INTERNATIONAL LESSON NO. XII. DECEMBER 17,1905

Preparation for the Messiah-Mal 3:1-12. Commentary .- I. The Coming of the shows that the messenger referred to here was John the Baptist. Our Lord before the eastern kings prepared the heaven, bearing a message from men to way for the chariots and armies of their God. 3. Prepare "the way." monarchs. A "king's highway" had to | Trial by fire. 1. Proves to be precious. for the march of the great army. In-

The Messiah, whom ye are expecting. Proves that we are 'as gold and silbefore the Lord in His temple. He shall his patience (Job xxiii. 10; James v. 10, cleanse it from its defilement and fill it | 11). Abraham's trial developed his faith. with His glory.-Clarke. Messenger of | (Heb. xi. 17): Moses, slandered, showed the covenant-He that comes to fulfil his meekness (Num. xii. 1-3). Daniel's the great design in reference to the cov- difficulties revealed his fidelity (Dan. emant made with Abraham, that in his | i. 8). vi. 10). Stephen's precautions provseed all the families of the earth should ed him a martyr (Acts vii. 54-60). tries of the globe. be blessed. Ye delight in-They looked | Christ's temptations demonstrated His forward to His coming with pleasure.

character His coming will produce? thrown into the pit, separated from his desire and hope for heaven without real- the years of his trial, is ready for the the proprietors of Scott's Emul- point. ven." Like a refiner's fire-John the Baptist said, "His fan is in his hand"; "He shall baptize you with fire." In the refiner's fire is placed the ore, a question. Will the creature rob the other materials, and the fire (1) separ- Redeemer? Will a man rob God? the metal from the dross, and (2) thus Of worship-when they do not publicpurifies the metal, but does not destroy | ly confess him with the mouth and in it; but (3) it consumes the dross, or so | baptism, do not pray in secret, have no separates it that it is cast one side as family altar, do not worthily partake refuse. Like fuller's soap (R. V.) -Soap of the Lord's supper, forsake the assuch as we have was not known to the sembling of saints and withhold the tea-Hobrews till long after Jeremiah's time, | der, grateful, loving homage of the heart. | but they used the lye, formed by passing | 2. Of honor-when they call themselves | SCOTT & BOWNE, CHEMISTS

to be completely removed by seeing his Purge-Cleanse, parify. May offer, etc. -A sinner cannot give acceptable service to God. The Lord loves righteousness; he accepts only a holy heart and life (Rom. xii. 1). 4. Be pleasant-The spirit of praise, obedience and helpfulness are like sweet incense before the Lord (Heb. xiii. 15, 16). 5. To judgment - To decide on your ease and condemn suddenly and unexpectedly. The sorcerers-Users of witcheraft, all in alliance with spirits of evil; the users of amulets, charms, etc., which are really subatilities for religion." Against those that oppress-The Gospel is always in favor of the poor and against oppression. And fear not me--This was the foundation of all their wickedness, 6. I change not-God keeps His covenants of full consecration." Nathaniel Cobb at the officers worked. A telephone with His people. This new dispensation | began by giving a fourth and ended of a change, but the fulfilment of God's thousand dollars. Richard Baxter says. purposes; and because of God's ancient "I prosper most when I give most. My covenant with Israel, the Jews were not rule is to live frugally, to lay out none

