PERSONAL MENTION

Mr Cecil Gun came home this week on a visit to town relatives.

Mr H. H. Farr left for Stratford Wednesday on business.

Miss Mamie Hunter spent the week end visiting friends in M. Forest.

W. Caldwell attended his mother's funeral at Orangeville on Wednesday.

Rev Mr Colling was a guest of Mr and Mrs P. R. Smith, Palmerston, on Saturday.

Mr Jno. A. Black was under the doctor's care last week with an attack of bronchitis.

Mr Geo. Meikle returned Saturday after a visit to his brother-in-law's, Mr Grier, of Paisley.

Miss Davis, who has been the guest of relatives at the Middaugh House, returned to London Wednesday.

Miss Florence McLeay, of Watford, spent a week in town with her friend, Miss W. Park, and returned Tuesday.

Miss Cousins, who has spent a month with her sister, Mrs H. McCrae, returned to her home in Trowbridge Saturday.

Mr and Mrs D. Gilmour, (the latter was Miss Aggie Hunter) returned to their home in Normanby last week, after a wedding tour of a couple of months in the West.

Miss Drummond, of Palmerston, was a guest of her friend, Miss Rosalie Brooker Sunday and Monday, and rendered two fine solos at the English and Methodist churches on Sunday.

Mr Angus McKelvie, Mayor of New Liskeard, visited his parents here from Thursday to Monday last. He had been in Toronto getting some mining claims adjusted for a company of which he is a prominent member. They have been working in the Cobalt region, have "struck their vein," and have shipped two carloads of the stuff to New York, where only a smelter adapted to this mineral is found. The venture has been very profitable, and would be much more so were there facilities in Canada for its treatment. A recent issue of the Sunday world had a fine portrait of this successful son of South Grey. Mr McKelvie took home with him his niece Lucy, daughter of his brother David.

Obituary.

MRS. R. A. GRANT.

After months of delicate health the above lady passed away at her home in Toronto on Thursday last. Up to nearly the end, there was hope of a rally, that would ultimately restore to husband, family and friends, the loving wife, the fond mother, and affectionate daughter and sister, but it was otherwise willed.

As is well known she was the eldest daughter of the late J. H. Hunter, M. P. P. and was born in Durham about 37 years ago. The decision was arrived at to lay the remains beside those of her father, and with great appropriateness on arrival of Saturday p. m. train, the remains were taken for a short time to the Durham home where her youth was spent. Here Rev. Mr Farquharson conducted a service, Rev. Mr Bice being also present, after which the remains were viewed the last time, and the bearers took up their burden, amid the sorrowful presence of many citizens who gathered to pay the last tribute Mr Grant's father was present, (the well known writer "Knoxonian" in religious journals,) and five of his brothers. These last, with a son of Senator McMullen, of Mt Forest, (who was also present) acted as pallbearers. The floral offerings were very beautiful and very numerous.

Her brother, Mr H. A. Hunter, was the only member of her family present. James A. was home recently, and had returned to the West. The other brother Fred is in India. Two children of the union remain to comfort the father's heart and to him and the other mourners sincere sympathy is extended.

MRS. JNO. IRVING.

Mr Wm. Caldwell received the sad news Monday that his mother had died that morning, having succumbed to a stroke of paralysis after an illness of a few weeks. She was in her 74th year, and will be buried in Orangeville.

Mrs Irving was a daughter of Samuel Kidd one of the well known names of the early history of Egrement. About 50 years ago she was married to her first husband Mr Caldwell, and settled in Orchard, where were born to them five sons: Thos. and Harry, Dauphin, Man., William in Durham, Albert in Toronto and Chas. in Dundalk; one daughter is Mrs Wortz. By her second marriage she had one son and one daughter: Mr John Irving, Medicine Hat and Mrs T. F. Paul. Mrs L. Orchard of this town is her only remaining sister. She has resided in Orangeville for the past 20 years. The funeral takes place to-day Wednesday.

THE WORLD'S BEST GIFTS

At Half Price

When in Toronto last week we were offered the very special discount of 50% off a fine lot of Fancy Goods and Novelties which we gladly accepted. The wholesale men wanted the room and the cash, hence our good luck. However we are going to give you the full benefit. It just means a saving of 50 per cent to you and the goods are all new and up-to-date. We bought them from importers who do not carry stock hence they are all this year's importations. We cannot enumerate but would ask you to come and see for yourselves. We expect to have them ready by Saturday first. FIRST COME, FIRST CHOICE.

Christmas will soon be here

There are only 14 shopping days from now until Christmas—it is not too early to think of gifts. Many of the forehanded buyers are already making selections, thus securing the widest possible assortment from which to choose. Whether you want to buy now or not it is well to begin looking around and this will save you considerable worry later when you are ready to make your selections.

We give here a mere outline of our holiday lines each of which contains scores of desirable gifts. We hope that you can soon find time to inspect them carefully. We have gifts for every member of the family from youngest to oldest, and in justice to them as well as yourself we ask
