Ebordale

Our usually quiet, happy and peaceful neighborhood has had its full share of trouble, sickness and death, for the last year or so. The last couple of months appear to have heaped up trouble for us, and we can safely say that there is not a family in the district that has not had some sickness. Some we are thankful have got better again, and quite a few have gone to prove the realities of a better world. This was the case on Saturday, the 24 inst, when the Angel of Death claimed Mrs. Wm Jack as his own, released her bright and happy spirit from the pains and trials here, below, and allowed her to go up higher and be with Jesus.

Mrs Jack has been ill about a year and the sorrowing husband and friends have done all in their power to stop the ravages of disease but to no avail. Several doctors have tried their best to bring health back and sometimes it appeared that they would succeed, only to be worse again till finally she took to her bed a month or so ago, never to rise again in this world.

On the 17th of October, 1904, she was married to Mr Wm Jack and a more handsome, healthful, joyous and happy bride we never saw, but some few months after she caught a cold and settling on the lungs brought on the dreaded disease, consumption.

She was a daughter of the late Wm. Glencross so well known in this part; she was the youngest of the family and is survived by a brother, Mr Thos. Glencross, and a sister, Mrs Wm. Greenwood, Jr.

Being of a kindly and happy disposition she had many friends round here, and was well and favorably known over a wide district. She was a member of the Methodist church and an active worker in the Epworth League and other young people's societies. Had a splendid talent for music and many times has she sung solos and duets in our church and also at nearly all the concerts and gatherings of the neighborhood, one of her last efforts being a solo at our Sabbath School Concert on the 1st of July last which was exceptionally well rendered.

The whole community joins with Mr Jack in his sorrow, and loss of his bright partner and companion. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to him and other sorrowing friends. The service in church and at the grave was in charge of the Rev Thos Colling B. A., her pastor, who preached a most tender and touching sermon.

The grave was tastefully draped in white by the Leaguers, who also sent a beautiful wreath, as a token of love they bore for a departed sister.

A very large number of people gathered to pay respect at the funeral. The interment took place on Tuesday, the 27th at Zion cemetery.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Miss Mary Smith on the 21st of March. We do not know the particulars but believe she has been living in Proton for the last few years. She was born on the old homestead here, now owned by her brother, Mr. Thos Smith, our postmaster and mail-carrier, and we believe was residing with her brother, George Smith, Proton Tp., when she died. We join with the district in offering our sympathy to the bereaved friends, Mr Blair and Miss Annabel Blair went to the funeral.

Mrs J J Peart, has been very, very ill this last week but at time of writing is on a good way for recovery. Dr. Ego of Markdale is in attendance.

We are very pleased to report that more of our people that have had the Grippe are able to be around again, and we hope Mr Grippe will never come to Ebordale again.

Mr S S Jacques was a visitor at Lauriston for a couple of days last week. The occasion of his visit being the marriage of his cousin, Miss V Reynolds, to Mr Thos Campbell of Dornoch. We expect it will be Sam's own turn next. A straw will tell which way water flows.

Mr Edger Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Larkin of Detroit, Mr Ted Lee, Miss Louisa Reynolds, were visitors here for a couple of days last week and we believe they put a good time in.

Miss Mary Taylor is getting along well after the painful operation lately performed on her tonsils.

Wm Hewitt is now working with our miller at Traverston, and we hear they are making things hum in that burg.

The annual meeting of the Sabbath School will be held on Thursday evening, the 4th of April for the appointment of officers and teachers for the ensuing year. All interested are requested to be present and take part.

Last Sabbath our pastor, Rev Thos. Colling preached one of the best sermons we have heard for a long time. His topic was courtship and marriage and spoke chiefly on the ladies' side of the question. We could endorse all he said and hope he will give us a companion sermon taking the gentlemen's side, some time in the near future.

What might easily have been a serious accident happened one day last week at the home of Mr Jos. Nicholson. Mrs Nicholson lit the gasoline stove to prepare dinner and did not notice a small leak in the tank above. It did not take long for the fire to find it, however, and in a trice the stove was in flames which caught on the curtains not far away. Mr Nicholson seized the stove and carried it out and easily extinguished the curtains but his prompt action is probably all that averted a bad fire.—Palmerston Spectator.

The Taking Cold Habit

The old cold goes; a new one quickly comes. It's the story of a weak throat, weak lungs, a tendency to consumption. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral breaks up the taking-cold habit. It strengthens, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about it.
