ng chins are generally I do not know a to express their small They lack straightfor-is flabbiness in man there is subscrylency. ney will be greater or loose skin is greater the windpipe and un-. The fulness is akin e chin, which is both nd subservient.

e no chin to speak of. ed chin is a characterand solely human, In aws are prolonged: ard and beyond the ng the brain. In are fore-shortened ackward, a chin ght to be, over-shadprominent and well-"Sarvival of the fitconflict between law man brain wins; the nimal natures retain ago Record-Herald.

ushing that a univerous response must be appeal for aid. While endance and nursing promptly provided, one et of the case renders kich has come within n of the Dispatch, of portance to a comn as Butler is.

people there are in es of typhoid fever. e to avoid the ce housands more have cted water and are g the incubation of a remedy were acch the disease could in its earlier stage, he cases where there infection, it is evident m to the importance reumstances it would ble value to a come desperate circumer. Not to serve any as the statement simply for the sake manity, the Dispatch imstances, indicating of such a specific of r and readily attainnpetent medical ad-

ears ago a practising ttsburg, reading over medical journal half earlier in date, came from a New England an, stating the excess which he had exreaking up typhoid rly stages by small diluted carbolic acid was then prejudiced treatment by its betiseptic condition of cans could not be insburg physician was, sed by the theory of infected system and he polionous germs. to test it, and seven e has convinced him He has not, as we a case where this applied in its early where the disease later stages the reuniversally proved e experienced, eithas or their families, is treatment. Withdays a severe case operature was over irbolic acid given in from five drops for en up to ten in sevo one or two drops n, given every two ordinary cases and ones. It is taken water for each stress is laid on rder to disseminate fect of the carbolic s possible. For the quid diet is insistatient, as any solid ere with the efon the germs. Of is should be under mpetent physician. of this physician ny test of carbolic trative of typhoid practice the infecpected till the acof the disease. But prove an efficient there is so much ittle to lose, as in eem imperative to his treatment at ame results there of this physician community from perils and demof decreasing the t human scourges. estion forbids the sh his name, but hysician, and, as of the working r have known the eatment as used city of their famirg Dispatch.

at of Butler, where infection, he is cer-

gic of the subject

wo of carbolic acid

ces of water three

nk the raw water

ver Wash.

er wash, says a air. Each layer of an extra Le cold. to dirty or unt I have yet to Indian who would y an application Announcement. an lowa lawyer.) ied, smooth-faced, il Naboleon of the the stirrups. Pracn earth execpt that uick as a hippoas a sunstroke. and likewise to my le sinews of war.

Could Not Keep Him Down

Dr. Jameson, of Raid Fame, is One of the Irrepressibles.

************** (New York Tribune.)

be kept down. Dr. Leander Starr tremity." the wheel the man who rose from dorr a force of about 1,000 men know if it still exists." a physician's practice to the office | under Commandant Cronje met him, South Africa, then fell technically by from want of sleep and food his the famous filibustering expedition | troop were unable to withstand the into the Transvaal to the low opposing force. They fought with level of a convict, has again risen. courage, but the following day This time the height attained is were obliged to lay down their greater than any he has reached be- arms at Doornkop. Immediately affore. He had been called to the of- ter the capitulation Dr. Jameson and fice of Premier of Cape Colony to his followers were taken to Krilsucceed Sir John Spriggs, probably gersdorp and thence to Pretoria, the first instance on record of the where they were put in prison. promotion of a convet to a premier- The successful capture of Dr. Jame- rate.

