The monthly meeting of the S. G. Women's Institute was held at Mrs. J. McGillivray's on Thursday Oct. 6th. The attendance was somewhat smaller than usual, but the meeting was both interesting and instructive. Next meeting will be held, first Thursday in November, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Matthews, Gleneg. Topics, "Caring meat" and "Christmas preparations".

FIRE ALARM.—The Fire bell's warning note brought out a large crowd on short notice last Monday evening. The majority of the inhabitants were in bed it being about 10.40, and by the time they ascertained what and where it was, the blaze was over. It broke out upstairs over Dan O'Connell's implement shop, and James Lavelle who was passing by, noticed the blaze and ran in and gave the alarm. A few cedar boughs which were blazing, were easily extinguished but the cause is yet unknown.

FINGER POSTS.—Now that some farmers are having signs erected in front of their farms with their names and in some cases the number of the lot and concession, it has been suggested that it would be a good move to have finger posts erected at the principal corners pointing the way from place to place, with the number of miles placed thereon. This would be especially convenient for strangers who frequently find their way to the village by the most direct route, and by discovering that they are on the wrong road. It is a matter for the Municipal Councils to consider, and is worthy their attention.

THE HARVEST HOME ANNIVERSARY Services of Ebenezer, and Allan Park, will be held in Ebenezer church next Sunday, and Monday Oct. 15, and 16th. (Rev. G. I. Stephenson will preach at 2.30 and 7 p. m. Special Music. An Entertainment will be given on Monday evening, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, dialogues, speeches and the Methodist Church Choir and Male Quartette, of Durham, and others will furnish appropriate and helpful music. Rev. Wm. Farquharson, Rev. W. L. Newton, Mr. Allan, and Mr. Campbell of Durham and Mr. H. Miller of Hanover are expected to be present. A very enjoyable and helpful time is expected. Every body come. Adults 15, Children 10 cts.

VARNY ANNIVERSARY.—The Harvest Home gatherings of 1905 will rank as about the best ever held. The Sunday services, (Rev. T. J. Smith, Elmwood,) were well attended and helpful ministrations, on Monday evening the church was filled to the door and with splendid order a ray and attractive programme was presented. Mr. A. Catton made a good Chairman, Miss McKenzie of the Union School had charge of the singing and they were certainly an attractive feature. The Varny Choir gave able assistance, and fine Solos were rendered by Mrs. Brown, Heston and by Miss Everett, of Stratford. Recitations were given by Misses Sirs, Aldred and Mead and addresses by the pastor and Mr. Wm. Allan. Miss Mickleboro accompanied for Dr. Brown and Miss Irwin for Mrs. Everett. The collections amounted to over $34.

Death Roll of a Day.

Wilfrid Calder.
Robert Renton.
Mrs. C. Falkingham.

Not often is the uncertainty of life impressed on the living in so striking a manner as was experienced last Monday when three human beings finished their course: one in budding youth, one in active middle life, the other in the ripe years, beyond the Psalmist's limit.

WILFRID CALDER.

For two weeks the town had been watching the heroic struggle made by the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Calder who was stricken with appendicitis and was recovering as a result of the operation, but the forming of an abscess made another operation necessary on Monday. This was successfully done but the weakened vitality consented on the two week's struggle proved unable to rally and the bright and active boy passed to his rest. He was never 11 years old of Durham. Mrs. Calder to his parents and companionship to those similarly afflicted. His career and his academic habits gave promise of a life of usefulness which must now be merely a memory, a sad one certainly, but tempered with the thought:

"'Tis better to have loved and lost Than never to have loved at all."

MR. ROBERT RENTON

Startlingly sudden came the call in this case. Deceased has not been well lately but on Monday was in his home, two miles west of Drumore to Wm. Andrews, where his brother Wm. and himself had a contract of some mason work. He took his dinner and had resumed work for about 15 minutes when he suddenly cried out "Oh, Wm. lie," and his brother, just beside him, caught him ere he fell. He gave one pained "Oh dear," and his spirit took its flight. He was 50 years of age, unmarried, and has latterly resided with his mother on the 18th con of Egremont. To her the blow will fall like a second widowhood for they have seldom been separated. His body was never removed to his brother's home, and the sad news telephoned to Drumore. That evening his brothers James and John, and Messrs John M. Findlay, Walter Ferguson, G. Johnston came to Durham and removed the remains to his mother's home, from whence the funeral will take place Wednesday, to Annes Church graveyard. Mrs. Park, foster mother of Mrs. Renton, is happily identifying with her at present and will be a comfort under the circumstances.

MRS. CHAS. FALKINGHAM

This lady a short time ago had a stroke of paralysis from which she never recovered. She died at 8 on Monday at the age of 70 years. Besides her husband, she leaves as chief mourners, one son William and three daughters, Mrs. Jno. Harbottle of Durham, Mrs. Mowden of Winham and Mrs. Miller of Stratford. Though nine in years she was until lately in good health and her husband will sadly miss his life companion and her children mourn deeply a mother beloved. Mr. Oliver McCausland, North Bentinck is a brother of the deceased.

