Directors in Smiles.

Continued from page 1. not be of necessity such a recurrence of the same old names. Perhaps prizes somewhat larger in some lines would tempt many to exhibit who now came only as sightseers.

We venture to make a suggestion that might make an interesting change for a year or two. The surrounding municipalities have each one or more directors. Let these be empowered to form committees in their respective townships whose duty it would be to get up a distinctive Township display by judging to be done by the government experts present. Individual exhibitors of course would have all the privileges they have now.

The receipts amounted to over $100.00
