An Open Letter.

To the Stock-Holders of the National Portland Cement Company Ltd.

The Epworth League was organzed last week and is to be held every Wednesday night.

Mr Wm Vickers has returned home after spending some time in the West.

Some few years ago my daughter had some husiness in Toronto with the Mr or mick Manufacturing Company and was introduced to their manager Mr Stanhope. The conversation in some way drifted on to marl and cement, my daughter telling him that there was plenty of the stuff around her home. Stanhope made the remark that he had a friend in Michigan interested in that kind of business and that he would write him. The result was that the that she was written to asking for in-formation regarding the cement depos-its in the vicinity of Durham which in-formation they at once got, and upon the strength of it Mr Cowham and a few others made their appearance in and will continue for a week or two.

Mr John Vason, of Durham, spent Sunday at J W Vicker's.

A very enjoyable time was spent at Mr John Reay's a couple of weeks some other source. As it now stands she has either the credit or the blame of striking the first blow, turning the first sod of the Durham Portland Cement Works.

The first thing the gentlemen did upon their arrival was to visit the Lake, call a public meeting and hand in their Watch for the pie and box social coming in the near future.

Rev Mr McDonald, of Sutten, preached here last Sabbath. He took his text from Psalm 1:1 and 2 and will also occapy the pulpit on Sunday.

Mr Wm Leggette, who moved on the Morton farm, has purchased Mr J Wismer's property also.

Mrs Geo Morton left here last week for Alberta where she will join her

| Call a public meeting and hand in their report. The report was all right, Lake had turned out bully, far beyond their expectations, marl enough in it to run the plant if built 100 years, and if you people of Durham only put your shoulder to the wheel, it surely will be built. We want one million dollars and if you people of Durham raise $150,000, I will guarantee the balance and build you an up-to-date mill and promise you a good interest upon your money. Everybody was pleased, all hands went home rejoicing, the stock-books were handed round and were being filled up very rapidly, when a halt was called; there was a nigger on the fence, there was a rumor abroad that the old gentleman had charged or wanted $250,000 for his services; the result of that was instead igan home he rolled up his sleeves, clapped his every day hat upon his head and made a bee line for Durham. He called a public meeting and when he mounted the platform you could easily see, gentlemen, that the Michigan blood was up. He told us fellows right straight that we had been slandering him behind his back, we had called him a thief, a swindler. "I don't" he says
"make my living by stealing. I am prepared to carry out my agreement to the letter, and my charges if anything are under the mark," and went on to show where similar cases had cost more money. The result was gentlemen that the man from Galway left the plat-form with his $250,000 securely stuffed

That, gentlemen, left us with $750,000 to go on with the work and the best way I think to wind up this part of the show will be to put the two sums together, and say about them as the old Eggles-ham grocer said about the snuff.

Mr Hamilton Allen has returned gentlemen, of the rich man who had no place to bestow his goods that he tore down and built greater and the command came "Fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee." The rich man had no place to bestow his goods but the manager of the Durham Portland Cement Company never was in a fix of that kind for they had the bank and will have it for some time to come.
