LOST RAIN COAT.—The party who was seen taking a raincoat from McClung's cutter at the Dornoch Christmas Tree on Dec. 28, is requested to return it at once, either to the proprietor or leave it at Mr. Hunt's store, Dornoch.

The Toronto Mail and Empire says of Donald C. MacGregor, the gifted baritone: "he proved decided favorite, his rich voice being heard to advantage in 'Aton Water,' 'Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes,' and other selections. —In the Town Hall, Jan. 11 with other stars. Plan at McFarlane's.

Jessie A. Horning thoroughly delighted her audience. She has a good stage appearance, clear voice, has good delivery, and wins her way right from the start into the hearts of an audience. Woodstock Express. At I. O. F. Concert in Town Hall, on 11th inst. Plan at McFarlane's.

WELL-DERIVED PROMOTION.—Mr. Henry Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, of town, has been an important employee of the Merchant's Bank, Neepawa, Man. for a short time. She was a daughter of the late Ezekiel Aldred, and leaves to mourn her departure, a sorrowing husband four children, one brother and two sisters, near here, Mr. Jno. Aldred, Mrs. J. W. Blith, Varnes and Mrs. H. Burnett, of town. Owing to snow blockades in the west, her oldest son failed to make connections to get here in time. Amid arduous tokens of respect, the burial took place Monday at Maplewood Cemetery, there being a large funeral cortege. The Review extends sympathy to the sorrowing.

The annual Christmas Tree and Entertainment of the Baptist Church, Sunday School was held on Monday evening of Dec. 22nd. Two beautiful trees symmetrical in form, tastefully decorated with gifts adorned the front of the church. An excellent program which consisted of several Christmas anthems by the choir, was executed by the Sunday School children. There were three exercises, —the Procession of the months, the night the Shepherds Watched and the Star Exercise, a number of recitations, songs and choruses all of which were most successfully rendered. Just preceding the distribution of the gifts, Miss Flora McDonald, who for a number of years has been the organist and treasurer of the Sunday School as well as teacher was presented with a beautiful gold ring and a morocco bound book of poems. Miss Kate McKinnon was also presented with a pretty toilet case by her class. Pastor Pineo and Superintendent gave short addresses, although the church was crowded the order throughout the entire evening was excellent and all went home feeling truly that "there's no time like December when Christmas comes again." ### Union Revival Services

In Holstein, arranged by the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches, will commence on Sunday, Jan 14th, in the Methodist Church and will be held alternatively in the two churches. The services will be conducted by Rev H D Kennedy, a noted evangelist, who was associated for a year with Moody, and who has also worked with Torrey and Alexander. Meetings at 7.30 each evening. Special music will be arranged and a far-reaching revival is looked for. Every man, woman and child within reach of Holstein is cordially invited.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.—The adjourned annual meeting of the Public Library will be held on the 18 inst. when the regular business will be transacted. Also the annual sale of the magazines will take place Thursday 18th inst.

Miss Horning literally brought down the house.—Ayr News. She will be at the I. O. F. Concert next Thursday in the Town Hall with Donald McGregor Will White and other stars. Tickets 25c and 50c. Plan at McFarlane's.

Week before last, the Hanover Post had a very fine photo of Mayor Mearns with a concise biography of his life and the work he has done for his town, in council and on School Board. He was this year returned by acclamation for the sixth time.

The town prayer meetings in the Baptist and Methodist Churches on Monday and Tuesday last were well attended—very much better than in former years. The interest is great and gratifying.

Wednesday in the Presbyterian Church, Thursday in Trinity Church, Friday again in the Baptist Church.

DEATH OF MRS VAN ALSTINE.—After a lingering illness, the above lady passed away at her residence in town last Thursday. The deceased has never been well for a few years back, and only last summer the family moved to town from Dakota in an effort to improve her health near her early home. She was a daughter of the late Ezekiel Aldred, and leaves to mourn her departure, a sorrowing husband four children, one brother and two sisters, near here, Mr. Jno. Aldred, Mrs. J. W. Blith, Varnes and Mrs. H. Burnett, of town. Owing to snow blockades in the west, her oldest son failed to make connections to get here in time. Amid arduous tokens of respect, the burial took place Monday at Maplewood Cemetery, there being a large funeral cortege. The Review extends sympathy to the sorrowing.

Town Council.

Last Monday the inaugural meeting of the new council took place and the necessary formalities were they got down to work at once. They give promise by the expeditious way they disposed of the business, to being a useful council, and though there will be some hard nuts to crack they will handle them.

The appointees are Assessor, C Elvidge $75; Caretaker, Jas Davidson $70; Constable, Jno Clark $100; Truant Officer, W J Adams, $5.00; Health Inspector, Hugh MacKay, $24; Medical Health Officer, Dr Hutton, $5. Pound Keeper—T Daniels, $5.00.

The council, in response to a delegation from the Public Library Board consisting of Inspector Campbell, John Graham and C Ramage, generously granted the usual $100. Accts for Clerk's salary, and C Ramage $11.00 for printing were passed.

The following are the Committees: first named being Chairman in each case. Finance—McFarlane, Moran, Cochrane. Fire and Light—Lenahan, Furneaux, Whelan. Bd. of Works—Whelan, Cochrane, Furneaux. Property—Moran, Lenahan, MacFarlane. Printing—McFarlane, Whelan, Furneaux. Relief—Hunter, Lenahan, Cochrane. Bd. of Health—Mayor Hunter, Gilbert McKechnie, Hugh Rose, Geo. Sparling. Court of Revision—Hunter, MacFarlane, Moran, Cochrane, Whelan.
