Commentary .- I. Great darkness (vs. word from the dark picture of chapter viii., 5-22, describing the woes from Assyrian predommance to the bright dawn and consummation of the Messianic era." Shall not be such-The darkness shall not be as great as it has been. There was a ray of encouragement for those who were ready to receive the prophet's words. Zebulun-Galilee was the land that principally suffered in the first Assyrian invasion.

11. The people....in darkness-The people of Judah. They were at this time under a two-fold darkness: 1. The darkness of outward trouble. See 2 Kings xv., 37; xvi., 4-8, 17; 2 Chronxxviii., 5-8. 2. They were in moral darkness. Ahaz had led the people into the most abominable practices in honor of the heathen divinities whose worship he had established in his king-

And not increased-See R. V. for correct rendering. They joy before thee-The Prophet notes it to be a religious | Hebraism for a burdensome yoke. It joy because it is said to be before God referred to the yoke of the Assyrian -that is, in his presence and with a captivity. The yoke is typical of sergrateful acknowledgement of his bene- vice and implies obedience to another

4. Thou hast broken the yoke-"The Assyrians, Chaldeans, Persians and Macedonians; but these deliverances were only a shadow of redemption from the voke of Satan; and that redemption seems here especially predicted as if and are heavy laden, under the other already accomplished." As in the day we find "rest" (Matt. xi. 28-30). "Satan of Midian-As Gideon with a handful of is a hard task-master," has been the tesmen conquered the hosts of Midian, so timony of many a man who has chafed Messiah, the "child" (v. 6), shall prove under his yoke. II. A vision of the Messiah (vs.6), 6. Unto us-The prophet spake of the predicted blessings as if already communicated. Angels say, "Unto you," of the world.-Scott, "In the far distance the prophet forsaw the Redeembe vested in Him." His name -a name stands for all that the man is and ahshis character, his principles and his property. Wonderful-Because his nature was buth human and divine, Whoever re fuses to believe in the supernatural must pause at the manger. He can go no farther. How Godhood and manhood could be knit together in the person of Christ is beyond us. But things incomprehensible are not incredible. All divine works are wonderful. There are marvels ough in a drop of water to bewilder th wisest.—Burrell. Counsellor—One has wisdom to guide himself and others Jesus was the embodiment of the wisdom of God. He was a Saviour, both God and man, a personal revelation of God's love, a perfect character and example. He is our Counsellor, never guiding us astray, but always by the best ways to the best ends. Mighty God-"God the might One. As He has wisdom. so He has strength; He is able to save to the uttermost; and such is the work of the Mediator that no less a power than that of the mighty God could accomplish it."-Com. Com. Everlasting Father -Expressing the divine love and pity for men, a love that can never fail for it is PET everlasting.