ings (vs. 7-12). 7. From the days, etc .- Wesley's income the first year was 30 All through their history they had been pounds. He kept twenty-eight and given to backsliding. Return unto me- gave away two. The second year it There was still a chance to repent. was sixty pounds. He still lived on Wherein-They did not know how far twenty-eight and gave thirty-two. When from God they were. S. Will a man rob his income was one hundred and twenty God-Sacrllege is the highest of crimes. pounds he continued to spend twenty-And the most guilty are those claiming eight on himself and gave ninety-two to be God's people. -Hurlbut. Ye have to the Lord. At his death he left branch this morning for Hawtrey. Incre -This evil is not only the guilt of the nothing but his clothing, his books and they took a rig for Dethi. The ring was flagration, which at one time threatened priests, but of the whole nation. Tithes his carriage. It is estimated that he identified, and the direction of the destruction of a large amount of sur-See Deut. xviii. 4. "The tithe was the gave away $100,000. "If I will not stranger's departure was ascertained. rounding property. The outbreak octenth of the increase of their property, open you the windows of heaven and ! They tollowed to Simcoe. Evidently he the produce of their grains. One tithe, pour you out a blessing, that there shall | had been hard pressed for eash, for he among the Jews, corresponded to our to be room enough to receive it." (v. had parted with a valuable sunburst for deek this morning when the corresponded to our to the corresponded to the corresponded to our to the corresponded state and town taxes for the support of the government and for the poor; give to us. He asks us to give that the poor; there may be "given unto" us, "good trace him to Buffalo. Chief Zeats contact the poor; there may be "given unto" us, "good trace him to Buffalo. Where if the man And the most guilty are those climbing worship for the support of the priests, etc. (Lev. xxvii. 30-33; Deut. xiv. 28, 20)," Offerings-The first-fruits- not less than one-sixtieth part of the corn,

9. Ye are cursed -- With famine and scarcity, God had thus punished them for neglecting to build the temple (Hag. sion, signifying a great downpouring and, secondly, an Imperial Advisory Com- lice, and Chief F. D. Burger, of a detec-(Gen. vii. 11; 2 Kings, vii. 2).-Todd. Pour you out-"Empty out," as if God Mr. Drage thinks the Government might to-night to get him. He is to be held ker worms, the caterpillars, and all other refers to the law of copyright and appeals a second-storey worker, but refused to destructive insects. For your sakes-Be- for cheaper postal cable rates. cause of my love for you and for the sake of your prosperity. The devourer had been sent because of their sins, but should be stayed as a reward for their return to duty. 12. All nations, etc. -"So great will be your prosperity and happiness that the fame thereof will extend to all nations as in Solomon's time. God's people do in truth live in a delightsome land, a land of green pastures and still waters, of dear companionships and delightful skies. Blessed are that the periturniary for one year and practice her theory on her own mother, people who render lovingly to God the things that are His own." Delightsome land,-"Your country will again be known as the pleasant land, as it was formerly called."

Malachi, God's messenger, was the last Old Testament prophet 1 as Nehe- perjury in connection with registration chloroform to end her mother's suffermigh was the last historian. Malachi frauds in the recent election, was sen- ings, saying that death was inevitable sustained the relation to Nehemiah that | tenced to-day to not more than four | and it was cruelty to prolong her life. Haggai and Zechariah did to Zerubbabel years and six months, and not less than The doctor refused, saying: "You are and Joshua. Malachi's prophecy was to two years, in the State prison.

i., vs. 3-4); to rebuke the priests for corrupting the covenant (2-8) and the eople for utter infidelity (ii., 11; iii.,

We are to be God's messengers. 1. Obedient. Going just when and where yuo are told. To go unsent will be to have "no tiding ready "2 Sam. xviii., 22). A messenger's lips should have been touched with a live coal (Isa vi., 6). A messenger's ear should have heard God say, "Behold, I have put my words in-Messiah (v. 1). I. I-That is, God. My Deliver God's message and nothing but messenger—The New Testament clearly his message. Tell of Christ as the messenger of God to men, of Christ as the mediator between God and man, bore witness to John (Luke vii. 27). Christ, "the apostle and high priest of See also Matt. xi. 10; Mark i. 2, 3; Luke our profession" (Heb iii. 1). As apostle i. 76. Prepare the way before me-That from heaven, bearing a message from is, before the Messiah. Messengers sent | God to men! as high priest, going to be earried through the open land of the It is "the son of Levi" whom "he shall wilderness, valleys titled up, and hills purify" (vs. 3.) Men do not heat the furlevelled, winding by-paths straightened, nace for gravel stones, but for gold. Only genuine metal is worth the care necesterpreted in its spiritual application, the sary to the process of purifying. The wilderness was the world lying in evil. | unquestionably worthiness is rejected, -Ellicott. The Lord, whom ye seek- | not refined. 2. Tests our genuiness. To His temple-Shall soon be presented | ver" (vs. 3) Job's sufferings manifested power over Satan (Matt. iv. 1-11). H. The Mission and Work of the Mes-liah (vs. 2.6) 2 Who may abide Who Prepares for service. We are purified it would be a world-wide calam-