give his name curerency, but noth- gratulating him on having succeed- form of dragoons, buckled on my that I served any one but my King, to make it remembered as his invas- friendly powers" against armed I went into the antercom in order may protect from evil. ion of the North African Republic bands which had invaded his coun- to be near him should anything happrior to the Boer war and the nar- try. This created a great deal of pen. row escape from the imposition of excited feeling, both in England and The hours crept on slowly-more the death penalty upon him and his in Germany, and resulted in the slowly than ever in my life before. officers by the Boer authorities as mobilization of a flying squadron The steps of the snetinel were the a consequence. Winning recognition by Great Britais. There were ru- only sound that broke the stillness. from Cecil Rhodes by his ability to more that the captured officers were In vain I tried to persuade myself accomplish military and political to be shot, but this proved to be that the castle could not be stormed missions which seemed almost im- unfounded; at least President Kru- by a band of highwaymen. possible of accomplishment, in course ger promised to turn them over to Suddenly I heard a scream. I af-South Africa Company, of which Cecil pectedly generous under the circumalt was within his power to organ-

e military expeditions, so, in Decem- ficers were eventually taken ish high commissioner in South Af- | warrant it. rice, to repudiate his action by proeven if accepted usage was against Jameson served from May to to the message that it "should be!

attended to." his "gromise made to the principal in 1871:

From the German.

discovered the danger which threatened the castle of Gottesberg, and thanked God that my master, the

I have always taken pleasure in writing a little in my leisure hours,

and when I write I always sit in the east tower of the castle, whence florest at the foot of the castle.

That ill-starred morning I had written a letter to the King concerning Countess Helen, our guest,

and though I and many other loyal subjects would gladly have seen her on the other side of the frontier, I

We could none of us forsee anything but misfortune for the country if this woman-witty, high spirited and beautiful as she was-should

Deep in thought, I had gone to

The sun shone on their green and yellow colors. I recognized the crest would neither sleep in a bed nor change his shirt until Helen of Gerel-

Helen of Gerelstein with my life, and I meant to keep my word, Accordingly. I immediately sent for the Captain of the Guard. He was a young

"Sir Hubert," he said, "you have sharp eyes for your age. These are

"In that case I hope you are pre-

"Gottenberg is impregnable," he said. "The sentinels are at their posts, and the drawbridge is to be raised. If the Countess is not safe

Then I went down to break the news to Countess Helen, who was taking tea with her sister Marie.

They were the handsomest pair of here, it will not be my fault."

lellow, stupid and conceited.

undoubtedly Albert's men."

He smiled.

pared, Captain," I rejoined.

the window to look out. At a dis-

I caught sight of mounted men.

struck.

had merely reported on her health.

king, was not with us.

It was 4 o'clock in the afternoon feathers and silver crosses.

there is a magnificent view over the under escort to his Majesty every

For this man had sworn that he and happy at Gottesberg."

stein should have been driven out of our evening meal, when a servant

the country, and most of the King's suddenly appeared and whispered in subjects secretly applauded Albert'b | mv ear that his Majesty had come

GOTTESBERG CASTLE.

THE KING AND I IN

residents of the rand, to go to the tured. There are some men who cannot aid of his fellow, men in their ex-administrator of a province in and being in an exhausted condition

son's force led the German Emperor I still remember how, when the "Dr. Jim," perhaps, did not need to send to President Kruger the de- King had gone to bed in the red this story. But to me, Hubert von the assistance of a madeap raid to spatch which became famous con- chamber, I took out my old uni- Hausach, it shall never be said ing in his career has done so much ed "without calling for the help of sword, and loaded my pistols. Then whom I pray that all good spirits ime he became a most important Great Britain or punishment, an officer in the employ of the British act which was recognized as unexstances.

Dr. Jameson and the other ofber, 1899, when the outlanders in Great Britain, where they were re-Johannesburg, who had armed them- ceived with enthusiasm by the selves with the intention of obtain- reople. Dr. Jameson was tried being constitutional recognization, ask- fore a court "at bar," a form of ed him to come to their assistance, criminal inquiry seldom employed in with his usual promptness he started | the British courts in these days. Esthe next day with a force of 600 tablished in the days when the Rechuanaland mounted police in com- courts of Great Britain were not mand of several British officers, for so free from political and social the South African Republic. They bias as they are to-day, it was were armed with Lee-Metford and intended to insure justice to the acto prevent any official recall reach- the bench. This form of trial, it ing him. He cut the telegraph wires was said at the time, had been emnear Mafeking. Only a day's supply ployed only five times in the preof rations was taken. Notwithstand- vious hundred years. A "trial at ing Dr. Jamieson's secret departure bar" is granted only when the imand his attempts to prevent news of portance of the issues at stake, the asked. his expedition from reaching the out- probable length or difficulty, of the side world, Mr. Chamberlain received inquiry, and the likelihood that your Mayesty." information regarding it and order- serious questions or evidence of law ed Sir Hercules Robinson, the Brit- | will arrive in the course of it to

