Bradstreet's Trade Review.

Montreal-All lines of wholesale trade ontinues quiet here. The hardware trade is quiet, with advances expected in build ing material, and firmness and great activity in metals. Groceries are quiet and most of the houses are just concluding stock-taking. Collections are generally fair, and in most instances the country paper falling due on the 4th inst. was well met. In some cases, however, there are complaints as to the large number of renewals which had to be granted. Later reports on the past year's business are on the whole, satisfactory.
