HOI FOR DONALD MCGREGOR.—The I. O. Foresters have a concert on hand for 11 January next, at which the leading artists to be the popular Donald McGregor. Will White is the humorist of the occasion and a prominent lady soprano will be on hand. Particulars later of this great concert, 11th January

THE DEADLY WIRE.—EX-MAYOR Burns, of Palmerston, was instantly killed on Monday by a live wire touching a lantern he was hanging up in his stable. A new dynamo had just been installed and proved far too powerful as it had the town in a furore in a few minutes from blazing wires, etc.

FINGERS CRUSHED.—Mr Wm. Reid son of Mr W. K. Reid, came home from Guelph on Friday last, having met with an accident in the machine shop he worked in by which three of his fingers were badly crushed. He is getting along as well as could be expected, but he will be idle for some time.

MORE CONCERTS.—To-night, Thursday, the Methodist Sunday School have their Annual Concert in the Town Hall and the preparations being made are a guarantee that former successes will be equalled at least. One on Friday night in the Baptist church, the workers of that body have something good on hand. Popular prices.

Farmer's Institute Meeting.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the South Grey Farmer's Institute was held in the Middaugh House, on Saturday last, and made arrangements for the full series of winter meetings. Owing to the Town Hall being engaged for the night of Jan 11, the date of the Hanover meeting was changed to Jan 11, and the Durham meeting to the 12th and 13th. The delegates to Durham and Hanover are John Campbell, of Woodville, who will speak on 'How to double the production and income on the average farm,' 'Growing lambs for profit,' and in the evening, 'Farm life as it was and as it is likely to be' and John S. Pearce, London, whose subjects are 'What, when and how to plant,' 'Selection, care and cultivation of seeds,' 'Planting trees for ornament and timber' and the farmer's lawn and flower garden.

The Annual Seed Fair will be held in Durham on the second day. All exhibits are to be placed by eleven o'clock and only one bag to each exhibit. At the supplementary meetings at Ayton, Holstein, Dromore and Elmwood, W F Stephen, of Quebec, will speak on the 'Dairy Herd,' 'Stable manure and Fertilizers,' 'How to interest the boys and girls in farming' and making the best of farm life. Thos McMillan, Seaforth, who is one of the best men on the staff will give addresses on 'The beefing animal, how to grow and feed,' 'Encouragement of Canadian agriculture' and 'Life and its duty.' Committees were appointed to make arrangements for each meeting, and with favorable weather, no doubt the meetings will be a great success. Every farmer, especially the young men, should try and attend at least one of them.

Mr John McQueen, agent for the Massey-Harris Co., makes his bow to Review readers this week and talks cutters and sleighs chiefly. See his ad on page 4.

A WHOPPER.—Mr. C. L. Grant had a turkey displayed for a few days which weighed 28 1/2 lbs. It was only a year old and was raised by Mr. Adam Watson. Who can beat this? It was shipped to Montreal.

A MILD DECEMBER.—Here we are writing on the eve of the shortest day of the year, and the sleighing almost gone. Splendid wheeling though as long the frost holds out: Six inches of "the beautiful" would be very acceptable just now.

The visitors to Guelph Fat Stock Show last week all came home delighted and profited by what they saw and heard. It improves year by year and is by far the best of its kind in Canada.

Governor-General Earl Grey was more than delighted with the affair, and proved an interesting and interested visitor.

CONSERVATIVES IN SESSION.—A few days ago a gathering of some prominent local Conservatives was held in town. Rumors of deprecation of some officials are abroad, but these may not be reliable. In any case the spoils system has not been much in evidence here, and rightly so, where the work is being done by competent non-partizan men.

S. of S. officers for 1906, elected at last meeting are as follows: Chief, Wm Black; Chieflain, Jno H Hunter; Chaplain, C G McFayden; Rec Secy, R Torry; Fin. Secy, and Treas, C Rausage; Marshall, C McDougall; Standard Bearer, Geo MacKay; Senior Guard, Hugh MacKay; Junior Guard, John Henry Trustees—Geo Binnie, R Morice, Jas Staples, Piper, John Stewart.

L., No 632, at their meeting on Wednesday night elected the following officers for the ensuing year:—Master, Thos Stinson; Deputy Master, Wm Legate; Chaplain, Wesley Storey; Recording Secretary, W J Ritchie, Edge Hill; Financial Secretary John Edge; Treasurer, John Williams; Director of Ceremonies, John McDonald; Lecturer, John Swinbourne; Inside Tyler, Geo Moore; Outside Tyler, Sam Jacques; Committee—Hugh McKay, Ed Kiess, John Irwin; John Collier, Chas Ritchie.

We Are Late.

The preparation of the Financial Statement of the town, a very bulky affair, which has got to be out within a week, has kept the REVIEW a day late. We ask the indulgence of our readers who know we are seldom late.

"Dec. '05."

This date on your label means that the REVIEW is paid to the end of Dec 1905. We will be greatly obliged if all will make it DEC '05 this week or next as a great many have done already. Don't be last or even late. Renew to-day and have the little yellow label dated well ahead.

By Order
R. TORRY Chief, L. BUCHAN Secy

To all our thousands of REVIEW readers we extend hearty greetings on the eve of the season sacred to the memory of the Saviour of mankind. How even the shadow of this great day seems to warm up all that is best in Christian human nature! What family reunions it suggests and brings about! What memories of the past tinged with sadness or of mirth it recalls! What hopes and aspirations for the future it gives rise to! Long may its influence be felt on poor weak mortals, who all too readily forget the highest good, who too often are found, as Bunyan pictures it, grovelling with the muckrake instead of the crown. To one and all, a very Happy Christmas.