Dr. Jameson and several of his clamation and send a messenger to officers were found guilty by the Dr. Jameson ordering his immediate pury of leading an expedition return. The messenger reached the against a country with which Great adventurers, who felt that they had Britain was at peace, and sentenced the sympathy of persons in power, to ten months' imprisonment. Dr. their hostile acts towards a "friend- cember, and was then released on ly" nation, and Dr. Jameson replied account of his health. He took part lie after returning to South Africa. Other warnings of a similar char- | He is of Scottish descent, having acter reached him from other been born in Edinburgh in 1853, sources, but Dr. Jameson replied to | and he first went to South Africa these that he was anxious to fulfill to practice medicine at Kimberley

forest two mounted men with black

-don't try to deny it, Sir Hubert.

She laid an ley hand on mine.

"There is the report which is sent

"You must be mad!" she cried. "]

"If you were to ride to the city

The captain and I were sitting at back and was waiting for me in the

The message frightened me so that my knees trembled under me; and once read the secret in my face.

you let her go?" he asked in the clear, cold voice which always pre-

"Your Majesty." I stammered, "she went because Albert of Jaegendorf

He looked at me with his gray

eyes, and the expression in them showed that he understood and was

"Albert of Jaegendorf?" he repeated doubtfullly. "I came along the forest path and saw neither him

ceded an outburst of wrath.

habit of working.

is at the doors."

grateful.

"What shall I do? Tell me, in heav-

his men. Isn't it so? she asked.

a light bluish mist was visible.

"I fear so, Countess."

take it yourself ---

Jaegendorf at the doors!"

out on the terrace. in the heart of the forest there appeared between the trees a reddish "That is Albert's campfire," said death, as his destiny willed. the King, abruptly. "If the sentinels are loyal, he and his men will climb the mountain behind us where man has ever set his foot before."

"Your Majesty must not sleep in your own room to-night," I ven-"In my grandfather's time there

Jameson, of South Africa, familiarly The Boers were able to take care went under the lake," he remarked, sknown as "Dr. Jim," apparently is of themselves when "Dr. Jim" got as he went to inspect the sentinels. one of them. By a strange turn of within their territory. At Krugers- "I would give a thousand florins to

The King did not lack courage, as we all know who have served him. I shall never forget how he looked that night as he stood before me in his blue uniform of huzzars, erect and proud, ready to fling a jest in the face of death. He knew as well as I what would happen if he fell into the | Marie stayed with him, and she who hards of Albert's men.

terward learned that it came from little Marie, who had been torn out of her sleep to be carried up into the mountains. I sprang to the door and called to the sentinel. There was no redarkness and showed me our guards face snow blizzards; used to induce to, they opened their batteries and and twisting upward, clinching and dying in the corridor and a crowd sleep, and to cure colds, and rheuma- were reopened upon by the concen- struggling, as though two monsters of strange men with swords and tism itself. But the reader will please trated fire of the Japanese ships. in mortal combat. And as their

The King!" place the heavy iron bars. A knock fore, to those who live south of the sil- minutes, 52 minutes, and unable to l at the door of the royal sleeping very Tweed. In fact, I do not recom- break through, scorning to surren- of their ruined ship come stately and Martini-Henry rifles and eight Max- cused. Not only is there a jury, chamber was answered by King Lud- mend it to any one who can do without der, the Russians swung around and

He was pale, and had drawn his 'How long will it take them to break open the door, Hubert?"

