PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs D McCoskey left last week for Toronto.

Rev. Mr Farquharson was in Harris on Monday on business.

Mr Howard Tyreman returned Tuesday to attend Toronto University.

Mr Jas Brown of Mt Forest, was the guest of Mrs Allan McKinnon on Thursday.

Mr and Mrs. Don. McIntosh left on Wednesday for their far off Florida home.

Mr and Mrs. Watson, Fisherton, were guests at Mr Allan McKinnon's, Roseview, on Thursday.

Mrs. Peel and little daughter Loretta, went to Deseronto Monday to attend the funeral of the former's father.

Mr Sam Wright, B.C. came home Tuesday on a visit to relatives here and at his father's home in Kincardine.

Miss Jessie Farquharson went to Georgetown on Saturday to resume her studies in the High School there.

Miss Holmes, of Norwich, sister of the Rev Mr Holmes, Holstein, was the guest of Miss McKinnon over Thursday.

Little Edna Reid, who was stricken with typhoid fever two weeks ago is passing through the ordeal fairly well.

Mr Geo. Sparling went to St. Mary's Monday, on a visit to his uncle, Mr Shires who met with a severe accident to his head by a fall.

Dr Rogers, Ingersoll, formerly a medical student with Dr Jamieson, is visiting his relatives Inspector and Mrs Crampbell for a few days.

H. H. Miller, M. P. was on the grounds, Show day, and met with many friends.

Mrs Miller was also along and called on Mrs Carson, an old friend.

Mrs C. MacLean was taken ill last week with a serious cold, but the anxiety of her friends has been relieved by learning of her satisfactory recovery.

Miss Hepzibah Wright, Kincardine, took in the Show last week and was a guest of relatives here. She visited her brother at Proton Station for a day.

Mr Wm. Legate has bought a farm near the Rocky. He was enamored of the west, and has decided to stick to Ontario. He moves on to his farm next week.

To-day, Wednesday, Miss Annabell, daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm McElver, Craighurst, is giving heart and hand in marriage to a Mr Richardson of that place. Much joy.

Mr Sproule, the energetic Secretary of East Grey Show, was in town last week, and secured Mr Wm Black as Judge in the horse classes at the show being held there this week.

Mr Jas. Matthews, of the 10th con. Egremont returned last Wednesday from an enjoyable trip visiting Toronto and about 20 miles beyond the latter city. In Ottawa he called on Mr S. Acheson, an old neighbor, who is principal of Stittville school, which is a few miles out of Ottawa. He found them well excepting Mrs A. who met with a bad accident during the summer and has not quite recovered. Mrs A. has two daughters teaching in Ottawa and a son in the Telegram office—and one at home. Mr Matthews' hand which he badly sprained a few days before he left home is not well yet.

Rural Deanery of Grey.

The semi-annual meeting of the Rural Deanery of Grey was held in Markdale on the afternoon of Tuesday, September 19th. The members met in Christ Church at 2.30. The Rev. J. Ardill, Rural Dean, in the chair. The Rev. E. Appleby was secretary. Rev. J. R. Newell read the report of the Deanery, and Rev. M. Franklin said the prayers. One of the most important matters on the agenda paper was the advisability of closing the mission station at Ravenna, Collingwood township. The parish of Heathcote which is in charge of the Rev. J. G. Hooper is at present composed of Heathcote, Banks, Duncan and Ravenna. Mr Hooper said that the people who had contributed to the support of services at Ravenna belonged rightfully to two other parishes, and that it would be in his interest and that of the Church to close the said mission station. The Chapter by motion made the desired recommendation to the Executive Committee of the diocese.

After the disposal of other minor matters of business, there was a consultation as to the proceedings of the next meeting of the Chapter. A programme was suggested, which, if carried out, should prove interesting. It will consist of papers or addresses on living issues of the day by the Rural Dean and by the Rev. Messrs Newell, Bice and others.

A mission committee was elected, consisting of the Rural Dean, ex-officio, Rev. Messrs Brown and Newell, and Messrs Mills and Mockridge.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Rev. J. R. and Mrs Newell for the hospitality provided at the Rectory for all who attended the meeting.

At 7.30 evensong was held in the church. The Rev. W. G. Beilly read prayers and the Rev. Rural Dean Ardill preached the sermon from Ex. 3: 4. Unfortunately the weather was most unfavorable, but those who ventured out in the rain were well repayed in hearing a most excellent discourse.

Next May the meeting of the Chapter will be held at Chatsworth.—Markdale Standard.

—Norway and Sweden have separated amicably.

—Knife-stabbing foreigners are troubling Toronto.

—Wheat is coming east at the rate of a car a minute.

Boothville

Mr Lane and son Robert are enjoying a trip to Manitoulin Id. We hope it may prove beneficial to the latter's health.

Pleased to hear that Mrs Hugh McMillan is recovering from her illness.

A very pretty wedding took place a tube home of Mr and Mrs Neil MacFadgen, on Wednesday, 29th inst. when his sister Annie was married to Mr Peter MacDonald.

Mr MacDonald is one of our popular young men; Mrs MacDonald is well known and highly respected. The many beautiful presents she received was proof of this. We wish them a pleasant trip through life.

We welcome to our community Miss Jessie Goddard who has come to live with Mr Donald MacCannell, Sr. We hope she will enjoy life in Canada and that she will prove herself thoughtful and kind to the family she is with. Already she has started to school and appears to be well up in all the branches of study taken up by her class. We bespeak her a good home and kind treatment.

Mr John Muir, Turnkey of the Central Prison Toronto, is at present visiting his brothers, Duncan and George. He has engaged Mr Sam McMurdo to build a barn. Sam's reputation as a good honest fence builder has gone far and wide.

Last Sabbath being Children's day in the Presbyterian churches in Canada at Swinton Park, Rev Mr Matheson preached a suitable sermon which was enjoyed by old and young.

Farmer John Ferguson has been forced to take a rest for a few days but we are glad to say he is around again. We are sorry to say that his mother, Mrs Lydia Ferguson is suffering from sciatica most of the summer.

Miss Emma Wilson is home from Durham School and laid up with measles; Miss Mary Ellen Small went to Toronto two weeks ago. Miss Elith Stevenson intends going this week.
