Saugen Presbytery.

The Presbytery of Saugen met at Harrison on Tuesday, the Moderator, Rev W. G. Hanns, in the chair. There was a large attendance of both ministers and laymen, though sorrow and regret was felt at the absence of Rev Mr Morrison, who has always been so regular in his attendance and so much interested in the church's prosperity.

The report in Standing Orders was presented by Rev D. L. Campbell and after careful examination was adopted and ordered to be printed. A petition from Drayton, showing a healthy financial position was presented requesting that they get a minister to reside in their town to supply them with morning and evening sessions.

Rev Dr Somerville, of Owen Sound, was nominated as Moderator of next General Assembly. The treasurer's report showing a healthy financial condition was presented by Rev M. C. Cameron and Synod and Presbytery rolls for the year were struck. The paper by Rev Mr Barber on the "Doctrine of the Atonement" was crowded out by the pressure of business, but was given a place as the first order for the next meeting.

John Leith and Wm. Allan are at present engaged in cutting 30 curds of wood for Mr Bert Watson.

Miss Mary Bennett was the guest of Miss Nellie Wallace on Wednesday.

A quilting for the W. F. M. Society was held at Mr Robt. Morice's on Friday. There were about fifteen present and a very enjoyable time was spent.

Mr and Mrs Robt. Morice are visiting friends in Guelph this week, and taking in the Fat Stock Show.

Miss Edith Allan of Egremont was the guest of Normanby friends last week.

Harry Gadd is assisting Mr Alex Smith cutting wood.

Mr John Morice Sr. spent a couple of days last week with Mr Smith, of Hampden.

—Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman, "C. B." for short, has succeeded in forming a very strong Liberal government in succession to the late Balfour administration. It includes Herbert Gladstone, a son of the famous man; John Burns, the Labor leader; Lloyd-George, the leader of Welsh Nonconformists; Earl of Elgin, son of the Lord Elgin, famous in Canadian history; Earl of Aberdeen; Morley, the biographer of Gladstone; James Bryce, well known author; Earl of Crewe, son-in-law of Lord Rosebery, and other notables. The elections will likely be brought on soon. Only four members of the Government are in the House of Lords.