"About fifteen minutes, I think Suddenly the large window was torn off its hinges and a man with a rope about his waist came tumfrom the tower above the room. He fired at the King, but with a stroke on his arm I deflected the bullet, and before he could fire anwith the butt of his pistol.

hanging at the end of a rope. With former many times and oft; let me, a stroke of my sword I cut it, and therefore, change my lay, and strike the man fell, like a stone, a hundred the lyre in favor of heather honey.-W. feet to the bottom of the ravine. | Gordon Stables, M. D., R. N., in Scot-Then I turned to the King. Two tish American. men lay dead at his feet and he was standing with the third before him, at the other end of the room near the portrait of his father.

What good would it do us if the But marvelled at her, just the same. Death awaited us in the corridor. The clumsy fencing of the bandit rejoiced my heart, and I laughed | When Cheops made his subjects bid aloud when his blade struck in the On contracts for a pyramid, panel behind the old King's por- He got a tomb well worth a king, She went over to the window and trait. The fellow threw an evil glance when I. Hubert von Hausach, first locked out. Between the tree trunsk at me, but it was his last, for his (Though not a very useful thing), Majesty's thrust was quick and sure. "There is a camp-fire in the forest The man fell, frothing at the mouth. To thus get in and advertise. "Here is the forgotten passage,

Thy will." I bowed my head and looked at But folks began discussing himthe mracle which had happened, And he was right and he was wise The bandit had thrust his sword in- To thus get in and advertise. to the forgotten door leading to the passage to the vaults. The When Dr. Johnson made a spree arountain crags and the big pine evening at sundown. If you could sword must have touched a secret Of forty-seven cups of tea. spring, or tthe wood was rotten He surely showed his savoir faire with age. The opening in the wall By having Mr. Boswell thereshowed us a way of escape. and lighted the King while he des-

-a woman and alone-and Albert of I remember that I took a candle To thus get in and advertise. scended the stone stairs, after I with the message to his Majesty, you had closed the panel, and replaced would wear the unlform of a courthe heavy iron bars at its back. ier and have an escort. The cap-We traversed a cellar and then went tain thinks the castle impregnable. but there are others who maintain down another narrow and steep that Albert and his men would storm stairway and through a long tunnel which was so low that we had to stoop as we went.

Paradise if they saw a chance of finding booty there. In a few hours we spall know who is right. At last we stopped. which we had come ended abruptly Thus Helen of Gerelstein became the King's courier. When the sun before an immense well, from which tance from the castle, in the forest, had gone down she left the castle an odor so fearful emanated To get his actions in the papers; with six dragoons as her escort. that we instantly recoiled. "Albert will read her letter,"

The King sat down on a stone But they at least can advertise. said to little Marie, as we stood ledge in deep despair. In the stillof Albert of Jaegendorf and under- looking after the departing ones, ness we heard a distant, ill-boding stood that the Countess's hour had "and it will serve as her passport, sound, as of many feet and shoutas it simply states that she is well ing voices.

After a while he said; have built himself such a rat trap. ly because they are costly articles If we only had a lantern we would of luxury. In consequence, French try the water in the well." start. I leaned out over the water

I had promised the King to protect little library where he was in the without paying attention to the fearful odor. What I saw was a well about thirty feet deep, with a black bottom and slime and mud all over ion both in London and Paris. when I stood before the King he at the sides. The bad air extinguished the light in my hand. "Where is the Countess? Why did

"If we only had a stone to throw. How dark it is," the King said, "Listen, Hubert, do you hear anything?" "I hear a sound as of galloping ] torses," I said, ens, it is true," he exclaimed.

way out somewhere. I would give Laughlin before her marriage. a thousand florins for a match."

of affairs and together we stepped leaned over the black hole. Before the light went out it had shown The night was dark as pitch, but us an iron ladder built on one side of the slimy wall.

While I again lighted the candle, the King went down, 'to life or "Be careful how you step, Hubert," he called up to me. "There 19 a door here."

A fresh breeze confirmed his words. I threw away the light and felt my way down, At the bottom of the ladder was a door, and through it we stepped out into the valley, at the foot of the cliff.

All I remember of the rest that the King's arms were around my neck, and that he repeated over and over.

