Intended for last week. Mr Burk carried a small insurance. Mr Irvin Anderson returned home a few weeks ago feeling good and in top condition, and left his two sons Angus and Tom looking well, and doing well. Dornoch

This is New Year's Day. What a stimulus and inspiration this should be to each one of us. The first day of the New Year is a fitting time to change for the better in one's methods of living physically, morally and intellectually. The very name of "New Year" is in the mind of the average man or woman, intimately associated with the idea of reform of turning over a new leaf, of making resolution to do better than in the past. The word "new" is in itself significant. The point between the past and future, is, or should be, suggestive of some thought as to what that future is going to be. The great American poet has struck the key note for a happy new year when he says:—

Not enjoyment and not sorrow
Is our destined end or way.
But to act that each to-morrow
Finds us farther than to-day.

Mr and Mrs Wm Smith celebrated their golden wedding at the cottage on Monday last. Mrs Jas Grant and Mrs Wm Mills, of Manitoba, Rev J F and family, of Comber and Miss Alice, of Toronto, arrived last week and participated in the anniversary feast.

Dornoch is to have a "chopper" in the near future, under the competent supervision of Mr Dan McDonald. The enterprise should prove a financial success for the proprietor himself, and should also promote the industrial condition of the village.

At the annual meeting of Latona School on Wednesday last, Mr R M Dargavel was elected trustee. Excogitation and thoroughness, evidenced qualities in R M's make-up, will no doubt make him an exceptionally good trustee.

Mr John Johnston leaves this week to increase his stock of knowledge by spending a term at the Northern Business College, Owen Sound.

To say that the Xmas Tree Entertainment held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday last, was a success would be putting it too mildly 'twas an exceptionally brilliant affair. The night was an ideal one and the people came in such throngs that the commodious basement was soon filled to overflowing and so it was decided to move to the larger auditorium above and this was soon filled to its utmost capacity. The Williamstord choir was present and rendered several selections which were much appreciated. The children acquitted themselves with honor in their singing, drills and recitations. While the remainder of the program, consisting of solos, quartettes, recitations and speeches by the grown people was received with enthusiastic applause.

The unanimous opinion of all present that this was the best entertainment of its kind they had attended this season, and much praise is due those whose untiring energy and close application to details are largely responsible for its being such a successful affair. The proceeds of the evening approximated $28.00

No 3 correspondent seems to think that we were greatly troubled at the remark about the meeting in question. Not in the slightest. We are sure, though, that No 3 must experience stupendous trouble in finding items to constitute a budget for your valuable paper, when such commonplace childish trifles are sent to your office for publication.