They did not understand the meaning hime, sold as a slave, imprisoned under

Men rob God. "Will a man rob God? mixture of good metal with rock and Creator? Will the redeemed rob the "self-made," or attribute their prosper-

3. Shall sit, etc.-There is an allusion ity to their own industry, or boast of here to the refiner sitting before his fire | their own faithfulness, or forget the with his eye on the metal. He kept it | source of their every goodness, or fail in the furnace until he knew the dross to ascribe every virtue to his grace, 3. Of that-when they waste it in idleness own image reflected (Rom. viii. 29). Sons | in vain conversation, in novel reading, of Levi-The priests, God's ministers, in worldly pleasures or in profitless reverie. 4. Of substance-when they do not oring all the tithes into the storehouse. 5. Of service-when they do not MAN SUSPECTED OF WOODSTOCK yield him implicit obedience, do not trust him wholly and are not mere channels through which his life and power can flow.

"Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse" (v. 10). Besides the freeyou if guilty. Switt witness-Coming will offerings to the Lord, the Jews gave three tithes-one for the tribe of Levi, one for the service of the tabernacle and one every third year for the widows and orphans. The Levites gave their tenth for the priests. A spiritual writer says consecration, but if men would take it jewelry was taken, was to-night capas it reads and begin to give tithes it destroyed. They are still preserved as a on need-nots; to serve God in any place III. Admonitions and promised bless- good I can with all the rest." John I give to us. He asks us to "give" that | From Simcos it was not difficult to | parted for their homes.

NOT ONE BRITISH AGENT.

i. 10, 11); now, for not maintaining the there are in Canada to-day over one hun- known, but he is not a local man. temple service. - Com. Com. 10. Bring .. | dred United States Government commercial | Buffalo, Nov. 29 .- A fafty-year-old ably damaged bu the burning debris. Tithes-Make good your solemn engage- agents and not one for Great Eritain?" says man, giving his name as Walter Dixon. | Shea's Theatre is insured for $50,000. ment with Nehemiah (Neh. x. 29). Into Geoffrey Dage, writing in The Fortnightly was arrested in a pawnshop here this No insurance is carried on the contents the storehouse-The chambers which sur- Review on Imperial organization from a bust- afternoon as the thief who got about by the lessee. rounded the temple on three sides. May ness point of view. The article reviews $3,000 worth of jewelry from the home | The building is owned by the McGee be meat—That there may be provision the results of his visit to Canada in the com- of John White in Woodstock last Mon- estate, and leased to Michael Shea, of for the daily sacrifices and for the main- pany of Messrs. Pollock and Pitt-Kennedy, day evening. Practically every piece of Buffalo. tainance of the priests and Levites. Prove chief advocates of the formation of, first, the stolen jewelery has been recovered. me-Take God at His word. Windows of an Imperial council or intelligence depart- all his pockets containing some. Chief heaven-A poetical, proverbial expres- ment for the civil affairs of the empire, Theodore Zeats, of the Woodstock po-

meant that He would empty forth His appoint the first and the colonial conference | here until his record is looked up. vast heservoir of blessings.—Cowles. the second. In an appeal for greater unity Dixon offered to give the jewels to 11. Will rebuke Prevent from com- of legislation Mr. Drage points out the dif- the two officers who caught him if they ing. The devourer-The locusts, the can- ferent laws of Hull and Ottawa. He also would let him go. He boasted of being the New York Election. New York, Dec. 4.-Three men were sentenced to prison to-day for illegal voting in the recent New York city and I county elections. Aftert Farrar and suffering be chloroformed, wanted to the penitentiary for one year, and Bartholomew Wallace was sentenced to Samuel K. Ellenbogen, the City Mar- frequently heard Miss Hall beg the atshal, who was convicted yesterday of tending physician to let her administer a thousand years ahead of your time."