"Not your dove-no, I cannot live without it, old friend. We ran through the forest like two schoolboys. In the nearest village we secured horses and were in the capital at daybreak.

Thus Albert of Jaegendorf was driven out of the country. But little once was carried screaming from Who could have slept after all this? | the castle now rules over him with Not Hubert von Hausach, at any an iron will.

That the King's marriage also

ATHOLE BROSE O' AULD SCOTLAND

In the Highlands of Scotland once upon a time this drink, or dish, or whatever one may choose to call it, was recommended as a panacea for almost all ordinary ills. It was used on the hills and in the cottages of the straths and glens, Used for fatigue, after ex-A pistol shot flashed through the posure to cold, or before going out to their bows. Then, refusing to lay of smoke and debris leap, writhing pistols in their hands. In the con- to remember that those who used it Five minutes we thought would suf- black bodies pulled apart for a mofusion we heard cries of "The King! were hardy Scots, dwelling among the fice to end the unequal combat, but ment, the sinking sun, tearful with mountains and breathing the purest of earth and sea shook under the awful flimy haze, shone through. I slammed the door and swung into air. I would not recommend it, there- thunder of the guns, 30 minutes, 45 such questionable stimulation.

I dare say there are more ways than | with flags still flying. sword. There was no need of telling one of making Athole brose, just as "Sure of their prey, and perhaps there are making oatmeal porridge, unwilling to fight unnecessarily in Some Highlanders simply mix heather the harbor, the Japanese did not honey with whiskey and partake of grumble, but resumed their station that; but I believe the real Sandie Mc- in the roadstead, completely block-Kie, as they call it, consists of a hand- ing the only channel. The four funful of oatmeal, two tablespoonfuls of | neled, Cramp-built big cruiser Varhoney, and a very little drop of whis- | iag was evidently badly wounded key-say, half a tumblerful! This for and listed to port. The Korietz, bling in. It was bne of Albert's land tartan brose; but I seriously ad- ently uninjured. each man. That makes the real High. the smaller of the two, was apparvise the English tourist who desires to "We hastened to row out in a become more intimately acquainted with sampun to inspect ourselves. the delicacy to note exactly on which saw no scars or wounds on the side of the room the door is before par- | Korietz, though the sailors were other shot the King had felled him taking, else he may be glad of a bed putting fresh paint on her hull here cently our home. She sinks, all too beneath the table. But, joking apart, and there, as if to conceal scars, slowly. A boat puts off to her from But where others had entered oth- there is some good even in Athol brose, and the officer directing had his the French cruiser and soon her ers might follow, and there were al- for, however people may differ in opin- head bandaged. Allen asked in Rus- beautiful upperworks are a roarready two of them in the room. I ion concerning the merits of whiskey sian Low they fared. The com- ing furnace of flame. All night she left them to the King and ran to as a dietetic or medicine, there is no mander replied that they had no burns and glows, and dies with the doubt about the oatmeal and the honey. Sure enough! There was another Well, I have sung the virtues of the ship would go up. The Variag ev-

Advertisement.

Fascinated, I stood watching the When Cleopatra, wise old girl, King's sword-play. Albert's men were Got gay one night and drank a pearl. still working at the outer door. All frugal folk cried out "For shame!" King should conquer this foe? And she was right, and she was wise, To thus get in and advertise.,

But he was right and he was wise

Albert of Jaegendorf is there with Hubert," the King said, and added When old Diogenes began ed with deep reverence, "Lord, it is | Pot hunting for an honest man, His chances of success were slim;

And he was right and he was wise

'Tis sad, but it is true, the same, That those who fill the book of fame, Have left their records, more or less. Through some tremendous foolishness-Yet they were right and they were wise To thus get in and advertise.