The funeral of all three takes place on Wednesday afternoon. To the respective mourners we extend sympathy.

MRS. (DR.) LANDERKIN

This well-known lady died suddenly on Toronto on Saturday last from some heart condition. The remains were brought to Hanover on Monday and a very large funeral marked the respect felt by her late fellow-citizens and others towards herself and to the memory of her well-known husband. Mrs. Mowden, Harris and J. J. Smith of Durham, A. Wenger of Arton, intimate friends from Walkerton, Chesley and elsewhere were present. It was the intention in the near future we believe to move again to Hanover, and a very striking coincidence is the fact that it was exactly two years to a day from the funeral of her husband to her own.

MRS. HENRY HOOPER

A weak age Sunday, after over a year of suffering and several, borne with Christian fortitude and resignation the above lady passed away. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stevenson, late of N. Egremont, now of Idaho, and though far separated by time and space her death will be a blow severe to them and to her brothers also in the far west. To the bereaved husband who has assiduously cared for her in her affliction, and to the son and daughters the loss will not be less severe.

MRS. STORER

This lady, sister of Mrs. John Nichol and of Mr. David McNichol of Lambton, died at her home at Elmwood on Sunday last. She had reached the age of about 70 years. Her nephews, Thos. and David Nichol went west on Tuesday to attend the funeral.

MRS. JAS. BOULDEN

At the same village the Sunday previous Mrs. Jas. Boulden died at the age of 68 years. She was an aunt to Misses Laura and Edith McKenzie of town and a sister of the Petty brothers here. Thos. of town and Charlie and Wm. of Hutton Hill neighborhood. She was buried in Hanover.

Mr. Alex. Pollack, a well known and respected resident of Egremont, also passed last week. We have no other particulars.

Priceville's Big Show.

Makes a New Record.

Glorious weather and great enthusiasm characterized the annual Exhibition of Artemesia Agricultural Society. The receipts at the gates were larger we believe than ever before, the concert was a brilliant success, so Pres. Don McMillan, Secy. McKinnon and their band of energetic Directors, have no anxiety on the score of finance.

Nor will they have disappointment over the quantity and quality of the exhibits: these were most creditable. As the inside exhibits assembled it was seen that that feature's success was assured, and the comments of visitors on the second day were very flattering.

The roos were everybody's surprise, and in this feature Priceville easily leads all the shows in south or East Grey so far held. Fruit, grain and ladies' work were creditably in evidence. Mrs. N. McKinnon captured the two bread prizes in keen competition, and there wasn't a poor loaf amongst them. The butter was so good that the judges as will be seen made special comment on its excellence.

Noteworthier than 89 sheep were penned for judging, pigs were not plentiful but of fine quality, John Eckhardt capturing some good prizes. John McBeth too is establishing a record as a breeder and prize winner. The grade cattle were fine and the thoroughbred classes were strengthened by some Egremont blood.

Patton, as usual, was a large winner in the horse classes, and the horse judging here is a matter of great interest.

However we refer our readers to the prize list and to our Priceville correspondent's fine write up.

Our thanks are due to Sec'y. McKinnon for furnishing prize list and press favors. We extend congratulations to the directorate on the success.

The Review representatives were hospitably entertained by Mr. and Mrs. D. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. D. McCormick. The latter takes many prizes for fine vegetables.

Memorial Window.

Memory of the Parkers' Honored.

Friday of this week will be a great day in Trinity Church here. Rev. Canon Pathing of Woodstock, is to be present and will conduct a Memorial Service in the afternoon at 3 p m and a thanksgiving service in the evening, at 7. The special Dedication Service of the church will be used and the occasion will be a notable and memorable one, marking interesting features and special music marking the service.

The League Convention.

A very successful Epworth League Convention both as to enthusiasm and numbers, was held in Durham on Tuesday. The various Leagues of the district were well represented Rev Mr Kerriush, Pres. presiding.

Rev A. J. Johnston, Grand Valley, gave an able address on Aggressive Evangelism. Mr R T Edwards Foundation Work of Christian Life, Rev Mr Masson, Damascus' some good pointers on "How to care for the Growth and Development of Christian Life, Rev Mr Wordsworth, Toronto, gave a fine address on Christian stewardship advocating the giving the tenth part to the service of Christ.

A very instructive model Junior League was conducted by Miss Donogh and Rev Smith, in which the Leaguers acquitted themselves creditably. Mr Colling presented Masters Cecil Wolfe and Harold Aljoe each with a medal for fidelity in attendance at League.

At the Evening session in which the church was well filled, and Rev Mr W Glass spoke and gave some good ideas on most successful methods of raising Missionary Money and How the League can help the Prayer Meeting.

Miss A Sirr in a nicely read address "What social features can you recommend that are wholesome and uplifting?" gave a few good ideas that might work well in League.

Miss Edwards sang a sweet solo during the evening.

Rev Mr Woodworth preached able sermons on Missions last Sunday in the Methodist Church.
