An Old Fight Recalled.

Mr Geo. Campbell, Pomona, noticing our excerpts from the Dundalk Guide of 29 year ago, sends us along with his sub, a relic from a Mt Forest paper 34 years old, in his possession. It is dated Jan. 11, 1872 and contains a record of a political contest, which may interest modern figures. The Lauder was a brother of our Registrar here, Abraham by name, and he and his opponent are both gone. South Grey at that time was comprised of eight townships, and Durham then, we presume, cast its lot with the two adjoining. Here is the list.

	Lauder	Dickey
Artemisia	283	150
Osprey	209	138
Melancton	168	00
Proton	122	116
Glenelg	235	194
Normanby	209	262
Egremont	148	308
Bentick	305	276
	1670	1519

Why He was not Promoted.

He watched the clock. He was always grumbling. He was always behindhand. He had no iron in his blood. He was willing, but unfitted. He didn't believe in himself. He asked too many questions. He was stung by a bad hook. His stock exchange was "I forgot." He wasn't ready for the next step. He didn't put his heart in his work. He learned nothing from his blunders. He felt that he was above his position. He chose his friends among his inferiors. He was content to be a second-rate man. He ruined his ability by half doing things. He never dared to act on his own judgment. He did not think it worth while to learn how. He tried to make "bluff" take the place of ability. He thought he must take amusement every evening. Familiarity with slipshod methods paralyzed his ideal. He thought he was clever to use coarse and profane language. He was ashamed of his parents because they were old-fashioned. He imitated the the habits of men who could stand more than he could. He did not learn that the best part of his salary was not in his pay-envelope.

Wives Wanted.

There is a grand opening for the Salvation Army to dispose of their first importation of marriageable English girls en bloc. Just about up to the Bruce and Huron and the west and north divisions of Middlesex, and unless there is something radically wrong up that way bachelor farmers should receive them with open arms and wedding rings. There are more bachelors and fewer children in Huron and Bruce Counties and the north and west of Middlesex than in any other district in old Ontario. It is the rather startling statement made by one of the Farmers' Institute lecturers in his report to Supt. Putman. Being a lecturer upon soil and sub-soil, and cattle and grain and other things of a material nature, he doesn't delve further in the peculiar situation presented by a superabundance of bachelors, and a marked dearth of children. He simply makes the plain, bald statement, and lets it go at that. Hon Nelson Monteith, the Minister of Agriculture, was rather astonished when the matter was brought to his attention, but Major Hugh Clark, M. P. P., for Centre Bruce feels his county's disgrace keenly. He was last seen in the library at the Legislature paddling around in a set of scientific works seeking for an explanation of the remissness of the sturdy settlers in the peninsula. The report continues that in one school section in Middlesex the schools had been closed because there was only one child of school age in the section. The lecturer says that a large number of farms in the same districts are devoted to grazing. The lack of farm labor was a serious obstacle to mixed farming, and a factor in the transformation of these farms into grazing lands. The houses and buildings in these farms were allowed to go to ruin, and the gardens and orchards ran wild.—Ex.

Bitter Tea Is Not Good Tea

People who don't like tea know only the kind that is just bitter, the lowland tea that has more tannin in the leaf than you can kill with any amount of sugar.

Grand Mogul is a Highland tea, grown on the mountains of Ceylon, up near the sun.

Balmy breezes and light soil produce the mellow flavor that makes Grand Mogul a distinctive product.

High in theine (tea-tone) and low in tannin (bitters) it appeals to the palate and tones up the nerves

Grand Mogul Tea

Sold only in packages lined with paper, never in poisonous lead. "Pings" premiums are simply a part of the advertising appropriation and do not detract from the quality of the tea. A coupon in every package.