TO PRISON FOR VOTING TWICE.

mark of Scott's Emulsion, service of the king, the kingdom and his sion found a way of preparing the oil without the objectionable taste. Scott's Emulsion is the best thing in the world for weak. backward children, thin, delicate people, and all conditions of wasting and lost strength.

TOROXTO, ONT. 50c. and $1.00. All druggists.

CAPTURED AT BUFFALO.

JEWELRY ROBBERY.

Followed to Delhi and Simcoe, Where He Stolen Goods.

"It is no small perversion of Scripture | the residence of John White on Monday to apply this passage wholly to spiritual | afternoon, when about $3,000 worth of message reached the city last mgar from Dethi which threw the first gimmer of light on the mystery of the disappearance of the diamonds and jewerry. Yesterday morning an elderly man arrived in Delhi and stayed until night. He did not venture far from the hotel during the day, and when he left at night ne explained that he had no money with which to pay his bill. Instead he offered an initialed ring answering the description of one of those stolen from White's. Following up this ciue, Chief of Podec Zeats and Mr. John White boarded the soutabound train on the Port Dover measure, presed down and shaken to- timed on to Buffalo, where, if the man near the roof had rendered effective ser- plank. When Francois saw the fore- generally fair to good. gether and running over" (Luke vi. 38). is the one wanted, he will take energe of the property man go down out of sight he threw Quebec.—City collections are fair, but him answering the description had been roof and ceiling will have to be re- a group of spectators waited breathless- ound improvement is expected. tive agency in Hamilton, came here late say anything else.

CHLOROFORM MOTHER.

The Law Reaches Some of the Crooks in Miss Anna Hall's Method of Relieving Suffering.

Cincinnati, Dec. 4.—Miss Anna Hall, who recently attracted wide attention by advocating at a Philadelphia convention that persons hopelessly sick or according to testimony given to-day at a hearing over the contested will of the Elmira Reformatory. All were con- Mrs. Murcey Hall, Miss Hall's mother. Mrs. Simcoe, a witness, said she had Philadelphia Express Plunges Down an Embankment.

Engine Left the Rails as It Struck a Sharp Curve.

The Wounded Taken to a Hospital at South Bethlehem.

Philadelphia, Dec. 4 .- Two men were killed and about a dozen others were injured in the wreck of the Philadelphia Express on the Central Railroad of New Jersey last night near Penn Haven Junetion, about 100 miles north of Philadel-

The dead are Fireman Rupert, of HE above picture of the Mauch Chunk, Pa., and an extra engiman and fish is the trade- | neer named Detroy, who were returning home on the locomotive. Nine of the injured were taken to St. Luke's Hosand is the synonym for pital at South Bethlehem, Pa., about 40 strength and purity. It is sold | miles south of the scene of the wreck. in almost all the civilized coun- The accident occurred a short distance | to the story told by Engineer Willis, the If the cod fish became extinct | locomotive of the express left the rails as it struck a sharp curve. The engine, sigh (vs. 2-6). 2. Who may abide—Who that we "may offer unto the Lord" (v. ity, because the oil that comes smoking car and a day coach, jumped will be able to endure the testing of 3.) Joseph, hated by his brethren, from its liver surpasses all other across the northbound track and plungfats in nourishing and life-giving ed 20 feet down upon the tracks of the of what they desired; just as many a false charge, yet faithful through all properties. Thirty years ago the Jersey Central Railroad at this