Blame not the actress out of funds Who plans to loose her diamonds: Blame not the millionairs who capers They've little to immortalize,

Individual Finger Rings. Fashion has sent forth the edict that rings must be adapted to the wearer's special shape and color of "It is not like my grandfather to hand, and no longer be worn mereartists and designers are prepar- table is well supplied, your children This sudden inspiration gave me a ing lovely creations of graduated are well clothed because the woman rings which will be specially adapt- who is the financial manager of your ed to the different fingers of the home knows how to shop. hand, and some startling depar- | How often have you ever said that tures will shortly be seen on the you appreciated what she was doing for slender digits of the leaders of fash- | your home?

German Embassy Changes Base. Under the hand of its new mistress, the American wife of Baron Von Sternburg, the German Embassy in Washington, has emerged "At the bottom of a well? Heav- from the character of a somewhat to say to her, and you do say to Tom, the last quarter of a century. U. S. flornonedescript bachelor abode it has We leaned over the well and a presented of recent years and be hit anywhere near the bull's-eye in certained that we were not mis- gins now to have a cabinet of its their undertakings. Your wife might taken. "It is no well but a tower own and to reflect something of score a whole blackboard of ten strikes bears only two flowers (a good plant on the mountain side," the King the taste and individuality of the in her shopping and be a regular Naposuddenly cried. "I have seen it woman to whom for the time being when hunting. There must be a it is home. The baroness was Miss keenly realizing it unless you see it in sisters in the kingdom.

She understood already from my tone in greeting her that there was danger in the air, and grew pale when I told her, I had seen in the when I told her, I had seen in the like in the course of the true state when I told her, I had seen in the like in my pocket. A woman can't feel comfortable and put on the uniform of a courier. Your Majesty, and as true as I live, I think my hand is touching and lost! Wagg—Harduppe says he has loved an iron step.!"

I have matches in my pocket, A woman can't feel comfortable and what newspaper you read, also feel dressed up.

Wigg—Harduppe says he has loved an iron step.!"

I have matches in my pocket, A woman can't feel comfortable and lost in the like in the put of the uniform of a courier. I have matches in my pocket, also feel dressed up.

Wigg—Harduppe says he has loved an iron step.!"

I lighted the candle, and we again er in-law.

Vivid Story of the Chemulpo Sea Fight.

A Cincinnati, O., despatch says: | Luge rent in her upper works. Two Bishop David H. Moore, of the Meth- of Ler junnels were riddled and her odist Episcopal Church, whose field bridge was a mass of twisted iron, is China, Japan and Corea, was a "A Leutenant who was on the witness of the naval battle between | bridge when it was struck was torn the Russians and the Japanese at to pieces and blown overboard, all Chempulpo. In a letter to the Cin- but his right arm and hand, which cinnati Post, Bishop Moore gives a were found still holding the flag vivid description of the contest.

Arthru, which cast anchor in The- decks. The wounded were being Feb. 7, near the Russian cruisers Var- Esh ships-a hundred, more dead Not a Japanese cruiser was in sight | which they handed down the Czar's at this time. The bishop, after des- portrait. Our United States ship, the

"Tuesday, the 9th, like a shock ran through the city the report that the Japanese consul had notified the Russians that if they did not sail out by noon they would be attacked in the harbor at 4 p.m. Soon after an official order was made public that the Japanese ships would attack the Russian men-of-war in Chemulfore noon. The Russians, decided to

'Our mission compound commands fine view of the harbor and road- yards away. stead, and to the left and further ! steamed back to their anchorage, chance, and that at 4 p. m. he morning light. idently was sinking. She was mortally wounded amidships and had a formally declared?"

with which he was signalling orders The Bishop left Shanghai, Feb. 6. | to the Korietz. The boats of the in the Sungari, of the Russian line, other warships were removing her plying between that city and Port men to the security of their own mulpo harbor ont he morning of taken on to the French and Engiag and Korietz, and the next day than alive. It was pathetic, the all were at the bottom of the sea. | tenderness and veneration with cribing the arrival of 12 Japanese Vicksburg, alone gave no sanctuary. warships, writes in part as fol- though her lifeboats helped remove

