Mrs Conkey, of town, moved to Mrs Bauser's brick house next to the Post-Office and Mrs McLachlin moved to Mrs Conkey's late residence, having bought the same.

Our big show will be on Oct 6th the best yet, good calm weather expected when ladies can wear their hats without fear of losing them with the tempest as was experienced at a recent exhibition.

Edge Hill

Mr Raymond Bell, who has been the last twelve months with Wm. Edge, left last week for Cleveland. We regret to lose him from our midst but trust he will better his position there.

Mr and Mrs Ham Allen and David Allen, Hopeville, visited the old homestead last week and were well pleased with the show in town.

Mr J W Firth returns next week to Toronto University.

Mr and Mrs Geo. Firth, Jer sopville, were visiting friends in this neighborhood last week. Mr F. took in the Durham Show and enjoyed himself.

Mr Arch. Ector became the happy father of a little daughter last Wednesday. Both are doing well.

Dromore

Another of those pleasing and noteworthy events, which have in the past made this town and vicinity famous, where two hearts that beat as one, are made one, and where the affection and good fellowship of friends and neighbors combine greatly or contribute largely to their success, occurred at the home of Mr and Mrs Wm. Hunter on Wednesday the 23rd inst. when his second daughter Aggie, one of Egremont's fairest, was conducted to her place on the dais leaning on the arm of her equally handsome brother Wm and was there united in marriage to Mr David Gilmour, Hampden, by the Rev Mr Campbell.

The "Silver Bells wedding march" was played by Miss Agnes Renwick which was the signal for all to take up their positions to witness this most interesting ceremony. The bride was dressed very becomingly in white organdie, trimmed with valenciennes lace and insertion and white taffeta ribbon bows, and wore a bouquet of table fern and wax tuberose begonias tied with a rosette of white baby ribbon, and had a chiffon rosette and table ferns in her hair, and white kid slippers completed her toilet. Her travelling dress was of fawn ladies' cloth trimmed with a yoke of white all over lace, over pale blue silk, with a turban of the same color to match.

The bridesmaid, Miss Maud Seaman a cousin of the bride, from Ithaca, N. Y., was dressed in Persian lawn with black lace insertion over pink, and wore a bouquet of sweet peas, and looked equally sweet in a pair of white kid slippers. The groom's present to the bride was a gold locket and to the bridesmaid a gold locket.

Many varied and valuable articles, as souvenirs and mementoes were presented, reflecting in a large measure the esteem and approbation in which they are held. After an excellent supper had been partaken of speeches in appreciation, of the bride's faithful participation in church and C. E. work also her various services in the choir were given by the Rev Mr Campbell and Mr Wm. Ramage Leader and one from Mr Charter Smith, Durham, who voiced the sentiments of all in wishing them not only a pleasant and safe trip to the Pacific coast and back, but also one through a long and happy life together. Recitations were given by Mr D. Gilmour and Mr Geo. Lothian, and numerous solos, and choruses by the choir itself, Jas. Mather, Normanby, contributed a couple of solos. A very happy and enjoyable time was spent in the morning. The happy couple left next morning by C. P. R. for Owen Sound for a two months' trip to points in Man. B. C., and the Pacific coast.

Mr and Miss Isaac, Corbetton, were visiting at their uncle's, Mr Jas. Isaac on Sunday last.

Mr Chas. McKenzie is suffering from a severe attack of Eczema.

Mr Wm. Ramage had the misfortune to lose his purse with a small sum of money in it on his way to church Sunday last. Finder will be rewarded.

Mr Thos. Brown lost his spring coat one day last week.

Mr James Tucker also found his mare dead in the stable one morning, a severe enough loss to him.

Mr McKinley, Toronto, brother-in-law to Mr Robert Baxter and Mr Wm Tucker is at present visiting those parties.

The threshing machine run by the Messrs Hooper and Lawrence is doing as speedy work as was ever done on the line this year, in every instance taking less than a day to a barn.

Mr Jos. Moore, Thistle, goes up this week as a juror to Owen Sound.

Mrs Slack, and Miss M. Falconer, Mona road, are at present on a visit to Mr and Mrs Jos. Moore.

Messrs J. H. Snell and John Laughlin have each been summoned on their peril to report at the court house, Owen Sound on Dec 10th as Jurors.

The children's day services were conducted at Amos church last Sunday by the sup. Mr G Lothian, the Rev Mr Campbell illustrating by the use of candles the similarity of the various lights of the gospel as lit up by Jesus Christ and the modes often adopted by sinful man in extinguishing those lights and refusing the gospel the "Light of the World."

Swinton Park

On Friday evening Mr Neil MacMillan went after the cows. He caught the bull and was going to tie him home and put him in the ring. The rope was snapped in the ring and was fastened around his horns. He just got the rope unfastened off his horns when the bull attacked him knocking him down and trying to gore him. It was lucky he had the dog with him as he set it on the bull drawing the latter's attention off him till he got hold of the ring with his fingers causing the bull to raise his head. He came off pretty safe, only getting a few bruises and a sprained ankle. He says he does not want to be tackled by another bull.

Miss Maggie McCaffrey, from Ireland, is staying with her aunt, Mrs James Ferris.

Mr Herbert Campbell was home from Durham for Sunday.

Mr Robert Knox has rented Mrs John Hardy's farm. He will have lots of work now to keep him out of mischief working 300 acres of land.

Mr W. Ramage finished his quarter of music lessons on Friday evening. I think most of his pupils are well satisfied as I hear of no complaints being made.

Mr Geo. Watson, of the Park, attended the show in Durham and reports a good time.

One of the residents of the Park has got a tame martin and he has put a bell on it for fear it should stray away so that he will be able to find it again.

Mr Will Hearg went to the show in Durham and says he lost his purse and seven dollars in it but I think he must have bought the ring and tells the other story. If not, it was a dear show to him.

Hopeville

John McWilliams, Jr., and George Troup have gone to Markdale to work at the Brick Building Business.

Jos. Coulter has left again for a while but intends to be back to his old home.

Cattle and sheep buyers are plentiful here this summer and prices good.

David Bilton, our hotel keeper, has got a fine driving horse and outfit for himself.

Wm Dezell is busy building a: his new house.

Mr Lee's, the able pastor in the Presbyterian church here, time has expired. He goes to Toronto to take his finishing course in College. Meeting is called for this week to see about Supply.

On the 25th to Mr and Mrs Wm. G. Glenister, a daughter. All doing well. Congratulations.

Mr Buchanan, a former preacher here, gave the people a call before he leaves as a missionary for South America.

The inhabitants of Beer Street put up scare crows to protect their corn and other crop.

Mr Ham Allen is touring the country visiting his numerous friends before he leaves for British Columbia. We do not know what course he will take or what he will follow in the new country.

Egremont Council

Council met at Mr Robbs, Sept. 15th pursuant to adjournment, as a Court of Revision on Assessments on Drain No. 1 and Proton.
