving us its valuable time. And feeling that the invaluable patience and agreeable manners which characterize your best dealings with us is worthy of our best consideration and imitation. We therefore would ask you to accept these gifts as a mark of our high esteem and appreciation of you. Trusting that you will value them as such, and accept them in the same spirit as that in which they are given. Hoping that you may long be spared to impart to others of your fine talent and that the success which has attended your efforts in this respect in the past may continue to redound to your credit in the future. It is the earnest desire of your many warm friends and pupils.

Signed on behalf of Glen Moors of your pupils:
Victor Adams
Maggie Hamilton
Beatrice Eccles
Edith Watson
Peter Ramage

At the close of the meeting, well into the morning, a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr and Mrs Adams and carried very heartily for the opportunity afforded of meeting in their home and the hospitality so generously meted out to all. The occasion also celebrated the birthday of Aggie, Mr and Mrs Adams' only daughter.

North Egremont

The Messrs Curdt and Mr Abram Hooper, South Glenelg, have each purchased a windmill for pumping purposes.

The Messrs Curdt have also purchased a threshing outfit and with Geo. Hargrave as assistant is threshing on this line S. Glenelg.

A small mealy attendance at the Ebenezer on Sunday was not due as some might suppose to the absentee's aversion of a temperance sermon from Mr Roach, but to the prevalence of measles in the locality and a case of threatened typhoid fever in the case of Thos. Tucker who we are glad is getting better.

Mr Wm. Brown, N. Egremont, is also under the weather with a threatened case of typhoid; at latest reports not much improvement had taken place.

Mr Daniel Coleridge, Jr., has disposed of his farm at a high figure $3300 to Mr Jas. Hooper, possession to be given in April.

Mention has already been made of Mrs Baxter's unfortunate removal to the asylum at Hamilton, the cause calling forth many expressions of regret.

Miss Minnie Hooper, Top Cliff, instrumental music teacher, who has some 20 pupils, and who has about completed her summer quarter was made the recipient of a handsome present by her pupils one night last week.

A fine sample of Beeves has been supplied the beef ring this year so far at Mr Wm. Brown's, Mr Robt. Matthews creditably supplying four of them.

Misses Ellen and Maggie Baxter returned to De Grassi point and Buffalo respectively last week and in company with their uncle, Mr McCallloch, of Connor, left by way of Flesherton.

Brownsville

It is our sad duty to record the death of Miss Mima Ernest, second daughter of Mr and Mrs Aaron Ernest, of Brownsville at the early age of 12 years. The deceased was stricken with appendicitis on Wednesday evening and an operation was performed on Saturday afternoon but the patient only lived till 10 p. m. when death brought release to her suffering. Her death comes as a shock to many as she had been in school all day Wednesday, taking her usual interest in her studies. By her quiet yet pleasant and thoughtful manner, Mima was much liked by her schoolmates and teacher, both of whom will miss her very much. Her place in her class will be always vacantly reminding her comrades that another one of their number now has gone on before.

Not at school only will Mima be missed but much more so at home where she was ever a thoughtful, dutiful and loving daughter and to the bereaved parents, sister and brothers the heartfelt sympathies of this community are extended in this their dark hour of trial.

The funeral to Swinton Park on Monday afternoon was largely attended by sorrowing friends. The service at the house was conducted by Rev Mr Matheson, who spoke from the words "For here have we no continuing city but we seek one to come."—Heb. 13, 14.

The flower-strewn casket was borne to its last resting place by Messrs Geo. Haw, Jno. Lane, Burton Renwick, Archie Clark, Alex McFayden, Willie Kinnee.

The parents return to a home from which the light seems to have departed but this affliction will give them a greater interest in the heavenly home.

"She is not dead—the child of our affection,
But gone unto that school
Where she no longer needs our poor protection,
And Christ himself doth rule."

Boothville

Thrashing is the order of the day round here. Alex. McLean, with his able gang of men, such as Tom Acheson and Jim Wilson, sometimes known as "little Jim" have served their time and can slip the sheaves through as fast as they come. The grain is good and plump and yields well. Pease, in general small. Barley good.

Fred Runciman has changed his occupation from farming to storekeeping, having bought a large store at Proton Station. We wish Fred and family full success, though we will miss him in the neighborhood. Fred and James Marshall went to Hanover on Saturday last.

Miss Allie Wilson is home for a short call. Wedding bells are ringing.

Mrs D. McFarlane, of Bunesan, is helping her mother, Mrs C. McQueen with the thrashing and calling on old neighbors at intervals.

Mr Wm Blair of Dunrobin, was in this burg with a load of plums. He left home with 85 baskets, and in 24 hours they were gone—went like a pie social.

Mr Ronald McDonald took a trip to Nottawa last week and brought home some lovely green gage plums.

Miss Lizzie McCannel is on a visit to her sister's, Mrs E. McDonald.

Your money back if you want it.