The coupling broke on the Pullman car, the only other car on the train, and cod liver oil so that everyone can the car ran down the track for some take it and get the full value of distance. The coaches that went over the embankment were badly wrecked, and it is considered remarkable that none of the passengers lost their lives. Penn Haven Junction at night is out of direct communication and it was some time before the accident became known at Mauch Chunk. A relief train was immediately sent to the scene. By the time it arrived all the injured had been taken from the wreckage and placed in the warm Pullman car, awaiting removal to the hospital. It was 2.30 a.m. before the victims arrived at South Bethlehem. Eight of the uninjured passengers arrived in Philadelphia at 4 o'clock this morning.

> WERE EXCOMMUNICATED. Because They Attended Wedding Divorced Man.

Bishop Richard Scannel, of the Nebras- | view he had with President Loubet at Church, has declared excommunicated first interview M. Loubet has given since Had Disposed of Pieces of Jewelry Catholic Church who participated in the pires Feb. 18 next. He describes M. Lou-Answering the Description of the | wedding of Congressman Kennedy and | bet as weary of office. The President Miss Pritchett on Monday. There were | said: "Thank heaven, I am nearing the many prominent Roman Catholies pres- end. I await Feb. 18 with the geratest A Woodstock despatch: After an ex- ent, including Mrs. Edward Cudahy, wife impatience. I shart leave the Elysee citing all-day chase the man who it is of the packing house magnate. Miss never to return. I shall dine in a Paris believed committed the bold robbery at | Mae Hamilton, whose individual fortune | flat alone with my wife and children in None of the members of either Mr. outsiders." Kennedy's family or his bride family ! is a Roman Catholic. Mr. Kennedy's divorced wife is a Christian Scientist.

SHEA'S THEATRE ON FIRE.

The Top Part of the Building Badly Burned.

Toronto despatch: Shea's theatre was last night the scene of an alarming concurred at 11.30, nearly an hour after orers. Francois was at work under particularly in dry goods. The hardafter most of the employees had de-

him. A full description of the man had man, the property man, succeeded in off his coat and plunged head first remittances from the country in many been telegraphed all over, and to-night saving most of the artistes' belongings after him. The water was icy cold, cases are slow. General trade condi-Chief of Police in Buffalo announcing | One of the theatrical officers es- season in Montreal, and when the sec- orders are being booked for spring de-captured. It is reasonably certain that placed; the orchestra chairs and box- ly for his appearance. London, Dec. 4 .- "Would it be believed he is the man wanted. His name is not es are almost entirely destroyed, while the seats in the parquet were consider- to the surface, bearing the unconscious order trade in dry goods is brisk and

The farmer manufactures beef, pork, milk, etc., and he must properly handle his live stock machinery to get the greatest and best finished production. Just as he is careful to put oil on his harvester bearings, so should he

An animal whose digestive machinery is heavily loaded needs machinery in good working condi-

Clydesdale Stock Food

animal's digestive machinery, because it increases the digestive fluids owing to the food being made

It also makes the feeder bristle with activity and vitality, making the blood circulate better, thereby distributing the flesh more evenly over the body instead of into the paunch for tallow at 4c. per pound. It makes the hide and coat soft and glossy, giving that "fine finish" that fetches from 25c. to 50c. per hundred more than from ordinary

Contains nothing injurious, and can stop feeding it without harmful your stable clean TRY MERCULES POULTRY FOOD CLYDESDALE STOCE FOOD Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LOUBET'S RETIREMENT.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 4 .- Right Rev. ant of the Express telegraphs an inter-time in seven years that I shall be free thus far available for November exceed-Congressman Kennedy has a divorced to enjoy my pipe by the fireside, free wife living, and for that reason the from the cares of otnes and the fear of t lured by the Chief of Police of Buffalo, Bishop issued last Sunday a pastorel Ministerial crises or diplomatic compliwould prove the keystone in the arch A tip was received last night, and upon forbidding all Roman Catholics to par- cations. I shall allow nobody to disturb ticipate in the ceremony. The Bishop my privacy that evening. There will be to-day declared excommunictaed all great doings in the flat. It will be no i members of his church who attended the public gala day, but there will be family cently wholesale trade has been good, rejoicings with the door closed to all and the outlook for the coming holiday