"We hailed the first officer of the Sungari, the ship we landed from the day before. He indicated that all was lost, and shortly after we saw the men dash below as if to scuttle her. Now the men are hastening to leave the Korietz. We are within a few yards of her last po harbor if they did not leave be- two boats as they put off. It is 20 minutes to four and we recall the go out at once and stripped their rowers. There is an island surmounted by a revolving light, 600

"We land and climb to its summit. seaward, a still better view is se- | The hands of the watch denote 4. cured. As the ships disappeared in | Instantly a terrific explosion in the the haze, our hearts stood still with stern and almost simultaneously analmost agonizing suspense. Then other forward, sent the Korietz to came the roar of two shots across its doom. Two malignant volumes

"Through the blackness of darksolemn and grand from the French ship, where they had asylum, her crew's majestic chant of the Russian national hymn, at once their new oath of allegiance to the white star, and a requiem over their lost ship. The smokestack, her gleaming prow and portions of her steel frame, show where the Kori-

"Now at fierce fire rages in the bunkers of the Variag, more and more she lists to port. She has outlived the sun, but at six o'clock, with one great shudder, like a huge levia-"Only the Sungari remains, so re-

"What shall we see when war is

THE WOMEN WHO DO OUR SHOPPING.

* (Toronto News.) "Going shopping' 'is hardly understood | ther or your sister? in its true significance.

The newspaper funny man jokes about bargain hunters even when it is the legitimate advertising revenue from bargain stores that is probably paying the funny man's salary.

The lords of creation hate to come home to a cold supper just because their wive have been down town shopping, never remembering she has probably put in a hard afternoon trying to perous stores get ahead of the rest. make his dollars stretch round the jamily circle till both ends meet-stockings for him, shoes for baby, a new frock for Elizabeth, a new pair of trousers for the boy-"he's so hard on his clothes, you know, and these were marked down from a dollar to sixty-eight cents'and half a dozen napkins for the dining-room, and all sorts of other things for the family and the home, and possibly, not probably, something for her own dear self. It's not first or oftenest from -10 to 30 per cent.

the "inveterate shopper" thinks of her-No, she is studying the newspaper advertising and saving her dollars to buy things for everybody but herself; real financial news of a newspaper or things father wouldn't be able to have nor the little folks if she didn't shop so well that a dollar of your money will so expand with pride at being handied by such an expert and does things you couldn't make a dollar do to save your life. Your house is well furnished, your

Have you ever congratulated her on her genius at her buying, instead of shopping cracking cheap jokes at her propensity to follow up the bargain sales?

If you are an average man, you have probably never once in your life said the hearty, cheering things you ought Dick and Bill whenever they happen to leon of domestic finance without your the sporting columns or the war news. at least $2,500,000 for Easter lilies Did it ever occur to you that nobody their newspapers is your wife, your mo-All the best literature in the world is made for them. "You don't read advertisemnts, any way," you say. Well, if you did, it wouldn't make any difference.

It is the women who spend the family money, and it is the family money that supports all the stores in town. It is because they were wise in their generation, and advertised to reach the women, that the biggest and most pros-The time the women who shop spend reading the evening family newspaper to find out what is going on at the stores next day is time devoted to your interests, for it is time devoted to becoming expertly informed on the subject of most vital importance to you In a day the merchants who advertise cap do the most wonderful thing in the world-they are doing it. They inrease the purchasing power of your dollars

They do it by reducing prices by their Yet how many men look on the advertisements of the great stores as the

the real market reports? No stock listed in any market in the world fluctuates as much as store prices do, and it's the wise shopper who knows this, and watches the quotations in order to "jump in on a sharp decline," and place your money on "something good when it's way down.' Verily, there are thousands of houses in this city which would not be well furnished; thousands of families that would not be well clothed; thousands of husbands who would not possess happy homes and money in the bank if it were not for the woman who reads the newspapers and knows when to go

SPENT FOR EASTER LILIES.

The rise of the Easter lily is one of the most sensational features of greenists raise about five million Easter lilies a year. Assuming that only half of these plants are sold; that each one should have six to eight) and that the seem that the American people spend every year.

He had fought in many battles, He had quite a martial look: But he got a case of rattles When he had to fire the cook