Rocky Saugeen.

A meeting was held last Tuesday at Rocky Saugeen church for the purpose of looking after the cemetery and appointing trustees, a matter which has been neglected for some time. Messrs Arch. McKechnie, John Smith and Duncan Clark were appointed trustees and it is likely there will be annual meetings and a more general interest taken in its welfare. A drain along both sides and at the back is under consideration.

Pleased to see Miss Carrie McKechnie home from Stratford, and in good health.

Glad to see a McKechnie once again on the Hugh McKechnie farm. Mr John W. McKechnie, of Durham, having bought out Mr Arnold Noble, whose sale takes place on the 6th of March.

Mr Jas Sharpe, of Rothwell, Man., visited at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs Wm. Vessie, Sr.

A number of young people from here spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Mr and Mrs David Watson's, Welbeck.

Glad to hear that Mr Will Newell is able to resume his duties at the Furniture factory, after being laid off for a week or so with a sore finger, which he had badly injured while at work there.

Mrs J. A. McDonald, and daughter, Mrs J. McGillivray, both of Westhope, N. Dak., visited friends in this burg last week.

Mr Albert Middleton had a wood-bce on Wednesday last, and managed to get quite a large pile of wood cut. In the evening a very pleasant time was spent by all present, the chief amusement being dancing.

On Friday last our young people were out driving in a single cutter and made their way to Durham. On their arrival in town, they were met by two young men, one of whom accompanied by one of the ladies in the load drove off with the horse and cutter leaving the rest behind. We dare say the couple in the cutter had a very enjoyable ride, while the party left behind were lamenting a 2 hours' and halt delay.

A Doctor's Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is not a simple cough syrup. It is a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. It cures hard cases, severe and desperate cases, chronic cases of asthma, pleurisy, bronchitis, consumption. Ask your doctor about this.

"The best kind of a testimonial—Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Sarsaparilla, Pills, Hair Vigor.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

You will hasten recovery by taking one of Ayer's Pills at bedtime.

Blythe's Corners

Intended for last week? On invitation of our Farmers association, Mr H. H. Miller, M. P. has signified his intention of being willing to come and explain his course in the last session, and also the course he intends to pursue this session. In a probability arrangement will be made to have Mr Miller with us about the 2nd of March or thereabouts, as he will have to leave for Ottawa on the 7th. Everyone cordially invited to attend and hear him.

Of course we'll "shake" seeing the error was entirely ours and for accusing the Editor falsely we are serving at hard labor, what in all likelihood will be a life sentence.

Part of an item in our last budget was written a good deal on the principal of "fiction" and for doing so we had a narrow escape of having "a fraction" on our nose for Sunday, but by a little tact skillfully applied, we got out, and have been singing songs of deliverance ever since.

Miss Mary Ann Stewart is home at the corners again, after spending a few months in the vicinity of Holstein.

Revival services are begun in Orchard Methodist church and will likely continue for a fortnight under the supervision of pastor Holmes.

We have boiled it down to a finish when we say that pastor D. L. Campbell's sermon in Knox church, Normanby, on Sunday, was the production of a Mastermind most effectively applied.

Several are croaking yet (now be careful Mr Editor) round the corners with the gripe.

The scarcity of snow on the roads this winter must suggest to the most careless pedestrian the great necessity of all pathmasters taking special pains to leave a good wide clean bottom ditch free of stones and obstacles. By doing so one can travel along with sleigh or cutter with a fair degree of satisfaction. We trust that a hint to the wise is sufficient.

With reference to Mrs Campbell's health in our last week's budget we wish to state we were in error in saying she had to undergo a serious operation as such is not the case. The fault was ours, we might have known better as the source of its origin was most untrustworthy.

The Late Rev. A. McDiarmid.

[The following account of the late Rev. Mr McDiarmid has been kindly sent us by Mr Robt. Mills, of Tilbury, formerly of Dornoch.—Ed.]

The Rev. A. McDiarmid, retired Presbyterian clergyman, who for the past eleven years, has lived in Windsor, passed away suddenly at his residence, Windsor, on Friday, Feb. 3.

The deceased was born in Scotland and was in his 78th year. He was ordained to the ministry in Canada nearly half a century ago. He was stationed at Wallaceburg for seven years, Amherstburg for four years, McMillan for the same period, Dornoch for nineteen years and Napier for three years.

For many years the stately ministerial almost military figure of the grand old man has been familiar to Windsor people and his kindly and courteous presence will be much missed. As a minister during his active service, his pulpit manner and matter were typical of the impressive dignity of the old school, free from sensation and the semisecular vanities that mar modern day sermonizing. He represented a clerical class that is fast passing away.

Besides the widow the deceased is survived by two sons, Dr George McDiarmid, of New Orleans, and Archibald a lawyer in Chicago, also two daughters, Miss Katie, of New York, Miss Jean, at home. He is also survived by a twin brother at Ottawa.

The funeral, which took place on Monday, Feb. 5, was largely attended. The Rev. J. C. Helmie, pastor of St Andrew's Church, Windsor, conducted the services and was ably assisted by several members of the Chatham presbytery and also the Rev. Masius Scott, of Detroit.

The Rev Dr J. Frazer Smith, of Dornoch congregation, and also a member for many years of Mr McDiarmid's Bible class was asked to deliver the address. The text chosen for the occasion was 2 Tim: 4: 7-8. "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."