Jumped Into Icy St. Lawrence and preparations for the spring trade.

be as careful to keep his live stock

more oil than one that isn't.

is the oil to ease the load on your effects. Your money cheerfully refunded by the dealer if you are not satisfied after feeding it. Same for all Clydesdale Preparations. Clydesdale Carboline Antiseptic will keep

London, Dec. 4.—The Paris correspond-

Denying the idea that he would lines. The generally prosperous condistand for re-election, M. Loubet declared it would be inconsistent with the rule of a democratic state to es. that the trade of the winter and spring tablishm anything like Presidential con- will be satisfactory. City collections are tinuity. Moreover, he added: "I am old and weary, and wish to spend the name of a hero among the dock lab- heavy holiday trade are being borne out. dock this morning when Carriere miss- busy and the movement compares well ed his footing while placing a gang with that of previous years. The good The asbestos curtain and the fire wall water, striking his head against a country retail trade and collections are

LIFE-SAVER'S PLUNGE.

Makes Rescue.

This Beautiful Fur Scarf Given Away

The grain receipts to-day were small.
Wheat is unchanged, with sales of 2N bushels of white and red at 76 to 780 and of 100 bushels of goose at 75c. Bar. is unchanged, with sales of 700 busn-at 54 to 55c. Gats also unchanged, 00 bushels selling at 381/2 to 39c. sold at 75c a bushel for one load. Hay quiet and steady, with sales of 25 loads at $9 to $10.50 a ton for timothy. and at $6 to $8 for mixed. Two loads of loose straw sold at $7 a ton. Dressed hogs are unchanged, dealers paying $7.50 to $8, the latter for light weights. Wheat, white, bushel$ 0.76 $ 0.78 Do., red, bushel 0 76 Do., spring, bushel 0 76 Buckwheat, bushel 0 55 Hay, timothy, ton 9 00 Do., mixed, ton 6 00

Toronto Farmers' Market.

Straw, per ton 11 00 Alsike, No. 1, bushel 5 75 Do., No. 2, bushel 4 75 Do., No. 3 4 00 Red, choice, No. 1, bushel .. 6 25 Timothy, bushel 1 50 Dressed hogs 7 50 Butter, dairy 0 24 Do., creamery 0 27 Chickens, per lb. ... 0 08 Turkeys, per lb. Cabbage, per dozen 0 40 Potatoes, per bag 0 65 Mutton, per cwt. 6 50

Lamb, per cwt. 9 (0) Leading Wheat Markets.

Veal, per cwt. 8 00

Detroit ... 8812 St. Louis 83% 87% Duluth 81% 85½ -Minneapolis 81% 86

British Cattle Markets. London.-Cattle are quoted at 9 to 11%: per lb.; refrigerator, 8 to 81/2c per lb. THE WEEK IN TRADE.

Dun's Review: Fundamental conditions are unchanged, although higher temperature at many points again checked retail sales of heavy weight wearing apparel and other seasonable merchandise. Labor conditions in the French Premier Says He is Weary of building trades have not improved, and another serious struggle may occur, which would be most unfortunate in view of the large operations under way and contemplated. Otherwise, the sitka diocese of the Roman Catholic Rambonillet. He claims that this is the untion is satisfactory and the outlook bright, with mercantile collections steadipso facto all members of the Roman he assumed the Presidency, which ex- by improving. Holiday trade gathers mpetus as the season advances, Comparisons with last year's figures coninue favorable, this week's gains heing swelled by the holiday a year ago, but equilibrium in this respect will be restored next week. Leading industrial undertakings report little idle machis rated at over a million, was one of the the privacy of home. It will be the first garding car shortage, railway carnings ing last year's by 6.4 per cent.

BRADSTREET'S ON TRADE.

Montreal .- Actual trade at the moment is a little quiet. Up to very retrade promises a big business in all tion of the country makes it evident generally fair, but from some quarters remittances are reported a little slow. remainder of my life in peaceful rest." A sorting trade is moving in drygoods as good weather helps the movement of retail stocks. Woolens and cottons con tinue very firm. Dealers report great

Toronto.—The volume of wholesale trade here has shown little change dur-Montreal, Dec. 4.—Francois is the ing the past week. The promises of a

Evidence of British Neglect of Canadian that a man with a lot of jewelry on timated the damage at $15,000. The ond man disappeared beneath the water livery. With plenty of snow an all x-Winnipeg.-Wholesale trade here conform of Carriere in his arms. He sup- orders for spring lines are heavy. Traported his load long enough for a cable vellers report the outlook for trade in to reach him, and both were hauled out, this connection very bright. Groceries It took the doctors half an hour to re- are moving well and the hardware trade suscitate Carriere at Notre Dame Hos- is profiting by the open weather. The pital. Francois went quietly to his marketing of grain continues brisk, although the outlet is limited. Collections continue to improve. Country retail trade is generally active.

Victoria and Vancouver-There is seasonably quiet tone to trade in all lines here although local retail business continues active. Collections are four and values of commodities generally hold steady to firm. Activity in real estate continues very active. A good market seems to be about to open here for the grain of the farming provinces of extreme western Canada, Hamilton.-There is still a quiet tone to the movement of wholesale lines but retail trade here and in the surrounding country is fairly active. Collections generally are good. Values of commodities hold firm. Country produce 15 now coming forward better although re ceipts in many lines are still light.

BUILDINGS WRECKED.

Over Fifty Pounds of Dynamite Explodes in Quenec.

Quebec, Dec. 4.-Over fifty pounds of esterday afternoon, the shock burling two nen through the air, injuring them only building along the south shore down as far as St. Joseph de Levis and as far west as St. Nicholas to quiver, and breaking many windows. St. Romauld Church especially was damaged, the window panes and lamps being smashed. The noise was heard in of the buildings near by.

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO

From the Island of Natural 40c Per P

Sealed Par CHARTCALDICALS CAC

RECEIPED AND A STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR "Til do it, M with great confi "How?" deman

"No matter, "Or a letter." "No, sir," sai "not a letterleft about or mis sage, sir; I'll gi never fear, Mas z"Right," said "right" meant v that I must see I will go or co to speak a won her, mind!" George nodde

"She shall ha yours, Master hour older; the else, sir-anyth from you, and "Yes; here, t with a sudden camelia from waistcoat. "10 George. "That's enoug a word from flash of the ey on Hal's arm "There's the co courtyard. No Go along with you're safe at leave the other stantly resumin manner, he to: tered off. Astounded at the unsuspecte ent for conspi to do as he the court-yard. "Perhaps be himself," he the

> But once me bitter disappo politeness, the with his court "I have had Lady Ferndale a message fron a sufferer fro a nervous head As he says Hal with the well, while lor he is obliged tesies. "My sister is he says. "I" The count

> him on the sp

him."

profuse to the actually slips so they go up room, whence of Maud and once in the of "I am intru tating at the almost shoves If anything

Before tive count is the c literally basis ner. Mrs. La room to rest tweed suit, tleman air. count, and passed has to the park "You'll in a hearty we the marquis up against u garden."

"Papa!" e) "Very mu You don't Ah, nothing the count-Jord?" he sa! Vane, wit ground, and the does, at graceful, and not shake h a stranger t "A fine Lambton. Melight. " Cout what bere's Mr. I